Vinegar of Foreign materials 3 s. a Barrel.

Syder or Perry imported 4 l. a Tun.

Single Brandy imported 2 s. the Gallon.

Double Brandy imported 4 s. a Gallon.

Syder and Perry retail'd 1 s. 3 d. the Hogſhead.

Metheglin or Mead 3 d. the Gallon.

III. And Diſtiller.

III. And be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any Diſtiller or Maker of any Low Wines, ſhall at any time after the twentieth day of July one thouſand ſix hundred eighty nine, after an account hath been taken by the Gauger of the quantity of his Low Wines, ſell, diſpoſe of or remove the ſame, or any part thereof, without diſtilling or drawing it off a ſecond time, every ſuch Diſtiller or maker of Low Wines, for every Gallon ſo ſold, diſpoſed of or removed, ſhall forfeit the ſum of five ſhillings, to be levyed in manner as any penalties or forfeitures are levyable by any Act relating to the Revenue of Exciſe.

Exciſe how collected.

Cap. 29.

Cap. 11.

What ſhall be accounted a Barrel.

IV. And be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the ſeveral Rates and Duties of Exciſe hereby impoſed on the Liquors aforeſaid, ſhall be raiſed, levied, collected, recovered and paid unto their Majeſties and their Succeſſors during the time before mentioned, and in the ſame manner and form, and by ſuch rules, ways and means, and under ſuch penalties and forfeitures as are mentioned, expreſſed and directed in and by one Act of Parliament made in the twelfth year of the Reign of the late King Charles the Second, Entituled, An Act for taking away the Court of Wards and Liveries and Tenures in Capite, and by Knights Service and Purveyance, and for ſetling a Revenue upon his Majeſty in lieu thereof; And alſo in and by one other Act of Parliament made in the fifteenth year of his ſaid Majeſty's Reign, Entituled, An Additional Act for the better ordering and collecting the Duties of Exciſe, and preventing the Abuſes therein, or in either of them; Or by any other Law now in force, relating to the Revenue of Exciſe, not otherwiſe herein and hereby altered and provided againſt. And for the avoiding all uncertainty, and all differences and diſputes which of late have been between the Gaugers and the Brewers, Victuallers, Retailers and other perſons chargeable with the duties of Exciſe touching Beer and Ale, and touching the Returns or Charges made or to be made of Beer or Ale, by the Gaugers or Officers appointed to take account and aſcertain the ſame, Allowace for Leakage.

V. Be it enacted and declared by the authority aforeſaid, That every four and thirty Gallons of Beer or Ale, whether ſtrong or ſmall, brewed or made in any part of England, Wales or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, by any the perſon or perſons aforeſaid, other then within the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, taken by the Gauger according to the Standard of the Ale Quart, four whereof ſhall make the Gallon, remaining in the Cuſtody of the Chamberlain of their Majeſties Exchequer, ſhall be reckoned, accounted and returned by the Gauger or Gaugers, or other Officers aforeſaid, for a Barrel of Beer or Ale; And that the allowances appointed to be made and allowed to the Common Brewers, other then within the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and the Weekly Bills of Mortality aforeſaid, for Waſte by filling and leakage of their Beer and Ale, out of the ſaid Returns or Charges made by the ſaid Gaugers or other Officers aforeſaid, ſhall be two Barrels and an half upon every three and twenty Barrels of Beer or Ale, whether ſtrong or ſmall, and no more; any thing in the above mentioned Acts, or any other Act of Exciſe, or any Law or Uſage to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding; and that every Barrel of Beer and Ale made and brewed within the ſaid Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and within the Weekly Bills of Mortality aforeſaid, by any the perſons aforeſaid, ſhall be reckoned, accounted and returned as the ſame are reſpectively to be reckoned, accounted and returned by the former Acts of Exciſe; and that the Common Brewers within the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, ſhall have the like allowances for waſte by filling and leakage, out of the ſaid Gaugers Returns, as by the ſaid former Acts are directed.

Brewer chargeable with the quantity of Worts miſſing

VI. And whereas by the Laws relating to their Majeſties Revenue of Exciſe, It is enacted, That Gaugers have power to gauge all Coppers, Fats and Veſſels in any Brewhouſe, and all other places whatſoever belonging to, or uſed by any Brewer, Inn-keeper, Victualler or other Retailer of Beer or Ale, and to take an account of Beer, Ale and Worts from time to time brewed or made, and thereof to make Return and Report in Writing to the Commiſſioners and Subcommiſſioners of Exciſe, and ſuch Returns to be a Charge upon ſuch Brewers; Now for the preventing of Frauds and Diſputes which may happen or ariſe by the Gaugers making their Returns aforeſaid, Be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That where it ſhall appear to the Gauger or Gaugers that any Worts are miſſing, or not let fairly down into the Tun, and ſuch Gauger cannot find the ſame; in ſuch Caſe it ſhall be lawful for ſuch Gauger to charge ſuch Brewer, Victualler or other Retailer, with ſo much, Beer or Ale as ſuch Worts ſo miſſing would reaſonably make; And for the avoiding as much as may be all Diſputes, Gaugers may make returns upon warm Worts.

VII. Be it enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for all Gaugers to take their gauges, and make their Returns and Charges upon warm Worts in the Backs, Coolers or other Veſſels, and in ſuch Caſe ſhall make allowance to the Brewer, Inn-keeper, Victualler or other Retailer, of one tenth part thereof for Waſh and Waſte for all Worts ſo Returned and Charged; which Worts, nor any part of the ſame, are to be in any ſort afterwards charged with the payment of any Duty of Exciſe when brewed or made into Beer or Ale.

Ale-ſeller not ſuable for ſelling at a higher rate then formerly.

VIII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That no Inn-keeper, Victualler or other Retailer of Beer or Ale, ſhall at any time hereafter during the continuace of this Act, or of the additional Duties hereby impoſed, be ſued, impleaded or moleſted by Indictment, Information or Popular Action, or otherwiſe, for ſelling or uttering any Beer or Ale at any other or higher Prizes then the Prizes heretofore limited and appointed; any thing in this Act, or any other Law or Statute to the contrary notwithſtanding.

IX. And foraſmuch as it is found by Experience, that the payment of their Majeſties Duties on Strong Waters, Aqua vitæ, and Spirits, is much avoided and defrauded by the Diſtillers or makers of the Commodities aforeſaid, by reaſon that the Gaugers and Officers appointed to gauge and charge thoſe Liquors, are not duly admitted and permitted to enter and come into the Houſes, Diſtilling-houſes or Store-houſes, and other places belonging to, or uſed by ſuch Diſtillers or Makers of ſuch Strong Waters, Aqua vitæ and Spirits, and the penalties impoſed by the former Acts, are often avoided for ſuch denial or refuſal, becauſe proof cannot be made by the Informers or Officers of any Sale made of any their Commodities before the duty thereof is paid, Be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That from henceforth in caſe any Diſtiller or Maker of the Commodities aforeſaid, ſhall upon due requeſt or demand made by the Gauger or Officer in the day time or in the night time, in the preſence of a Conſtable, refuſe to permit ſuch Gaugers to enter and come into his or their Houſe, Diſtilling-houſe, Store-houſe, or other places belonging to, or uſed by ſuch Diſtillers or Makers of Strong Waters, Aqua vitæ or Spirits, the party and parties ſo offending, ſhall forfeit and incur the Forfeitures and Penalties by the ſaid former Acts impoſed and inflicted, to be recovered in manner as therein and thereby is directed; and the Informer or Proſecutor ſhall not be obliged to prove that ſuch Offenders ſold, carried or delivered out part of his Commodities aforeſaid, before he had paid or cleared the Duties due for the ſame; any thing in the ſaid former Act or any other Act or Statute to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Puniſhment upon Diſtiller refuſing Gauger to come into his Store-houſe, &c.

Sect. 6.

Sect. 7.

X. And whereas in and by the ſaid Act made in the fifteenth year of the Reign of the late King Charles the Second, It is amongſt other things therein provided or enacted in the words or to the effect following, (viz.) That no Common Brewer or Brewers ſhall be ſued or proſecuted for any Penalty or Forfeiture by him or them incurred, for or by reaſon of any Miſentry or ſhort Entry, if he or they ſhall within one Week after the delivery of the Copy of the Gaugers Return made on him, certifie his or their Entry made for the Week for which ſuch Copy of the Return is delivered according to ſuch Return for each reſpective Charge or Brewing, or otherwiſe diſcharging himſelf, Be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That no Brewer or Brewers ſhall from henceforth have or claim any benefit by the ſaid Proviſo, on any Information to be brought againſt him or them for Non-Entry, wilful falſe Entry, or Non-payment, If it ſhall appear by the Evidence given, that ſuch Brewer ſo ſued for Non-Entry or ſhort or falſe Entry, or Non-payment, did not (bona fide) ſhew to the Gauger or Gangers appointed to take account of the Beer or Ale by them brewed, all the Beer, Ale and Worts of each reſpective Guile for ſuch time for which ſuch Copy of the Return was made or given; Or if any apparent Fraud was acted or made to defraud their Majeſties of their Duty for any part of the Drink brewed in the time for which ſuch Copy of the Return is made or given by the Gauger, in ſuch caſe, ſuch Brewer ſhall incur all the Penalties and Forfeitures by the former Acts provided or inflicted; The ſaid Proviſo or any thing in any Acts or Statute relating to the Exciſe, in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Brewer not diſcharged from miſentry except he ſhew'd an account of the Beer, &c. at the time of the Return.

XI. And for avoiding ſome Doubts that have ariſen, It is hereby declared and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That every Common Brewer, Innkeeper, Victualler or Retailer of Beer or Ale, who contrary to the ſaid Act made in the ſaid fifteenth year of the Reign of the late King Charles the Second, ſhall make uſe of any private or concealed Store-houſe, Cellar or place for the laying of any Beer or Ale, or Worts in Caſk, ſhall forfeit the Sum of fifty pounds for every ſuch Offence; And every ſuch Brewer, Inkeeper, Victualler or Retailer, who contrary to the ſaid Act made as aforeſaid, ſhall mix, conceal or convey away any Worts, ſhall forfeit twenty ſhillings for every Barrel of Worts by him or them ſo mingled, concealed or conveyed away contrary to the ſaid Act; And the Commiſſioners of Exciſe, and Juſtices of the Peace, and all others authorized to hear and determine Forfeitures and Offences againſt the Laws relating to the Exciſe reſpectively, on Complaints or Informations brought for theſe Offences, or either of them, and duly proved before them, are hereby authorized to give Judgment or Sentence for the reſpective Forfeitures accordingly, any Omiſſion, or not repeating of the ſaid Offences, or either of them, in and by the ſaid Act notwithſtanding. And to the end Common Brewers and other perſons paying the Duty of Exciſe, may not be overcharged, Puniſhment for concealing Worts.

XII. It is hereby declared and enacted, That true Notes in Writing, of the laſt Gaugers made or taken by the ſaid Gaugers, ſhall be left by them with all Brewers, Makers or Retailers of Beer, Ale, or other exciſable Liquors reſpectively, or ſome of their Servants, at the times of their taking their ſaid Gauges, containing the quantity and quality of the Liquors ſo gauged, upon penalty of forty ſhillings for every Offence or Neglect of the ſaid Gauger or Gaugers.

Gaugers to leave Notes of their Gauges.

XIII. And it is hereby enacted, That the Commiſſioners of Exciſe or Appeals, or Juſtices of Peace within whoſe Juriſdiction reſpectively any ſuch Brewer, Maker or Retailer ſhall inhabit or dwell, upon Complaint to them made by or on the behalf of ſuch Brewers, Makers or Retailers, of any Over-charge returned upon them by any of the ſaid Gaugers, ſhall, and are required to hear and determine all ſuch Complaints, and examine the Witneſſes upon Oath, which ſhall be produced as well on the behalf of the party making ſuch Complaint, as on the behalf of all and every other party and parties (which Oath they have hereby power to adminiſter) and thereupon, or by other due proof, to diſcharge or acquit ſuch Brewer, Maker or Retailer of ſo much of his and their reſpective Charges, as ſhall be ſo made out before them; any thing in this or in any former Law or Statute to the contrary notwithſtanding.

By whom and how Complaints of Overcharge may be determined.

XIV. And whereas there is but one Market-Town in the County of Angleſey, by reaſon of which the Inhabitants of ſome parts of the ſaid County are put to extraordinary trouble and expence to make their Entries and Payments, being four and twenty miles diſtant from the ſaid Market-Town, Be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That for the eaſe of the ſaid Inhabitants living remote from the ſaid Market-Town there ſhall be Offices kept for the making Entries and Payments in the ſeveral Towns of Holyhead, Newborough and Llanerchthmeth, as well as in the Town of Beaumaris where only the ſaid Office has been accuſtomed to be kept.

Officers for Angleſey.

XV. And

Puniſhment of Commiſſioner of Exciſe for taking mony of any perſon but the King.

XV. And whereas ſeveral Collectors, Surveyors, Gaugers, and other perſons imployed about collecting, ſurveying or gauging the Duty of Exciſe have been forced to pay ſeveral ſums of mony to the Commiſſioners of Exciſe, or their Regiſters or Clerks under pretence that the ſame is for writing, ſigning and ſealing Inſtructions, or Orders for every ſuch Officer to execute his place, which muſt cauſe ſuch Officer to reimburſe himſelf upon the People, by one means or other; For prevention whereof, Be it enacted, That no Commiſſioner or other perſon imployed about the Duty of Exciſe ſhall demand, take or receive any ſum of mony or other reward whatſoever from any perſon, other then their Majeſties, upon pain of forfeiting his or their Office, upon proof thereof by two or more credible Witneſſes before any two of their Majeſties Juſtices of the Peace, ſo as every ſuch perſon ſo offending is hereby made uncapable of executing any Office in their Majeſties Revenue of Exciſe for the future.

Information of Brewer, &c. to be within three months after offence, and notice within a week after Information.

XVI. Provided alſo, That no Information ſhall be brought, laid or proſecuted againſt any Common Brewer or Brewers or Alehouſe-keeper, for any falſe or miſentry, or Offence made or committed from and after the four and twentieth day of July one thouſand ſix hundred eighty and nine, unleſs the ſame Information or Informations be laid and entred before ſuch perſons appointed to determine the ſame, within three months next after every ſuch Offence committed; and that notice thereof be given to ſuch perſon or perſons (againſt whom ſuch Information ſhall be laid) in writing, or left at their Dwelling Houſes, within one Week after the laying and entring ſuch Information, to the end a timely proviſion may be had and made in defending the ſame; any thing in this Act, or other Law to the contrary notwithſtanding.

100 l. Penalty for uſing Moloſſus in Brewing.

XVII. And be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That from and after the firſt of September one thouſand ſix hundred eighty nine, no Common Brewer, or Retailer of Beer or Ale, ſhall uſe in the brewing or working of any Beer or Ale any Moloſſus, Courſe Sugar, Hony, or Compoſition or Extract of Sugar, upon the penalty of the Forfeiture for every ſuch Offence, of all ſuch Liquors wherein any Moloſſus or Courſe Sugar, Hony, or ſuch Compoſition or Extract ſhall be put, and alſo of the Sum of one hundred pounds, one moiety of all the ſaid Forfeitures to be to their Majeſties, the other moiety to the Informer, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information in any of their Majeſties Courts of Record, wherein no Eſſoyn, Wager of Law, or any more then one Imparlance ſhall be allowed, ſo as ſuch Suit be commenced within ſix months after ſuch Forfeiture incurred.

Exporter of Corn from Berwick to have the advantage of the Act of exporting Corn except it be Scotch Corn.

XVIII. And be it farther enacted, That when Mault or Barley of Engliſh Growth Wincheſter Meaſure, ſhall be at four and twenty ſhillings by the Quarter or under; Rye of Engliſh Growth, at two and thirty ſhillings by the Quarter, or under; and Wheat of Engliſh Growth, at eight and forty ſhillings by the Quarter, or under, in the Town or Port of Berwick upon Tweed, every Merchant or other perſon, who ſhall put on Shipboard in Engliſh Shipping, the Maſter and two thirds of his Mariners at leaſt being their Majeſties Subjects, any ſorts of the Corn aforeſaid, from the ſaid Port or Town of Berwick, with intent to export the ſaid Corn to parts beyond the Seas, and ſhall purſue all and every the Methods and Things preſcribed and appointed in that behalf, in and by an Act made in this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, Entituled, An Act for Encouraging the Exportation of Corn, ſhall have the benefit and advantage of the ſaid Act, and of every thing therein contained, as fully to all intents and purpoſes, as if the ſaid Corn had been put on Shipboard from any Port or Ports of this Kingdom or Dominion of Wales.

XIX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Merchant or other perſon whatſoever ſhall put on Shipboard any Corn, of the growth of Scotland, out of the ſaid Port of Berwick upon Tweed, That all ſuch Corn ſhall be forfeited (that is to ſay) one third part to their Majeſties, one other third part to the Informer, and the other third part to the Poor of the ſaid Town of Berwick.

CAP. XXV.

An Act to Regulate the Adminiſtration of the Oaths required to be taken by Commiſſion or Warrant Officers Employed in their Majeſties Service by Land, by Virtue of an Act made this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, Entituled, An Act for the Abrogating of the Oaths of Supremacy and Allegiance, and appointing other Oaths.

Preamble.

Whereas by an Act made this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, Entituled, An Act for the Abrogating of the Oaths of Supremacy and Allegiance, and appointing other Oaths, all perſons that ſhall hereafter be put into any Military Employment, ſhall be obliged to take the Oaths, and make and ſubſcribe the Declaration therein mentioned, before ſuch perſon as ſhall iſſue the Commiſſion or Warrant for ſuch Employment; And whereas their Majeſties Service does require the Regiments and Troops of Soldiers to march, and be at great diſtances from London, and upon any Vacancy of any ſuch Military Employment by death or otherwiſe, 'tis neceſſary to fill up ſuch Vacancies, by granting new Commiſſions for perſons that may be at a great diſtance from London, ſo as their Majeſties Service will not permit them to repair to London to take the ſaid Oaths, and make the ſaid Declaration as aforeſaid:

Commiſſion Officers twenty miles from London how to take the Oaths.

II. Be it enacted by the King and Queen's moſt excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That if any Commiſſion for ſuch Military Employment, ſhall hereafter be granted to any perſon at any diſtance from London exceeding twenty miles, that ſuch perſon ſhall and may take the ſaid Oaths, and make and ſubſcribe the ſaid Declaration at the next Muſter, after the receipt of the ſaid Commiſſion before the Commiſſary of the Muſters or his Deputy, who is hereby authorized to tender, adminiſter and take the ſame, and are hereby required to ſend up a Certificate thereof under his Hand and Seal, to the perſon who iſſued ſuch Commiſſion; any thing in the aforeſaid Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Penalty.

III. And in caſe ſuch perſon who ſhall receive ſuch Commiſſion, ſhall refuſe to take the ſaid Oaths, and ſubſcribe the ſaid Declaration as aforeſaid, ſuch perſon ſhall not be allowed upon the Muſters, but his Commiſſion ſhall be void to all intents and purpoſes whatſoever.

Militia ſaved.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend to the Militia or Trained Bands of England.

CAP. XXVI.

An Act to veſt in the two Univerſities the Preſentations of Benefices belonging to Papiſts.

Preamble.
3 Jac. 1. 5.

WHereas in and by a certain Clauſe mentioned in one Act of Parliament made in the third year of the Reign of King James the Firſt, Entituled, An Act to prevent and avoid Dangers which may grow by Popiſh Recuſants, It is enacted, That every perſon or perſons that is or ſhall be a Popiſh Recuſant Convict, during the time that he ſhall be or remain a Recuſant, ſhall from and after the end of that preſent Seſſion of Parliament, be utterly diſabled to preſent to any Benefice with Cure or without Cure, Prebend or any other Eccleſiaſtical Living, or to collate or nominate to any Free School, Hoſpital, or Donative whatſoever, and from the beginning of the ſaid Parliament ſhall likewiſe be diſabled to grant any avoidance to any Benefice, Prebend or other Eccleſiaſtical Living.

Perſons refuſing Declaration diſabled to preſent, &c.
Cap. 15.
Univerſities ſhall preſent, &c.

II. Be it enacted by the King and Queen's moſt excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, That every perſon who ſhall refuſe or neglect to make, repeat and ſubſcribe the Declaration mentioned in one Act of this preſent Parliament, Entituled, An Act for the better Securing the Government by diſarming Papiſts and Reputed Papiſts, when the ſame ſhall be tendred to ſuch perſon by any two or more Juſtices of the Peace, as in the ſaid Act is enacted, or who ſhall upon notice given, as in the ſaid Act is directed, refuſe or forbear to appear before them for the making, repeating and ſubſcribing thereof, and ſhall thereupon have his Name, Sirname and uſual place of aboad certified and recorded at the general Quarter Seſſions to be holden for the Shire, Riding, Diviſion or Liberty for which ſuch two Juſtices ſhall be Juſtices of the Peace by the Clerk of the Peace, or Town Clerk, as in the ſaid Act is appointed; Every ſuch perſon ſo recorded, ſhall be from and after the time of ſuch Record made, adjudged, taken and eſteemed, diſabled to make ſuch Preſentation, Collation, Nomination, Donation or Grant of any avoidance of any Benefice, Prebend or Eccleſiaſtical Living, as fully and amply as if ſuch perſon were a Popiſh Recuſant Convict by the Laws or Statutes of this Realm; any Law, Statute or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding. And that the Chancellor and Scholars of the Univerſity of Oxford, and the Chancellor and Scholars of the Univerſity of Cambridge, by what Name or Names ſoever they or either of them are incorporated, ſhall reſpectively have the Preſentation, Nomination, Collation and Donation of and to every ſuch Benefice, Prebend or Eccleſiaſtical Living, School, Hoſpital and Donative ſet, lying and being in the reſpective Counties, Cities and other the Places and Limits in the ſaid Act of the third of King James mentioned, as in and by the ſaid Act is directed and appointed, ſo often as any of them ſhall become void, according to the Limitations, Directions and Proviſions in that behalf limited, enacted and provided.

Truſtees diſabled.

III. And be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That where any perſon or perſons are or ſhall be ſeized or poſſeſſed of any Advowſon, Right of Preſentation, Collation or Nomination to any ſuch Eccleſiaſtical Living, Free-School, or Hoſpital, as aforeſaid, in Truſt for any Papiſt or Popiſh Recuſant, who ſhall be convicted or diſabled, according to the true intent and meaning of the ſaid Statute, made in the third year of the Reign of the ſaid King James the Firſt, or by this preſent Act, Every ſuch perſon and perſons ſo ſeized and poſſeſſed in Truſt for any Papiſt or Popiſh Recuſant convict or diſabled, ſhall be and are hereby adjudged to be diſabled to preſent, nominate or collate to any ſuch Eccleſiaſtical Living, Free-School, or Hoſpital, or to grant any Avoidance thereof, and their and every of their Preſentations, Nominations, Collations and Grants, ſhall be null and void to all intents and purpoſes whatſoever; And the Chancellors and Scholars of the ſaid reſpective Univerſities, as aforeſaid, upon every Avoidance, ſhall have the Preſentations, Nominations and Collations to ſuch Eccleſiaſtical Livings, Free-Schools and Hoſpitals, in ſuch manner as they ſhould have the ſame, in caſe ſuch Recuſant convict or diſabled were ſeized or poſſeſſed thereof;

Penalty upon Truſtees preſenting without notice.

IV. And in caſe any Truſtee or Truſtees, or Mortgagee or Grantee of any Avoidance, hereafter preſent, nominate or collate, or cauſe to be preſented, nominated or collated any perſon to any ſuch Eccleſiaſtical Living, Free-School or Hoſpital, whereof the Truſt ſhall be for any Recuſant convict or diſabled, without giving notice of the Avoidance in Writing to the Vice-Chancellor for the time being of the Univerſity, to whom the Preſentation, Nomination or Collation ſhall belong, according to the true intent of this Act, within three months after the Avoidance ſhall happen, ſuch Truſtee or Truſtees, Mortgagees or Grantees, ſhall forfeit and pay the ſum of five hundred pounds to the ſaid reſpective Chancellors and Scholars of either of the ſaid Univerſities, to whom ſuch Preſentation, Nomination or Collation ſhall belong, according to the true intent of this preſent Act, to be recovered in any of their Majeſties Courts of Record, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, wherein no Eſſoign, Protection or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed.

V. Provided

Preſentation of perſon beneficed, void.

V. Provided always, That the ſaid Chancellors and Scholars of either of the ſaid Univerſities, ſhall not preſent or nominate to any Benefice with Cure, Prebend or other Eccleſiaſtical Living, any perſon as ſhall then have any other Benefice with Cure of Souls; And if any ſuch Preſentation ſhall be had or made of any ſuch perſon ſo beneficed, the ſaid Preſentation ſhall be utterly void; any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

What abſence makes Living void.

VI. Provided, That if any perſon ſo preſented or nominated to any Benefice with Cure, ſhall be abſent from the ſame above the ſpace of ſixty days in any one year, that in ſuch Caſe the ſaid Benefice ſhall become void.

Taking the Oaths purges the Diſability.

Cap. 8.

VII. Provided nevertheleſs, That if any ſuch perſon ſhall preſent himſelf before the Juſtices of the Peace at the general Quarter Seſſions to be holden for the County, Riding, Diviſion or Liberty where his Name was recorded, and ſhall there in open Court make, repeat and ſubſcribe the ſaid Declaration, and take the ſeveral Oaths contained in one Act of this preſent Parliament, Entituled, An Act for the Abrogating of the Oaths of Supremacy and Allegiance, and appointing other Oaths, he ſhall from thenceforth be diſcharged of and from the ſaid Diſability, and be enabled to make ſuch Preſentation, Collation, Nomination and Donation, and Grant of any Avoidance to any Benefice, Prebend or Eccleſiaſtical Living, School or Hoſpital, as if this Act had not been made.

CAP. XXVII.

An Act for taking away the Court holden before the Preſident and Council of the Marches of Wales.

Preamble. 34 & 35 H. 8. cap. 26.

WHereas by the Statute made in the thirty fourth and thirty fifth year of King Henry the Eighth, Entituled, An Act for certain Ordinances in the Kings Majeſty's Dominion and Principality of Wales, It is enacted, That there ſhall be and remain a Preſident and Council in the ſaid Dominion and Principality of Wales, and the Marches of the ſame, with all Officers, Clerks and Incidents to the ſame, in manner and form as hath been heretofore uſed and accuſtomed; which Preſident and Council ſhall have power and authority to hear and determine by their wiſdoms and diſcretions, ſuch Cauſes and Matters as be, or hereafter ſhall be aſſigned to them by the King's Majeſty, as heretofore hath been accuſtomed and uſed; And foraſmuch as the Proceedings and Decrees of that Court have by Experience been found to be an intolerable burthen to the Subject within the ſaid Principality, contrary to the great Charter, the known Laws of the Land, and the Birthright of the Subject, and the means to introduce an Arbitrary Power and Government; And foraſmuch as all Matters examinable or determinable or pretended to be examinable or determinable before the ſaid Court of Preſident and Council, may have their proper Redreſs in the ordinary courſe of Juſtice provided and ſettled in the ſeveral Shires within the ſaid Principality and Dominion; For remedy whereof,

The Court of Marches taken away.

II. Be it enacted by the King and Queen's moſt excellent Majeſties, and by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That the before recited Clauſe in the ſaid Statute made in the thirty fourth and thirty fifth year of King Henry the Eighth, ſhall be, and is hereby repealed. And that the ſaid Court, commonly called the Court before the Preſident and Council in the Marches of Wales, and all Juriſdiction, Power and Authority belonging unto, or exerciſed in the ſame Court, or by any the Judges, Officers or Miniſters thereof, be clearly and abſolutely diſſolved, taken away and determined.

Sheriffs in Wales how choſen.

III. And be it hereby farther enacted, by the authority aforeſaid, That the Juſtices of the great Seſſions in Wales reſpectively for the time being, ſhall yearly nominate three ſubſtantial perſons for each Shire in their reſpective Circuits, to be Sheriffs of the ſame and ſhall certifie their Names to the Lords of the moſt honourable Privy Council Craſtino Animarum, to the intent the King and Queen's Majeſties, and the Survivor of them, and their Succeſſors being thereof advertiſed, may appoint one of the perſons ſo certified in every of the ſaid Shires, to be Sheriff for that year.

Errors in Pleas perſonal

IV. And be it farther enacted, That all Errors in Pleas perſonal within the ſaid Principality or Dominion of Wales, ſhall be redreſſed by Writ of Error in the ſame manner as Errors in Pleas real and mixed are appointed to be redreſſed by the ſaid Statute made in the thirty fourth and thirty fifth year of King Henry the Eighth.

Commencement of the Act.

V. Provided always, That no Judgments nor Decrees paſſed in the ſaid Court before the firſt day of June one thouſand ſix hundred eighty nine, ſhall be by this Act repealed or annulled, but all and every of them ſhall remain in the ſame force, and all Executions upon them, in the ſame State in which they were before the making of this Act; any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

CAP. XXIX.

An Act for Relief of the Proteſtant Iriſh Clergy.

The Promotion of an Iriſh Clergy-man in England ſhall not prejudice him in Ireland.

THE King and Queen, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in Parliament aſſembled, do hereby enact; And be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That no Eccleſiaſtical perſon, of what dignity or degree ſoever, promoted or beneficed in the Kingdom of Ireland, and who hath been enforced to forſake the ſaid Kingdom, or hath ſo done for fear of the Iriſh Rebels, and being of the Proteſtant Religion, who are or ſhall be preſented, promoted, collated, inſtituted or inducted to any Church or Benefice with Cure, or without Cure, or to any Eccleſiaſtical Promotion whatſoever in the Kingdom of England, ſhall thereby, or by acceptance thereof loſe any Eccleſiaſtical Benefice or Promotion in the ſaid Kingdom of Ireland; but that he, and every of them, be continued and enabled ſtill to hold and enjoy his Benefice and Promotion in the ſaid Kingdom of Ireland, of what Dignity or Degree ſoever the ſame was; any Law, Statute or Canon notwithſtanding. This Statute to be in force till that ſuch perſon preferred in England, may and ſhall be reſtored to ſuch his Promotion or Benefice in Ireland, ſo as he may take and enjoy the ſame as before the time of the Troubles he might have done.

The Continuance of the Act.

II. Provided always, and be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any ſuch Eccleſiaſtical perſon or perſons ſo preſented, promoted or collated, or to be preſented, promoted or collated to any Benefice or other Eccleſiaſtical Preferment or Dignity within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, ſhall not within three Calendar Months after the Courts of Juſtice of Ireland ſhall be open and furniſhed with Proteſtant Judges, ſo as he may enjoy his or their Benefices, Eccleſiaſtical Promotions or Dignities there, reſign all ſuch Benefices, or other Eccleſiaſtical Preferments to which he ſhall be preſented, collated or promoted, within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed as aforeſaid, into the hands of the Ordinary, who is hereby required to accept of the ſame, and thereof to give notice to the reſpective Patrons for the time being, to the intent ſuch Patron for the time being, may preſent or collate de Novo, That then the ſame ſhall be void to all intents and purpoſes whatſoever; and in ſuch caſe the Patron for the time being, ſhall and may, if he think fit, preſent or collate again.

How he muſt make his Claim in Ireland.

III. And be it alſo enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That ſuch Eccleſiaſtical perſon or perſons ſo preſented, collated or promoted to any Benefice, or other Eccleſiaſtical Dignity or Promotion within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, as aforeſaid, ſhall be exempted from all manner of Firſt-fruits and Tenths which may become due; any Law or Statute to the contray notwithſtanding.

Exemption from Firſt-fruits.

C A P. XXX.

An Act to Repeal the Statute made in the fifth year of King Henry the Fourth, againſt the Multiplying Gold and Silver.

Whereas by a Statute made and enacted in the Parliament held in the fifth year of the Reign of King Henry the Fourth, late King of England, It was amongſt other things enacted in theſe Words, or to this Effect, namely; That none from thenceforth ſhould uſe to multiply Gold or Silver, or uſe the Craft of Multiplication; and if any the ſame do, they ſhould incur the Pain of Felony: And whereas ſince the making of the ſaid Statute, divers perſons have by their Study, Induſtry and Learning arrived to great Skill and Perfection in the Art of Melting and Refining of Metals, and otherwiſe improving them and their Ores (which very much abound within this Realm) and extracting Gold and Silver out of the ſame; but dare not exerciſe their ſaid Skill within this Realm, for fear of falling under the Penalty of the ſaid Statute, but exerciſe the ſaid Art in Foreign parts to the great Loſs and Detriment of this Realm.

Preamble.

II. Be it therefore enacted by the King and Queen's moſt excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, That from henceforth the aforeſaid Branch, Article or Sentence contained in the ſaid Act, and every Word, Matter and Thing contained in the ſaid Branch or Sentence, ſhall be repealed, annulled, revoked, and for ever made void; any thing in the ſaid Act to the contrary in any wiſe whatſoever notwithſtanding.

5 H. 4. cap. 2, 4. repealed.

III Provided always, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all the Gold and Silver that ſhall be extracted by the aforeſaid Art of Melting and Refining of Metals, and otherwiſe improving of them and their Ores as before ſet forth, be from henceforth employed for no other Uſe or Uſes whatſoever, but for the Increaſe of Monies; and that the place hereby appointed for the Diſpoſal thereof, ſhall be their Majeſties Mint within the Tower of London; at which place they are to receive the full and true value for their Gold and Silver ſo extracted from time to time, according to the Aſſay and Fineneſs thereof; and ſo for any greater or leſſer weight: And that none of that Metal of Gold and Silver ſo refined and extracted, be permitted to be uſed or diſpoſed in any other place or places within their Majeſties Kingdoms and Dominions.

Conditions of Repeal.

IV. Provided alſo, and be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That no Mine of Copper, Tin, Iron or Lead, ſhall hereafter be adjudged, reputed or taken to be a Royal Mine, although Gold or Silver may be extracted out of the ſame. Vide 5 W. & M. Cap. 6.

Royal Mine.

C A P. XXXI.

An Additional Act for the Appointing Commiſſioners for the Executing an Act of this preſent Parliament, Entituled, An Act for a Grant to their Majeſties, of an Aid of Twelve Pence in the Pound for One Year, for the neceſſary Defence of their Realms. Exp.

CAP. XXXII.

An Act for the better preventing the Exportation of Wool, and Encouraging the Woollen Manufactures of this Kingdom; continued by 4 & 5 W. & M. Cap. 24. Sect. 10. (except what relates to free Importation of Woollen Manufacture) for three years, with Proviſo that no Wool ſhall be imported from Ireland to Exeter.

Preamble.

WHereas through the Remiſneſs and Negligence of Officers and others in not putting the Laws in Execution againſt the Exportation of Wool, Wool-fells, Mortlings, Shorlings, Yarn made of Wool, Wool-flocks, Fullers-Earth, Fulling-Clay, and Tobacco-Pipe Clay; And alſo by reaſon of the doubtfulneſs of ſome Expreſſions in the Statute made in the twelfth year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, divers great quantities of Wool and other the things above mentioned, have been exported out of the Kingdoms of England and Ireland into France, and other parts beyond the Seas, which if not prevented for the future will tend to the utter Ruine and Undoing of many thouſands of their Majeſties Subjects, and the great Diminution of the Trade of this Kingdom; For preventing whereof, and for the better explanation and execution of the Laws made againſt the ſaid Exportation; and for the preventing Frauds generally practiſed to avoid the Penalties therein mentioned,

Wool carried to the Sea-Coaſts to be entred.

Penalty.

II. Be it enacted by the King and Queen's moſt excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That all and every Owner of Wool, or their Agent or Agents, that ſhall at any time carry or cauſe to be carried any Wool to any Port or place on the Sea Coaſts, with an intention to convey the ſame to any other Port or place on the Sea Coaſts within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or from the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, from whence the ſame may be ſhipped off, or otherwiſe tranſported, conveyed or carried into Foreign parts, that the ſaid Owner or Owners ſhall in the firſt place cauſe a due Entry to be made of the ſaid Wool, at the Port from whence the ſame ſhall be ſo intended to be conveyed, containing the exact Weight, Marks and Numbers of the ſame, before he or they preſume to load or carry away any of the ſaid Wool, within five miles of any ſuch Port or place on the Sea Coaſts, from whence the ſame is ſo to be conveyed. And if any Wool ſhall be carrying towards the Sea without being firſt entred in manner aforeſaid, the Wool ſo found, as alſo the Horſe or Horſes, Cart, Waggon or other Beaſts, or Carriages conveying the ſame, ſhall be forfeited and loſt: And the perſon or perſons carrying, driving, aiding or abetting the ſame, ſhall ſuffer and forfeit in ſuch manner as by the Laws and Statutes now in force againſt the Exportation of Wool is provided.

Perſons carrying Wool from Shearing to certifie.

Regiſter of the Certificates.

III. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted and declared, That the foregoing Clauſe is not intended, nor ſhall be conſtrued to extend to the hindring any perſon or perſons from carrying his or their Wool from the place of Shearing the ſame on Horſes, or by Carts and Waggons to his or their own Dwelling-Houſe or Houſes, or Out-houſes thereunto belonging, though the ſame be within five miles or leſs of the Sea, ſo as ſuch perſon or perſons within ten days after the Shearing of the ſaid Wool, and before he or they remove or otherwiſe diſpoſe of the ſame or any part thereof, from the place where it was firſt carried after Shearing, do under his or their Hands certifie to the Officer of the Cuſtoms in the next adjacent Port the true quantity of the ſaid Wool (that is to ſay) of the number of Fleeces and where the ſame is houſed, and that ſuch perſon or perſons do not remove, or otherwiſe diſpoſe of the ſaid Wool to any other place, without firſt certifying the Officer of ſuch Port, under his or their Hands of his intention to remove the ſame three days at leaſt before ſuch removal: And the Officer and Officers in the reſpective Ports, and the Limits of ſuch Ports are hereby required to receive and keep ſuch Certificates, and to make a Regiſter of them. But in caſe any ſuch perſon or perſons ſhall neglect to make and ſend ſuch Certificate to the Officer or Officers of the next adjacent Port, as aforeſaid, or ſhall remove, or otherwiſe diſpoſe of any of the ſaid Wool before ſuch Certificate of his intention ſo to do, be made and delivered, as aforeſaid, ſuch perſon or perſons ſhall have no benefit by this Proviſo, but be liable to the Penalties expreſſed in the foregoing Clauſe.

Cocquet and Certificate how to be made.

IV. And be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all Cocquets for carrying Wool from any Port within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or from the Port of Berwick upon Tweed, ſhall be written upon Paper, and not Parchment, and ſigned by three of the chief Officers of ſuch reſpective Port at leaſt; And all Certificates of Landing the ſame again in any other of the ſaid Ports, or from the Kingdom of Ireland, ſhall be ſigned in like manner; and that all ſuch Wool, both at Shipping and Landing, ſhall be weighed in the preſence of the ſaid Officers, giving ſuch Cocquets and Certificates reſpectively; and that the exact Weight, Marks and Numbers of ſuch Wool ſo ſhipped and landed, ſhall be likewiſe particularly expreſſed in both Cocquet and Certificate.

Officers Penalty.

Cap. 32.
Cap. 18.

V. And be it farther enacted and declared by the authority aforeſaid, That all and every ſuch Officer and Officers, as ſhall not obſerve the directions in this Act before mentioned on their parts to be performed, ſhall be deemed and adjudged as Aiders and Abettors of the ſaid Tranſportation, and ſuffer the Penalties contained in the Statutes made in the Twelfth, and Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of King Charles the Second, againſt Tranſportation of Wool, and other the things before mentioned.

Ports of Import and Export.

VI. Be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That no Wool ſhall be ſhipped from the Kingdom of Ireland, but from theſe Ports following, (viz.) Dublin, Waterford, Youghall, Kingſale, Cork and Drogheda; And that no Wool ſhall be imported from the Kingdom of Ireland, into any Ports but theſe following, (viz.) Liverpool, Cheſter, Briſtol, Minehead, Barnſtaple, Bidiford and Exeter. And for the better and more effectual Execution of this and other Acts made againſt Exportation of Wool,

An Act for Explaining part of an Act made in the firſt year of King James the Firſt, concerning Tanned Leather.

Preamble. Cap.22. Sect.29.

Whereas by a Statute made in the firſt year of King James the Firſt, It was enacted, That the Maſter and Wardens of the ſeveral Myſteries of the Cordwayners, Curriers, Girdlers and Sadlers of the City of London for the time being, or the major part of the ſaid Maſter and Wardens of every the ſaid ſeveral Myſteries under the penalty therein mentioned, ſhould four times in the year at leaſt, (that is to ſay) once every quarter of the year, or oftner, if need ſhould require, ſearch and view all Boots, Shooes, Buskins and other Wares and things whatſoever made of tanned Leather, in all and every Houſe and Houſes, place and places, priviledged or not priviledged, as well within the City of London and Suburbs thereof, as in every other place within three miles of the ſame City, where any Shoemaker, Sadler, Girdler, Currier or other Artificer uſing, cutting, working or dreſſing of Leather, whether the ſame Boots and Shoes, Wares, Stuff or other things, were made of tanned Leather, and were wrought according to the purport, effect and true meaning of the ſaid Statute, or not;

II. And whereas ſome Doubts have been made, whether tanned Leather, when and after it hath been fully dreſſed and curried by the Currier, be a Ware within the ſaid Statute and ſeveral Suits of Law have been carried on againſt the Maſter and Wardens of the Company of Curriers, to their great Charge and Vexation, and tending to the utter avoiding the good proviſion made in the ſaid Statute for the due and lawful currying and dreſſing of Leather, and the Search and View thereof, to be made as by the ſaid Statute is required: For the removing therefore of all Doubts, and that Search and View may be duly made according to the ſaid Statute,

What ſhall be Ware within 1 Jac. 1. Cap. 22. Sect. 29.

III. Be it enacted by the King and Queen's moſt excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That all and every Hide, Skin or Piece of tanned Leather, Shaved or Liquored of what Colour ſoever, with any lawful Liquoring or Dreſſing, and being well and truly curried according to the directions of the ſaid Statute, ſhall be adjudged, reputed and taken to be the made Ware and Manufacture of the ſaid Currier, and ſubject to the View, Search and Seizure of the ſaid Maſter and Wardens, or the major part, as in and by the ſaid Statute is provided, and ſhall be liable to be ſeized, and ſubject to the ſame Penalties as other Wares inſufficiently made of tanned Leather by the ſaid Statute are liable and ſubject unto.

The power of the Maſter, &c.

IV. Provided always, That nothing in this or any other Act, ſhall extend to give any Power to the Maſter and Wardens of the Company of Curriers, to viſit, ſearch or ſeize any Leather, Hide or Skin, but ſuch only as ſhall be curried or dreſſed within the City of London, or three miles thereof, by ſome Members of their own Company, nor in any other place, but in the open Market, or in the Shops, Houſes or Warehouſes of ſuch Curriers.

CAP. XXXIV.

An Act for Prohibiting all Trade and Commerce with France, Vid. 2 W. & M. Seſſ. 2. Cap. 14. for more effectual executing this Act, and both revived by 4 & 5 W. & M. Cap. 25. for three years, if War with France laſt ſo long.

Preamble.

Forasmuch as your Majeſties, upon juſt and honourable grounds, have been pleaſed to declare an actual War with France, and to enter into ſeveral Confederacies for carrying on the ſame; and that it hath been found by long experience, that the Importing of French Wines, Vinegar, Brandy, Linen, Silks, Salt, Paper, and other the Commodities of the Growth, Product or Manufacture of France, or of the Territories or Dominions of the French King, hath much exhauſted the Treaſure of this Nation, leſſened the value of the native Commodities and Manufactures thereof, and greatly impoveriſhed the Engliſh Artificers and Handicrafts, and cauſed great detriment to this Kingdom in general.

French Commodities prohibited for three years.

II. Be it therefore enacted by the King and Queen's moſt excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That from and after the four and twentieth day of Auguſt, in the year of our Lord, one thouſand ſix hundred eighty nine, none of the Commodities aforeſaid, or any other Goods or Commodities whatſoever of the Growth, Product or Manufacture of any of the Dominions or Territories of the French King, or any Goods, Commodities or Manufactures made of, or mixed with Silk, Thread, Wool, Hair, Gold, Silver, Leather, or other Goods or Commodities being of the Growth, Product or Manfacture of any the Dominions or Territories of the French King, ſhall during or within the Term of three years, to be accounted from the ſaid four and twentieth day of Auguſt, or at any time or times before the end of the firſt Seſſion of Parliament next after the Expiration of the ſaid three years, be brought in by Land, or ſhall be imported in any Ship or Ships, Veſſel or Veſſels whatſoever, into any Port, Haven, Creek or other place whatſoever, in the Kingdoms of England, or Ireland, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or Iſles of Jerſey, Guernſey, Alderny, Sark or Iſle of Man, from any place or Port whatſoever, either mixt or unmixt, with any Commodity of the Growth or Product of any other Nation, Place or Country whatſoever. And that all and every Importation and Importations, vending or ſelling, or uttering or retailing of any French Wines, Vinegar, Brandy, Linen, Silks, Salt or Paper, or other Commodities imported contrary to this Act or any of them ſhall be, and is hereby declared and adjudged to be a common Nuſance to this Kingdom in general, and to all their Majeſties Subjects thereof: And that if any French Wines, Brandy, Vinegar, Linens, Silks, Salt, Paper or other Commodities whatſoever (mixt or unmixt) ſhall be imported contrary to this Act, the ſame ſo imported in whoſe Hands or Cuſtody, or in what place ſoever they ſhall or may remain, or be found or kept, ſhall and may be forthwith ſeized and carried by any perſon or perſons whatſoever, into their Majeſties Warehouſe of the Port or place where ſuch Goods ſhall be ſeized, or to the Warehouſe of the next Port, Member or Creek to the place of ſuch Seizure. And if any perſon or perſons ſhall make any Claim to all or any part of the ſaid Goods ſo ſeized and brought in, as aforeſaid, he ſhall be obliged to tender good and ſufficient Security to anſwer the Penalties of the ſaid Act, and to make the ſaid Claim within twenty days after ſuch Seizure, to the Collector or Cuſtomer, or his ſufficient Deputy where no other Collector is eſtabliſhed, or to the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms in time of Vacation, or within ten days in Term time by delivery of a Bill to ſuch Officer ſubſcribed with his Name, Addition and place of aboad, together with the particulars of the reſpective Goods by him ſo claimed, and date of ſuch Claim, and the Names of two or more ſuch ſufficient perſons whom he ſhall propoſe and tender to be ſecurity with him to anſwer the Penalties of the ſaid Act, and every one of them being worth five hundred pounds at the leaſt, and to be approved of by the ſaid Commiſſioners, Collectors or Cuſtomers to whom the perſons are alſo to be tendred at the ſame time, and if approved to give Bond unto their Majeſties in the penal ſum of double the value of the Goods and the Penalties in this Act, to anſwer the Value of the Goods and other Penalties in this Act; and after ſuch Security given, the ſaid Claim with the Names of the perſons giving ſuch Security, and the Sum and Date of the ſaid Bonds to be regiſtred in a Book herein after mentioned, to be kept in the Warehouſe for that purpoſe, and ſubſcribed by the ſaid Claimer and Collector or Cuſtomer to whom ſuch Bill ſhall be delivered. And in caſe Default ſhall be made in giving ſuch Security, and making ſuch Claim within the times limited, as aforeſaid, That then and in every ſuch caſe, the ſaid Goods ſhall be adjudged, deemed and taken to all intents and purpoſes, to be imported contrary to this Act, and to be forfeited to their Majeſties, and ſhall within ſeven days after ſuch default, be deſtroyed in ſuch manner as is herein after appointed; but in caſe ſuch Security ſhall be given, and Claim made in manner, as aforeſaid, an Information thereof ſhall the next Term or ſooner, as ſoon as the Method and Courſe of Proceedings will admit, be exhibited into their Majeſties Court of Exchequer; and all the Barons and Officers of the ſaid Court of Exchequer, are hereby required and ſtrictly enjoyned to cauſe due, ſpeedy and effectual Proſecution in the ſaid Court, of every ſuch Information, and not to grant any Writ of Delivery or Reſtitution, for ſuch Goods, or any of them, on any Security or pretence whatſoever, until the Cauſe ſhall be finally determined in Law, by or upon the Verdict of a Jury of twelve good and lawful Men, to be returned by the proper Officers in the preſence of a Commiſſioner of the Cuſtoms in London, and in the preſence of the principal Officer in ſuch Out-Port where the Goods ſo ſeized ſhall be brought and lodged as aforeſaid; Which Jury upon the Taſte or View of any of the Commodities ſeized or ſtaid as aforeſaid, or upon proof before them made, ſhall and may judge the Quality and Value thereof, and whether any of the Commodities ſo ſeized, and which of them were

of the Growth, Product or Manufacture of any of the Dominions or Territories of the French King, or mixed with any Goods or Commodities of ſuch Growth, Product or Manufacture, or were imported contrary to this Act, and in what Ship or Ships, Veſſel or Veſſels the ſame were imported, and by whom the ſame were imported or vended, retailed or ſold, and in whoſe Cuſtody they were at the time when the ſaid Seizure or Stay was made; and whether the ſaid Commodities, or any of them, or any part of them, were of the Growth, Product or Manufacture of any of the Territories or Dominions of the French King, or mixed with any Goods or Commodities of ſuch Growth, Product or Manufacture; and in caſe the ſaid Jury ſhall find and return their Verdict upon their Oaths, that the Commodities ſo ſeized or ſtaid, or any of them, or any part of them, or any of them were of the Growth, Product or Manufacture of any of the Dominions or Territories of the French King, or mixed with any Goods or Commodities of ſuch Growth, Product or Manufacture, that then immediately Judgment ſhall be paſſed upon the Goods ſo found, and the Judgment executed accordingly, (to wit) That all ſuch Wines, Vinegar and Brandies, or other liquid Commodities ſo found, whether ſingle or mixt, ſhall in ſome River, Stream or Sea near the place where they were ſo ſeized, or ſhall remain in the Warehouſes, as aforeſaid, be there ſtaved and ſpilt, and deſtroyed; and the ſaid Linnens, Silks, Salt or Paper, and other Commodities ſo found by the ſaid Jury, (whether mixed or unmixed) ſhall be publickly burnt and deſtroyed in the open Fields or Streets near the place where they were ſo ſeized, or ſhall remain in the Warehouſes, as aforeſaid, in the preſence of one of the Sheriffs of the City of London in the Port of London, the Chief Magiſtrate in every other Port or place, who are hereby required, upon Notice of the Chief Officer of the Cuſtoms in ſuch Port, to be preſent at, and aſſiſting in the deſtruction of the ſaid Goods, to prevent all Abuſes, Hindrances or other Diſturbances or Frauds in the deſtruction of the ſame, as alſo to open, view, taſte and examine the ſaid Commodities, as to kind, quality and quantity, according to the firſt Entry made in the Warehouſe-Book, and to joyn with the Collector, Cuſtomer or his ſufficient Deputy, who are alſo required to be preſent at the deſtruction thereof, in a Certificate of the ſame, to be entred in the ſaid Book under their Hands, as aforeſaid, on the day of the deſtruction thereof; And that no perſon or perſons whatſoever, do preſume to take up or ſave any of the ſaid Commodities ſo adjudged to be ſpilt, burnt or deſtroyed, under the penalty of forty ſhillings over and above the value of the ſaid Goods.

Reſiſter of Execution puniſhable by 2 W. & M. Seſſ. 2. Cap. 14.

Puniſhment upon Importer, Poſſeſſor and Seller.

III. And moreover it is farther enacted, That every perſon and perſons that ſhall have imported the ſame, ſhall forfeit the full value thereof, according to the Rates and Prices hereafter in this Act reſpectively mentioned; and every perſon and perſons in whoſe Cuſtody the ſame ſhall be found at the time of ſuch Seizure or Stay, or that ſhall ſell, utter or retail within the Kingdoms of England or Ireland, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or the Iſles of Jerſey, Guernſey, Alderney, Sarke, or Iſle of Man, any of the Commodities imported contrary to this Act, ſhall for the firſt Offence forfeit the full Value thereof, according to the Rates and Prices hereafter mentioned; and for the ſecond Offence, (after Conviction for ſuch firſt Offence) ſhall forfeit double the full value thereof, according to the Rates aforeſaid; and ſhall alſo after Conviction of ſuch ſecond Offence, ſtand and be diſabled, and be incapable in Law to bear or execute any Office or Employment for, or concerning or relating to the Collection or Managery of the Cuſtoms, or any part of their Majeſties Revenue, or any other Office or Publick Employment whatſoever. And if any of the Commodities aforeſaid, whether they be ſingle, or mixt with any Commodity of the Growth or Product of any other Nation, Country or Place whatſoever, imported contrary to this Act, ſhall during the ſaid Term of three years, or before the end of the Seſſion of the next Parliament after the end of the ſaid three years, upon any pretence whatſoever be vended, ſold, retailed or uttered, or be found or remain within the Kingdoms of England or Ireland, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or Iſles of Jerſey, Guernſey, Alderney, Sarke, or Iſle of Man, the ſame ſhall and may be ſeized by any perſon or perſons whatſoever, in whoſe Poſſeſſion or Cuſtody ſoever they ſhall or may be found; and like Information thereof, and Judgment and Execution for the deſtruction of them, ſhall be had, made and given, as is before expreſſed.

Onus probandi to lie upon Importer, &c.

IV. And moreover every perſon in whoſe Cuſtody or Poſſeſſion they ſhall be found, or that ſhall vend, ſell, retail or utter the ſame, ſhall incur the Forfeitures and Penalties aforeſaid, to be recovered as herein is mentioned: And if any Queſtion, Diſpute or Doubt ſhall ariſe, whether any of the Commodities aforeſaid, ſeized, ſold, found or uttered as aforeſaid, or any part thereof, either ſingle or mixt, were of the Growth, Product or Manufacture of any of the Territories or Dominions of the French King, or were imported contrary to this Act, the Proof ſhall be incumbent only upon the Importer, Claimer, Owner, Proprietor, Seller and Retailer, or ſuch perſon or perſons with whom the ſaid Goods ſhall be found reſpectively, and not upon the Informer: And for default of ſuch Proof, that then a Judgment thereupon ſhall be given for the deſtruction of the ſaid Commodities, and for Recovery of the aforeſaid Forfeiture; and Execution of ſuch Judgment ſhall be immediately granted and awarded, according to the true intent and meaning of this Act, without any ſtay or delay whatſoever. And if any Informer or other perſon or perſons ſhall take upon him or them to ſeize or proſecute any Goods or Commodities, or any perſon or perſons upon or by virtue or means of this preſent Act, ſhall by Fraud or Colluſion, deſiſt or delay the proſecution of the Condemnation of any the Commodities aforeſaid, after ſeizure or ſtay of the ſame, or the Proſecution of any perſon or perſons for any Offence againſt this Act, he and they ſo deſiſting or delaying, ſhall for every ſuch Offence, upon due Conviction thereof, forfeit the Sum of five hundred pounds: And all Cuſtomers, Searchers, and other Officers belonging to the Cuſtoms, And all Sheriffs, Mayors, Bailiffs, Conſtables and other Officers, ſhall be, and are hereby ſtrictly injoyned and required to be aiding and aſſiſting in the due Execution of this Act, in reference to the Commodities aforeſaid, which are to

to be deſtroyed or diſpoſed of, as aforeſaid; And no Commiſſioner or Commiſſioners, Cuſtomer, Surveyor-General or Surveyor, or other Officer or perſon whatſoever, relating to the Cuſtoms, ſhall ſign, ſuffer or allow of any Warrant, free Warrant, or Order for paſſing or delivery of any Goods prohibited by this Act, either to any perſon, or into any place whatſoever, other then into one of their Majeſties Warehouſes, there to remain in ſafe Cuſtody, until a Judgment or Condemnation in Law upon, or touching the ſaid Goods, to be given and paſſed according to the true intent and meaning of this Act; nor ſhall any Surveyor of the Land-Waiters, or Surveyor of the Tide-Waiters, or Kings Waiter, or Land-Waiter, or other Officer or perſon whatſoever relating to the Cuſtoms, either by virtue, colour or pretext of any Warrant, or Order whatſoever, take up or deliver any of the Goods prohibited by this Act, or carry them, or ſuffer them to be carried to any other place then one of their Majeſties Warehouſes, there to remain until a Judgment or Condemnation upon, or touching the ſaid Coods, be given or paſſed, according to the true intent of this Act; And all ſuch Goods, ſo as aforeſaid, brought into any of their Majeſties Warehouſes ſhall be forthwith viewed, opened or examined in the preſence of two or more principal Officers of that Port, whereof the Collector, Cuſtomer or Cuſtomers Deputy to be one, and the Marks, Numbers of each Veſſel or Package, and the Nature, Kind, Quality, Quantity and true Contents of the ſaid Goods, together with the time when they were ſo brought in, and the time of their delivery out of the ſaid Warehouſes, ſhall by ſpecial direction of the Commiſſioners, or other Chief Officers that ſhall have the Managery, Direction or Collection of the Cuſtoms, be fairly regiſtred in a Book to be kept for that purpoſe, and for entry of the Claims, as is herein before directed, and for no other purpoſe whatſoever: And every ſuch Entry of each Seizure, with the time of viewing, opening and examining thereof, to be duly entred and ſubſcribed by the Officers aforeſaid, and by the Warehouſe-keeper, or Surveyor where no Warehouſe-keeper is eſtabliſhed; Which Examination ſhall alſo be repeated and entred in manner aforeſaid, by the ſaid Officers after Condemnation of the ſaid Goods, at the time of the delivery out of any the ſaid Goods, to be deſtroyed, or otherwiſe diſpoſed of, and to be diligently compared with the firſt Entry, to prevent any Fraud, Challenge or Imbezelment: And in caſe any ſhall be found upon ſuch Examination, or after delivery upon the deſtruction of the ſaid Goods, the ſame to be entred and ſubſcribed in the ſaid Book by the principal Officer of the ſaid Port, not having Charge of the ſaid Warehouſe, and true Copies of all the ſaid Entries and Examiuations, with the Claims, as aforeſaid, as alſo a true Certificate of the deſtruction of the ſaid Goods, ſigned as aforeſaid, be from time to time tranſmitted by the Collector of the ſaid Port, to the Commiſſioners, Farmers, principal Officers, or other perſons having the Managery of their Majeſties Cuſtoms for the time being, together with the monthly Abſtracts of the ſaid Ports, which ſhall be carefully filed, and a diſtinct account kept thereof, by the Regiſter of the Seizures in the Port of London.

Such Goods to be put into the Kings Warehouſe. Where and by whom they are to be viewed, regiſtred and accounted for.

The Goods not to be delivered out of the Warehouſe till Judgment except upon the Tryal.

V. And be it farther enacted, That the ſaid Goods or any of them be produced at any Tryal that ſhall be had for, and in order to the Condemnation or deſtruction of the ſaid Goods, or touching the unlawful importing thereof, or for the Recovery of any Forfeiture or Penalty incurr'd by reaſon of the importing of ſuch Goods contrary to this Act, nor ſhall ſuch Goods be delivered out of any of the ſaid Warehouſes by any Officer whatſoever relating to the Cuſtoms, until a Judgment or Condemnation ſhall have been given and paſſed upon, or touching the ſaid Goods, other then to be produced at ſuch Trial, as aforeſaid, according to the true intent and meaning of this Act.

Puniſhment of perſon not being a Merchant ſelling ſuch Goods.

VI. And foraſmuch as the Commodities and Manufactures of the Territories and Dominions of the French King prohibited by this Act, are often ſold by perſons not being known Merchants, Vintners or Shopkeepers, Be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon not being a known Merchant, Vintner or Shopkeeper, ſhall from and after the firſt day of September, one thouſand ſix hundred eighty nine, ſell or expoſe to ſale, or be found to have ſold or expoſed to ſale, any of the Commodities or Manufactures ſo prohibited, as aforeſaid, (and ſhall be thereof lawfully convicted by Indictment, Information or otherwiſe in any of their Majeſties Courts of Record) ſhall over and above the penalties aforeſaid, ſuffer twelve months Impriſonment without Bail or Mainprize.

Ship importing forfeited.

VII. And to the end the Prohibition and Reſtraint of Importation of the Commodities aforeſaid, hereby intended may be more effectually put in Execution; It is hereby farther enacted, That all and every Ship or Veſſel with all her Guns, Tackle, Apparel and Furniture, in which any of the ſaid French Wines, Vinegar, Brandy, Linens, Silks, Salt, Paper, or other Commodities before mentioned, ſhall after the ſaid twenty fourth day of Auguſt, and during the ſaid Term of three years, or before the end of the next Seſſion of Parliament after the ſaid three years be imported: And alſo all and every Bark, Hoy, Lighter, Barge, Wherry, Boat, Ship or other Veſſel whatſoever, out of which the ſame or any of them ſhall be put on ſhore ſhall be forfeit: And moreover the Maſter, Purſer, Boatſwain, or other perſon taking care of ſuch Ship or Veſſel for the Voyage, or out of which any of the Commodities ſhall be unſhipt into a Hoy, Boat or Veſſel, or landed or put on ſhore, ſhall forfeit the Sum of five hundred pounds, and alſo being apprehended by Warrant of any one or more Juſtices of the Peace of the County, City or Borough where ſuch Importation or Landing ſhall be, or where the perſon or perſons offending ſhall or may be found; Which the ſaid Juſtices of the Peace are hereby authorized to iſſue and to examine Witneſſes upon Oath concerning ſuch Fact, and the ſame being proved by the Oath of two Witneſſes, ſhall and may be by ſuch Juſtice of the Peace, committed to the next Goal, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize for the ſpace of twelve months. And all and every the Seamen, Mariners, Watermen, Carmen, Porters, Labourers or other perſons whatſoever aſſiſting in the unſhipping, landing, taking up, carrying or conveying of any of the ſaid Commodities either by Land or by Water, ſhall upon Examination and Proof, as aforeſaid, Puniſhment upon Maſter, Seamen, &c. importing.

Carts, &c. bringing ſuch Goods forfeited.

aforeſaid, be ſubject to like Impriſonment or be publickly whipt at the diſcretion of the Juſtice of Peace before whom ſuch Conviction ſhall be: And all and every the Carts, Wains, Waggons, Carriages, Ploughs, Teams, Horſes or Oxen made uſe of, aſſiſting, carrying or moving in the Carriage or Conveyance of any of the ſaid Goods or Commodities hereby prohibited to be imported, ſhall and may be ſeized and ſtaid, and upon proof made before ſome Juſtice of the Peace of the County where the ſame ſhall be ſo ſeized, by the Oaths of two credible Witneſſes (which Oaths the ſaid Juſtice of the Peace is hereby impowred and required to adminiſter) That the ſaid Carts, Wains, Waggons, Carriages, Ploughs, Teams, Horſes or Oxen reſpectively were made uſe of, aſſiſting, carrying or moving in the Carriage or Conveyance of any the ſaid Goods and Commodities hereby prohibited to be imported, the ſame ſhall be forfeited, one half thereof to be diſpoſed of to the uſe of the Poor of the Pariſh where the ſame ſhall be ſo found and ſeized, and the other half to his or their own uſe that ſhall ſo ſeize the ſame: And if the Maſter, Purſer, Boatſwain or other perſon belonging to any Ship or Veſſel laden, or part laden, with any of the Commodities aforeſaid, ſhall after the ſaid four and twentieth day of Auguſt, unſhip or diſcharge, or wittingly or willingly permit or ſuffer any of the ſaid Goods hereby prohibited to be unſhipt or diſcharged, either at Sea, or in any Harbour, Creek or Bay of the Kingdoms aforeſaid, into any leſſer Veſſel, Lighter, Barge or Boat, ſhall forfeit the Sum of five hundred pounds and ſuffer like Impriſonment as aforeſaid.

Puniſhment upon Maſter, &c. letting go ſuch Goods.

All Brandy, &c. prohibited.

VIII. And be it farther enacted, That no ſort of Brandy, Aqua vitæ, or other Spirits or diſtilled Waters of any Kingdom, Country or place whatſoever, ſhall after the ſaid four and twentieth day of Auguſt be imported into the Kingdoms of England or Ireland aforeſaid, Dominion or Iſlands aforeſaid, under pain of forfeiture thereof, as alſo of the Ship or Veſſel wherein the ſame ſhall be imported: Repealed by 5 & 6 W. & M. cap. 2.

The value of Goods to be according to the Book of Rates. The Goods not there ſetled to be valued by a Jury, except Wine which is 30 l. per Tun and Brandy 40 l.

IX. And it is hereby farther enacted, That where any Forfeitures or Penalties are given by this Act upon the Value of the Goods hereby prohibited, that the Values and Price of the ſaid Goods and Commodities, although the ſame are to be deſtroyed, are to be, and ſhall be reckoned, ſtated and eſteemed, as followeth, (that is to ſay) The value and price of every Tun of Wines thirty pounds; the value and price of every Tun of Brandy forty pounds, and ſo after that Rate for a greater or leſſer quantity; And that the value and price of all other the Commodities aforeſaid, which are rated in the Book of Rates, made in the twelfth year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King Charles the Second, ſhall be eſteemed according to the Rate, Price or Value at which they are valued in the ſame Book of Rates; And that the value and price of all other the Commodities aforeſaid, not rated in the ſaid Book of Rates, ſhall be enquired and determined by the Jury that ſhall try the Cauſe, or which ſhall be impannelled to enquire, whether the ſaid Goods were of the Growth, Production or Manufacture of the French Kings Dominions, and the Values above ſtated, and thoſe returned by the ſaid Jury, which ſhall be eſteemed according to the Value the ſaid Goods would have born, if they were not to have been deſtroyed, ſhall be the ſtated Values thereof; And in caſe of Condemnation by Default, the Value to be enquired and determined by a Jury to be returned before the Mayor or Bayliff of the City or Town Corporate, or before the next Juſtice of the Peace of the County where the ſame Goods ſhall happen to be brought, and the Forfeitures impoſed by this Act upon any perſon or perſons, relating to the Values of any of the ſaid Goods, ſhall be reckoned accordingly.

X. And for the Encouragement of all ſuch, whether Officers of the Cuſtoms or others, that ſhall effectually put in Execution the Prohibition hereby intended, by ſeizing and proſecuting the Goods aforeſaid, to Condemnation and Deſtruction, and alſo by proſecuting all or any other the Offences or Offenders againſt this Act, It is hereby farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all and every ſuch perſon and perſons ſo proſecuting ſhall be recompenſed and rewarded with one third part of the Value of all the Goods by him or them ſo proſecuted, to Condemnation and Deſtruction as aforeſaid, to be paid unto them by the Owners and Proprietors of the ſaid Goods ſo imported.

Third part of the value given to Proſecutor.

Diviſion of the part of Penalty not diſpoſed of.

XI. And it is hereby farther enacted, That all the Reſidue of the Forfeiture and Penalties before in this Act mentioned and provided, (and not before diſtributed and diſpoſed of) ſhall be divided into three ſeveral parts, two third parts thereof to their Majeſties, their Heirs and Succeſſors; and the other third part to ſuch perſon and perſons as ſhall ſeize or ſue for the ſame by Bill, Plaint or Information in their Majeſties Court of Exchequer, or in any other their Majeſties Courts of Record, wherein no Eſſoign, Protection or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed: The Charge of which Suit and Proſecution ſhall be born by their Majeſties, their Heirs and Succeſſors, and iſſued by the Receiver General or Caſhire of their Majeſties Cuſtoms, by Warrant from the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms for the time being, as there ſhall be occaſion.

Proſecution to be at the Kings Charge.

Foreigner to give Security.

XII. And for the avoiding of Fraud, Vexation and Delay in proſecuting the ſaid Goods or Ships to Condemnation, by entring Claims in falſe or unknown Names, or in the Names of abſent perſons, It is hereby farther enacted, That no Foreigner or other perſon be admitted to claim any of the ſaid Goods or Commodities, which ſhall be ſeized or ſtayed as aforeſaid, until Security firſt given to the ſatisfaction of the Collector of ſuch Port, where the ſaid Goods ſhall be brought and lodged as aforeſaid, to anſwer ſuch Penalties or Forfeitures as ſhall be incurred by him as the Importer of the ſaid Goods, or which the Owner, Importer or Poſſeſſor of the ſaid Goods or Commodities, as ſhall or may be ſubject or liable to by force or virtue of this Act, or the true meaning thereof.

Officer conniving incapable of any Office. Officers ſuffering Entry or Imbezelment of prohibited Goods to forfeit 500 l. and be uncapable of Office: 2 W. & M. Seſſ. 2. Cap. 14.

XIII. And be it farther enacted, That if any Officer or perſon of or belonging to the Cuſtoms, ſhall by Fraud or Corruption connive at the Importation of any of the Commodities aforeſaid, contrary to the true meaning of this Act, he ſhall not only forfeit the Sum of five hundred pounds to be recovered, as aforeſaid, but be made incapable of any Office or Employment under their Majeſties, their Heirs and Succeſſors, and alſo forfeit the Penalties of ſuch Bonds wherein they ſtand obliged to their Majeſties, for the true performance of their Truſt as Officers of the Cuſtoms.

XIV. And for the more effectual diſcovery and ſeizure of any of the Commodities aforeſaid, It ſhall and may be lawful to and for any perſon or perſons whatſoever, authorized by Writ of Aſſiſtance, under the Seal of their Majeſties Court of Exchequer, to take a Conſtable, Headborough or other publick Officer inhabiting near unto the place, and in the day time to enter and go into any Houſe, Shop, Cellar, Warehouſe or Room, or other place, and in caſe of Reſiſtance to break open Doors, Cheſts, Trunks or other Package, there to ſeize, and from thence to bring to their Majeſties Warehouſe any of the Commodities aforeſaid, prohibited by and imported contrary to this Act. And for the more ſpeedy and effectual Proſecution of the Offences and Offenders againſt this Act, Perſon authorized may ſearch any Houſe and break open Doors.

Perſons reſiſting puniſhable by 2 W. & M. Seſſ. 2. Cap. 14.

XV. Be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for their Majeſties Attorny General, and all and every other perſon and perſons that ſhall ſeize or ſtay any of the Goods or Commodities aforeſaid, or proſecute any of the Offences or Offenders againſt this Act, to lay his or their Information or Action, and to try the ſame in ſuch place or places, and to uſe ſuch and the like Method and Courſe of Proceedings in proſecuting and condemning of the Goods or Commodities aforeſaid, as is in this Act directed, are, have been, or may be uſed in or about the ſeizing, trying, condemning or proſecuting of any Goods or Commodities, for Non-payment of Cuſtoms or other Duties, or any perſon or perſons for offending againſt any the Laws or Statutes relating to the Cuſtoms; and that if any Action or Suit ſhall be brought or proſecuted againſt any perſon or perſons for what he or they ſhall do in or about the Proſecution, or putting in Execution this preſent Act, or any of the Powers therein, It ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Defendant or Defendants in ſuch Action or Suit, to plead the general Iſſue, and to give the ſpecial Matter in Evidence; And if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in any ſuch Action or Suit, ſhall diſcontinue or delay the proſecution thereof, or ſhall become Non-ſuit, or that a Verdict or Judgment ſhall paſs againſt him or them, that then the Defendant and Defendants in every ſuch Action or Suit ſhall recover his and their treble Coſts, and ſhall have Judgment and Execution for the ſame, in ſuch ſort and manner as Defendants by any the Laws and Statutes of this Realm ſhall or may have for Coſts.

Attorny General or any perſon ſtaying the Commodities may proſecute.

Proſecutor Defendant plead general Iſſue and recover treble Coſts.

XVI. And be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That from and after the firſt day of September, one thouſand ſix hundred eighty nine, none of the Goods, Commodities or Manufactures prohibited by this Act, ſhall be imported from the Iſlands of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sarke and Man, or any of them, into any of the Ports, Creeks or Havens of England, Ireland, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, under the Penalties and Forfeitures contained in this Act.

Not to be imported from Guernſey, &c.

XVII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That Gilbert Heathcote and Arthur Shallot of London Merchants, or either of them, have leave to import into the Port of London, any Quantity of Spaniſh Brandy, not exceeding two hundred Tun at moſt, paying to their Majeſties all Duties payable for the ſame, before this Seſſion of Parliament, importing the ſame at or before the five and twentieth of March, one thouſand ſix hundred and ninety, and not leſs then fifty Tun thereof in any one Veſſel, and producing a Certificate and Teſtimonial from the Governour of Catalonia and the Engliſh Conſul there, together with an Affidavit of the Diſtiller made before the ſaid Governor, that it is all Bran- made of Wine of the Growth of Spain, and likewiſe the ſeveral Affidavits of the Maſter, Mate and Purſer of ſuch Ship and Ships as ſhall import the ſaid Brandies, that the ſame was taken in at Sallow, one of the Sea-ports of the Province of Catalonia aforeſaid, any thing contained in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

G. Heathcoate, &c. licenſe to import 200 Tun of Brandy.

Licenſed till November, 1690, 2 W. & M. Seſſ 1. Cap. 4. Sect. 12.

XVIII. Provided that no perſon ſhall ſell at, or demand a greater Price for any French Wines, or Wines ſo reputed, or other Wines mixed with French Wines, from and after the tenth day of September, one thouſand ſix hundred eighty nine, to the tenth day of September, one thouſand ſix hundred and ninety, then twelve pence by the Quart, and from and after the ſaid tenth day of September, one thouſand ſix hundred and ninety, the Sum of ſix pence the Quart and no more, and ſo proportionably for a greater or leſſer quantity upon penalty of forfeiting for every Quart for which a greater price than what is above mentioned, is either demanded or taken, the Sum of five pounds for the firſt Offence to the Informer, and the Sum of ten pounds for the ſecond and every other Offence to the Informer, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of their Majeſties Courts of Record, wherein no Protection or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed, or any more then one Imparlance.

Rate of French Wine ſetled upon a penalty.

Penalty 50 s. 2 W. & M. Seſſ. 2. Cap. 14.

XIX. And it is hereby enacted, That from and after the tenth day of September, one thouſand ſix hundred eighty nine, no Vintner or Retailer of Wines whatſoever ſhall ſell or utter any Wines by Retail, other then by and in Meaſures made of Pewter, and ſealed according to the Statute, under the pain and penalty of five pounds for every ſuch Offence, to the Informer, to be levied and recovered in any of ſuch Courts, and in ſuch manner, as aforeſaid.

Retailers to ſell Wine in Pewter.

Penalty 50 s. 2 W. & M. Seſſ. 2. Cap. 14.

XX. And for the preventing of the Miſchiefs which may be occaſioned by the ſophiſticating, corrupting and adulterating of Wines during ſuch time as they are by this Act allowed to be ſold, Be it enacted, That if any Merchant, Vintner, Wine-Cooper, or other perſon ſelling Wine by Wholeſale or Retail, ſhall corrupt, ſophiſticate or adulterate any Wine, or ſhall utter or ſell any Wine corrupted, ſophiſticated or adulterated, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit the Sum of three hundred pounds for every ſuch Offence, the one moiety thereof to their Majeſties and their Succeſſors, and the other moiety thereof to ſuch perſon as ſhall ſue for the ſame by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, wherein no Eſſoign, Protection or Wager of Law, or more then one Imparlance ſhall be allowed, and alſo ſhall ſuffer Impriſonment by the ſpace of three months without Bail or Mainprize.

300 l. Penalty for ſelling ſophiſticated Wine.

11. And exceſſive Fines have been impoſed; and illegal and cruel Puniſhments inflicted.

Grants of Fines, &c.

12. And ſeveral Grants and Promiſes made of Fines and Forfeitures, before any Conviction or Judgment againſt the Perſons, upon whom the ſame were to be levyed.

All which are utterly and directly contrary to the known Laws and Statutes, and Freedom of this Realm.

And whereas the ſaid late King James the Second having Abdicated the Government, and the Throne being thereby Vacant, His Highneſs the Prince of Orange, (whom it hath pleaſed Almighty God to make the glorious Inſtrument of Delivering this Kingdom from Popery and Arbitrary Power) did (by the Advice of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and divers principal Perſons of the Commons) cauſe Letters to be written to the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, being Proteſtants; and other Letters to the ſeveral Counties, Cities, Univerſities, Burroughs and Cinque-Ports for the Chooſing of ſuch Perſons to repreſent them, as were of right to be ſent to Parliament, to meet and ſit at Weſtminſter upon the two and twentieth day of January, in this Year one thouſand ſix hundred eighty and eight, in order to ſuch an Eſtabliſhment, as that their Religion, Laws and Liberties might not again be in danger of being Subverted: Upon which Letters Elections having been accordingly made,

The Subjects Rights.

And thereupon the ſaid Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, purſuant to their reſpective Letters and Elections, being now aſſembled in a full and free Repreſentative of this Nation, taking into their moſt ſerious Conſideration the beſt means for attaining the Ends aforeſaid; Do in the firſt place (as their Anceſtors in like Caſe have uſually done) for the Vindicating and Aſſerting their ancient Rights and Liberties, Declare;

No diſpenſing Power.

1. That the pretended Power of Suſpending of Laws, or the Execution of Laws by Regal Authority, without Conſent of Parliament, is Illegal.

Late diſpenſing illegal.

2. That the pretended Power of Diſpenſing with Laws, or the Execution of Laws by Regal Authority, as it hath been aſſumed and exerciſed of late, is illegal.

Eccleſiaſtical Courts illegal.

3. That the Commiſſion for erecting the late Court of Commiſſioners for Eccleſiaſtical Cauſes, and all other Commiſſions and Courts of like nature, are Illegal and Pernicious.

Levying Mony.

4. That levying Mony for or to the Uſe of the Crown, by pretence of Prerogative, without Grant of Parliament, for longer time, or in other manner, then the ſame is or ſhall be granted, is Illegal.

Right to petition.

5. That it is the Right of the Subjects to petition the King, and all Commitments and Proſecutions for ſuch Petitioning, are Illegal.

Standing Army.

6. That the raiſing or keeping a ſtanding Army within the Kingdom in time of Peace, unleſs it be with Conſent of Parliament, is againſt Law.

Subjects Arms.

7. That the Subjects, which are Proteſtants, may have Arms for their Defence ſuitable to their Conditions, and as allowed by Law.

Freedom of Election.

8. That Election of Members of Parliament ought to be free.

Freedom of Speech.

9. That the Freedom of Speech, and Debates or Proceedings in Parliament, ought not to be impeached or queſtioned in any Court or Place out of Parliament.

Exceſſive Bail.

10. That exceſſive Bail ought not to be required, nor exceſſive Fines impoſed; nor cruel and unuſual Puniſhments inflicted.

Juries.

11. That Jurors ought to be duly impannelled and returned, and Jurors which paſs upon Men in Trials for High Treaſon ought to be Freeholders.

Grants of Forfeitures.

12. That all Grants and Promiſes of Fines and Forfeitures of particular perſons before Conviction, are illegal and void.

Frequent Parliaments.

13. And that for Redreſs of all Grievances, and for the amending, ſtrengthening and preſerving of the Laws, Parliaments ought to be held frequently.

And they do Claim, Demand and Inſiſt upon all and ſingular the Premiſſes, as their undoubted Rights and Liberties; and that no Declarations, Judgments, Doings or Proceedings to the Prejudice of the People in any of the ſaid Premiſſes, ought in any wiſe to be drawn hereafter into Conſequence or Example.

To which Demand of their Rights they are particularly encouraged by the Declaration of his Highneſs the Prince of Orange, as being the only means for obtaining a full Redreſs and Remedy therein.

Having therefore an intire Confidence, That his ſaid Highneſs the Prince of Orange will perfect the Deliverance ſo far advanced by him, and will ſtill preſerve them from the Violation of their Rights, which they have here aſſerted, and from all other Attempts upon their Religion, Rights and Liberties;

Tender of the Crown.

II. The ſaid Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons aſſembled at Weſtminſter do Reſolve, That William and Mary Prince and Princeſs of Orange be, and be declared, King and Queen of England, France and Ireland, and the Dominions thereunto belonging, to hold the Crown and Royal Dignity of the ſaid Kingdoms and Dominions, to them the ſaid Prince and Princeſs during their Lives, and the Life of the Survivor of them; And that the ſole and full Exerciſe of the Regal Power be only in, and executed by the ſaid Prince of Orange, in the Names of the ſaid Prince and Princeſs during their joynt Lives; And after their Deceaſes, the ſaid Crown and Royal Dignity of the ſaid Kingdoms and Dominions to be to the Heirs of the Body of the ſaid Princeſs; And for default of ſuch Iſſue, to the Princeſs Anne of Denmark, and the Heirs of her Body; And for default of ſuch Iſſue to the Heirs of the Body of the ſaid Prince of Orange. And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons do pray the ſaid Prince and Princeſs to accept the ſame accordingly.

New Oaths of Allegiance, &c.

III. And that the Oaths hereafter mentioned be taken by all Perſons of whom the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy might be required by Law, inſtead of them; And that the ſaid Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy be abrogated.

Allegiance.

I A. B. do ſincerely promiſe and ſwear, That I will be faithful, and bear true Allegiance to their Majeſties, King William and Queen Mary.

So help me God.

Supremacy.

I A. B. do ſwear, That I do from my Heart Abhor, Deteſt and Abjure as Impious and Heretical, this damnable Doctrine and Poſition, That Princes Excommunicated or Deprived by the Pope, or any Authority of the See of Rome, may be depoſed or murdered by their Subjects, or any other whatſoever. And I do declare, That no Foreign Prince, Perſon, Prelate, State or Potentate hath, or ought to have any Juriſdiction, Power, Superiority, Preeminence, or Authority, Eccleſiaſtical or Spiritual, within this Realm.

So help me God.

Acceptance of the Crown.

IV. Upon which their ſaid Majeſties did accept the Crown and Royal Dignity of the Kingdoms of England, France and Ireland, and the Dominions thereunto belonging, according to the Reſolution and Deſire of the ſaid Lords and Commons contained in the ſaid Declaration.

The two Houſes to ſit.

V. And thereupon their Majeſties were pleaſed, That the ſaid Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, being the two Houſes of Parliament, ſhould continue to ſit, and with their Majeſties Royal Concurrence, make effectual Proviſion for the Settlement of the Religion, Laws and Liberties of this Kingdom, ſo that the ſame for the future might not be in danger again of being ſubverted; To which the ſaid Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons did agree and proceed to act accordingly.

Subjects Liberties to be allowed.

VI. Now in purſuance of the Premiſſes, the ſaid Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in Parliament aſſembled, for the ratifying, confirming and eſtabliſhing the ſaid Declaration, and the Articles, Clauſes, Matters and Things therein contained, by the Force of a Law made in due Form by Authority of Parliament, do pray that it may be declared and enacted, That all and ſingular the Rights and Liberties aſſerted and claimed in the ſaid Declaration, are the true, ancient and indubitable Rights and Liberties of the People of this Kingdom, and ſo ſhall be eſteemed, allowed, adjudged, deemed and taken to be; and that all and every the particulars aforeſaid, ſhall be firmly and ſtrictly holden and obſerved, as they are expreſſed in the ſaid Declaration; And all Officers and Miniſters whatſoever, ſhall ſerve their Majeſties and their Succeſſors according to the ſame in all times to come.

William and Mary declared King and Queen.

VII. And the ſaid Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, ſeriouſly conſidering how it hath pleaſed Almighty God, in his marvellous Providence, and merciful Goodneſs to this Nation, to provide and preſerve their ſaid Majeſties Royal Perſons moſt happily to Reign over us upon the Throne of their Anceſtors, for which they render unto him from the bottom of their Hearts their humbleſt Thanks and Praiſes, do truly, firmly, aſſuredly and in the Sincerity of their Hearts think, and do hereby recognize, acknowledge and declare, That King James the Second having abdicated the Government, and their Majeſties having accepted the Crown and Royal Dignity, as aforeſaid, Their ſaid Majeſties did become, were, are and of right ought to be, by the Laws of this Realm, our Soveraign Liege Lord and Lady, King and Queen of England, France and Ireland, and the Dominions thereunto belonging, in and to whoſe Princely Perſons, the Royal State, Crown and Dignity of the ſaid Realms, with all Honours, Styles, Titles, Regalities, Prerogatives, Powers, Juriſdictions and Authorities to the ſame belonging and appertaining, are moſt fully, rightfully and intirely inveſted and incorporated, united and annexed.

Limitation of the Crown.

VIII. And for preventing all Queſtions and Diviſions in this Realm, by reaſon of any pretended Titles to the Crown, and for preſerving a Certainty in the Succeſſion thereof, in and upon which the Unity, Peace, Tranquility and Safety of this Nation doth, under God, wholly conſiſt and depend, The ſaid Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons do beſeech their Majeſties, That it may be enacted, eſtabliſhed and declared, That the Crown and Regal Government of the ſaid Kingdoms and Dominions, with all and ſingular the Premiſſes thereunto belonging and appertaining ſhall be and continue to their ſaid Majeſties, and the Survivor of them, during their Lives, and the Life of the Survivor of them; And that the entire, perfect and full Exerciſe of the Regal Power and Government be only in, and executed by his Majeſty, in the Names of both their Majeſties during their joynt Lives; And after their deceaſes the ſaid Crown and Premiſſes, ſhall be and remain to the Heirs of the Body of her Majeſty; and for default of ſuch Iſſue, to her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Anne of Denmark, and the Heirs of her Body; and for default of ſuch Iſſue to the Heirs of the Body of his ſaid Majeſty: And thereunto the ſaid Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, do in the Name of all the People aforeſaid, moſt humbly and faithfully ſubmit themſelves, their Heirs and Poſterities for ever; and do faithfully promiſe, That they will ſtand to, maintain and defend their ſaid Majeſties; And alſo the Limitation and Succeſſion of the Crown herein ſpecified and contained, to the utmoſt of their Powers, with their Lives and Eſtates againſt all perſons whatſoever, that ſhall attempt any thing to the contrary.

Papiſts debarred the Crown.

IX. And whereas it hath been found by Experience, that it is inconſiſtent with the Safety and Welfare of this Proteſtant Kingdom, to be governed by a Popiſh Prince, or by any King or Queen marrying a Papiſt, the ſaid Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons do farther pray that it may be enacted, That all and every perſon and perſons that is, are, or ſhall be reconciled to, or ſhall hold Communion with the See or Church of Rome, or ſhall profeſs the Popiſh Religion, or ſhall marry a Papiſt, ſhall be excluded, and be for ever uncapable to inherit, poſſeſs or enjoy the Crown and Government of this Realm, and Ireland, and the Dominions thereunto belonging, or any part of the ſame, or to have, uſe or exerciſe any Regal Power, Authority or Juriſdiction within the ſame; And in all and every ſuch Caſe or Caſes, the People of theſe Realms ſhall be, and are hereby abſolved of their Allegiance; And the ſaid Crown and Government ſhall from time to time deſcend to, and be enjoyed by ſuch perſon or perſons, being Proteſtants, as ſhould have inherited and enjoyed the ſame, in caſe the ſaid perſon or perſons ſo reconciled, holding Communion, or Profeſſing or Marrying, as aforeſaid, were naturally dead.

All Kings, &c. ſhall take the Declaration of 30 Car. 2.

X. And that every King and Queen of this Realm, who at any time hereafter ſhall come to and ſucceed in the Imperial Crown of this Kingdom, ſhall on the firſt day of the meeting of the firſt Parliamnet, next after his or her coming to the Crown, ſitting in his or her Throne, in the Houſe of Peers in the preſence of the Lords and Commons therein aſſembled, or at his or her Coronation, before ſuch perſon or perſons who ſhall adminiſter the Coronation Oath to him or her, at the time of his or her taking the ſaid Oath, (which ſhall firſt happen) make, ſubſcribe and audibly repeat the Declaration mentioned in the Statute made in the thirtieth year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, Entituled, An Act for the more effectual Preſerving the Kings Perſon and Government, by diſabling Papiſts from ſitting in either Houſe of Parliament. But if it ſhall happen, that ſuch King or Queen upon his or her Succeſſion to the Crown of this Realm, ſhall be under the age of twelve years, then every ſuch King or Queen ſhall make, ſubſcribe and audibly repeat the ſaid Declaration at his or her Coronation, or the firſt day of the meeting of the firſt Parliament, as aforeſaid, which ſhall firſt happen after ſuch King or Queen ſhall have attained the ſaid Age of twelve years.

If under 12 years old to be done after attainment thereof.

Kings Aſſent.

XI. All which, Their Majeſties are contented and pleaſed, ſhall be declared, enacted and eſtabliſhed by authority of this preſent Parliament, and ſhall ſtand, remain and be the Law of this Realm for ever; And the ſame are by their ſaid Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, declared, enacted and eſtabliſhed accordingly.

Non obſtante's made void.

XII. And be it farther declared and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That from and after this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, no Diſpenſation by Non obſtante of or to any Statute, or any part thereof, ſhall be allowed, but that the ſame ſhall be held void and of no effect, Except a Diſpenſation be allowed of in ſuch Statute; and except in ſuch Caſes as ſhall be ſpecially provided for by one or more Bill or Bills to be paſſed during this preſent Seſſion of Parliament.

Pardons excepted before October.

XIII. Provided that no Charter, or Grant, or Pardon granted before the three and twentieth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred eighty nine, ſhall be any ways impeached or invalidated by this Act, but that the ſame ſhall be and remain of the ſame force and effect in Law, and no other then as if this Act had never been made.

CAP. III. (37.)

An Act for preventing all Doubts and Queſtions concerning the collecting the Publick Revenue. Exp.

CAP. IV. (38.)

An Act for puniſhing Officers or Soldiers who ſhall mutiny or deſert their Majeſties Service, and for puniſhing Falſe Muſters. Exp.

CAP. V. (39.)

An Act for a Grant to their Majeſties of an Additional Aid of twelve Pence in the Pound for one year. Exp.

CAP. VI. (40.)

An Act for the Charging and Collecting the Duties upon Coffee, Tea and Chocolate, at the Cuſtom-Houſe.

Preamble.

Whereas it hath been found by Experience, that the collecting of the Duty ariſing to your Majeſties, by virtue of ſeveral Acts of Parliament, by way of Exciſe upon the Liquors of Coffee, Chocolate and Tea, is not only very troubleſome and unequal upon the Retailers of thoſe Liquors, but requireth ſuch attendance of Officers, as makes the neat Receipt very inconſiderable: For remedy thereof,

Acts for collecting Exciſe upon Coffee, &c. repealed.

II. Be it enacted by the King and Queen's moſt excellent Majeſties, with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That from and after the nine and twentieth day of September, one thouſand ſix hundred and ninety, ſo much of every Act of Parliament as concerns and requires the collecting the reſpective Duties by any of thoſe Acts, by way of Exciſe upon any of the Liquors aforeſaid, ſhall ceaſe and determinate; And ſo much of every of the ſaid Acts as require the collecting of the ſaid Duty, by way of Exciſe, ſhall hereby be, and are repealed, as to that part only that require ſuch Collection: And to the end the Duty thereby ariſing to your Majeſties, may be brought in with little Charge or Trouble,

The Duties upon Coffee, &c. collected at the Cuſtom-houſe.
The particular Duties.
Half Duty on Coffee after 25 March, 1693. during this Act diſcharged by 4 & 5 W. & M. Cap. 5. Sect. 13.
One pound of Cacao Nuts imported from Engliſh Plantations 6 d. from other Countries 8 d. One pound of Tea 1 s. One pound weight of Chocolate ready made, 1 s.
All to be paid above Duties charged in the Book of Rates.
Penalty for Non-payment.

III. Be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That from and after the five and twentieth day of December, one thouſand ſix hundred eighty nine, the Duties and Charges hereafter mentioned, ſhall be collected and received by your Majeſties Officers at the Cuſtom-houſe, upon Coffee Berries, Tea in the Leaf, and Cacao Nuts, and alſo upon Chocolate ready made, being the materials from which the ſaid Liquors are now extracted, brewed or made; and according to ſuch proportions as are hereafter mentioned, over and beſides what is now paid or payable for the ſaid Commodities at the Cuſtom-houſe for the ſame; that is to ſay, upon every hundred weight of Coffee imported into any Ports within this Kingdom, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, accounting one hundred and twelve pounds to the Hundred, five pounds twelve ſhillings; and upon every hundred weight of Cacao Nuts imported, and containing, as aforeſaid, eight pounds eight ſhillings; and upon every pound weight of Tea imported five ſhillings; and upon every pound weight of Chocolate ready made, imported, five ſhillings; and ſo proportionably for any greater or leſſer quantity of any the Commodities aforeſaid reſpectively.

IV. And for the more effectual collecting and receiving of the ſaid Duty, Be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any of the Commodities aforeſaid, whereof the Duties are or ſhall be due, ſhall be unſhipped or laid on Land, the Duties due or to be due for the ſame, not paid or lawfully tendred to the Collector thereof, or his Deputy, with the conſent and agreement of the Comptroller and Surveyor there, nor agreed with for the ſame in the Cuſtom-houſe, according to the true meaning of this Act, that then from the ſaid five and twentieth day of December, one thouſand ſix hundred eighty nine, all the ſaid Goods and Merchandizes ſhall be forfeited; the one moiety of the ſaid Goods ſo forfeited ſhall be to your Majeſties uſe, and the other moiety to him or them that will ſeize or ſue for the ſame, without any Compoſition whatſoever; this Act to continue for the term of five years, and no longer.

Two thirds repaid upon Exportation.

V. Provided always, and it is farther enacted and declared by the authority aforeſaid, That every Merchant or other Importer, having paid the ſaid Duties and Impoſitions in and by this Act appointed to be paid for any of the ſaid Goods or Merchandizes herein before made liable to the payment thereof, who ſhall within ſix months next after ſuch his Importation thereof, again ſhip off and carry out of this Kingdom, or any Port thereof, the ſaid Goods or Merchandizes, or any part thereof, to any parts beyond the Seas, That ſuch Merchant or other Importer, on ſuch his Exportation thereof, ſhall be repaid two thirds of the Duties ſo by him paid by virtue of this Act, of ſo much of the ſaid Goods and Merchandizes which he ſhall ſo export or ſhip off.

Nutmegs, &c. how imported.

VI. And it is farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any perſon or perſons to import into this Kingdom, Nutmegs, Cinamon, Cloves and Mace, in any Engliſh Ships (one third part at leaſt of the Mariners whereof to be Engliſhmen) from any parts beyond the Seas, paying double the Sums the ſame are charged with in the Book of Rates, for the Cuſtoms and Duties thereof, ſo as notice be firſt given to the Commiſſioners or Farmers of their Majeſties Cuſtoms, of the quality and quantity of the ſaid Spices ſo intended to be imported, with the Name of the Ship and Maſter or Commander on which they are to be loaden, and the place into which they intend to import the ſame, and taking a Licence under the hands of the Commiſſioners or Farmers for the time being, or any three of them, for the lading and importing thereof, as aforeſaid; which Licence they are hereby authorized and required to grant without any Fee or Reward, or any other Charge to the perſon demanding the ſame; any Law, Cuſtom or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

CAP. VII. (41.)

An Act for Review of the late Poll granted to their Majeſties, and for an Additional Poll towards the Reducing of Ireland. Exp.

CAP. VIII. (42.)

An Act for Preventing vexatious Suits againſt ſuch as acted in order to the bringing in their Majeſties, or for their Service.

Preamble.

WHereas about the time of his Majeſties glorious Enterprize, for delivering this Kingdom from Popery and Arbitrary Power, and in aid and purſuance of the ſame, divers Lords, Gentlemen and other good People well affected to their Country, did act as Lieutenants, Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, or other Officers, Civil or Military, though not ſufficiently authorized thereunto, and did apprehend and put into Cuſtody ſeveral criminous and ſuſpected perſons, and did ſeize and uſe divers Horſes, Arms, and other things, and did enter into the Houſes and Poſſeſſions of ſeveral perſons, and did quarter, and cauſe to be quartered, Soldiers and others there; In which Proceedings ſome Force and Violence, and defect of Form, was unavoidable, which in a time of Peace and Common Safety would not have been warrantable: And alſo ſince their Majeſties happy Acceſſion to the Crown, by reaſon of the Wars and Troubles raiſed and occaſioned by the Enemies of their Majeſties and this Kingdom, divers like Matters and Things have been acted and done, all which were neceſſary and allowable in regard of the exigence of publick Affairs, and ought to be juſtified, and the parties concerned therein indempnified: Nevertheleſs, ſome perſons ill affected to their Majeſties Government, and the Safety and Welfare of this Kingdom, have commenced and proſecuted, and threaten to commence and proſecute Actions and Suits againſt their Majeſties good Subjects, for and by reaſon of their Actings and Doings aforeſaid: Therefore for the preventing the Trouble and Charges which the ſaid good Subjects might be put to by the means of ſuch vexatious Suits, Proſecutions againſt any perſons for doing any thing in bringing in their Majeſties void.

II. Be it enacted by the King and Queen's moſt excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That all perſonal Actions, Suits, Moleſtations and Proſecutions whatſoever, and Judgments had thereupon, if any be, for or by reaſon of any of the Premiſſes, or any Matter or Thing adviſed, commanded, appointed, happened or done in order to the bringing in their Majeſties to this Kingdom, or for their Service, or for the Safety of the Government, be, and are hereby diſcharged and made void; And if any Action or Suit hereby declared or intended to be diſcharged, ſhall be commenced or proſecuted, every perſon ſo ſued, may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence; And if the Plaintiff ſhall become Nonſuit, or forbear farther Proſecution, or ſuffer Diſcontinuance, or if a Verdict paſs againſt him, the ſaid Defendant ſhall recover his double Coſts, for which he ſhall have the like Remedy as in Caſe where Coſts by Law are given to Defendants.

Defendant may plead general Iſſue and recover double Coſts.

CAP. IX. (43.)

An Act for the better Security and Relief of their Majeſties Proteſtant Subjects of Ireland.

Preamble.

WHereas the Kingdom of Ireland is (as well by the Laws of this Kingdom, as thoſe of Ireland) annexed and united to the Imperial Crown of England, and all Acts, Judgments, Sentences, Orders, Decrees or other Proceedings, of what kind ſoever, there had, made or done, without or againſt the authority of the Kings or Queens of this Kingdom of England, are abſolutely null and void; And all perſons in Ireland that oppoſe or ſubmit not to the Government of the Crown of this Realm, are Rebels and Guilty of High Treaſon; Notwithſtanding which ſeveral perſons, ſince the happy Acceſſion of their Majeſties, King William and Queen Mary, to the Imperial Crown of this Realm, have been lately aſſembled at or near the City of Dublin in the Kingdom of Ireland, without any authority from their ſaid Majeſties, pretending to be, or calling themſelves by the Name of a Parliament, and in ſuch Rebellious Aſſembly have made and paſſed ſeveral pretended Acts or Statutes in manifeſt oppoſition to the Soveraignty, and to the inherent Rights and Dignities of the Crown of this Realm, and to the general Prejudice and Violation of the Rights and Properties of their Majeſties good Subjects of that Kingdom. And although all the ſaid Proceedings are abſolutely null and void in themſelves, yet nevertheleſs, for the more plain and expreſs declaring and aſſerting the Soveraignty, Rights and Dignities of the Crown of England, and for the clearing all Doubts, and quieting the Minds of their Majeſties good Subjects of that Kingdom, as alſo for the remedying, preventing and avoiding the ſeveral Miſchiefs and Inconveniencies intended by this Act to be provided againſt,

The Iriſh Parliament declared void.

II. Be it enacted and declared by the King and Queens moſt excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, That the perſons now or of late aſſembled at Dublin, without any authority derived from their Majeſties, pretending to be, or calling themſelves by the Name of a Parliament, were not, nor are a Parliament, but an unlawful and rebellious Aſſembly; And that all Acts of Attainder, and all other Acts and Proceedings whatſoever had, made, done or paſſed, or to be had, made, done or paſſed in the ſaid pretended Parliament, ſhall be taken, deemed and adjudged to be, and are hereby declared to be abſolutely null and void to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes whatſoever: And alſo that no Act, Statute, Judgment, Outlawry, Decree, Sentence, Order or other Proceedings, Matter, or thing whatſoever ſince the thirteenth day of February in the year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred eighty eight, had, made, paſſed, given, pronounced or done, or pretended to be had, made, paſſed, given, pronounced or done, or hereafter to be had, made, paſſed, given, pronounced or done, by any perſon or perſons whatſoever, by colour of any Commiſſion, Writ, Power or Authority within their Majeſties Kingdom of Ireland, (other then ſuch Commiſſion, Writ, Power or Authority as hath been, or ſhall be given by, or derived from or under their Majeſties) ſhall be of any Strength, Force, Virtue or Effect, but that the ſame to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, ſhall be and are hereby declared and adjudged to be abſolutely null and void.

All Acts, &c. ſince 13th of February, 1688. (except by, from or under the King, void.

III. And be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all Cities, Boroughs and Towns, and all and ſingular Bodies Corporate, Eccleſiaſtical or Temporal, within the ſaid Kingdom of Ireland, ſhall be, and are hereby declared, adjudged and enacted to be reſtored unto the ſame ſtate and condition, to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes whatſoever, which they, and every or any of them were in, at or upon the four and twentieth day of June which was in the year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred eighty three; any Proceedings againſt them, or any of them, by Quo Warranto's, Scire Facias, or Information in the nature of Quo Warranto, or any Proceedings, Judgments, Seizures or Executions thereon, or any new Charter, Grant, Commiſſion, or any Surrender, or other Act or Acts ſince that time, to the contrary notwithſtanding; All which Writs, Suits, Proceedings, Judgments, Seizures, Executions, Charters, Grants, Commiſſions, Surrenders, and other Act and Acts, are hereby declared and adjudged to be null and void, to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes whatſoever.

All Cities and Corporations in Ireland to be in the ſame ſtate as they were in 1683. notwithſtanding Quo Warranto's, &c. which are declared void.

IV. And be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That no perſon or perſons whatſoever of the Proteſtant Religion, ſhall be ſubject or liable to any Loſs, Forfeiture or Prejudice in Eſtate, Office, Perſon or otherwiſe, for or by reaſon of his or their abſence out of the Kingdom of Ireland, at any time or times ſince the five and twentieth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred eighty five; or for Nonpayment of Rent, or any other duty due or payable to their Majeſties, or the Crown, out of, for, or by reaſon of any Houſes, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Rectories, Tythes or Church-Livings, ſince the five and twentieth day of December in the year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred eighty eight, until ſuch time as the ſaid Kingdom of Ireland ſhall be declared by their Majeſties to be reduced to their Majeſties Obedience, but ſhall be abſolutely diſcharged and acquitted of and from the payment of all Quit-Rents, Crown-Rents, Compoſition-Rents, Hearth-Mony, Twentieth-parts, Payments and other chief Rents, ariſing or payable out of any Houſes, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Rectories, Tythes or Church-Livings, incurring or becoming due to their Majeſties or the Crown, at any time after the ſaid five and twentieth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred eighty eight, until the ſaid Kingdom of Ireland ſhall be by their Majeſties declared to be reduced, and the War and Rebellion there ended.

No perſon ſhall be prejudiced by his abſence, or for non-payment of Rent, &c. to the King betwixt 1685. and the time that Ireland ſhall be reduced

V. And be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all and every Proteſtant and Proteſtants of the Kingdom of Ireland, ſhall be, and are hereby reſtored to all their Poſſeſſions, as well Eccleſiaſtical as Temporal, in ſuch manner as they, or thoſe under whom they claim, had the ſame on the five and twentieth day of December one thouſand ſix hundred eighty eight; and that all and every perſon and perſons that do detain ſuch Poſſeſſions after a Demand by the party grieved, and intended to be hereby reſtored, ſhall and may be proceeded againſt, as in caſe of a forcible Detainer.

Proteſtants reſtored to their Poſſeſſions.

Forcible Detainer againſt perſon detaining.

SESSIO PRIMA.

Anno Regni GULIELMI & MARIÆ Regis & Reginæ Angliæ, Scotiæ, Franciæ & Hiberniæ, Secundo.

CAP. I.

An Act for Recognizing King William and Queen Mary, and for avoiding all Queſtions touching the Acts made in the Parliament aſſembled at Weſtminſter the thirteenth day of February, one thouſand ſix hundred eighty eight.

WE your Majeſties moſt humble and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, do beſeech your moſt excellent Majeſties, That it may be publiſhed and declared in this High Court of Parliament, and enacted by authority of the ſame, That we do recognize and acknowledge your Majeſties were, are, and of Right ought to be by the Laws of this Realm, our Sovereign Liege Lord and Lady King and Queen of England, France and Ireland, and the Dominions thereunto belonging, in and to whoſe Princely Perſons the Royal State, Crown and Dignity of the ſaid Realms, with all Honours, Stiles, Titles, Regalities, Prerogatives, Powers, Juriſdictions and Authorities to the ſame belonging and appertaining, are moſt fully, rightfully and intirely inveſted and incorporated, united and annexed.

King and Queen recognized.

II. And for the avoiding of all Diſputes and Queſtions concerning the Being and Authority of the late Parliament aſſembled at Weſtminſter the thirteenth day of February one thouſand ſix hundred eighty eight, We do moſt humbly beſeech your Majeſties that it may be enacted; And be it enacted by the King and Queen's moſt excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That all and ſingular the Acts made and enacted in the ſaid Parliament, were and are Laws and Statutes of this Kingdom, and as ſuch ought to be reputed, taken and obeyed by all the People of this Kingdom.

Laſt Parliament declared good.

CAP. II.

An Act for Raiſing Mony by a Poll, and otherwiſe, towards the Reducing of Ireland, and Proſecuting the War againſt France. Exp.

CAP. III.

An Act for granting to their Majeſties for their Lives, and the Life of the Survivor of them, certain Impoſitions upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors.

THE Commons aſſembled in Parliament duly conſidering how much it conduceth to the Safety, Peace and Proſperity of a Kingdom, that the publick Revenue thereof be in ſome meaſure proportionable to the publick Charges, and with Thankfulneſs and Admiration calling to remembrance his Majeſties glorious and ſucceſsful Undertaking for the deliverance of the People of this Nation from Popery and Arbitrary Power, have unanimouſly given and granted, and do hereby give and grant unto their Majeſties (whom God long preſerve) the ſeveral Rates, Impoſitions, Duties and Charges upon Beer, Ale, Cyder, and other Liquors mentioned in an Act of Parliament made in the twelfth year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King Charles the Second, Entituled, A Grant of certain Impoſitions upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, for the Increaſe of his Majeſty's Revenue during his Life, and thereby granted to the ſaid King for his Life, (except ſuch, and ſo much of them, concerning which it is otherwiſe provided and ordained by any Act made in the laſt Parliament) and do moſt humbly beſeech their Majeſties that it may be enacted.

Cap. 23.

Rates upon Beer,&c. given by 15 Car. 2. 23. now given to the King and Queen for their Lives.

II. And be it enacted by the King and Queen's moſt excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That the ſeveral Rates, Duties and Impoſitions upon Beer, Ale, Cyder and other Liquors aforeſaid, be levied, collected and paid unto their Majeſties during their Lives, and the Life of the Survivor of them, in the ſame manner and form, and at ſuch places, and by ſuch rules, ways and means, and under ſuch penalties and forfeitures as are mentioned, expreſſed and directed in and by the ſaid Act; and alſo in and by another Act of Parliament made in the fifteenth year of the Reign of his ſaid late Majeſty, Entituled, An Additional Act for the better ordering and collecting the Duty of Exciſe, and preventing the Abuſes therein, or by any other Law now in force, relating to the ſaid Revenue of Exciſe; and that the aforeſaid Acts, and every Article, Rule and Clauſe therein mentioned, ſhall be of full force and effect, to all intents and purpoſes, during their Majeſties Lives, and the Life of the Survivor of them, in like manner as if the ſame were particularly and at large recited and ſet down in the Body of this Act.

Manner of Levying.

Cap. 11.

III. And whereas their Majeſties are contented and pleaſed that it be enacted, That the Rates, Impoſitions, Duties and Charges by this Act given and granted to them as aforeſaid, ſhould be made a Fond of Credit for the raiſing a Sum not exceeding two hundred and fifty thouſand pounds, towards the reducing of Ireland, and carrying on the preſent War againſt the French King, not doubting but that their good Subjects (in whoſe Love and dutiful Affections their Majeſties are firmly perſwaded the Strength and Glory of the Crown doth principally conſiſt) will in due time make proviſion for the taking off and diſcharging the ſaid Anticipations. Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if it ſhould happen (which God forbid) that their Majeſties ſhould die before the four and twentieth day of December, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred ninety three, That then the ſaid ſeveral Rates, Impoſitions, Duties and Charges, ſhall be continued, and ſhall be levied, collected and paid in manner aforeſaid, unto their Majeſties Suceſſors, until the ſaid four and twentieth day of December ſubject to and chargeable with the ſaid Sum to be borrowed or raiſed as aforeſold.

If their Majeſties die, given to their Succeſſors till Decemb. 1693.

Clauſe of Credit for 250000 l. at 8 l, per Cent.

IV. And for the enabling their Majeſties to borrow the ſaid Sum for the purpoſes aforeſaid, for which the ſaid ſeveral Rates, Impoſitions, Duties, and Charges are intended to be a Security, Be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful, to and for any perſon or perſons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, to advance and lend to their Majeſties into the Receipt of the Exchequer, upon the Credit of this Act any Sum or Sums of mony, not exceeding the Sum of two hundred and fifty thouſand pounds in the whole, and to have and receive the forbearance of all ſuch monies as ſhall be lent before the tenth day of June, one thouſand ſix hundred and ninety, Intereſt not exceeding the Rate of eight pounds per Centum per Annum; And for what ſhall be lent after the ſaid tenth day of June, Intereſt not exceeding ſeven pounds per Centum per Annum.

Three parts in four to be kept apart by the Commiſſioners of the Exciſe till December 1693. and the mony to be paid weekly into the Exchequer.

V. And to the end that all Monies which ſhall be ſo lent unto their Majeſties, may be well and ſufficiently ſecured out of the Monies ariſing and payable by this Act, with the Intereſt for the ſame, not exceeding the reſpective Rates aforeſaid, Be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That from and after the firſt day of November, one thouſand ſix hundred and ninety, until the ſaid twenty fourth day of December, which ſhall be in the year of Lord, one thouſand ſix hundred ninety three, the Commiſſioners and Governors for the management of the Receipt of Exciſe at the Head Office in London, ſhall ſeparate and keep apart three parts (the whole in four equal parts to be divided) of the Monies ariſing by the Rates and Duties of Exciſe hereby granted, as the ſame ſhall from time to time ariſe or be paid into the ſaid Office of Exciſe, by the Receivers or Collectors of the ſame, or by any other perſon whatſoever. And the Auditor and Comptroler of the Exciſe for the time being, or their reſpective Deputies, ſhall keep a perfect and diſtinct Account in Books fairly written of the ſaid three parts, as the ſame ſhall come in: To which Books all perſons concerned, ſhall have free acceſs at all ſeaſonable times without Fee or Charge. And the ſaid Commiſſioners and Governours of Exciſe, for the time being, are hereby required and ſtrictly enjoyned from time to time, to pay weekly, to wit, on Wedneſday in every Week, if it be not an Holy-day, and if it be, then the next day after that is not an Holy-day, the ſaid three parts into the Receipt of their Majeſties Exchequer, diſtinct and apart from the other Monies, which the ſaid Commiſſioners and Governours of the Exciſe, ſhall receive for their Majeſties uſe.

Tally, Order, Warrant, Regiſter and Payment in courſe.

VI. And be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That there ſhall be provided and kept in their Majeſties Exchequer, (that is to ſay) in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipts one Book in which all Monies that ſhall be paid into the Exchequer, of or for the ſaid three parts as aforeſaid, ſhall be entred apart and diſtinct from all other Monies, paid or payable to their Majeſties upon any account whatſoever. And that all and every perſon and perſons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, who ſhall lend any Mony to their Majeſties upon the Credit of this Act, and pay the ſame into the Receipt of the Exchequer, ſhall immediately have a Tally of Loan ſtruck for the ſame, and an Order for his or their Repayment, bearing the ſame date with the Tally; in which Order ſhall be alſo contained a Warrant for Payment of Intereſt for Forbearance not exceeding the reſpective Rates aforeſaid, for his or their Conſideration to be paid every three Months until Repayment of the Principal. And that all Orders for Repayment of Mony ſhall be regiſtred in Courſe according to the date of the Tally reſpectively without preference of one before another. And that all and every perſon and perſons ſhall be paid in Courſe, according as their Orders ſhall ſtand regiſtred in the ſaid Book, ſo as that the perſon, Native or Foreigner, his, her or their Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, who ſhall have his, her or their Order or Orders firſt entred in the ſaid Book, ſhall be taken and accounted as the firſt perſon to be paid upon the Monies to come in by virtue of this Act; And he or they who ſhall have his or their Order or Orders next entred, ſhall be taken and accounted to be the ſecond perſon to be paid, and ſo ſucceſſively and in courſe. And that the Monies to come in by this Act ſhall be in the ſame Order liable to the Satiſfaction of the ſaid reſpective Parties, their Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns ſucceſſively, without preference of one before another, and not otherwiſe, and no to be divertible to any other uſe, intent or purpoſe whatſoever.

Puniſhment upon the Commiſſioners neglecting or miſapplying.

VII. And if the ſaid Commiſſioners or Governours of the Exciſe for the time being, ſhall refuſe or neglect to pay into the Exchequer the ſaid three parts of the Mony ariſing as aforeſaid, in ſuch manner as they are before required or enjoyned to do, or ſhall divert or miſapply any part of the ſame, Then they for any ſuch Offence ſhall forfeit their Offices of Commiſſioners and Governours for the management of the Receipt of the Exciſe, and be uncapable of any Office or place of truſt whatſoever, and ſhall be liable to pay the full Value of any Sum or Sums ſo diverted or miſapplyed to any perſon or perſons who will ſue for the ſame, by any Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of their Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, where no Eſſoign, Protection, Wager of Law or Priviledge, or more then one Imparlance, ſhall be granted or allowed; And that no Fee, Reward or Gratuity, directly or indirectly, be demanded or taken of any of their Majeſties Subjects for providing or making of any ſuch Books, Regiſters, Entries, View or Search, as aforeſaid, or in or for the Payment of Mony lent, or the Intereſt, as aforeſaid, by any of their Majeſties Officer or Officers, their Clerks or Deputies, on pain of payment of treble Damages to the Party grieved, by the Party offending, with Coſts of Suit; Or if the Officer or Officers themſelves take or demand any ſuch Fee or Reward, then to loſe their Places alſo; And if any undue preference of one before another ſhall be made, either in point of Regiſtry or Payment, contrary to the true meaning of this Act, by any ſuch Officer or Officers, then the Party offending ſhall be liable by Action of Debt, or on the Caſe, to pay the value of the Debt, Damages and Coſts to the Party grieved, and ſhall be forejudged from their Places or Offices; And if ſuch preference be unduly made by any their Deputies or Clerks without direction or privity of the Officer or Officers, then ſuch Deputy or Clerk only ſhall be lyable to ſuch Action, Debt, Damages and Coſts, and ſhall be for ever after uncapable of his Place or Office. And in caſe the Auditor ſhall not direct the Order, or the Clerk of the Pells Record, or the Teller make Payment according to each perſons due Place and Order, as afore directed, then he or they ſhall be judged to forfeit, and their reſpective Deputies and Clerks herein offending, to be liable to ſuch Action, Debt, Damages and Coſts, in ſuch manner as aforeſaid: All which ſaid Penalties, Forfeitures, Damages and Coſts, to be incurred by any of the Officers aforeſaid, or any their Deputies or Clerks, ſhall and may be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information in any of their Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoign, Protection, Priviledge, Wager of Law, Injunction, or Order of Reſtraint, ſhall be in any wiſe granted or allowed.

Puniſhment for taking Fee for Entry, &c.

Puniſhment for undue preference.

What preference lawful.

VIII. Provided always, and be it hereby declared, That if it happen that ſeveral Tallies of Loan or Orders for payment as aforeſaid, bear date, or be brought the ſame day to the Auditor of the Receipt to be regiſtred, then it ſhall be interpreted no undue preference which of thoſe he enters firſt, ſo he enters them all the ſame day.

IX. Provided alſo, That it ſhall not be interpreted any undue preference to incur any Penalty in point of payment, if the Auditor direct, and the Clerk of the Pells Record, and the Teller do pay ſubſequent Orders of perſons that come and demand their Mony, and bring their Order in their Courſe, ſo as there be ſo much Mony reſerved as will ſaisfie recedent Orders, which ſhall not be otherwiſe diſpoſed, but kept for them (Intereſt upn Loan, being to ceaſe from the time the Mony is ſo reſerved and kept in Bank for hem.)

Orders for monies how aſſignable.

X. And be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That every perſon or perſons, o whom any Monies ſhall be due, by Virtue of this Act, after Order entred in the Book f Regiſter aforeſaid, for payment thereof, his Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, by ndorſement of his Order may aſſign and transfer his Right, Title, Intereſt and Beefit of ſuch Order, or any part thereof, to any other, which being notified in the Office pay weekly, to wit, on Wedneſday in every Week, if it be not an Holy-day, and if it be, then the next day after that is not an Holy-day, the ſaid three parts into the Receipt of their Majeſties Exchequer, diſtinct and apart from the other Monies, which the ſaid Commiſſioners and Governours of the Exciſe, ſhall receive for their Majeſties uſe.

Tally, Order, Warrant, Regiſter and Payment in courſe.

VI. And be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That there ſhall be provided and kept in their Majeſties Exchequer, (that is to ſay) in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipts one Book in which all Monies that ſhall be paid into the Exchequer, of or for the ſaid three parts as aforeſaid, ſhall be entred apart and diſtinct from all other Monies, paid or payable to their Majeſties upon any account whatſoever. And that all and every perſon and perſons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, who ſhall lend any Mony to their Majeſties upon the Credit of this Act, and pay the ſame into the Receipt of the Exchequer, ſhall immediately have a Tally of Loan ſtruck for the ſame, and an Order for his or their Repayment, bearing the ſame date with the Tally; in which Order ſhall be alſo contained a Warrant for Payment of Intereſt for Forbearance not exceeding the reſpective Rates aforeſaid, for his or their Conſideration to be paid every three Months until Repayment of the Principal. And that all Orders for Repayment of Mony ſhall be regiſtred in Courſe according to the date of the Tally reſpectively without preference of one before another. And that all and every perſon and perſons ſhall be paid in Courſe, according as their Orders ſhall ſtand regiſtred in the ſaid Book, ſo as that the perſon, Native or Foreigner, his, her or their Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, who ſhall have his, her or their Order or Orders firſt entred in the ſaid Book, ſhall be taken and accounted as the firſt perſon to be paid upon the Monies to come in by virtue of this Act; And he or they who ſhall have his or their Order or Orders next entred, ſhall be taken and accounted to be the ſecond perſon to be paid, and ſo ſucceſſively and in courſe. And that the Monies to come in by this Act ſhall be in the ſame Order liable to the Satisfaction of the ſaid reſpective Parties, their Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns ſucceſſively, without preference of one before another, and not otherwiſe, and no to be divertible to any other uſe, intent or purpoſe whatſoever.

Puniſhment upon the Commiſſioners neglecting or miſapplying.

VII. And if the ſaid Commiſſioners or Governours of the Exciſe for the time being, ſhall refuſe or neglect to pay into the Exchequer the ſaid three parts of the Mony ariſing as aforeſaid, in ſuch manner as they are before required or enjoyned to do, or ſhall divert or miſapply any part of the ſame, Then they for any ſuch Offence ſhall forfeit their Offices of Commiſſioners and Governours for the management of the Receipt of the Exciſe, and be uncapable of any Office or place of truſt whatſoever, and ſhall be liable to pay the full Value of any Sum or Sums ſo diverted or miſapplyed to any perſon or perſons who will ſue for the ſame, by any Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of their Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, where no Eſſoign, Protection, Wager of Law or Priviledge, or more then one Imparlance, ſhall be granted or allowed; And that no Fee, Reward or Gratuity, directly or indirectly, be demanded or taken of any of their Majeſties Subjects for providing or making of any ſuch Books, Regiſters, Entries, View or Search, as aforeſaid, or in or for the Payment of Mony lent, or the Intereſt, as aforeſaid, by any of their Majeſties Officer or Officers, their Clerks or Deputies, on pain of payment of treble Damages to the Party grieved, by the Party offending, with Coſts of Suit; Or if the Officer or Officers themſelves take or demand any ſuch Fee or Reward, then to loſe their Places alſo; And if any undue preference of one before another ſhall be made, either in point of Regiſtry or Payment, contrary to the true meaning of this Act, by any ſuch Officer or Officers, then the Party offending ſhall be liable by Action of Debt, or on the Caſe, to pay the value of the Debt, Damages and Coſts to the Party grieved, and ſhall be forejudged from their Places or Offices; And if ſuch preference be unduly made by any their Deputies or Clerks without direction or privity of the Officer or Officers, then ſuch Deputy or Clerk only ſhall be lyable to ſuch Action, Debt, Damages and Coſts, and ſhall be for ever after uncapable of his Place or Office. And in caſe the Auditor ſhall not direct the Order, or the Clerk of the Pells Record, or the Teller make Payment according to each perſons due Place and Order, as afore directed, then he or they ſhall be judged to forfeit, and their reſpective Deputies and Clerks herein offending, to be liable to ſuch Action, Debt, Damages and Coſts, in ſuch manner as aforeſaid: All which ſaid Penalties, Forfeitures, Damages and Coſts, to be incurred by any of the Officers aforeſaid, or any their Deputies or Clerks, ſhall and may be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information in any of their Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoign, Protection, Priviledge, Wager of Law, Injunction, or Order of Reſtraint, ſhall be in any wiſe granted or allowed.

Puniſhment for taking Fee for Entry, &c.

Puniſhment for undue preference.

What preference lawful.

VIII. Provided always, and be it hereby declared, That if it happen that ſeveral Tallies f Loan or Orders for payment as aforeſaid, bear date, or be brought the ſame day to the uditor of the Receipt to be regiſtred, then it ſhall be interpreted no undue preference which f thoſe he enters firſt, ſo he enters them all the ſame day.

IX. Provided alſo, That it ſhall not be interpreted any undue preference to incur any Penalty in point of payment, if the Auditor direct, and the Clerk of the Pells Record, nd the Teller do pay ſubſequent Orders of perſons that come and demand their Mony, nd bring their Order in their Courſe, ſo as there be ſo much Mony reſerved as will ſatiſfie ecedent Orders, which ſhall not be otherwiſe diſpoſed, but kept for them (Intereſt upn Loan, being to ceaſe from the time the Mony is ſo reſerved and kept in Bank for em.)

Orders for monies how aſſignable.

X. And be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That every perſon or perſons, whom any Monies ſhall be due, by Virtue of this Act, after Order entred in the Book Regiſter aforeſaid, for payment thereof, his Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, by ndorſement of his Order may aſſign and transfer his Right, Title, Intereſt and Be- fit of ſuch Order, or any part thereof, to any other, which being notified in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt aforeſaid, and an Entry or Memorial thereof alſo made in the Book or Regiſter aforeſaid, for Orders (which the Officers ſhall, upon Requeſt, without Fee or Charge accordingly make) ſhall entitle ſuch Aſſignee, his Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns to the benefit thereof, and payment thereon: And ſuch Aſſignee may in like manner aſſign again, and ſo toties quoties; and afterwards it ſhall not be in the power of ſuch perſon or perſons, who have or hath made ſuch Aſſignments, to make void, releaſe or diſcharge the ſame, or any the Monies thereby due, or any part thereof.

Repeal 1 Jac. 2. cap. 1.

XI. Provided nevertheleſs, and be it enacted, That an Act of Parliament made in the firſt year of the Reign of the late King James the Second, Entituled, An Act for Settling the Revenue on his Majeſty for Life, which was ſettled on his late Majeſty for his Life, ſhall be, and is, hereby repealed and made void; And that no Article, Clauſe or Thing therein contained from henceforth, ſhall be, or be conſtrued to be, of any force or effect whatſoever.

Not to extend to 1 W. & M. Seſſ. 2. Cap. 3.

XII. Provided nevertheleſs, That nothing in this Act ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to repeal or alter an Act made in the laſt Seſſion of the Parliament, held in the firſt year of their Majeſties Reign, Entituled, An Act for Preventing all Doubts and Queſtions, concerning the Collecting the publick Revenue, but that the ſame ſhall have Continuance, and be in force until the twenty fifth day of December, one thouſand ſix hundred and ninety; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Power given to the King to ſettle 20000 l. per annum upon Princeſs Anne.

XIII. And whereas the King and Queens moſt excellent Majeſties are graciouſly pleaſed, out of their Princely Care, and great Love and Affection to their intirely beloved Brother and Siſter the Prince and Princeſs Anne of Denmark, to make a farther Proviſion for the better Maintenance and Support of the ſaid Prince and Princeſs, their Iſſue and Children, and of their State and Dignity; Be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the King and Queens moſt excellent Majeſties, by their Letters Patents under the Great Seal of England, hereafter to be made, to give and grant unto the ſaid Princeſs Anne of Denmark, the yearly Rent or Sum of twenty thouſand pounds of lawful Mony of England, to be iſſuing out of the Impoſitions and Duties of the Exciſe hereby given and granted, or out of any part thereof, to have and to hold to the ſaid Princeſs Anne of Denmark for her Life, during the Lives of their Majeſties, and the Life of the longeſt Liver of them, (freed from the Loans by this Act to be made) to be paid to the ſaid Princeſs or her uſe, at the four moſt uſual Feaſts in the Year; that is to ſay, St. Michael the Archangel, the Nativity of our Lord Chriſt, the Annunciation of the Virgin Mary, and the Nativity of St. John Baptiſt, by equal Portions; The firſt payment to begin and be made on the Feaſt of the Nativity of St. John Baptiſt now next enſuing, and the ſame and all other ſucceeding payments, to be made and paid out of the Receipt of the Exchequer, or by and from the immediate Hands of all and every the Farmers, Commiſſioners, Subcommiſſioners, Treaſurers, Receivers or Collectors for the time being reſpectively of the ſaid Impoſitions and Duties of Exciſe hereby given and granted with ſuch Fees for the payment of the ſame, or without, as their Majeſties by the ſaid Letters Patents ſhall direct and appoint, and that the Acquittance of the ſaid Princeſs, or of her Receiver General from time to time ſhall be a good diſcharge for the payment thereof.

Their Majeſties may ſettle 20000 l. per annum upon Prince George, &c. if Princeſs Anne dye before their Majeſties.

XIV. And be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if it ſhall happen that the ſaid Princeſs ſhall depart this Life in the Life-time of their Majeſties, or either of them, that it ſhall be likewiſe lawful for their Majeſties by the ſaid Letters Patents, to give, grant and limit the ſaid yearly Sum of twenty thouſand pounds to the ſaid Prince of Denmark, and the Iſſue and Children of the ſaid Princeſs Anne of Denmark reſpectively, in ſuch proportions as their Majeſties by the ſaid Letters Patents ſhall limit, appoint and direct, the ſame to be held and enjoyed by the ſaid Prince of Denmark, and the Iſſue and Children of the ſaid Princeſs Anne of Denmark reſpectively, yearly and by quarterly payments, during the Lives of their Majeſties, and the Life of the longeſt Liver of them, and no longer.

All Clauſes in the Letters Patents good notwithſtanding miſrecital, &c.

XV. And be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all and every the Clauſes, Articles and Limitations to be contained in their ſaid Majeſties Letters Patents hereafter to be made as aforeſaid, for or concerning their Majeſties granting, conveying and ſettling of the ſaid yearly Sum of twenty thouſand pounds unto the ſaid Prince and Princeſs Anne of Denmark, their Iſſue and Children reſpectively, as aforeſaid, or of, for, or concerning the yearly or quarterly payments thereof and every Clauſe and Article therein contained, ſhall be, and are hereby enacted to be good and effectual in Law, according to the tenour and purport thereof in the ſaid Letters Patents to be expreſſed; any miſrecital, non-recital, omiſſion or other defect in the ſaid Letters Patents hereafter to be made, in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

CAP. IV.

An Act for granting to their Majeſties a Subſidy of Tonnage and Poundage, and other Sums of Mony payable upon Merchandizes Exported and Imported. Continued by 6 W. & M. cap. 1.

THE Commons aſſembled in Parliament, repoſing Truſt and Confidence in your Majeſties, for the guarding and defending of the Seas againſt all perſons who ſhall attempt to invade this your Realm, or to diſturb your Subjects in their Trade and Commerce, towards the defraying the neceſſary Charge thereof; And alſo for the better enabling your Majeſties to proſecute the preſent War againſt the French King, and for the reducing of Ireland with ſpeed and vigour; have cheerfully and unanimouſly given and granted, and do hereby give and grant unto your Majeſties the Subſidy of Tonnage and

Poundage, and other Sums given and granted unto his late Majeſty King Charles the Second, for his Life, by an Act of Parliament made in the twelfth year of his Reign, Entituled, A Subſidy granted to the King of Tonnage and Poundage, and other Sums of Mony payable upon Merchandize Exported and Imported, according to the Rates in the ſaid Act mentioned, and Rules and Orders thereunto annexed, (other then ſuch concerning which it is otherwiſe provided or ordained by any Act made in the laſt Parliament) And do moſt humbly beſeech your Majeſties, That it may be enacted;

Cap 4.

Tunnage and Poundage given to the King for four years.

II. And be it enacted by the King and Queen's moſt excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That the aforeſaid Subſidy of Tonnage and Poundage, and other Sums of Mony payable upon Merchandize, be levied, collected and paid unto their Majeſties for the Term of four years to commence and be computed from the four and twentieth day of December in the year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred and ninety; And that the aforeſaid Act, and every Article, Rule and Clauſe therein mentioned; And alſo an Order of the Commons in Parliament aſſembled, made in purſuance of the Rules and Orders annexed to the aforeſaid Act for ſettling of Officers Fees, dated the ſeventeenth of May, one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty two, and ſigned by Sir Edward Turnor, then Speaker, ſhall be of full force and effect to all intents and purpoſes, during the ſaid Term of four years, as fully and in like manner as if the ſame were particularly, and at large recited and ſet down in the Body of this Act.

Several Acts continued for four years.

III. And be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That an Act of Parliament made in the twelfth year of the Reign of the ſaid King Charles the Second, Entituled, An Act to prevent Frauds and Concealments of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms and Subſidies: As alſo an Act made in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of the Reign of the ſaid late King, Entituled, An Act for preventing Frauds, and regulating Abuſes in his Majeſty's Cuſtoms: And alſo an Act made in the two and twentieth year of the Reign of the ſaid late King Charles the Second, Entituled, An Act for the Improvement of Tillage, and the Breed of Cattel: And alſo one other Act made in the twenty fifth year of the Reign of the ſaid late King Charles the Second, Entituled, An Act for taking of Aliens Duties upon Commodities of the Growth, Product and Manufacture of the Nation: And alſo one other Act made in the ſaid twenty fifth year of the late King Charles the Second, Entituled, An Act for the Encouragement of the Greenland and Eaſtland Trades, and for the better ſecuring the Plantation Trade: And alſo one other Act made in the firſt year of the late King James the Second, Entituled, An Additional Act for the Improvement of Tillage, be of full force and effect during the ſaid term of four years.

Cap. 19.

IV. Provided nevertheleſs, and be it declared and enacted, That nothing herein contained ſhall be conſtrued or taken to determine any Articles or Clauſes in any of the before mentioned Acts, which were appointed and intended to be perpetual, but that the ſame, and every of them ſhall continue and remain in force, as if this preſent Act had not been made; But ſuch of the ſaid Acts, and ſuch Clauſes in any of them as were temporary ſhall hereby be revived and ſtand, continue and be in force for the ſaid term of four years only, and no longer.

Clauſe of Credit for 500000 l. at 8 per Cent.

V. And whereas their Majeſties are contented and pleaſed, That the Subſidy of Tonnage and Poundage, and other Duties aforeſaid, ſhould be made a Fond of Credit, in confidence that their good Subjects will in due time make proviſion for taking off the anticipation thereof; Be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any perſon or perſons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate to advance and lend to their Majeſties in the Receipt of their Exchequer, upon the credit of this Act, any ſum or ſums of mony, not exceeding the ſum of five hundred thouſand pounds in the whole; and to have and receive for the forbearance of all ſuch monies as ſhall be lent before the tenth day of June, one thouſand ſix hundred and ninety, Intereſt not exceeding the Rate of eight pounds per Centum per Annum, and for what ſhall be lent after the ſaid tenth day of June, Intereſt not exceeding ſeven pounds per Centum per Annum.

Cuſtom Office to be kept in London, a ſeparation of three parts in four after Debentures paid, and weekly payment into the Exchequer.

VI. And to the end that all monies which ſhall be ſo lent unto their Majeſties, may be well and ſufficiently ſecured out of the monies ariſing and payable by this Act, with Intereſt for the ſame, not exceeding the reſpective Rates aforeſaid, Be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That from and after the firſt day of November, one thouſand ſix hundred and ninety, during the continuance of this Act, there ſhall be continued and be within the City of London, an Office for the general Receipt of all the Subſidies and other Sums by this Act granted, into which Office all the monies ariſing by the ſame, either within the Port of London, or in the Out-Ports, or elſewhere, ſhall be well and truly anſwered and paid unto the Hands of the Receiver or Receivers General for that purpoſe appointed or to be appointed by their Majeſties, their Heirs and Succeſſors; which ſaid Receiver or Receivers General is and are hereby directed and required from time to time at the ſaid Office, to ſeparate and keep apart three parts (the whole in four equal parts to be divided) of the whole Receipt of the ſaid monies (as the ſame ſhall from time to time become due, and be paid into the ſaid Office by the ſeveral Receivers, Collectors or any others who are or ſhall be employed to pay the ſame) which ſhall remain from time to time, after the Payments which ſhall be made thereout by virtue of any Laws now in force upon Debentures for Goods, that are or ſhall be re-ſhipt, or for Corn exported, or for Diſcounts upon Bonds, where Diſcounts are allowable by Law, and of ſuch allowances for damaged Goods, and of Bills of Portage as have uſually been made; and the Comptroller General of the accounts of the Cuſtoms for the time being, is hereby alſo required and commanded to keep a perfect and diſtinct account, in Books fairly written, of the ſaid three parts as the ſame ſhall come in; to which Books all perſons concerned ſhall have free acceſs at all ſeaſonable times without Fee or Charge; and the ſaid Receiver or Receivers

General is and are hereby required and ſtrictly enjoyned from time to time to pay weekly, to wit, on Wedneſday in every Week, unleſs it be an Holy-day, and if it be, then the next day after that is not an Holy-day, the ſaid three parts of all ſuch monies as aforeſaid, into the Receipt of their Majeſties Exchequer, diſtinct and apart from the other monies which he or they ſhall receive for their Majeſties uſe.

Tally, Order, Regiſter and Payment in courſe.

Puniſhment upon Cuſtom-Receiver neglecting to pay, or miſapplying.

Puniſhment upon Officer taking Fee for Entry, &c.

Puniſhment for undue preference.

VII. And be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That there ſhall be provided and kept in their Majeſties Exchequer; (that is to ſay) in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipts one Book, in which all monies that ſhall be paid into the Exchequer, of or for the ſaid parts, as aforeſaid, ſhall be entred apart and diſtinct from all other monies paid or payable to their Majeſties, upon any account whatſoever; and that all and every perſon and perſons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, who ſhall lend any mony to their Majeſties upon the Credit of this Act, and pay the ſame into the Receipt of the Exchequer, ſhall immediately have a Tally of Loan ſtruck for the ſame, and an Order for his or their Repayment, bearing the ſame date with the Tally; in which Order ſhall be alſo contained a Warrant for payment of Intereſt for forbearance, not exceeding the reſpective Rates aforeſaid, for his or their conſideration, to be paid every three months, until Re-payment of his Principal; and that all Orders for Repayment of mony ſhall be regiſtred in courſe, according to the date of the Tally reſpectively without preference of one before another; and that all and every perſon and perſons ſhall be paid in courſe according as their Orders ſhall ſtand regiſtred in the ſaid Book, ſo as that the Perſon, Native or Foreigner, his, her or their Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, who ſhall have his, her or their Order or Orders firſt entred in the ſaid Book, ſhall be taken and accounted as the firſt perſon to be paid upon the monies to come in by virtue of this Act; And he or they who ſhall have his or their Order or Orders next entred, ſhall be taken and accounted to be the ſecond Perſon to be paid, and ſo ſucceſſively and in courſe; And that the monies to come in by this Act, ſhall be in the ſame Order lyable to the ſatisfaction of the ſaid reſpective parties, their Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns ſucceſſively, without preference of one before another, and not otherwiſe, and not to be divertible to any other uſe, intent or purpoſe whatſoever: And if the ſaid Receiver or Receivers General, for the time being, ſhall refuſe or neglect to pay into the Exchequer the ſaid three parts of the mony ariſing, as aforeſaid, in ſuch manner as he or they are before required or enjoyned to do, or ſhall divert or miſapply any part of the ſame, then he or they for any ſuch offence ſhall forfeit his or their Office of Receiver or Receivers General, and be uncapable of any Office, Imployment or Place of Truſt whatſoever, and ſhall be liable to pay the full value of any Sum or Sums ſo diverted or miſapplied to any perſon or perſons who will ſue for the ſame by any Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information in any of their Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoign, Protection, Wager of Law, or Priviledge, or more than one Imparlance ſhall be granted or allowed; And that no Fee, Reward, or Gratuity directly or indirectly be demanded or taken of any their Majeſties Subjects, for providing or making of any ſuch Books, Regiſters, Entries, View or Search, as aforeſaid, or in or for the Payment of Mony lent, or the Intereſt, as aforeſaid, by any of their Majeſties Officer or Officers, their Clerks or Deputies, on pain of payment of treble Damages to the party grieved, by the party offending with Coſts of Suit; Or if the Officer himſelf take or demand any ſuch Fee or Reward, then to loſe his place alſo; And if any undue Preference of one before another ſhall be made, either in point of Regiſtry or Payment, contrary to the true meaning of this Act, by any ſuch Officer or Officers, then the party offending ſhall be liable by Action of Debt, or on the Caſe, to pay the Value of the Debt, Damages and Coſts to the party grieved, and ſhall be forejudged from his Place or Office; And if ſuch Preference be unduly made by any his Deputy or Clerk, without direction or privity of his Maſter, then ſuch Deputy or Clerk only ſhall be liable to ſuch Action, Debt, Damages and Coſts, and ſhall be for ever after uncapable of his Place or Office. And in caſe the Auditor ſhall not direct the Order, or the Clerk of the Pells Record, or the Teller make Payment according to each perſons due Place and Order, as afore directed, then he or they ſhall be judged to forfeit, and their reſpective Deputies and Clerks herein offending, to be liable to ſuch Action, Debt, Damages and Coſts, in ſuch manner as aforeſaid: All which ſaid Penalties, Forfeitures, Damages and Coſts, to be incurred by any of the Officers aforeſaid, or any their Deputies or Clerks, ſhall and may be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information in any of their Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoign, Protection, Priviledge, Wager of Law, Injunction or Order of Reſtraint, ſhall be in any wiſe granted or allowed.

What preference lawful.

VIII. Provided always, and be it hereby declared, That if it happen that ſeveral Tallies of Loan, or Orders for payment, as aforeſaid, bear date, or be brought the ſame day to the Auditor of the Receipt to be regiſtred, then it ſhall be interpreted no undue preference which of thoſe he enters firſt, ſo he enters them all the ſame day.

IX. Provided alſo, That it ſhall not be interpreted any undue Preference to incur any penalty in point of payment, if the Auditor direct, and the Clerk of the Pells Record, and the Teller do pay ſubſequent Orders of perſons that come and demand their Mony, and bring their Order before other perſons that did not come to demand their Mony, and bring their Order in their courſe, ſo as there be ſo much Mony reſerved as will ſatisfie precedent Orders, which ſhall not be otherwiſe diſpoſed, but kept for them (Intereſt upon Loan being to ceaſe from the time the Mony is ſo reſerved and kept in Bank for them.)

Order for Monies how aſſignable.

X. And be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That every perſon or perſons to whom any Monies ſhall be due, by virtue of this Act, after Order entred in the Book of Regiſter aforeſaid, for payment thereof, his Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, by Indorſement of his Order, may aſſign and transfer his Right, Title, Intereſt and Benefit of ſuch Order, or any part thereof, to any other, which being notified in the Office of the Auditor of Receipt aforeſaid, and an Entry or Memorial thereof alſo made in the Book of Regiſter aforeſaid, for Orders (which the Officers ſhall upon Requeſt, without Fee or Charge accordingly make) ſhall entitle ſuch Aſſignee, his Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns to the benefit thereof, and payment thereon: And ſuch Aſſignee may in like manner aſſign again, and ſo toties quoties; And afterwards it ſhall not be in the power of ſuch perſon or perſons, who have or hath made ſuch Aſſignments, to make void, releaſe or diſcharge the ſame, or any the Monies thereby due, or any part thereof.

IX. And whereas in an Act made in the firſt Seſſion of the laſt Parliament, Entituled, An Act for Prohibiting all Trade and Commerce with France, there is contained a certain Clauſe or Proviſo, whereby it is enacted, That Gilbert Heathcote and Arthur Shallett of London, Merchants, or either of them, have leave to import into the Port of London any quantity of Spaniſh Brandy not exceeding two hundred Tuns at moſt, paying to their Majeſties all Duties payable upon the ſame before the ſaid Seſſion of Parliament aforeſaid, importing the ſame at or before the five and twentieth day of March, one thouſand ſix hundred and ninety; And foraſmuch as for want of Convoy the ſaid Gilbert Heathcote and Arthur Shallett have not been able to ſend out ſuch Goods as they have provided for Spain, nor to bring home their ſaid Brandy from thence, and the time limited by the ſaid Act for importing the ſaid Brandy is now near expiring; Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Gilbert Heathcote and Arthur Shallett, or either of them, have leave to import the ſaid two hundred Tuns of Spaniſh Brandy, into the ſaid Port of London, at or before the firſt day of November next, under the ſame Conditions, Reſtrictions and Limitations, as in the ſaid Act for that purpoſe are mentioned and expreſſed, and no other.

Cap. 34.

G. Heathcote, &c. may import 200 Tun of Brandy before November.

CAP. V.

An Act for enabling the Sale of Goods diſtrained for Rent, in caſe the Rent be not paid in a reaſonable time.

Whereas the moſt ordinary and ready way for Recovery of Arrears of Rent is by Diſtreſs, yet ſuch Diſtreſſes not being to be ſold, but only detained as Pledges for enforcing the payment of ſuch Rent, the perſons diſtraining have little benefit thereby; for the remedying whereof,

Preamble.

II. Be it enacted and ordained by the King and Queen's moſt excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That from and after the firſt day of June, in the year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred and ninety, That where any Goods or Chattels ſhall be diſtrained for any Rent reſerved and due upon any Demiſe, Leaſe or Contract whatſoever, and the Tenant or Owner of the Goods ſo diſtrained, ſhall not within five days next after ſuch Diſtreſs taken and notice thereof (with the cauſe of ſuch taking) left at the chief Manſion Houſe, or other moſt notorious place on the Premiſſes, charged with the Rent diſtrained for, replevy the ſame, with ſufficient Security to be given to the Sheriff, according to Law, That then in ſuch Caſe after ſuch Diſtreſs and Notice as aforeſaid, and expiration of the ſaid five days, the perſon diſtraining ſhall and may with the Sheriff or Under-Sheriff of the County, or with the Conſtable of the Hundred, Pariſh or place where ſuch Diſtreſs ſhall be taken, (who are hereby required to be aiding and aſſiſting therein) cauſe the Goods and Chattels ſo diſtrained, to be appraiſed by two ſworn Appraiſers (whom ſuch Sheriff, Under-Sheriff, or Conſtable are hereby impowred to ſwear) to appraiſe the ſame truly according to the beſt of their Underſtandings; and after ſuch appraiſment ſhall and may lawfully ſell the Goods and Chattels ſo diſtrained, for the beſt price can be gotten for the ſame, towards ſatisfaction of the Rent for which the ſaid Goods and Chattels ſhall be diſtrained, and of the Charges of ſuch Diſtreſs, Appraiſment and Sale, leaving the Overplus (if any) in the Hands of the ſaid Sheriff, Under-Sheriff or Conſtable for the Owners uſe.

Goods diſtrained for Rent may be appriſed and ſold.

III. And whereas no Sheaves or Cocks of Corn looſe or in the Straw, or Hay in any Barn or Granery, or on any Hovel, Stack or Rick, can by the Law be diſtrained, or otherwiſe ſecured for Rent, whereby Landlords are oftentimes couſened and deceived by their Tenants, who ſell their Corn, Grain and Hay to Strangers, and remove the ſame from the Premiſſes chargeable with ſuch Rent, and thereby avoid the payment of the ſame; Be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That for remedying the ſaid practice and deceit, It ſhall and may, from and after the ſaid firſt day of June, be lawful to and for any perſon or perſons having Rent, Arrear and Due upon any ſuch Demiſe, Leaſe or Contract, as aforeſaid, to ſeize and ſecure any Sheaves or Cocks of Corn, or Corn looſe or in the Straw, or Hay lying or being in any Barn or Granery, or upon any Hovel, Stack or Rick, or otherwiſe upon any part of the Land or Pound charged with ſuch Rent, and to lock up or detain the ſame in the place where the ſame ſhall be found for or in the nature of a Diſtreſs, until the ſame ſhall be replevied upon ſuch Security to be given as aforeſaid; and in default of replevying the ſame, as aforeſaid, within the time aforeſaid, to ſell the ſame after ſuch appraiſment thereof to be made; ſo as nevertheleſs ſuch Corn, Grain or Hay ſo diſtrained, as aforeſaid, be not removed by the perſon or perſons diſtraining, to the damage of the Owner thereof, out of the place where the ſame ſhall be found and ſeized, but be kept there (as impounded) until the ſame ſhall be replevied, or ſold in default of replevying the ſame within the time aforeſaid.

Corn looſe, &c. may be detained and ſold.

Treble Damages for Pound-breach.

IV. And be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That upon any Pound-breach or Reſcous of Goods or Chattels diſtrained for Rent, the perſon or perſons grieved thereby, ſhall in a ſpecial Action upon the Caſe for the Wrong thereby ſuſtained, recover his and their treble Damages and Coſts of Suit againſt the Offender or Offenders in any ſuch Reſcous or Pound-Breach, any or either of them, or againſt the Owners of the Goods diſtrained, in caſe the ſame be afterwards found to have come to his uſe or poſſeſſion.

Double Damages and Coſts againſt wrongful Diſtreiner.

V. Provided always, and be it farther enacted, That in caſe any ſuch Diſtreſs and Sale as aforeſaid, ſhall be made by virtue or colour of this preſent Act for Rent, pretended to be arrear and due, where in truth no Rent is arrear or due to the perſon or perſons diſtraining, or to him or them in whoſe Name or Names, or Right, ſuch Diſtreſs ſhall be taken, as aforeſaid, That then the Owner of ſuch Goods or Chattels diſtrained and ſold, as aforeſaid, his Executors or Adminiſtrators, ſhall and may by Action of Treſpaſs, or upon the Caſe, to be brought againſt the perſon or perſons ſo diſtraining, any or either of them, his or their Executors or Adminiſtrators, recover double of the value of the Goods or Chattels ſo diſtrained and ſold, together with full Coſts of Suit.

CAP. VI.

An Act for the Exerciſe of the Government by her Majeſty during his Majeſty's Abſence.

Preamble.

WHereas by an Act of Parliament made in the firſt year of their Majeſties Reign, Entituled, An Act Declaring the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, and Settling the Succeſſion of the Crown, It is amongſt other things enacted, eſtabliſhed and declared, That the Crown and Regal Government of the Kingdoms of England and Ireland, and the Dominions thereunto belonging ſhall be and continue to their ſaid Majeſties and the Survivor of them during their Lives and the Life of the Survivor of them, and that the entire, perfect and full Exerciſe of the Regal Power and Government be only in and executed by his Majeſty in the Names of both their Majeſties during their joint Lives; And whereas the King's moſt excellent Majeſty hath reſolved to make a Royal Voyage, and go in Perſon into Ireland for the ſpeedy and effectual reducing of that Kingdom to its due Obedience to their Majeſties, and hath likewiſe declared his pleaſure to leave the Adminiſtration of the Government in the Hands of the Queens moſt excellent Majeſty during his Abſence out of this Kingdom,

The Queen ſhall govern in the Kings Abſence.

II. Be it enacted by the King and Queen's moſt excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That whenſoever, and as often as it ſhall happen that his ſaid Majeſty ſhall be abſent out of this Realm of England, It ſhall and may be lawful for the Queens Majeſty to exerciſe and adminiſter the Regal Power and Government of the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and the Plantations and Territories thereunto belonging, in the Names of both their Majeſties for ſuch time only, during their joint Lives, as his ſaid Majeſty ſhall be abſent or continue out of this Realm of England; any thing in the ſaid Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The Kings Acts in his abſence good.

III. Provided always, That nothing in this Act ſhall be taken or conſtrued to exclude or debar his Majeſty during ſuch his abſence out of this Realm, from the Exerciſe or Adminiſtration of any Act or Acts of Regal Power or Government within this Realm, the Kingdom of Ireland, or any other their Majeſties Dominions whatſoever; But that all and every ſuch Act and Acts ſhall be as good and effectual, as if his Majeſty was within this Realm, and ſhall not be contradicted or controlled but by his Majeſty only; And that neither the paſſing of this Act, nor his Majeſty's Royal Voyage or Abſence out of this Realm ſhall be any way taken or conſtrued to diſſolve this preſent Parliament, or avoid or determine any Commiſſion or Commiſſions, which have been or ſhall be granted by his or their Majeſties; Nor to avoid any other Act or Acts of Government, executed or to be executed by his Majeſty.

King when in England to govern.

IV. Provided always, That as often as his Majeſty ſhall return into this Kingdom of England, the ſole Adminiſtration of the Regal Power and Government thereof, and all the Dominions, Territories and Plantations thereunto belonging or annexed, ſhall be in his Majeſty only, as if this Act had never been made.

CAP. VII.

An Act to Declare the Right and Freedom of Election of Members to ſerve in Parliament for the Cinque-Ports.

Preamble.

WHereas the Election of Members to ſerve in Parliament ought to be Free; And whereas the late Lord Wardens of the Cinque-Ports have pretended unto, and claimed as of Right a Power of Nominating and Recommending to each of the ſaid Cinque-Ports, the two ancient Towns and their reſpective Members, one perſon whom they ought to elect to ſerve as a Baron or Member of Parliament for ſuch reſpective Port, ancient Town or Member contrary to the ancient Uſage, Right and Freedom of Elections:

Recommendations of Members to the Cinque-Ports void.

II. Be it therefore declared and enacted by the King and Queens moſt excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That all ſuch Nominations or Recommendations, were and are contrary to the Laws and Conſtitutions of this Realm, and for the future ſhall be ſo deemed and conſtrued, and hereby are declared to have been and are void to all intents and purpoſes whatſoever; any pretence to the contrary notwithſtanding.

CAP. VIII.

An Act for Reverſing the Judgment in a Quo Warranto againſt the City of London, and for Reſtoring the City of London to its ancient Rights and Priviledges.

Preamble.

WHereas a Judgment was given in the Court of Kings Bench in or about Trinity Term in the five and thirtieth year of the Reign of the late King Charles the Second, upon an Information in the nature of a Quo Warranto, exhibited in the ſaid Court againſt the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, That the Liberty, Priviledge and Franchiſe of the ſaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, being a Body Politick and Corporate ſhould be ſeized into the Kings Hands as forfeited: And foraſmuch as the ſaid Judgment, and the Proceedings thereupon is and were illegal and arbitrary; and for that the Reſtoring of the ſaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, to their ancient Liberties, of which they had been deprived, tends very much to the Peace and good Settlement of this Kingdom.

Judgment againſt the City Charter void.

II. Be it declared and enacted by the King and Queen's moſt excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Judgment given in the ſaid Court of Kings Bench in the ſaid Trinity Term, in the five and thirtieth year of the Reign of the ſaid King Charles the Second, or in any other Term; And all and every other Judgment given or recorded in the ſaid Court, for the ſeizing into the ſaid late Kings Hands, the Liberty, Priviledge or Franchiſe of the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, of being of themſelves a Body Corporate and Politick, by the Name of the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, and by that Name to plead and be impleaded, and to anſwer and to be anſwered, or in what manner or words ſoever ſuch Judgment was entred, is, ſhall be, and are hereby reverſed, annulled and made void, to all intents and purpoſes whatſoever; and that Vacates be entred upon the Rolls of the ſaid Judgment, for the Vacating and Reverſal of the ſame accordingly.

London made a Corporation.

III. And be it farther declared and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the Mayor and Commonalty, and Citizens of the City of London, ſhall and may for ever hereafter remain, continue, and be, and preſcribe to be a Body Corporate and Politick, in re, facto & nomine, by the Name of Mayor and Commonalty, and Citizens of the City of London, and by that Name and all and every other Name and Names of Incorporation, by which they at any time before the ſaid Judgment were incorporated, to ſue, plead and be impleaded, and to anſwer and to be anſwered, without any Seizure or Forejudger of the ſaid Franchiſe, Liberty and Priviledge, or being thereof excluded or ouſted, for or upon any pretence of any Forfeiture or Miſdemeanour at any time heretofore or hereafter to be done, committed or ſuffered; And the ſaid Mayor and Commonalty, and Citizens of the ſaid City, ſhall and may, as by Law they ought, peaceably have and enjoy all and every their Rights, Gifts, Charters, Grants, Liberties, Priviledges, Franchiſes, Cuſtoms, Uſages, Conſtitutions, Preſcriptions, Immunities, Markets, Duties, Tolls, Lands, Tenements, Eſtates and Hereditaments whatſoever, which they lawfully had, or had lawful Right, Title or Intereſt of, in or to, at the time of the recording or giving the ſaid Judgment, or at the time or times of the ſaid pretended Forfeitures.

Their Liberties granted to them.

Grants ſince the Judgment void.

IV. And be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all Charters, Letters Patents, and Grants for incorporating the Citizens and Commonalty of the ſaid City, or any of them, and all Charters, Grants, Letters Patents, and Commiſſions touching or concerning any of their Liberties or Franchiſes, or the Liberties, Priviledges, Franchiſes, Immunities, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, Rights, Titles or Eſtates of the Mayor and Commonalty, and Citizens of the City of London, made or granted to any perſon or perſons whatſoever, by the late King Charles the Second, ſince the ſaid Judgment given, or by the late King James the Second, be and are hereby declared and adjudged null and void to all intents and purpoſes whatſoever.

Proceſs in the Mayors Court &c. good.

V. Provided nevertheleſs, That no Recoveries, Verdicts, Judgments, Statutes, Recognizances, Inquiſitions, Indictments, Preſentments, Informations, Decrees, Sentences, Executions, nor any Plaints, Proceſs or Proceedings in Law or Equity, had, made, given, taken or done, or depending in the Mayor or either of the Sheriffs Courts, or any other Court within the ſaid City or Liberties thereof, ſince the ſaid Judgment given, ſhall be avoided for want or defect of any legal Power in thoſe that acted as Judges, Juſtices, Officers or Miniſters of, in, or as belonging to any of the ſaid Courts; But that all and every ſuch Recoveries, Verdicts, Judgments, and other things above mentioned, and the Actings, Doings and Proceedings thereupon, ſhall be of ſuch and no other force, effect and virtue, then as if ſuch Judges, Juſtices, Officers and Miniſters had acted by virtue of legal authority; and that no perſon or perſons ſhall be in any wiſe proſecuted, ſued, impeached or moleſted for any cauſe or thing by him or them lawfully acted or done, in purſuance of any ſuch Charters, Letters Patents, Grants or Commiſſions.

Perſons not qualified lyable

VI. Provided that this Act ſhall not extend to diſcharge any perſon or perſons from any penalty or penalties or forfeitures by him or them incurred, for not duly qualifying him or themſelves to act upon the ſaid Charters, Letters Patents, Grants or Commiſſions.

Officers at the time of the Judgment confirmed.

VII. And be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all Officers and Miniſters of the ſaid City, that rightfully held any Office or Place in the ſaid City or Liberties thereof, or in the Borough of Southwark, at the time when the ſaid Judgment was given, are hereby confirmed, and ſhall have and enjoy the ſame as fully as they held them at the time of the ſaid Judgment given; except ſuch as have voluntarily ſurrendred any ſuch Office or Place, or have been removed for any juſt Cauſe; and that every perſon who ſince the ſaid Judgment given, hath been choſen, admitted and placed into any Office or Employment within the ſaid

City, upon the Death, Surrender or Removal, as aforeſaid, of the former Officers, ſhall be, and is hereby confirmed in his ſaid Office or Employment, and ſhall have and enjoy the ſame in as full and ample manner, as if he had been admitted or placed therein according to the ancient Cuſtoms of the ſaid City.

Leaſes made ſince the Judgment, good.

VIII. Provided alſo, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all Leaſes and Grants of any of the Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments and other things, before the time of the ſaid Judgment given, belonging to the ſaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, and uſually leaſed or granted by them, made ſince the time of the ſaid Judgment given by the ſaid late King Charles the Second, or King James the Second, or by any perſon or perſons taking upon them to be Truſtees for the ſaid City, for the preſervation or maintenance of the Government or publick Offices of the ſaid City, by or upon pretence of any Grant or Commiſſion by their ſaid late Majeſties, King Charles the Second and King James the Second, or either of them, ſuch Grants and Leaſes being made for juſt, good and valuable conſiderations, and whereupon the old accuſtomed yearly Rent or more, hath been reſerved, payable into the Chamber or Bridgehouſe, or any of the Hoſpitals of the ſaid City, ſhall be as good and valid for the Terms, and under the Rents, Payments, Proviſoes, Conditions, Covenants and Agreements therein reſpectively contained, againſt the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the ſaid City, and their Succeſſors, as if the ſame had been made by the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the ſaid City, under their Common Seal, and the ſaid Judgment had never been given, and not otherwiſe: And the ſaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, and their Succeſſors ſhall have the benefit and advantage of all Rents, Reſervations, Payments, Conditions, Covenants, Clauſes and Agreements in every ſuch Grant or Leaſe contained, and the like Remedy for Non-payment, Breach or Non-obſervance thereof, as if the ſaid Grants or Leaſes had been made by the ſaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, and the ſaid Rents, Payments, Conditions, Covenants, Clauſes and Agreements had been made payable, reſerved, covenanted or agreed to, and with the ſaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens.

Judgments for the City good.

IX. And be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all Judgments, Decrees and Sentences had or obtained by any perſon or perſons taking upon them to be Truſtees, as aforeſaid, for or concerning any Lands, Tenements, Duties, Tolls and Intereſts whatſoever, of or belonging to the ſaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the ſaid City, ſhall ſtand and remain in force, and ſhall be proſecuted and executed by, and to, and for the uſe of the ſaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, as if the ſame had been obtained in the Name of the ſaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens; And that all perſons being natural born Subjects or Denizens, that have been admitted into the Freedom of the ſaid City ſince the ſaid Jugdment given, ſhall be free thereof, and have and enjoy the ſaid Freedom to all intents and purpoſes as if they had been thereunto admitted before the ſaid Judgment given.

Freedoms good.

Mayor, &c. continue till new Election.

X. Provided always, That the preſent Mayor, Sheriffs, Chamberlain and Common-Council of the ſaid City, ſhall continue until a new Election ſhall be made of ſuch Officers, and the perſons elected ſworn into their reſpective Offices, and that ſuch new Election be made at the times hereafter mentioned; that is to ſay, the Election of the Mayor and Sheriffs and Chamberlain, ſhall be made on the ſix and twentieth day of May, in the year one thouſand ſix hundred and ninety; And the Election of the Common Council, ſhall be made on the tenth day of June, in the year one thouſand ſix hundred and ninety; And ſuch perſons ſo elected, ſhall continue till the uſual times of Election of ſuch Officers, according to the ancient Uſage and Cuſtom of the ſaid City, and from thence ſhall continue for the year enſuing.

Old Mayor, &c. in, if no Choice.

XI. Provided nevertheleſs, and be it enacted, That if the Mayor, Sheriffs, Chamberlain and Common Council ſhall not be elected at the times hereby limited, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Chamberlain, and Commonn Council, which were in being at the time of the ſaid Judgment given, ſhall be and continue in thoſe reſpective Offices and places, till new Elections be made of the like Officers and Common Council, according to the ancient Uſage and Cuſtom of the ſaid City.

Perſons reſtored, &c. take new Oaths. Cap. 8.

XII. And be it farther enacted, That all perſons ſo to be reſtored and continued, ſhall be, and are hereby required to take the Oaths appointed by a certain Act made in the firſt year of their Majeſties Reign, Entituled, An Act for the Abrogating of the Oaths of Supremacy and Allegiance, and appointing other Oaths, the next Term after ſuch Reſtitution, under the Penalties, Forfeitures, Diſabilities and Incapacities in the ſaid Act provided and appointed.

Mayor, &c. ſworn as uſual.

XIII. And be it enacted, That the Mayor, Sheriffs and Chamberlain ſo to be elected, ſhall be ſworn in uſual manner on or before the twentieth day of June next enſuing.

Companies reſtored.

XIV. And be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all and every of the ſeveral Companies and Corporations of the ſaid City, ſhall from henceforth ſtand and be incorporated by ſuch Name and Names, and in ſuch ſort and manner as they reſpectively were at the time of the ſaid Judgment given, and every of them are hereby reſtored to all and every the Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Rights, Titles, Eſtates, Liberties, Powers, Priviledges, Precedencies and Immunities, which they lawfully had and enjoyed at the time of giving the ſaid Judgment; And that as well all Surrenders, as Charters, Letters Patents and Grants for new incorporating any of the ſaid Companies, or touching or concerning any of their Liberties, Priviledges or Franchiſes, made or granted by the ſaid late King James, or by the ſaid King Charles the Second, ſince the giving of the ſaid Judgment, ſhall be void, and are hereby declared null and void, to all intents and purpoſes whatſoever. Provided nevertheleſs, That no perſon or perſons ſhall be in any wiſe proſecuted, ſued, impeached or moleſted for any Cauſe or Thing by him or them lawfully acted or done in purſuance of any ſuch Charters, Letters Patents or Grants.

XV. Provided

Leaſes made ſince the Judgment good.

XV. Provided alſo nevertheleſs, and it is hereby farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all Leaſes, Terms and Eſtates made or granted by any of the ſaid Companies ſince the giving of the ſaid Judgment, for juſt and valuable Conſiderations, and whereupon the old accuſtomed yearly Rents or more are reſerved, ſhall ſtand and be of the ſame force and effect, as if the ſame had been made or granted by the ſaid ſeveral Companies as hereby reſtored; and the ſaid reſpective Companies and their Succeſſors, ſhall have the benefit and advantage of all Rents, Reſervations, Payments, Conditions, Covenants, Clauſes and Agreements in all and every ſuch Leaſe or Grant contained, and the like remedy therefore, as if the ſame Grants and Leaſes had been made by the ſaid reſpective Companies as now reſtored, and the ſaid Rents, Payments, Conditions, Covenants, Clauſes and Agreements had been made payable, reſerved, covenanted and agreed to or with them reſpectively.

Freedoms good.

XVI. Provided alſo, and be it enacted, That all and every perſon and perſons, who at any time ſince the ſaid Judgment have been admitted into the Freedoms of, or into the Liveries of the ſaid Companies, according to the Uſages and Cuſtoms of the ſaid City, and their reſpective Companies, ſhall be, and enjoy all the Rights and Priviledges of a Freeman and of a Livery-man, to all intents and purpoſes, as if they had been admitted before the ſaid Judgment.

Publick Act.

XVII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That this preſent Act of Parliament ſhall be accepted, taken and reputed to be a General and Publick Act of Parliament; Of which all and every the Judge and Judges of this Kingdom in all Courts ſhall take notice on all Occaſions whatſoever, as if it were a publick Act of Parliament relating to the whole Kingdom; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

CAP. IX.

An Act for the diſcouraging the Importation of Thrown Silk.

Preamble.

WHereas the Importation of ſome ſorts of Thrown Silk into this Realm, is greatly prejudicial to the Exportation of the Woollen Manufactures thereof, and tends very much to the Impoveriſhing great Numbers of Artificers, whoſe Livelyhood and Subſiſtence depends upon the Throwing of Raw Silk, and if longer permitted, may endanger the Overthrowing of that Art or Myſtery in this Nation: And whereas of late, great quantities of Thrown Silk have been imported from ſeveral Parts and Places in Europe, which are not the places of its Growth or Production, and thereby the true intent and meaning of the Act, made in the twelfth year of King Charles the Second, Entituled, An Act for the Encouragement and Increaſing of Shipping and Navigation, is evaded: For the prevention of which miſchiefs, and for the better Encouraging the ſeveral Manufactures of this Kingdom, and of that uſeful and National Trade into Turkey, and the better ſupporting the Art of Throwing Silk in this Realm, and the Poor therein employed.

12 Car. 2. 18.

Thrown Silk no Manufacture within 12 Car. 2. 18.

II. Be it declared and enacted by the King and Queen's moſt excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That the Throwing of Silk, is not, nor ought to be conſtrued a Manufacture within the intention of the ſaid Act, for the Encouraging and Increaſing of Shipping and Navigation; and that no Thrown Silk of the Growth or Production of Turkey, Perſia, Eaſt-India or China, or of any other Country or place, (except only ſuch Thrown Silk, as is, or ſhall be of the Growth or Production of Italy, Sicily or of the Kingdom of Naples, and which ſhall be imported in ſuch Ships or Veſſels, and navigated in ſuch manner as in the ſaid Act of Navigation is directed or allowed, and brought from ſome of the Ports of thoſe Countries or places, whereof the ſame is of the Growth or Production, and which ſhall come directly by Sea and not otherwiſe;) ſhall at any time after the five and twentieth day of May, in the year of our Lord, one thouſand ſix hundred and ninety, be brought or imported into the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, the Iſlands of Jerſey or Guernſey, or the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, under the Penalty and Forfeiture of all ſuch Thrown Silk, ſo imported contrary to the purport, true intent and meaning of this Act; one moiety whereof ſhall be to the uſe of the King and Queens Majeſties, their Heirs and Succeſſors; and the other moiety thereof to ſuch perſon or perſons as ſhall ſeize, inform or ſue for the ſame, to be recovered by Bill, Plaint, Information or other Action, in any of their Majeſties Courts of Record, wherein no Eſſoign, Protection or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed.

Thrown Silk how imported.

Penalty.

Thrown Silk from Italy.

III. Provided nevertheleſs, That this Act ſhall not extend to any Thrown Silk of the Growth or Production of Italy, Sicily or Kingdom of Naples, that ſhall be brought in, or imported into England, otherwiſe then by this Act is directed, at, or before the firſt day of September, one thouſand ſix hundred and ninety, and which ſhall be proved by the Oath of the Party, his Servant or Agent, to whom the ſame doth belong or appertain, to have been provided and bought, by his and their Order from England, in ſome part or place in Italy, Sicily or the Kingdom of Naples, at, or before the firſt day of June, one thouſand ſix hundred and ninety; which ſaid Oath the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms, or any two of them, for the time being, are hereby impowred to adminiſter.

Thrown Silk from India, &c.

IV. Provided always, That no Thrown Silk, laden in India, Perſia or China to be imported into England, on, or before the twentieth day of September, one thouſand ſix hundred ninety one, ſhall be liable to any Forfeiture, by virtue of this Act; any thing to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding. CAP. X.

An Act for the King and Queens moſt Gracious, General and Free Pardon.

Preamble.

THE King and Queens moſt excellent Majeſties, taking into their ſerious Conſideration the long and great Troubles and Diſcords that have been within this Kingdom, and that by occaſion thereof, and otherwiſe, many of their Subjects are fallen into danger of, and lie open to great Penalties and Forfeitures; and withal graciouſly conſidering the faithful Hearts, and dutiful Affections of their loyal Subjects: Out of an earneſt deſire to deliver their Subjects from the Penalties and Forfeitures aforeſaid, and to the intent that their Offences may not hereafter be brought in Judgment, Queſtion or Remembrance, to the leaſt endamagement of them, either in their Lives, Liberties, Eſtates or Reputations, but that they, having an entire Confidence in their Majeſties, and perfect Union among themſelves, may be encouraged in their Duty to their Majeſties Government, and more fully and ſecurely enjoy the benefit of it; Their Majeſties are of their Princely and Merciful Diſpoſition and meer Motion, moſt graciouſly inclined to extend unto them their General and Free Pardon, and that in a more bountiful manner then hath been accuſtomed: Their Majeſties aſſuredly truſting, that all their Subjects by this Clemency and indulgent Grace, will be the rather induced henceforth more carefully to obſerve the Laws, and perform their loyal and due Obedience to their Majeſties.

All perſons pardoned of Treaſon, &c.

II. And therefore their Majeſties are well pleaſed and contented, That it be enacted by authority of this preſent Parliament, and be it enacted by authority of the ſame in manner and form following; that is to ſay, That all and every the ſaid Subjects, as well Spiritual as Temporal, of this their Majeſties Realm of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town Berwick upon Tweed, their Heirs, Succeſſors, Executors and Adminiſtrators, and every of them; and all and ſingular Bodies in any manner of wiſe Corporated, Cities, Boroughs, Shires, Ridings, Hundreds, Lathes, Rapes, Wapentakes, Towns, Villages, Hamlets and Tythings, and every of them, and the Succeſſor and Succeſſors of every of them, ſhall be by authority of this preſent Parliament acquitted, pardoned, releaſed and diſcharged againſt their Majeſties, their Heirs and Succeſſors, and every of them, of and from all manner of Treaſons, Felonies, Miſpriſions of Treaſon, Treaſonable or Seditious Words or Libels, Miſpriſions of Felony, Seditious and unlawful Meetings and Conventicles, and all Offences whereby any perſon may be charged with the Penalty and Danger of Præmunire; and alſo of and from all Riots, Routs, Offences, Contempts, Treſpaſſes, Entries, Wrongs, Deceits, Miſdemeanours, Forfeitures, Penalties and Sums of Mony, Pains of Death, Pains Corporal and Pains Pecuniary, and generally of and from all other Things, Cauſes, Quarrels, Suits, Judgments and Executions in this preſent Act not hereafter excepted or foreprized, which may be, or can be by their Majeſties in any wiſe, or by any means pardoned, before the ſixteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord, one thouſand ſix hundred and ninety, to any of the Subjects or Bodies Corporate aforeſaid.

The Pardon to be as good as if all things were particularly named.

III. And alſo the King and Queen's moſt excellent Majeſties are contented that it be enacted by authority of this preſent Parliament, and be it enacted by authority of the ſame, That this their Free Pardon ſhall be as good and effectual in Law to every of their ſaid Subjects, Bodies Corporate, and others before rehearſed, in, for, and againſt all things which be not hereafter in this preſent Act excepted and foreprized, as the ſame Pardon ſhould have been, if all Offences, Contempts, Forfeitures, Cauſes, Matters, Suits, Quarrels, Judgments, Executions, Penalties, and all other things not hereafter in this preſent Act excepted and forepriſed, had been particulary, ſingularly, ſpecially and plainly named, rehearſed and ſpecified, and alſo pardoned by proper and expreſs Words and Names, in their Kinds, Natures and Qualities by Words and Terms thereunto requiſite to have been put in and expreſſed in this preſent Act of Free Pardon; and that their ſaid Subjects or any of them, the Heirs, Executors or Adminiſtrators of any of them, or the ſaid Bodies Corporate and others before named and rehearſed, or any of them be not nor ſhall be ſued, vexed or unquieted in their Bodies, Goods, Chattels, Lands or Tenements for any manner of Matter, Cauſe, Contempt, Miſdemeanour, Forfeiture, Treſpaſs, Offence, or any other thing ſuffered, done or committed, or omitted before the ſaid ſixteenth day of May, againſt their Majeſties, their Crown, Dignity, Prerogative, or the Laws or Statutes of this Realm, but only for ſuch Matters, Cauſes and Offences, as be rehearſed, mentioned or in ſome ways touched in the Exceptions of this preſent Act to be forepriſed and excepted, and for none other; any Statute or Statutes, Laws, Cuſtoms or Uſages heretofore had, made or uſed to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Grant of all Forfeitures to the Subject.

IV. And their Majeſties of their bounteous Liberality, and by the authority of this preſent Parliament, do grant and freely give to every of their Subjects, every of the ſaid Bodies Corporate, and others before rehearſed, and every of them, all Goods, Chattels, Debts, Fines, Iſſues, Profits, Amerciaments, Forfeitures and Sums of Mony by any of them forfeited, which to their Majeſties do or ſhall belong or appertain by reaſon of any Offence, Contempt, Treſpaſs, Entry, Miſdemeanour, Matter, Cauſe or Quarrel, ſuffered, done or committed by them, or any of them before the ſaid ſixteenth day of May, which be not hereafter in this preſent Act forepriſed and excepted.

Grants to any or Executions upon Forfeitures void.

V. And be it enacted nevertheleſs, That all Grants thereof, or of any part thereof, made by any ſuch as have ſo forfeited the ſame, and are hereby reſtored, as aforeſaid, and all Executions thereof, or of any part thereof, had againſt any ſuch after ſuch Forfeiture thereof, committed or made, ſhall be of ſuch force and effect, as if no ſuch Forfeiture had been had or made, and of no other; The ſame Forfeiture or any thing before in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

VI. And be it farther enacted, That all and every their Majeſties Subjects, and all and ſingular Bodies Corporate, and others before rehearſed, may by him or themſelves, or by his or their Deputy or Deputies, or by his or their Attorny or Attornies, according to the Law of this Realm plead and miniſter this preſent Act of Free Pardon for his or their Diſcharge of or for any thing that is by virtue of this preſent Act pardoned, diſcharged, given or granted, without any Fee or other thing paying to any perſon or perſons, for Writing or Entry of the Judgments or other Cauſe concerning ſuch Plea, Writing or Entry, but only ſixteen pence to be paid to the Officer or Clerk that ſhall enter ſuch Plea, Matter for Judgment, or the Parties Diſcharge in that behalf, any Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Any perſon may plead this Pardon.

VII. And farthermore, their Majeſties are contented and pleaſed that it be enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That this their Free Pardon, by the general Words, Clauſes and Sentences before rehearſed, ſhall be reputed, deemed, adjudged, expounded, allowed and taken in all manner of Courts of their Majeſties and elſewhere, moſt beneficial and available to all and ſingular the ſaid Subjects, Bodies Corporate, and others before rehearſed, and to every of them in all things not in this preſent Act excepted and foreprized, without any Ambiguity, Queſtion or other Delay whatſoever, to be made, pleaded, objected, or alledged by the King and Queens Majeſties, their Heirs or Succeſſors, or their or any of their General Attorny or Attornies, or by any perſon or perſons for their Majeſties, or any of their Heirs or Succeſſors.

To be allowed without delay, &c.

VIII. And be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any Officer or Clerk of any of their Majeſties Courts, commonly called the Chancery, Kings-Bench, Common Pleas or Exchequer, or any other Officer or Clerk, of any other their Majeſties Courts, within this Realm, at any time after the laſt day of Eaſter Term next, make out or write out any Writs, Proceſs, Summons or other Precept, whereby any of the ſaid Subjects, or of the Bodies Corporate, or others before rehearſed, or any of them, ſhall be in any wiſe arreſted, attached, diſtrained, ſummoned or otherwiſe vexed, inquieted or grieved, in his or their Bodies, Lands, Tenements, Goods or Chattels, or any of them, for, or becauſe of any manner of thing pardoned or diſcharged by virtue of this Act; or if any Sheriff, or Eſcheatour, or any their Deputy or Deputies, or any Bailiff, or other Officer whatſoever, by colour of his or their Office or otherwiſe, after the ſaid laſt day of Eaſter Term next, do levy, receive, take or withhold, of, or from any perſon or perſons, any thing pardoned or diſcharged by this Act, That then every ſuch perſon ſo offending, and thereof lawfully convicted or condemned, by any ſufficient Teſtimony, Witneſs or Proof, ſhall yield and pay for Recompence thereof to the party ſo grieved or offended thereby, his or their treble Damages, beſides all Coſts of the Suit; and ſhall alſo forfeit and loſe to the King and Queens Majeſties for every ſuch Offence ten pounds: And nevertheleſs, all and ſingular ſuch Writs, Proceſs and Precepts, ſo to be made, for, or upon any manner of thing pardoned or diſcharged by this preſent Act of Free Pardon, ſhall be utterly void and of none effect.

Penalty of Officer offending in making out Proceſs, or taking mony for things pardoned.

SESSIO SECUNDA.

Anno Regni GULIELMI & MARIÆ Regis & Reginæ Angliæ, Scotiæ, Franciæ & Hiberniæ, Secundo.

CAP. I. (11.)

An Act for granting an Aid to their Majeſties of the Sum of ſixteen hundred fifty one thouſand ſeven hundred and two pounds eighteen ſhillings. Exp.

CAP. II. (12.)

An Act concerning the Commiſſioners of the Admiralty.

Preamble.

Whereas the Office of Lord High Admiral of England hath at ſundry times, and for ſeveral years been executed, and all the Authorities to the ſame belonging, exerciſed by divers Commiſſioners for that purpoſe appointed by their Majeſties and the late Kings, but of late ſome Doubt hath riſen, whether certain Authorities belonging to the ſaid Office of Lord High Admiral, did, or do of Right belong to, and might, may or ought to have been, or be exerciſed by ſuch Commiſſioners for the time being:

The power of Admiral may be executed by Commiſſioners.

II. Now for avoyding all ſuch Doubts and Queſtions, Be it declared and enacted by the King and Queens moſt excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That all and ſingular Authorities, Juriſdictions and Powers which by any Act of Parliament or otherwiſe, have been, and are lawfully veſted, ſetled and placed in the Lord High Admiral of England for the time being, have always appertained to, and of Right might have been, and may, and ſhall be had, enjoyed, uſed, exerciſed and executed by the Commiſſioners for executing the Office of High Admiral of England for the time being, according to their Commiſſions, to all intents and purpoſes, as if the ſaid Commiſſioners were Lord High Admiral of England.

This Act gives no new power.

III. Provided, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend, or be taken, or conſtrued to extend to give or allow to the Lord High Admiral, or to the Commiſſioners for executing the Office of High Admiral, any other Authority, Juriſdiction or Power then the Lord High Admiral lawfully had, or might have had, uſed and exerciſed, if this Act had not been made.

Officers Tryers ſhall take an Oath.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That upon all Tryals of Offenders by Courts Martial to be held by virtue of any Commiſſion to be granted by the Lord High Admiral, or the Commiſſioners for executing the Office of High Admiral, every Officer preſent ſhall before any Proceeding to Tryal, take an Oath before the Court (which Oath the Judge Advocate, or his Deputy for the time being, are hereby reſpectively authorized to adminiſter) in theſe words following;

The Oath.

YOU ſhall well and truly try and determine the Matter now before you, between our Sovereign Lord and Lady the King and Queens Majeſties, and the Priſoner to be tryed;

So help you God.

Clauſe of Creditors at 8 per Cent.

LVIII. And to the end that all Monies which ſhall be lent unto their Majeſties upon the Credit of this Act, may be well and ſufficiently ſecured out of the Monies ariſing and payable by this Act, Be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That there ſhall be provided and kept in their Majeſties Exchequer, (that is to ſay) in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipts, one Book or Regiſter, in which all Monies that ſhall be paid into the Exchequer by virtue of this Act, ſhall be entred and regiſtred apart and diſtinct from all other Monies paid or payable to their Majeſties upon any other Branch of their Majeſties Revenue, or upon any other account whatſoever; And that all and every perſon and perſons, who ſhall lend any Mony to their Majeſties upon the Credit of this Act, and pay the ſame into the Receipt of the Exchequer, ſhall immediately have a Tally of Loan ſtruck for the ſame, and an Order for his Repayment, bearing the ſame date with his Tally; in which Order ſhall be alſo contained a Warrant for Payment of Intereſt for Forbearance after the Rate, ſo to be allowed for the ſame, ſo as ſuch Intereſt do not exceed the Rate of Eight pounds per Centum per Annum, for his Conſideration, to be paid every three Months, until Repayment of his Principal; and that all Orders for Repayment of Mony ſhall be regiſtred in courſe, according to the date of the Tally reſpectively, without preference of one before another; and that all and every perſon and perſons ſhall be paid in courſe according as their Orders ſhall ſtand entred in the ſaid Regiſter-Book, as that the perſon, Native or Foreigner, his Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, who ſhall have his Order or Orders firſt entred in the ſaid Book of Regiſter, ſhall be taken and accounted as the firſt perſon to be paid upon the Monies to come in by virtue of this Act; and he or they who ſhall have his or their Order or Orders next entred, ſhall be taken and accounted to be the ſecond perſon to be paid, and ſo ſucceſſively and in courſe; and that the Monies to come in by this Act ſhall be in the ſame Order liable to the ſatisfaction of the ſaid reſpective Parties, their Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns ſucceſſively, without preference of one before another, and not otherwiſe, and not to be divertible to any other uſe, intent or purpoſe whatſoever; and that no Fee, Reward or Gratuity, directly or indirectly, be demanded or taken of any of their Majeſties Subjects for providing or making of any ſuch Books, Regiſters, Entries, View or Search in or for payment of Mony lent, or the Intereſt, as aforeſaid, by any of their Majeſties Officer or Officers, their Clerks or Deputies, on pain of payment of treble Damages to the Party grieved by the Party offending, with Coſts of Suit; Or if the Officer himſelf take or demand any ſuch Fee or Reward, then to loſe his Place alſo; And if any undue preference of one before another ſhall be made, either in point of Regiſtry or Payment contrary to the true meaning of this Act, by any ſuch Officer or Officers, then the Party offending ſhall be lyable by Action of Debt or on the Caſe, to pay the value of the Debt, Damages and Coſts, to the Party grieved, and ſhall be forejudged from his Place or Office; And if ſuch preference be unduly made by any his Deputy or Clerk, without direction or privity of his Maſter, then ſuch Deputy or Clerk only ſhall be liable to ſuch Action, Debt, Damages and Coſts, and ſhall be for ever after uncapable of his Place or Office; and in caſe the Auditor ſhall not direct the Order, or the Clerk of the Pells Record, or the Teller make payment according to each perſons due Place and Order, as afore directed, then he or they ſhall be judged to forfeit, and their reſpective Deputies and Clerks herein offending, to be liable to ſuch Action, Debt, Damages and Coſts, in ſuch manner as aforeſaid; All which ſaid Penalties, Forfeitures, Damages and Coſts, to be incurred by any of the Officers of the Exchequer, or any their Deputies or Clerks, ſhall and may be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of their Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoign, Protection, Priviledge, Wager of Law, Injunction or Order of Reſtraint, ſhall be in any wiſe granted or allowed.

An Office for receipt of thoſe Duties to be in London, and Duties paid Receiver General of Cuſtoms and kept apart, and paid weekly into the Exchequer, 2 W. & M. Seſſ. 2. Cap. 10.

Regiſter to be kept in the Exchequer, Tally, Order and Payment in courſe.

LIX. Provided always, and be it hereby declared, That if it happen that ſeveral Tallies of Loan, or Orders for Payment as aforeſaid, bear date, or be brought the ſame day to the Auditor of the Receipt to be regiſtred, then it ſhall be interpreted no undue preference which of thoſe he enters firſt, ſo he enters them all the ſame day.

LX Provided alſo, That it ſhall not be interpreted any undue preference to incur any Penalty in point of Payment, if the Auditor direct, and the Clerk of the Pells Record, and the Tellers do pay ſubſequent Orders of perſons that come and demand their Mony, and bring their Orders before other perſons that did not come to demand their Mony, and bring their Orders in their courſe, ſo as there be ſo much Mony reſerved as will ſatisfie precedent Orders, which ſhall not be otherwiſe diſpoſed, but kept for them, Intereſt upon Loan being to ceaſe from the time the Mony is ſo reſerved and kept in Bank for them.

Orders for Mony how transferrable. LXI. And be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That every perſon or perſons to whom any Monies ſhall be due by virtue of this Act, after Order entred in the Book of Regiſter aforeſaid for payment thereof, his Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, by Indorſement of his Order, may aſſign and transfer his Right, Title, Intereſt and Benefit of ſuch Order, or any part thereof, to any other; which being notified in the Office of the Auditor of Receipt aforeſaid, and an Entry or Memorial thereof alſo made in the Book of Regiſter aforeſaid for Orders, (which the Officers ſhall upon Requeſt, without Fee or Charge accordingly make) ſhall intitle ſuch Aſſignee, his Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, to the Benefit thereof, and payment thereon; And ſuch Aſſignee may in like manner aſſign again, and ſo toties quoties, and afterwards it ſhall not be in the power of ſuch perſon or perſons who have or hath made ſuch Aſſignments, to make void, releaſe or diſcharge the ſame, or any the Monies thereby due, or any part thereof.

CAP. V. (15.)

An Act for the Continuance of ſeveral former Acts therein mentioned, for the laying ſeveral Duties upon Wines, Vinegar, and Tobacco.

Moſt Gracious Sovereigns,

Preamble. WE your Majeſties moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Commons in Parliament aſſembled, taking into our ſerious Conſideration the great and neceſſary Expences in which your Majeſties are engaged for our Defence and Safety, have chearfully and unanimouſly given and granted unto your Majeſties the Impoſitions and Duties hereafter mentioned, for and during the Term hereafter expreſſed; And we do moſt humbly beſeech your Majeſties that it may be enacted, Duties upon Wines and Vinegar given 3 Jac. 2. given this King till June, 1696. Cap. 3. II. And be it enacted by the King and Queen's moſt excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That the ſeveral Impoſitions and Duties upon Wines and Vinegar, granted by an Act made in the firſt year of the late King James, Entituled, An Act for Granting his Majeſty an Impoſition upon all Wines and Vinegar Imported between the four and twentieth day of June, one thouſand ſix hundred eighty five, and the four and twentieth day of June, one thouſand ſix hundred ninety and three, ſhall be continued from the three and twentieth day of June in the ſaid year, one thouſand ſix hundred ninety three, and ſhall be raiſed, levied, collected, anſwered and paid unto their Majeſties and their Succeſſors, until the four and twentieth day of June, one thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſix, and no longer: And that the ſaid Act and all Powers, Proviſions, Penalties, Articles and Clauſes therein contained, ſhall continue and be of full Force and Effect, until the ſaid four and twentieth day of June, one thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſix, and ſhall be applied, practiſed and executed for the raiſing, levying, collecting, anſwering and paying the ſaid Duties hereby continued according to the tenor and intent of this preſent Act.

Duty upon Tobacco and Sugar given 4 Jac. 2. continued till 1696. III. And be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the Rates and Duties for all ſorts of Tobacco granted by an Act made in the firſt year of the Reign of the late King James, Entituled, An Act for granting to his Majeſty an Impoſition upon all Tobacco and Sugar, Imported between the four and twentieth day of June, one thouſand ſix hundred eighty five, and the four and twentieth day of June, one thouſand ſix hundred ninety three, ſhall be continued from the three and twentieth day of June in the ſaid year, one thouſand ſix hundred and ninety three, and ſhall be raiſed, levied, collected, anſwered and paid unto their Majeſties and their Succeſſors, until the four and twentieth day of June, one thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſix, and no longer; And that the ſaid laſt mentioned Act, as for and concerning Tobacco only, and all Powers, Proviſions, Penalties, Articles and Clauſes therein contained, concerning the ſaid Rates and Duties upon all ſorts of Tobacco, ſhall continue and be of full Force and Effect, until the ſaid four and twentieth day of June, one thouſand ſix hundred and ninety ſix, and ſhall be applied, practiſed and executed, for the raiſing, levying, collecting, anſwering and paying the ſaid Duties upon Tobacco hereby continued, according to the tenor and intent of this preſent Act.

Not to extend to 1 W.& M. 34. IV. Provided nevertheleſs, That this Act, or any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend, or be conſtrued or taken to repeal or alter an Act made in the firſt year of their Majeſties Reign, Entituled, An Act for Prohibiting all Trade and Commerce with France, or any part of the ſame. Cap. 34.

Credit of Loan at 8 per Cent. V. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any perſon and perſons, to advance and lend unto their Majeſties as well upon the Security of this Act, as upon the Security of the ſaid two former Acts made in the Reign of the late King James (from and after the Sum of ſix hundred thouſand pounds, mentioned in an Act made in the firſt year of their Majeſties Reign, Entituled, An Act for Appropriating certain Duties for paying the States General of the United Provinces their Charges for his Majeſty's Expedition into this Kingdom, and for other Uſes, ſhall be fully ſatisfied and paid to the ſaid States General) any Sum or Sums of Mony, and to have and receive for the Forbearance thereof, any Sum not exceeding Eight pounds by the Hundred for one whole year, and no more, directly or indirectly. Seſſ. 1. Cap. 28.

Regiſter, Tally, Order and Payment in courſe. VI. And to the end that all Monies which ſhall be lent unto their Majeſties upon the Credit of this Act, may be well and ſufficiently ſecured out of the Monies ariſing and payable by this Act, Be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That there ſhall be provided and kept in their Majeſties Exchequer, (that is to ſay) in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipts, one Book or Regiſter, in which all Monies that ſhall be paid into the Exchequer by virtue of this Act, ſhall be entred and regiſtred apart and diſtinct from all other Monies paid or payable to their Majeſties upon any other branch of their Majeſties Revenue, or upon any other account whatſoever; and that all and every perſon and perſons, who ſhall lend any Mony to their Majeſties upon the Credit of this Act, and pay the ſame into the Receipt of the Exchequer, ſhall immediately have a Tally of Loan ſtruck for the ſame, and an Order for his Repayment, bearing the ſame date with his Tally; in which Order ſhall be alſo contained a Warrant for Payment of Intereſt for forbearance after the Rate, ſo to be allowed for the ſame, ſo as ſuch Intereſt do not exceed the rate of eight pounds per Centum per Annum, for his Conſideration, to be paid every three months, until Repayment of his Principal: And that all Orders for Repayment of mony ſhall be regiſtred in courſe, according to the date of the Tally reſpectively, without preference of one before another; and that all and every perſon and perſons ſhall be paid in courſe according as their Orders ſhall ſtand entred in the ſaid Regiſter-Book, ſo as that the perſon, Native or Foreigner, his Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, who ſhall have his Order or Orders firſt entred in the ſaid Book of Regiſter, ſhall be taken and accounted as the firſt perſon to be paid upon the Monies to come in by Virtue of this Act; and he or they who ſhall have his or their Order or Orders next entred, ſhall be taken and accounted to be the ſecond perſon to be paid, and ſo ſucceſſively and in courſe; and that the Monies to come in by this Act ſhall be in the ſame Order liable to the ſatisfaction of the ſaid reſpective parties, their Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns ſucceſſively, without preference of one before another, and not otherwiſe, and not to be divertible to any other uſe, intent or purpoſe whatſoever; and that no Fee, Reward, or Gratuity directly or indirectly be demanded or taken of any of their Majeſties Subjects for providing or making of any ſuch Books, Regiſters, Entries, View or Search in or for Payment of Mony lent, or the Intereſt, as aforeſaid, by any of their Majeſties Officer or Officers, their Clerks or Deputies, on pain of Payment of treble Damages to the party grieved by the party offending, with Coſts of Suit; or if the Officer himſelf take or demand any ſuch Fee or Reward, then to loſe his Place alſo; And if any undue preference of one before another ſhall be made, either in point of Regiſtry or Payment, contrary to the true meaning of this Act, by any ſuch Officer or Officers, then the party offending, ſhall be liable by Action of Debt, or on the Caſe, to pay the value of the Debt, Damages and Coſts to the party grieved, and ſhall be forejudged from his Place or Office; And if ſuch preference be unduly made by any his Deputy or Clerk, without direction or privity of his Maſter, then ſuch Deputy or Clerk only ſhall be liable to ſuch Action, Debt, Damages and Coſts, and ſhall be for ever after uncapable of his Place or Office; And in caſe the Auditor ſhall not direct the Order, or the Clerk of the Pells Record, or the Teller make Payment according to each perſons due Place and Order, as aforeſaid, Then he or they ſhall be judged to forfeit, and their reſpective Deputies and Clerks herein offending, to be liable to ſuch Action, Debt, Damages and Coſts, in ſuch manner as aforeſaid; All which ſaid Penalties, Forfeitures, Damages and Coſts, to be incurred by any of the Officers of the Exchequer, or any their Deputies or Clerks, ſhall and may be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of their Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoign, Protection, Priviledge, Wager of Law, Injunction or Order of Reſtraint, ſhall be in any wiſe granted or allowed.

An Office for receipt of thoſe Duties to be in London, & paid Receiver General of Cuſtoms and kept apart, and paid weekly into the Exchequer, 2 W. & M. Seſſ. 2. Cap. 10.

VIII. Provided always, and be it hereby declared, That if it happen that ſeveral Tallies of Loan, or Orders for Payment, as aforeſaid, bear date, or be brought the ſame day to the Auditor of the Receipt to be regiſtred, Then it ſhall be interpreted no undue preference which of thoſe he enters firſt, ſo he enters them all the ſame day.

VIII. Provided alſo, That it ſhall not be interpreted any undue preference to incur any Penalty in point of Payment, if the Auditor direct, and the Clerk of the Pells Record, and the Tellers do pay ſubſequent Orders of Perſons that come and demand their Mony, and bring their Order before other Perſons that did not come to demand their Mony, and bring their Order in their courſe, ſo as there be ſo much mony reſerved as will ſatisfie precedent Orders, which ſhall not be otherwiſe diſpoſed, but kept for them, Intereſt upon Loan being to ceaſe from the time the Mony is ſo reſerved and kept in Bank for them.

IX. And be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That every perſon or perſons to whom any Monies ſhall be due by virtue of this Act, after Order entred in the Book of Regiſter aforeſaid for Payment thereof, his Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, by Indorſement of his Order, may aſſign and transfer his Right, Title, Intereſt and Benefit of ſuch Order, or any part thereof to any other; which being notified in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt aforeſaid, and an Entry or Memorial thereof alſo made in the Book of Regiſter aforeſaid for Orders, (which the Officers ſhall upon Requeſt without Fee or Charge accordingly make) ſhall entitle ſuch Aſſignee, his Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns to the benefit thereof and payment thereon; and ſuch Aſſignee may in like manner aſſign again, and ſo toties quoties, and afterwards it ſhall not be in the power of ſuch perſon or perſons who have or hath made ſuch Aſſignments, to make void, releaſe or diſchage the ſame, or any the Monies thereby due, or any part thereof.

Mony how aſſignable.

X. Provided, That nothing in this Act ſhall extend or be conſtrued to defeat or obſtruct the Proviſion made by the ſaid Act in the firſt year of their Majeſties Reign, for payment of Wages due to the Servants of the late King Charles the Second, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of ſixty thouſand pounds, in ſuch manner as by the ſaid Act is directed.

Wages due to King Charles the Seconds Servants ſaved.

CAP. VI. (16.)

An Act for Puniſhing Officers and Soldiers who ſhall mutiny or deſert their Majeſties Service, and for puniſhing falſe Muſters. Exp.

CAP. VII. (17.)

An Act for Reviving a former Act for Regulating the Meaſures and Prizes of Coals.

Preamble.
16 & 17 Car. 2. 2.

WHereas an Act was made in the ſixteenth and ſeventeenth years of the Reign of the late King Charles the Second, Entituled, An Act for Regulating the Meaſures and Prices of Coals, which Act was to continue for three years thence next following, and thenceforth to the end of the next Seſſion of Parliament, and no longer, and is expired. And whereas the ſaid Act was found to be very uſeful and beneficial to this Kingdom, Revived for ſeven years.

II. Be it enacted by the King and Queens moſt excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Act and every Clauſe, Article and Branch therein contained, ſhall be and is, and are hereby revived and continued in full force, ſtrength and virtue, to all intents and purpoſes whatſoever, and ſhall ſo ſtand and continue from the firſt day of December, one thouſand ſix hundred and ninety, for the ſpace of ſeven years, and from thence to the end of the firſt Seſſion of Parliament then next following, and no longer.

12 Car. 2. 18. Sect. 6.

III. And whereas by an Act made in the twelfth year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, Entituled, An Act for Encouraging and Increaſing of Shipping and Navigation, It is among other things provided, That no Goods or Merchandizes ſhall be loaden and carried from one part of England to another, in any Ship or Veſſel whatſoever, whereof three fourths of the Mariners at leaſt ſhall not be Engliſh, under the Penalty of forfeiting all ſuch Goods as ſhall be loaden or carried in any ſuch Ship or Veſſel, together with the Ship or Veſſel, and all her Guns, Ammunition, Tackle, Furniture and Apparel. Now foraſmuch as the high price of Coals ariſes chiefly from the want of Seamen to ſupply that Navigation, while ſo many are employed in their Majeſties Service, Be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That ſo much only of this laſt mentioned Act as concerns the number and proportion of foreign Seamen thereby limited to ſail in Engliſh Ships ſhall be diſpenſed with, and is hereby thus far diſpenſed with, ſo as it ſhall and may be lawful for the Owner or Owners of any Ship or Veſſel, Engliſh built, and belonging to the Subjects of England, whereof the Maſter is an Engliſhman trading with Coals to and from Newcaſtle, or the parts adjacent, or any part of Wales, to the Port of London, or to any other part of England, to navigate the ſaid Ship or Veſſel with as many Foreign Seamen as the ſaid Maſter or Owners ſhall think fit, during the preſent War with France, and no longer; any thing in the ſaid Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Coal Ships may be ſailed by Foreigners.

CAP. VIII. (18.)

An Act for Paving and Cleanſing the Streets in the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and Suburbs and Liberties thereof, and Out-Pariſhes in the County of Middleſex, and in the Borough of Southwark, and other places within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, in the County of Surrey, and for Regulating the Markets therein mentioned.

Preamble.
13 & 14 Car 2 2.

WHereas an Act was made at a Parliament held at Weſtminſter, in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of the Reign of his late Majeſty King Charles the Second, for the repairing the High-ways and Sewers, and for paving and keeping clean the Streets in and about the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, wherein (amongſt other things) many neceſſary and wholſom proviſions were made for the cleanſing and paving the ſaid Streets and other Pariſhes and Places comprized within the Weekly Bills of Mortality; which ſaid Act being ſince expired, many perſons in the Out-Pariſhes in Middleſex, and other Pariſhes in the Limits aforeſaid, which have, been choſen to ſerve the Office of Scavenger, refuſe to take the Execution of the ſaid Office upon them; and others who have been rated and aſſeſſed towards the cleanſing, and carrying away the Dirt and Soyl out of the Streets, have refuſed to pay the Rates aſſeſſed upon them, there being no Law in force to compel them thereunto, ſo that no perſon can be employed to be Raker, to carry the Dirt out of the ſaid Streets, for want of ſome proviſion for payment for doing that Service; and the poorer ſort of People daily throw into the ſaid Streets all the Dirt, Filth and Coal-Aſhes made in their Houſes: By reaſon whereof the ſaid Streets are become extreamly dirty and filthy, ſo that their Majeſties Subjects cannot conveniently paſs through the ſame about their lawful Occaſions, and many other Inconveniences daily ariſe for want of the like proviſions in other Caſes relating to the Streets, Pavements and Common Ways: May it therefore pleaſe your moſt excellent Majeſties, That it may be enacted; Inhabitants in Middleſex, &c. ſhall ſweep the Streets twice a Week.

II. And be it enacted by King and Queens moſt excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That from and after the fifteenth day of December, one thouſand ſix hundred and ninety, all and every perſon and perſons inhabiting in the ſaid Pariſhes of Middleſex and Weſtminſter, and the Liberties thereof, and in the Borough of Southwark, or in any of the ſaid Streets, Lanes or Allies compriſed within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, and the Town of Kenſington, ſhall twice in every Week (that is to ſay, on every Wedneſday and Saturday at the leaſt) ſweep and cleanſe, or cauſe to be ſwept and cleanſed all the Streets, Lanes, Alleys and publick places, before their reſpective Houſes, Buildings and Walls, and the Buildings and Walls of Churches and other publick places, to the end the Dirt and Soyl in the ſaid Streets may be ready for the Scavenger, Raker or other Officer appointed for that purpoſe to carry away, upon pain to forfeit three ſhillings and four pence for every Offence or Neglect reſpectively; and that no perſon or perſons whatſoever ſhall throw, caſt or lay, or cauſe, permit or ſuffer to be thrown, caſt or laid any Seacoal-Aſhes, Duſt, Dirt, Rubbiſh, Dung or other Filth or Annoyance in any open Street, Lane or Alley within the ſaid City or places aforeſaid, before his, her or their own Dwelling-houſes, Stables, Buildings or Walls, or the Buildings and Walls of Churches, Church-Yards, and other publick places, on the Penalty of five ſhillings; and no perſon or perſons ſhall lay any Aſhes, Dirt or Soyl before the Houſes, Buildings or Walls of any perſon or perſons, Inhabitants of the City, Pariſhes or Places aforeſaid, or before or againſt any Church, Church-Yard Wall, or any of their Majeſties Buildings, Palaces or Places whatſoever; Or ſhall caſt, lay or throw, or cauſe to be caſt, laid or thrown into any Common or Publick Sink, Vault, Water-courſe, or Common Sewer, or Highway within any of the Pariſhes or Places aforeſaid, or any other private Vault or Sink of any of the Inhabitants aforeſaid, any Aſhes, Dirt, Filth, Ordure or any other noyſom thing whatſoever; but ſhall keep or cauſe the ſame to be kept in their reſpective Houſes, Yards or Backſides, or the Yards or Backſides of Churches, and other Publick Buildings, until ſuch time as the Raker, Scavenger, or other Officer thereto appointed of the ſaid Ward, Pariſh, Street, or Place where they dwell, or ſuch Churches or Buildings as do come by or near their Houſes, Doors or Places, with his Cart, Barrow, or other thing or things uſed for the cleanſing the Streets, and carrying away thereof, and then ſhall carry, or cauſe to be carried the ſaid Aſhes, Dirt, Dung or other ſuch Filth or Annoyance aforeſaid, out of their Houſes, Yards and Backſides, and deliver it unto the Raker, Scavenger or other Officer, or otherwiſe to put the ſame into his Cart, Barrow or other thing as aforeſaid, upon pain to forfeit the Sum of twenty ſhillings for every ſuch Offence.

Penalty.

No perſon ſhall caſt any Aſhes, &c. into the Street.

But ſhall deliver the Aſhes, &c. to the Scavenger.

Penalty.

III. And be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the reſpective Churchwardens, and the Houſe-keepers and other Keepers of Whitehall, Somerſet Houſe, Saint James's Houſe, and Saint James's Park, and the Guard-houſes and Stables near it, and other their Majeſties Houſes; and the Uſhers, Porters or Keepers of Courts of Juſtice, and all other Publick or other Houſes or Places reſpectively, ſhall be liable to, and ſuffer the like Penalties, Forfeitures and Puniſhments for every the before-mentioned Offences or Neglects done, committed or ſuffered to be done before any Church or Church-Yard, or before any of their Majeſties Houſes, Buildings or Walls, or before any Houſes, Buildings or Walls, or before any Publick Buildings, Houſes or Places whatſoever.

Churchwardens, &c. lyable.

IV. And be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid fifteenth day of December, no perſon or perſons ſhall hoop, waſh or cleanſe any Pipes, Barrels or other Casks or Veſſels in any the Streets, Lanes, or open Paſſages aforeſaid; nor ſhall ſet out any Dung, Soyl, Rubbiſh or empty Coaches to make or mend, or rough Timber or Stones to be ſawn or wrought in the Streets, on the Penalty of twenty ſhillings for every Offence.

Hooping Barrels, &c.

Penalty.

V. And be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the Rakers, Scavengers or other Officers thereunto appointed every day in the Week, except Sundays and other Holy days, ſhall bring or cauſe to brought Carts, Dung-Pots, and other fitting Carriages into all their reſpective Pariſhes, Limits, Precincts, Streets, Charges and Diviſions where ſuch Carts and Carriages can paſs, and at or before their approach by a Bell, Horn, or Clapper, or otherwiſe ſhall make diſtinct and loud Noiſe, and give notice to the Inhabitants thereof of their coming, and make the like Noiſe, and give the like Notice in every Court, Alley or Place, unto which the ſaid Carts cannot paſs, and abide and ſtay there a convenient time, in ſuch ſort that all perſons concerned may bring forth their reſpective Duſt, Dirt, Aſhes, Filth and Soyl to the reſpective Carts and Carriages ſo ſtaying as aforeſaid; all which the ſaid Rakers, Scavengers or other Officers aforeſaid, ſhall daily carry, or cauſe to be carried away, upon pain to forfeit forty ſhillings for every ſuch Offence or Neglect reſpectively.

Scavengers ſhall carry away all Dirt, &c.

Penalty.

VI. And be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all open Streets, Lanes and Alleys, which now are paved, within any of the Pariſhes or places aforeſaid, ſhall be from time to time repaired, amended and paved at the Coſts and Charges of the Houſeholders, Inhabitants in any ſuch Streets and Lanes reſpectively; and where any Houſes ſhall be empty and unoccupied in any ſuch Streets and Lanes, then to be paved and repaired at the Charge of the Owners or Proprietors thereof in manner following; (that is to ſay) Every of the ſaid Houſholders, Owners or Proprietors of Houſes, to repair, pave, and keep repaired, amended and paved the Streets, Lanes or Alleys before his Houſe, Stables or Outhouſes, ſo far as his Houſing, Walls or Buildings extend, unto the Center-Stone, Chanel or middle of the ſame Street, Lane or Alley, upon pain to forfeit twenty ſhillings for every Perch or Rod, and after that Rate for a greater or leſſer quantity for every default, and of twenty ſhillings a Week for every Week after, until the ſame ſhall be ſufficiently paved and amended.

Pav'd Streets to be kept in repair.

VII. And whereas there are in the Pariſhes aforeſaid many new Streets and Ways made, which are fit and convenient to be paved with Stone, but for want of good Order therein, are almoſt unpaſſable to Paſſengers; Be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for any one or more Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace of the Place or Diviſion where any new Streets or Ways are or ſhall be made from time to time to view and inſpect the ſame; and if upon ſuch View they ſhall judge them fit to be paved or otherwiſe amended, to certifie the ſame under their Hands to the Juſtices of the Peace at the next reſpective General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace for the Place where ſuch Streets or Ways are or ſhall be made, who are hereby reſpectively thereupon authorized and required to take ſuch Order for the paving, or otherwiſe amending the ſame, as they ſhall think Juſtice of Peace may order new Streets, &c. to be paved.

Penalty.

fit: And all and every perſon and perſons, Owners and Inhabitants of all and every the Houſes new built, or hereafter to be built, or adjoyning to any new Streets or Ways adjudged to be paved or amended, ſhall and are hereby required, according to their ſeveral and reſpective Intereſts therein, by Order of ſuch Juſtices at their Seſſion, and by a time in ſuch Order limited, pave with Stone or Gravel, or otherwiſe amend all the Ground that doth or ſhall lie in Front before every Dwelling-houſe or other Buildings in ſuch Streets and Ways, extended to the middle of the Way that doth or ſhall lie before the ſame: And every perſon offending herein, or that ſhall not from time to time repair and amend his or her proportion of the Pavements in ſuch Streets and Ways where they ſhall be paved, ſhall forfeit forty ſhillings for every ſuch Offence or Default for every Perch, and after that Rate for a greater or leſſer quantity, and the like Sum for every Week till the ſame be paved, or amended and repaired, and when paved or amended, the like Sum as thoſe that ſhall not pave and repair open Streets, Lanes and Allyes now paved by virtue of this Act.

Streets paved as formerly.

VIII. Provided always, That ſuch ancient Streets, Lanes and Alleys within the ſaid places, or any of them as by Cuſtom and Uſage have been repaired and paved by any other Order, or in any other manner, ſhall be hereafter repaired, paved and maintained in ſuch ſort and manner, and by ſuch perſon and perſons as have heretofore uſed to repair, pave and maintain the ſame, under the Penalties aforeſaid, any thing in this Act contained to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Charges of cleanſing how raiſed.

IX. And for the better raiſing and levying of Monies to defray the Charges, and pay the Wages of the ſaid Scavengers, Rakers and other Officers imployed in cleanſing of the Streets, and other places aforeſaid, and carrying away the ſaid Aſhes, Dirt, Filth, and Soyl; Be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That within the Pariſhes of Saint Anne, and Saint James, within the Liberty of Weſtminſter, the Scavengers, Rakers and ſuch like Officers, ſhall be choſen as by the ſaid reſpective Acts is directed and appointed: And the Rates, Taxes and Aſſeſſments for Scavengers, Rakers, and ſuch like Officers Wages for cleanſing the Streets, ſhall be rated, taxed and aſſeſſed, raiſed and paid by the Pariſhioners and Inhabitants of thoſe reſpective Pariſhes, according to the Cuſtom and Uſage of the ſaid City, where it is not otherwiſe in the ſaid Acts provided and enacted: And the Receivers of all ſuch Monies ſhall be accountable in ſuch manner as they now are by the ſaid Acts, or otherwiſe by the Law, in caſe there is no Proviſion for the ſame thereby appointed: And all new Meſſuages, Tenements and Houſes now, or at any time hereafter built and erected within the Limits and Pariſhes aforeſaid ſhall be likewiſe rated, taxed and aſſeſſed, and ſhall pay proportionable with others:

Election of Scavengers and puniſhment of Refuſers.

And in all other places and Pariſhes aforeſaid, upon every Monday or Tueſday in Eaſter-Week, the Conſtables, Churchwardens and Overſeers of the Poor, and Surveyors of the High-Ways of every of the ſaid Pariſhes and Places, reſpectively, or the greater number of them, giving Notice unto, or calling together ſuch other ancient Inhabitants of their reſpective Pariſhes, as according to the Cuſtom of the ſaid Pariſhes or Places are uſually preſent at the Election of Pariſh Officers, they or the greater number of them preſent, ſhall make choice of, and ſhall nominate and appoint two or more able perſons, that are Tradeſmen of their Pariſh, to be Scavengers for the Streets, Lanes and Alleys, and other open Paſſages of each Ward and Diviſion within their ſaid Pariſh, for the year then next enſuing, and until others be choſen and ſettled in their Places; which perſons ſo choſen and being approved and confirmed under the Hand of any two Juſtices of the Peace within their reſpective Limits and Juriſdictions, ſhall within ſeven days after their Election, and Confirmation and Notice thereof, take that Office and Duty upon them, upon pain to forfeit ten pounds for every Refuſer reſpectively; and in caſe of Refuſal by any perſon or perſons ſo choſen and confirmed, then other able perſons ſhall be choſen and confirmed in manner aforeſaid, within ſeven days after ſuch Refuſal, in the Place of him or them which ſhall ſo refuſe; And the perſon or perſons ſo choſen and confirmed, and having Notice thereof, ſhall undergo the like pain of ten pounds in caſe of Refuſal, or not taking upon him or them the ſaid Office or Duty within ſeven days after he or they ſhall be choſen and confirmed, and have Notice thereof as aforeſaid; The ſaid Penalties to be paid to the Surveyors of the High-ways of the place, and diſpoſed of and employed by them for and towards the mending and repairing of the High-ways and Streets of the ſame Pariſh, Ward or Diviſion, and to be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Offenders, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of any one Juſtice of Peace of any of the Places aforeſaid, to be directed to the Conſtables or other Officers of the ſame Pariſh, or any two or more of them, rendring the Overplus to the Party, (reaſonable Charges for the Diſtreſs only to be deducted;) And in default of Diſtreſs or Nonpayment within ſix days after Demand thereof, or Notice left in Writing at the Houſe or Dwelling-place of the Offender, by the ſaid Conſtables or Officers reſpectively, the ſaid Offender to be committed to the Common Gaol of the ſaid County, City or Place reſpectively, by the Warrant of any ſuch Juſtice under his Hand and Seal, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize, until Payment be thereof made, as aforeſaid; And ſo in like manner for every perſon or perſons neglecting or refuſing the ſame.

Inhabitants may make a Pound-Rate.

X. And be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That within twenty days after the Election and Confirmation of the ſaid Scavengers, as aforeſaid, the Conſtables, Churchwardens and Overſeers of the Poor, and Surveyors of the Highways of the Pariſhes and Places aforeſaid reſpectively, or the greater number of them, giving Notice unto, or calling together ſuch Inhabitants of their reſpective Pariſhes as aforeſaid, they or the greater number of them then preſent, ſhall make and ſettle a Tax, Rate or Aſſeſſment, according to a Pound-Rate to be impoſed or ſet upon the Inhabitants of every reſpective Pariſh, Ward or Diviſion for the year following, for the purpoſes aforeſaid; which being allowed and confirmed by any two of the Juſtices of the Peace of the Places aforeſaid reſpectively, which they are hereby authorized and required, as far as the ſame ſhall be equal and reaſonable to allow, ſhall be quarterly paid by every reſpective Inhabitant upon Demand made thereof by the Scavengers or Officers appointed to gather and collect the ſame; And in caſe of a Refuſal or Neglect ſhall by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of any two Juſtices of the Peace of the Diviſion Pariſh or Place, be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Offenders Goods, and for want of Diſtreſs, by Impriſonment of the Offender (he not being a Peer of this Realm) until Payment, as aforeſaid.

Penalty for Non-payment.

XI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That ſuch Sums of Mony as ſhall be yearly aſſeſſed and collected in the ſaid Pariſhes for cleanſing the Streets ſhall be yearly accounted for by the Scavenger for the time being which collected the ſame, to two or more of the next Juſtices of the Peace for the Place, reſiding in or near to the reſpective Places for which ſuch Scavengers were appointed, within eight and twenty days after the Election of new Scavengers for the enſuing year; And ſuch Sum or Sums as ſhall be remaining in their Hands, ſhall be by them paid over to the next ſucceeding Scavengers elected for ſuch Pariſh; And any two ſuch Juſtices of the Peace, as aforeſaid, ſhall and may by virtue hereof, commit to Priſon every one of the ſaid Scavengers which ſhall refuſe to account, there to remain without Bail or Mainpriſe, until he have made a true Account, and ſatisfied and paid ſo much as upon the ſaid Account ſhall be remaining in his Hands.

Scavenger muſt account.

Pay the Overplus.

Penalty.

XII. Provided always, That the reſpective Scavengers and Rakers for any of the Pariſhes aforeſaid, ſhall have Liberty by the Approbation and Order of the Juſtices at their Petit Seſſions, or any two or more of them, to lodge their Dirt, Duſt, Aſhes or other Filth, in ſuch vacant and publick places in or near the Streets or High ways, as ſhall be thought convenient by the ſaid Juſtices, for the Accommodation of the Country Carts returning empty from the ſaid Pariſhes, they giving Satisfaction to the Owners and Occupiers of ſuch vacant places; and in caſe of unreaſonable demands, ſuch Juſtices in their Petit Seſſions, ſhall hear, moderate and determine the ſame according to Equity and good Conſcience. And in caſe any perſon ſhall find him, her or themſelves aggrieved with any Rate, Tax or Aſſeſſment made by virtue of this Act, or any ways prejudiced by any determination of the ſaid Juſtices in their Petit-Seſſions, he or they ſo grieved or prejudiced, ſhall and may have recourſe in all ſuch Caſes, to the Juſtices of the Peace aſſembled at the General Quarter-Seſſions of the Peace to be held for the Place wherein the Matter of Grievance doth ariſe, to ſet forth his, her or their Caſe, by Petition or otherwiſe; And the ſaid Juſtices in ſuch their Quarter Seſſions are hereby impowred to hear and determine all Matters to them complained of, concerning the ſame reſpectively, and their Determination and Order therein ſhall be final, without any Appeal to any other Court whatſoever.

Where the Scavenger muſt lay his Dirt, &c.

Appeal to Quarter-Seſſions.

XIII. And whereas there are many Common High-ways within the ſaid Pariſhes, which cannot be ſufficiently amended, repaired and ſupported, by means of the Laws now in force, without the help of this preſent Act; Be it enacted, That for the better amending and repairing the ſame, one or more Aſſeſſment or Aſſeſſments upon all and every the Inhabitants, Owners and Occupiers of Lands, Houſes, Tenements and Hereditaments, or any Perſonal Eſtate uſually ratable to the Poor within any of the ſaid Pariſhes, ſhall be from time to time made, levied, collected and allowed by ſuch perſon and perſons as the ſaid Juſtices at ſuch their General Quarter Seſſions ſhall direct and appoint in that behalf, and the Mony thereby raiſed, ſhall be employed and accounted for according to the Order and Direction of the ſaid Juſtices, for and towards the amending, repairing and ſupporting ſuch High ways from time to time as need ſhall require; And the ſaid Aſſeſſment ſhall be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods of every perſon ſo aſſeſſed (not paying the ſame within fourteen days after demand) rendring the Overplus of the Value of the Goods ſo diſtrained, to the Owner and Owners thereof; the neceſſary Charges of making and ſelling ſuch Diſtreſs being firſt deducted. Provided always, That no ſuch Aſſeſſment or Aſſeſſments to be made in any one year, ſhall exceed the Rate of four pence in the pound of the yearly value of any Lands, Houſes, Tenements and Hereditaments ſo aſſeſſed, nor the Rate of eight pence for every twenty pounds in Perſonal Eſtate.

Aſſeſſment how made for the High-ways.

To be levied by Diſtreſs.

XIV. And whereas many new Sewers, Sinks and Vaults have been made in the Pariſhes within the City and Liberty of Weſtminſter, and other the Pariſhes aforeſaid, by the Commiſſioners appointed by the ſaid recited Act, which ſince the Expiration thereof are much neglected, and noiſom to the Inhabitants, becauſe of ſome doubt whether ſuch new Sewers are within the Juriſdiction of the Laws of Sewers; Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all new Sewers at any time ſince the twelfth year of the Reign of the ſaid late King Charles the Second, made in any of the ſaid Pariſhes, ſhall be henceforth ſubject to the Commiſſion of Sewers, and to the Laws and Statutes made for Sewers, as fully to all intents and purpoſes, as if ſuch Sewers, Sinks and Vaults had been expreſly mentioned in the ſaid Statutes of Sewers, to be under the Survey of the ſaid Commiſſioners; And the Commiſſioners of Sewers for the time being, within the Limits of their reſpective Commiſſions, ſhall have power and authority by virtue of this Act to alter, amend, cleanſe and ſcower any ſuch new Sewers, Sinks and Vaults, and to order and direct the making of any other new Vaults and Sewers, and to cut into any Drain or Sewer already made, and to alter or take away any Nuſances in the ſame, and to alter or take away any Croſs-Gutter or Chanels in all or any of the Streets and Lanes in the Pariſhes aforeſaid.

New Sewers ſubject to the Commiſſion of Sewers.

XV. And be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That every Houſholder within any of the Pariſhes, Places or Precincts in the Counties of Middleſex and Surrey, and Houſholders to ſet up Lights.

City and Liberty of Weſtminſter, compriſed within the Weekly Bills of Mortality whoſe Houſe adjoyns unto or is near the Street, from Michaelmas unto our Lady-day yearly, ſhall every night ſet or hang out Candles or Lights in Lanthorns on the outſide of the Houſe next the Streets, to enlighten the ſame for the conveniency of Paſſengers, from time to time as it ſhall grow dark, until twelve of the Clock in the Night, upon pain to forfeit the Sum of two ſhillings for every default (excepting ſuch perſon or perſons as ſhall agree to make uſe of Lamps of any ſort, to be placed at ſuch diſtances in the Street, as ſhall be approved of by two or more Juſtices of the Peace.)

The Weight of a Truſs of Hay.

XVI. And whereas great Abuſes and Deceits are committed by Carters and others, who bring and ſet Hay within the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and the Hay-Markets, and places compriſed within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, the Loads and Truſſes of ſuch Hay being of leſs Weight then they ought, and are pretended and declared to be between the Buyer and Seller thereof: For remedy herein, Be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That every Truſs of old Hay brought or offered to be ſold hereafter in any place within the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and all other places compriſed within the Weekly Bills of Mortality between the laſt day of Auguſt and firſt day of June, ſhall contain and be the full Weight of ſix and fifty pounds at leaſt; and that every Truſs of Hay brought or offered to be ſold within the Cities or places aforeſaid, between the firſt day of June and the laſt day of Auguſt in any year, being new Hay of that Summers Growth, ſhall be and contain the full Weight of ſixty pounds, and being old Hay of any former years Growth, the Weight of ſix and fifty pounds, as aforeſaid; And if any Hay after the ſaid fifteenth day of December, ſhall be brought or offered to be ſold within the Cities or places aforeſaid, whereof any Truſs ſhall be of leſs Weight then aforeſaid, the perſon or perſons aforeſaid, ſo bringing or offering ſuch Hay to be ſold, ſhall forfeit for every ſuch Truſs of Hay, not being the full Weight aforeſaid, the Sum of eighteen pence.

Penalty.

Loaden Hay-Carts when to ſtand.

XVII. And be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid fifteenth day of December, no perſon or perſons whatſoever, ſhall permit or ſuffer his or their Waggon, Cart or Car to ſtand or be in the place now called the Hay-Market near Pickadilly, in the Pariſh of Saint Martin in the Fields, and Saint James within the Liberty of Weſtminſter, or Borough of Southwark, or any other place in the Pariſhes within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, loaden with Hay or Straw, to ſell the ſame from Michaelmas to Lady-day after two of the Clock in the Afternoon, and from Lady-day to Michaelmas after three of the Clock in the Afternoon, on pain to forfeit for every Offence and Neglect, five ſhillings reſpectively.

Offenders how to be convicted.

XVIII. And for the more ſpeedy Reformation and Puniſhment of all and every the Offences aforeſaid, Be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That every ſuch Juſtice of the Peace within the Counties of Middleſex and Surrey, and City and Liberties of Weſtminſter, and places aforeſaid, within their ſeveral Limits reſpectively, ſhall have Power and Authority upon his own Knowledge or View, Confeſſion of the Party, or Proof of one credible Witneſs upon Oath before him (which Oath the ſaid Juſtice is hereby impowred to adminiſter) to convict any perſon or perſons of any the Offences aforeſaid, whereby ſuch perſon or perſons ſo convict ſhall incur the Pains, Penalties and Forfeitures aforeſaid; one moiety whereof ſhall be diſpoſed and employed for and towards the Relief of the Poor of the Pariſh or place where the Offence ſhall be committed or done, to be paid to the Overſeers of the Poor of the ſame for that uſe, and the other Moiety thereof for him or them that ſhall diſcover and proſecute the ſame, in caſe the ſaid Conviction be by Diſcovery and Proſecution; And if the Conviction ſhall be by the View or Knowledg of any one or more Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, then one half of the Penalty ſhall be diſpoſed of to the Relief of the Poor, as aforeſaid, and the other Moiety, if for a default of Payment, to go to and be employed for and towards the repairing, paving and cleanſing the ſaid Streets or places, to be paid to the Scavengers of the place, and by them employed for that uſe, or otherwiſe to the Relief of the Poor, as aforeſaid; And all the ſaid Penalties ſhall be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Offender by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of any Juſtice of the Peace of the place, to be directed to the Conſtables and Headboroughs of the ſame Pariſh where the Offence was done, rendring the Surpluſage to the party; And in default of Diſtrels or not Payment of the ſaid Penalties, within ſix days after demand thereof, where it is not hereby otherwiſe provided, or Notice in Writing left at the Houſe or Dwelling-place of the Offender, by the ſaid Conſtable or Headborough, (the ſaid Offender not being a Peer of this Realm) ſhall be committed to the Common Goal of the ſaid Counties or City reſpectively, by the Warrant of any ſuch Juſtice under his Hand and Seal, there to remain without Bail or Mainpriſe until Payment.

Penalty how diſpoſed.

Penalty how to be levied.

Cart-wheels how to be made.

XIX. And whereas the Wheels of many Carts, Carrs and Brewers Drays, now commonly uſed for the Carriage of Goods, Beer, Ale, and other things from place to place within the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and Pariſhes aforeſaid, where the Streets are paved are made thinner or narrower in the Felleyes then formerly, and many are ſhod with Iron Tyres, by means whereof the Pavements in the Streets of the ſaid Cities and places are daily impaired and broken up, and made dirty and rough: For prevention whereof for the time to come, Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That from and after the fifteenth day of December, the Wheels of every Cart, Car or Dray to be uſed for the Carriage of any thing whatſoever, from any place within the ſaid Cities and places, to any place ſituate in the ſaid Cities and places where the Streets are paved, ſhall be made to contain the full breadth of ſix Inches in the Felley, and ſhall not be wrought about with any Iron Work whatſoever, nor be drawn with above the number of two Horſes, after they are up the Hills from the Water-ſide; And the Owners and Proprietors of any Cart, Car or Dray to be uſed, as aforeſaid, the Wheels whereof ſhall not be made ſix Inches in the breadth, or ſhall be ſhod with Iron, or be drawn with above two Horſes, as aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit the Sum of forty ſhillings for every time ſuch Cart, Car or Dray ſhall be be uſed, as aforeſaid, for the Uſes, and to be levied, as aforeſaid. Provided nevertheleſs, That this ſhall not extend to any Country Cart or Wagon that ſhall bring any Goods to the Cities or places aforeſaid, or ſhall carry any Goods half a mile beyond the paved Streets of the ſaid Cities and places.

Country Carts excepted.

XX. And for the better keeping and preſerving the Streets and Sewers in and about the ſaid Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and the Liberties thereof, and the Borough of Southwark, and other the Pariſhes aforeſaid, Be it farther enacted, That no perſon or perſons whatſoever, from and after the ſaid fifteenth day of December, ſhall breed, feed or keep any ſort or manner of Swine within any part of the Houſes or Backſides of the paved Streets of the ſaid Cities, Borough or Pariſhes where the Houſes are contiguous, upon pain of forfeiting the ſame to the Churchwardens and Overſeers of the Poor of the Pariſh where ſuch Swine ſhall be kept, bred or fed, to the uſe of the Poor thereof; And that it ſhall and may be lawful for all or any of the Church-wardens, Chappel-wardens, Overſeers of the Poor, Conſtables, Beadles, Headboroughs or Tythingmen of any of the Pariſhes of the ſaid Cities and places reſpectively, at all times hereafter in the day-time, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of the ſaid Mayor of London, or any other of their Majeſties Juſtices of the Peace of the place reſpectively, to ſearch in all ſuch places in their reſpective Pariſhes for the finding all ſuch Swine, and all that ſhall be ſo found, to ſeize, take, drive and carry away, and the ſame to ſell for the beſt price that can be had, and the Mony thereby produced forthwith to deliver to the Church-wardens or Overſeers of the Poor of the Pariſh where ſuch Swine ſhall be ſeized, to be diſtributed to the Poor of the ſame, in ſuch manner and proportions as the ſaid Churchwardens and Overſeers reſpectively ſhall think fit.

Swine kept within London, &c. forfeited.

XXI. And for the better cleanſing and keeping clean the Streets, Lanes and Paſſages within the City of London, and Liberties thereof, at all times hereafter, Be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the ſame ſhall be ordered and managed, and Rates and Impoſitions laid and levied, and all other Ways and Means therefore uſed and obſerved, according to the ancient Uſage and Cuſtom of the ſaid City.

XXII. And for the better effecting the ſame, and preventing the throwing out, or laying any Aſhes, Soyl, Duſt or Rubbiſh, or other Nuſance or Obſtruction in any the Streets, Lanes or Paſſages of the ſaid City or Liberties thereof, It is farther enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Mayor of the ſaid City for the time being, and to and for any Alderman of the ſaid City for the time being, upon his own proper Knowledge or View, in the open General Seſſions to make Preſentment for any ſuch Offence committed, done or ſuffered within the ſaid City or Liberties thereof, which Preſentment ſhall be good and effectual; And the Lord Mayor and Juſtices of the ſame City ſhall immediately at the ſame General Seſſions, have Authority to aſſeſs Fines for ſuch Offences, not exceeding twenty ſhillings for any one Offence; Which Fines ſo to be aſſeſſed, as aforeſaid, ſhall be levied and paid unto the Chamberlain of the City of London for the time being, for the uſe of the ſame City, to be employed in the publick Payments of the ſame City; any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Lord Mayor, &c. may preſent upon view.

Fine upon the Preſentment.

XXIII. And whereas there are many good Proviſions made and ordained for the cleanſing the Sewers, and well paving the Streets in London, by one Act made in the two and twentieth and three and twentieth years of King Charles the Second, Entituled, An Act for the better Paving and Cleanſing the Streets and Sewers in and about the City of London, which have been much obſtructed by occaſion of many frivolous and vexatious Actions commenced and proſecuted by Evil-diſpoſed perſons againſt Officers and others employed in the Execution of the ſaid Act; Wherefore to prevent the like vexatious Proſecutions for the future, Be it farther enacted, That if any Action, Suit, Plaint or Information, ſhall at any time after the ſaid fifteenth day of December be commenced or proſecuted againſt any perſon or perſons, for what he or they ſhall do in purſuance of, or in Execution of the ſaid laſt recited Act, or this Act, ſuch perſon or perſons, ſo ſued in any Court whatſoever, ſhall or may plead the General Iſſue, and upon any Iſſue joyned, may give the ſaid reſpective Acts, or either of them, as the Caſe may require, and the ſpecial Matter in Evidence; And if the Plaintiff or Proſecutor ſhall become Nonſuit, or ſuffer Diſcontinuance, or if a Verdict paſs againſt him or her, the Defendant and Defendants ſhall recover their treble Coſts, for which they ſhall have the like Remedy as in any Caſe where Coſts by the Law are given to Defendants.

CAP. IX. (19.)

An Act for the Encouraging the Diſtilling of Brandy and Spirits from Corn, and for laying ſeveral Duties on Low Wines, or Spirits of the firſt Extraction.

Whereas by an Act made in the Parliament held in the firſt year of their Majeſties Reign, Entituled, An Act for Prohibiting all Trade and Commerce with France, all Brandies, Aqua vitæ, and Spirits are prohibited to be imported into this Kingdom: And whereas good and wholſom Brandies, Aqua vitæ, and Spirits may be drawn and made from malted Corn; For the Encouragement therefore of the making of Brandy, Strong-waters, and Spirits from malted Corn, and for the greater Conſumption of Corn, and the Advantage of Tillage in this Kingdom,

Preamble.

II. Be it enacted by the King and Queens moſt excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That from and after the four and twentieth day of December in the year of our Lord, one thouſand ſix hundred and ninety, ninety, until the five and twentieth day of December in the year of our Lord, one thouſand ſix hundred ninety five, there ſhall be paid by way of Exciſe unto their Majeſties and their Succeſſors for all Low Wines or Spirits of the firſt Extraction, drawn by Diſtillers, or other Makers of Spirits and Strong-waters for Sale within this Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, the Rates and Duties following, (that is to ſay) For every Gallon of Low Wines of the firſt Extraction made or drawn from any Foreign or imported Materials, or any mixture with foreign Materials, eight pence. For every Gallon of Low Wines, or Spirits of the firſt Extraction, made or drawn from Brewers Waſh or Tilts, or from any ſort of Engliſh Materials, other then from Drink brewed and prepared from any ſort of malted Corn, or from Perry or Cyder, twelve pence. For every Gallon of Low Wines of the firſt Extraction, drawn or made only from Drink brewed and made of any ſort of malted Corn, one peny. And for every Gallon of Low Wines of the firſt Extraction, drawn or made from Cyder or Perry, or any Mixture therewith, three pence.

Exciſe upon Spirits till 1695.

The ſeveral Rates.

Diſtillers ſhall draw their Spirits from Corn without Moloſſus, &c.

Gagers ſhall ſee and keep Account of the Spirits.

Penalty upon mixing other Materials.

III. And be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all Diſtillers and others who ſhall draw or make any Low Wines, Spirits or Brandy from Corn, ſhall brew or cauſe their Corn to be brewed and made into clean and wholſom Drink, and from ſuch Drink ſo made and prepared, (without any Mixture with any Moloſſes, Waſh or Tilts, or other Materials whatſoever) ſhall draw their Low Wines or Spirits of the firſt Extraction; and that it ſhall and may be lawful for the Gager and Gagers of Exciſe, from time to time, to gage and keep an Account of the Liquors, Worts and Drink made and drawn by ſuch Diſtillers or others, for the making ſuch Low Wines, Spirits or Brandies, and to ſee that the ſame be drawn and made from Drink made of malted Corn entirely, without any Mixture, as aforeſaid; and in caſe any Diſtillers or others ſhall therewith mix any other Materials, either in the Brewing, or after the ſame is made into Drink, and before the ſame be diſtiled into Low Wines, The ſaid Gagers ſhall charge the Low Wines drawn from the Drink ſo mixed, with the Duty of twelve pence for every Gallon, which ſaid Duty ſhall be anſwered and paid to their Majeſties and their Succeſſors.

Penalty upon Diſtiller making or receiving other Materials.

IV. And be it farther enacted, That no Diſtillers or others, drawing Low Wines or Spirits from Corn, prepared as aforeſaid, ſhall prepare any Waſh from Moloſſes or other Materials, or receive any Waſh of Moloſſes or other Materials, from any other perſon whatſoever, until he has drawn off and diſtilled all the Liquors made or prepared from Corn, as aforeſaid, on pain of Forfeiture for every Barrel of ſuch Liquors made of Corn, as aforeſaid, found undiſtilled or drawn into Low Wines, the Sum of five pounds.

Penalty upon Officer returning falſe.

V. And be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any Gager or other Officer of Exciſe, ſhall wittingly and willingly make a falſe Charge, by returning to the Commiſſioners any quantity of Low Wines or Spirits of the firſt Extraction, not made from malted Corn, as made and drawn from malted Corn, ſuch Gager or Officer ſhall forfeit his Office or Employment, and alſo ſhall forfeit for every Gallon of Low Wines ſo falſly charged or returned, the Sum of ten ſhillings.

Diſtiller may export malted Spirits.

Rebate of 3 d. per Gallon upon Exportation.

VI. And for the farther Encouragement of Diſtillers and others, to draw and make Spirits or Brandies from malted Corn brewed into Drink, as aforeſaid, and to export the ſame as Merchandize into parts beyond the Seas, Be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to or for any Diſtillers or others, upon Oath made before any two or more of the Commiſſioners of Exciſe, or Juſtices of the Peace for the County or place from whence any Brandy or Strong-waters is or are intended to be exported, that the ſame were or was made and drawn from Drink brewed from malted Corn, without any mixture with any other Materials, and that the ſame is not mixed with any Low Wines not drawn a ſecond time, nor with any other Spirits or Brandy made from any other Materials, either Native or Foreign, and that the Duties of the ſame are duly entred or paid, and that the ſame are exported for Merchandize to be ſpent beyond the Seas, to export ſuch Spirits or Brandies made from Corn prepared, as aforeſaid; and upon a Certificate under the Hands of the Officer of Exciſe for the Port or Place where ſuch Spirits or Brandies were ſhipt off, of the quantity ſo ſhipt, and that the ſame was ſhipt in the preſence, of ſuch Officers, that ſuch Diſtiller or others ſo exporting, ſhall be allowed or paid back by the Commiſſioners or their Collector for the Port or Place where ſuch Spirits or Brandy ſhall be ſhipt off, the Sum of three pence for every ſuch Gallon of Brandy or Spirits ſo ſhipt off.

Gager ſhall take account of Waſh, &c.

Gager ſhall diſcharge Diſtiller with quantities miſſing.

VII. And be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the Gager and Gagers of Exciſe ſhall from time to time gage and take account of all Waſh and other Materials prepared or preparing for the making of Low Wines, and alſo of all Low Wines, Spirits or Strong-waters found in the Houſes, Cellars or Warehouſes, or in any Waſh, Back, Caſk or other Veſſel or Veſſels uſed by any Diſtiller or Maker of Low Wines or Spirits; and in caſe he ſhall miſs any quantity or quantities of Liquor or Drink brewed or made from Corn, or any Waſh or other Materials prepared for making of Low Wines which he found or gaged the laſt time ſuch Gager was at ſuch Diſtillers, not exceeding twenty four hours before, and ſhall not on Demand receive Satisfaction what is become of ſuch Drink or Waſh, or other ſuch like Materials, That in every ſuch Caſe it ſhall be lawful for ſuch Gager to charge ſuch Diſtiller with ſo much Low Wines as ſuch Liquor, Drink, Waſh or other Materials ſo miſſing in his Judgment would reaſonably have made.

Diſtiller ſhall give notice to Gager the time of diſtilling & removing Spirits, except at certain times mentioned.

VIII. And to the intent that the Duties payable to their Majeſties for all Low Wines, Spirits, Aqua vitæ, and Strong-waters, may be the better aſcertained, collected and levied, Be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid four and twentieth day of December, no Diſtiller or Maker of Low Wines, Spirits, Aqua vitæ, and Strong-waters ſhall diſtill or ſet their Stills at work for the drawing or making any the Liquors above-mentioned, or ſhall deliver or carry out any Low Wines, Spirits, or Aqua vitæ, to any of their Cuſtomers, in Caſk or by the Gallon, without Notice thereof firſt given to the Officer of Exciſe for the Place or Diviſion where ſuch Diſtiller or Maker ſhall live, to the intent that ſuch Officer may be preſent to ſee and gage the ſame, unleſs at ſuch times as herein after are mentioned; (that is to ſay) from the nine and twentieth day of September to the twenty fifth of March yearly, between the hours of five of the Clock in the Morning, and eight of the Clock in the Evening; and from the twenty fifth of March to the twenty ninth of September yearly, between the hours of three of the Clock in the Morning and nine of the Clock in the Evening, upon Pain that every Diſtiller and Maker of the Liquors aforeſaid, doing contrary hereunto, ſhall for every ſuch Offence forfeit the Sum of ten pounds.

10 l. Penalty.

Manner of levying, collecting, &c.

IX. And be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the ſeveral Rates and Duties of Exciſe hereby impoſed on the Liquors aforeſaid, ſhall be raiſed, levied, collected, recovered and paid unto their Majeſties and their Succeſſors during the time before mentioned, and in the ſame manner and form, and by ſuch Rules, Ways and Means, and under ſuch Penalties and Forfeitures as are mentioned, expreſſed and directed in and by one Act of Parliament made in the twelfth year of the Reign of the late King Charles the Second, Entituled, An Act for taking away the Court of Wards and Liveries, and Tenures in Capite and by Knights Service and Purveyance, and for ſetling a Revenue upon his Majeſty in lieu thereof; And alſo in and by one other Act of Parliament made in the fifteenth year of his ſaid Majeſties Reign, Entituled, An Additional Act for the better ordering and collecting the Duties of Exciſe, and Preventing the Abuſes therein, or in either of them, or by any other Law now in force, relating to the Revenue of Exciſe.

Cap. 24.

Cap. 11.

For all Metheglin or Mead made for Sale, whether by Retail or otherwiſe, to be paid by the Maker for every Gallon, ſix pence.

Manner of levying.

III. And be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the ſeveral Rates and Duties of Exciſe hereby impoſed on the Liquors aforeſaid, ſhall be raiſed, levied, collected, recovered and paid unto their Majeſties and their Succeſſors, during the time before mentioned, and in the ſame manner and form, and by ſuch Rules, Ways and Means, and under ſuch Penalties and Forfeiturs, as are mentioned, expreſſed and directed in and by one Act of Parliament made in the firſt year of their preſent Majeſties Reign, Entituled, An Act for an Additional Duty of Exciſe upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, or by any other Law now in force relating to the Revenue of Exciſe.

Exciſe formerly given not inlarged by this Act.

IV. Provided that nothing in this Act contained ſhall be conſtrued to continue the Duties of Exciſe granted by an Act made in the firſt year of their Majeſties Reign, Entituled, An Act for an Additional Duty of Exciſe upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, or any other Duties of Exciſe upon Beer, Ale or other Liquors, for any longer time then the ſame are reſpectively granted by the ſaid Act, or any other Act or Acts for that purpoſe.

Victuallers, &c. may brew paying the Exciſe.

V. And be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for any Victuallers, or Retailers, or Common Brewers, who for or within the ſpace of one year before the ſeventeenth of November laſt, have not brewed their own Beer and Ale, to brew and make the ſtrong Beer, Small Beer or Ale, drank, conſumed, ſpent or ſold in their reſpective Houſes, Out-houſes, or other places, paying the Duty of Exciſe for the ſame, in manner as Brewers and Retailers of Beer and Ale, brewing and making the ſame are liable by the Laws of Exciſe now in force. And on their entring the Beer and Ale by them reſpectively made at the Exciſe Office, within the Limits wherein ſuch Beer and Ale ſhall be made; And on the payment of the Duty of Exciſe for the ſame, ſuch perſon and perſons ſhall not be liable to the Penalty of one hundred pounds impoſed in an Act made in this preſent Parliament, Entituled, An Act for doubling the Duty of Exciſe upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, during the ſpace of one year; Any thing in the ſame Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

VI. And whereas by an Act made in the firſt year of their Majeſties Reign, Entituled, An Act for appropriating certain Duties for paying the States General of the United Provinces, their Charges for his Majeſty's Expedition into this Kingdom, and for other Uſes, the Mony accruing and payable to their Majeſties by force of another Act made in the ſaid firſt year of their Majeſties Reign, Entituled, An Act for an Additional Duty of Exciſe upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, (together with other Mony ariſing any payable by certain other Acts of Parliament) was appropriated for and towards the payment of ſix hundred thouſand pounds to the States of the United Provinces: And after the ſaid ſix hundred thouſand pounds ſo paid, the reſidue of the Mony which ſhould accrue and be payable to their Majeſties by virtue of the ſaid Act, to be for and towards the ſubduing of the Rebellion of Ireland, and other Charges of the War againſt France: And whereas the Encreaſe of the Naval Strength and Force of this Kingdom is one of the beſt and moſt effectual means for carrying on the War againſt France, and for maintaining the Honour and Safety of the Realm, Be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all Monies which ſhall accrue and become payable to their Majeſties by virtue of the ſaid Act, Entituled, An Act for an Additional Duty of Exciſe upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, from and after the ſaid ſix hundred thouſand pounds ſhall be paid to the ſaid States General: And alſo all Monies to be collected, levied and paid by virtue of this Act, ſhall be applied to the uſes following (that is to ſay) the Sum of five hundred and ſeventy thouſand pounds, part thereof ſhall be applied and appropriated, and is hereby appropriated for the Building, and for the Guns, Rigging and other Furniſhing of ſeven and twenty Ships of War, whereof ſeventeen to be of the third Rate, and to contain and meaſure eleven hundred Tuns, or thereabouts, and to carry eighty Guns apiece; and ten to be of the fourth Rate, and to contain and meaſure nine hundred Tuns or thereabouts, and to carry ſixty Guns apiece.

Cap. 28.

Cap. 29.

Appropriation of this and the reſidue of the Exciſe before given to the building 27 Men of War.

VII. And be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid ſeven and twenty Ships of War hereby directed to be built, as aforeſaid, ſhall be, and are hereby directed to be built and furniſhed with all convenient Expedition, the whole number to be compleated with Guns, Rigging and Furniture, within the ſpace of four years, to be accounted from the five and twentieth day of March, one thouſand ſix hundred ninety one.

VIII. And to the end that the ſaid five hundred and ſeventy thouſand pounds, may be applyed to the building and furniſhing of the ſaid Ships of War; And alſo that their Majeſties may be enabled to borrow upon the Credit of this Act, any Sum or Sums of Mony not exceeding ten hundred thouſand pounds, for the Uſes of the ſaid War, Be it farther enacted, That from and after the ſaid ſix hundred thouſand pounds ſhall be paid to the ſaid States General, until the eighteenth day of November, which ſhall be in the year one thouſand ſix hundred ninety five, the Commiſſioners and Governours for the management of the Receipt of Exciſe at the Head-Office in London, ſhall ſeparate and keep apart as well the ſaid Monies ariſing by virtue of the ſaid Act, Entituled, An Act for an Additional Duty of Exciſe upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, as the Monies ariſing by virtue of this Act, as the ſame ſhall from time to time ariſe, or be paid into the ſaid Office of Exciſe by the Receivers or Collectors of the ſame, or by any other perſon whatſoever; And the Auditor and Comptroller of the Exciſe for the time being, or their reſpective Deputies, ſhall keep a perfect and diſtinct Account in Books fairly written of the ſaid Monies, as the ſame ſhall come in, to which Books all perſons concerned ſhall have free acceſs at all ſeaſonable times without Fee or Charge; and the ſaid Commiſſioners and Governours of Exciſe for the time being, are hereby required, and ſtrictly enjoyned, from time to time to pay weekly, to wit, on Wedneſday in every Week, if it be not an Holy-Day; and if it be, then the next day after that is not an Holy-day, the ſaid Monies into the Receipt of their Majeſties Exchequer, diſtinct and apart from the other Monies which the ſaid Commiſſioners and Governours of Exciſe ſhall receive for their Majeſties uſe.

The Reſidue of the former Exciſe and this to be kept apart, and paid weekly into the Exchequer.

IX. And it is farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the Officers of the Receipt of their Majeſties Exchequer ſhall keep all Monies which ſhall be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer by virtue of this Act, or of the ſaid former Act, and the Account thereof diſtinct from all other Monies and Accounts whatſoever, and ſhall alſo keep a particular account of the Charge of the Building, Guns, Rigging, and other Furniſhing of each of the ſaid ſeven and twenty Ships of War hereby directed to be built, as aforeſaid.

A ſeparate Account in the Exchequer.

X. And be it farther enacted, That out of the Monies ſo from time to time paid into the Receipt of their Majeſties Exchequer, one third part thereof, the whole in three equal parts to be divided, ſhall in each and every of the ſaid years be iſſued and paid out for and towards the Building, and for and towards the Guns, Rigging and other Furniſhing of the ſaid ſeven and twenty Ships of War; And that the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, or Lord Treaſurer, or Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the time being, do not ſign any Warrant or Order, or do any other matter or thing for the iſſuing of any part of the ſaid one third part, to any perſon or perſons, other then the Treaſurer of the Navy, or the Treaſurer or Paymaſter of the Ordnance for the time being, and expreſſing therein, that the ſame is for the Building, or for the Guns, Rigging or other Furniſhing of the ſeven and twenty Ships of War above mentioned; Nor ſhall the Auditor of the Receipt draw any Order for the iſſuing any part of the ſaid one third part, to any perſon or perſons, other then the Treaſurer of the Navy, or Treaſurer or Paymaſter of the Ordnance, as aforeſaid; Nor ſhall he direct, or the Clerk of the Pells Record, or the Teller make Payment of any part of the ſaid one third part by virtue of any Warrant, or upon any Order, or other Way or Device whatſoever, other then to the perſons, and for the Uſes aforeſaid, and to be ſo mentioned and expreſſed in ſuch Warrant or Order.

One third part to be paid the Treaſurer of the Navy, &c.

XI. And

Treaſurer of the Navy, &c. may aſſign over the third part.

XI. And be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the Treaſurer of the Navy, and the Treaſurer or Pay-Maſter of the Ordnance reſpectively, may aſſign and transfer any part of the ſaid One third part due and payable to them upon any Order, by Indorſement upon ſuch Order, which being notified, and an Entry and Memorial thereof alſo made in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt, (which on Requeſt he ſhall accordingly make, without Fee or Charge) ſhall intitle ſuch Aſſignee, his Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, to the benefit of ſuch Order or Orders, or any part thereof and payment thereon; And ſuch Aſſignee may in like manner aſſign, and ſo toties quoties; And afterwards it ſhall not be in the power of ſuch perſon or perſons, who have or hath made ſuch Aſſignments, to make void, releaſe or diſcharge the ſame, or the Monies thereby due, or any part thereof.

Treaſurer of the Navy to keep an account.

XII. And it is hereby farther enacted, That the Treaſurer of the Navy, and Treaſurer or Pay-Maſter of the Ordnance for the time being, ſhall keep all Monies paid to them reſpectively by virtue of this Act, diſtinct and apart from all other Monies, and iſſue and pay the ſame by Warrant of the principal Officers and Commiſſioners of the Navy or Ordnance reſpectively, or any three or more of them, and mentioning and expreſſing, That it is for the Building, or for the Guns, Rigging, or other Furniſhing of the ſeven and twenty Ships of War, as aforeſaid, and to no other intent or purpoſe whatſoever.

Officers of the Navy to ſign Bills only for building.

XIII. And it is farther enacted, That the principal Officers and Commiſſioners of the Navy, and the principal Officers of the Ordnance, reſpectively, or any three or more of them, ſhall not ſign any Warrant or Navy Bills, or do any other Act or Thing for the iſſuing and paying any of the ſaid Monies to any uſe, intent or purpoſe whatſoever, other then for the Building, or for the Guns, Rigging, or other furniſhing of the ſeven and twenty Ships of War, as aforeſaid, and to be ſo mentioned and expreſſed in ſuch Warrant or Navy Bill.

Clauſe of Credit for 1000000 l. upon the two thirds.

XIV. And be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any perſon or perſons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate to advance and lend to their Majeſties into the Receipt of the Exehequer, upon the Credit of two third parts, the whole in three equal parts to be divided, of the Monies to be brought in to the Receipt purſuant to the directions of this of Act, as aforeſaid, any Sum or Sums of Mony, not exceeding the Sum of ten hundred thouſand pounds in the whole; and to have and receive for the Forbearance thereof, Intereſt not exceeding the rate of ſeven pounds by the hundred for one year.

Annual Surplus of Duties ariſing by 5 & 6 W. & M. ca. 7. to be applyed for payments of Principal and Intereſt due for two thirds of the Exciſe hereby granted, Id. Stat. Sect. 55. Order, Tally and Payment in courſe.

XV. And to the end that all Monies which ſhall be ſo lent to their Majeſties, may be well and ſufficiently ſecured out of, and by the Monies ariſing by this or the ſaid former Act, and appointed by this preſent Act to be paid into the Exchequer, as aforeſaid, (other then, and beſides the ſaid one third part appropriated as aforeſaid) together with the Intereſt for the Mony ſo lent, not exceeding the Rate aforeſaid; Be it farther enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That there ſhall be provided and kept in their Majeſties Exchequer, (that is to ſay) in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt, one Book in which all Monies which ſhall be paid into the Exchequer, as aforeſaid, ſhall be entred apart and diſtinct from all other Monies paid or payable to their Majeſties upon any account whatſoever: And that all and every Perſon and Perſons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, who ſhall lend any Mony to their Majeſties upon the Credit of this Act, and pay the ſame into the Receipt of the Exchequer, ſhall immediately have a Tally of Loan ſtruck for the ſame, and an Order for his or their Repayment, bearing the ſame Date with the Tally; in which Order ſhall be alſo contained a Warrant for Payment of Intereſt for Forbearance, not exceeding the Rate aforeſaid, for his or their Conſideration, to be paid every three months until Repayment of the Principal; and that all Orders for Repayment of Mony ſhall be regiſtred in courſe according to the Date of the Tally reſpectively, without preferenee of one before another; and that all and every perſon and perſons ſhall be paid in courſe, according as their Orders ſhall ſtand entred in the ſaid Regiſter Book, ſo as that the perſon, Native or Foreigner, his, her, or their Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſings, who ſhall have his, her, or their Order or Orders firſt entred in the ſaid Book, ſhall be taken and accounted as the firſt perſon to be paid upon the Monies to come in by virtue of this Act, (other then, and beſides the ſaid one third part, appropriated as aforeſaid;) And he or they who ſhall have his or their Order or Orders next entred, ſhall be taken and accounted to be the ſecond perſon to be paid, and ſo ſucceſſively and in courſe; and that the aforeſaid two third parts (the whole in three equal parts being divided) of all the Monies before mentioned, ſhall be in the ſame Order liable to the ſatisfaction of the ſaid reſpective Parties, their Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns ſucceſſively, without preference of one before another, and not otherwiſe, and not to be divertible to any other uſe, intent or purpoſe whatſoever; and that no Fee, Reward or Gratuity, directly or indirectly, be demanded or taken of any of their Majeſties Subjects, for providing or making of any ſuch Books, Regiſters, Entries, View or Search, as aforeſaid, by any of their Majeſties Officer or Officers, their Clerks or Deputies, on pain of Payment of treble Damages to the Party grieved, by the Party offending, with Coſts of Suit; Or if the Officer or Officers, themſelves take or demand any ſuch Fee or Reward, then to loſe their places alſo; and if any undue preference of one before another ſhall be made, either in point of Regiſtry or Payment contrary to the true meaning of this Act, by any ſuch Officer or Officers, then the Party offending ſhall be liable by Action of Debt, or on the Caſe, to pay the value of the Debt, Damages and Coſts to the Party grieved, and ſhall be forejudged from their Places or Offices; And if ſuch preference be unduly made by any their Deputies or Clerks, without direction or privity of the Officer or Officers, then ſuch Deputy or Clerk only ſhall be liable to ſuch Action, Debt, Damages and Coſts, and ſhall be for ever after uncapable of his Place or Office; And in caſe the Auditor ſhall not direct the Order, or the Cler of the Pells Record, or the Teller make payment according to each perſons due Place and Order, as afore directed, then he or they ſhall be judged to forfeit, and their reſpective Deputies and Clerks herein offending, to be liable to ſuch Action, Debt, Damages and Coſts, in ſuch mannet, as aforeſaid; All which ſaid Penalties, Forfeitures, Damages and Coſts to be incurred by any of the Officers aforeſaid, or any their Deputies or Clerks, ſhall and may be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information in any of Their Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoign, Protection, Priviledge, Wager of Law, Injunction, or Order of Reſtraint, ſhall be in any wiſe granted or allowed.

XVI. Provided always, and be it hereby declared, That if it happen that ſeveral Tallies of Loan, or Orders for payment, as aforeſaid, bear Date, or be brought the ſame day to the Auditor of the Receipt to be Regiſtred, then it ſhall be interpreted no undue Preference which of thoſe he Enters firſt, ſo he Enters them all the ſame day.

XVII. Provided alſo, That it ſhall not be interpreted any undue Preference to incur any Penalty in point of payment, if the Auditor direct, and the Clerk of the Pells record, and the Teller do pay ſubſequent Orders of perſons that come and demand their Money, and bring their Order in their courſe, ſo as there be ſo much Money reſerved as will ſatisfie precedent Orders, which ſhall not be otherwiſe diſpoſed, but kept for them (Intereſt upon Loan being to ceaſe from the time the Money is ſo reſerved, and kept in Bank for them.)

Money transferrable.

XVIII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every perſon and perſons to whom any Moneys ſhall be due by virtue of this Act, after Order entred in the Book of Regiſter aforeſaid, for payment thereof, his Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns by indorſement of his Order may aſſign and transfer his Right, Title, Intereſt and Benefit of ſuch Order, or any part thereof, to any other, which being notified in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt aforeſaid, and an Entry or Memorial thereof alſo made in the ſaid Book of Regiſter for Orders (which the Officers ſhall upon requeſt, without Fee or Charge accordingly make) ſhall Entitle ſuch Aſſignee his Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns to the Benefit thereof, and payment thereon; And ſuch Aſſignee may in like manner aſſign again, and ſo toties quoties: And afterwards it ſhall not be in the power of ſuch perſon or perſons who have or hath made ſuch Aſſignments, to make void, releaſe or diſcharge the ſame, or any Moneys thereby due, or any part thereof: And if the ſaid Commiſſioners or Governours of the Exciſe for the time being, ſhall refuſe or neglect to pay into the Exchequer the ſaid Moneys in ſuch manner as they are before required or enjoyned to do, or ſhall divert or miſapply any part of the ſame; Or if any other Officer mentioned in this Act, of or belonging to the Exchequer, Navy or Ordnance, ſhall offend againſt this Act, or any Clauſe thereof, by diverting or miſapplying any Moneys whatſoever, contrary to the true intent and meaning of this Act, That then ſuch Commiſſioner, Governour or Officer ſo refuſing or neglecting to pay, or diverting or miſapplying, as aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit and loſe his Office or Place, and is hereby diſabled and made uncapable to hold or execute any Office or Place of Truſt for the future, and ſhall be liable to pay the full value of any Sum or Sums ſo diverted or miſapplied unto any perſon or perſons who will ſue for the ſame, by any Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information in any of their Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoign, Protection, Priviledge, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance ſhall be granted or allowed.

Puniſhment upon Officers neglecting or miſapplying.

XIX. Provided alſo, and be it Enacted, That no ſtay of Proſecution upon any Command, Warrant, Motion, Order or Direction by Non vult ulterius proſequi, ſhall be had, made, admitted, received or allowed by any Court whatſoever, in any Suit or Proceeding by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, or otherwiſe, for the recovery of all or any the pains, forfeitures, or penalties, upon any perſon or perſons by this Act inflicted, or therein mentioned, or for or in order to the Conviction or Diſability of any perſon offending againſt this Act.

Cap.5.

An Office of receipt for Cuſtoms given formerly upon Eaſt-India Goods and Tobacco, &c. to be in London.

XX. And whereas by an Act made in this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, Entituled, An Act for Granting to Their Majeſties certain Impoſitions upon all Eaſt-India Goods and Manufactures, and upon all Wrought Silks, and ſeveral other Goods and Merchandize, to be Imported after the Five and twentieth day of December, One thouſand ſix hundred and ninety, It is Enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for any perſon or perſons to advance and lend to Their Majeſties any Sum or Sums of money upon the Security of the ſaid Act; and whereas by another Act made in this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, Entituled, An Act for the Continuance of ſeveral former Acts therein mentioned, for the laying ſeveral Duties upon Wines, Vinegar and Tobacco, It is Enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for any perſon or perſons to advance and lend to Their Majeſties any Sum or Sums of money, as well upon the Security of the ſame Act, as upon the Security of two former Acts therein mentioned, made in the Reign of the late King James, in ſuch manner as in the ſaid laſt mentioned Act made in this preſent Seſſion of Parliament is expreſſed: Now to the end that it may appear what moneys ſhall ariſe or become payable to Their Majeſties by virtue of the ſaid Acts, whereby the moneys advanced to Their Majeſties upon the Credit of the ſame may be the better ſecured, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Five and twentieth day of December, One thouſand ſix hundred and ninety, during the continuance of the ſaid Acts reſpectively, there ſhall be continued, and be within the City of London, an Office for the Receipt of all the Duties and Sums of Money granted, or payable to Their Majeſties by virtue of the ſaid laſt mentioned Acts, or either of them; In which Office all the Moneys ariſing by the ſame within the Port of London, or in the Out-Ports, or elſewhere, ſhall be well and truly anſwered and paid to the Receiver or Receivers General of Their Majeſties Cuſtoms, to be appointed by Their Majeſties; Which ſaid Receiver or Receivers General is, and are hereby directed and required from time to time, at the ſaid Office to ſeparate and keep apart the whole Receipt of the ſaid Moneys due and payable by virtue of the ſaid Act, Entituled, An Act for Granting to Their Majeſties certain Impoſitions upon all Eaſt-India Goods and Manufactures, and upon all Wrought Silks, and ſeveral other Goods and Merchandize, to be Imported after the Five and twentieth day of December, One thouſand ſix hundred and ninety: As alſo to ſeparate and keep apart the whole Receipt of all Moneys granted to Their Majeſties by the ſaid Act, Entituled, An Act for the Continuance of ſeveral former Acts therein mentioned, for the laying ſeveral Duties upon Wine, Vinegar and Tobacco; CAP. XIII. (23)

An Act for preventing Vexatious Suits againſt ſuch as acted for Their Majeſties Service, in defence of the Kingdom.

Preamble.

I. Whereas in this preſent year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred and ninety, about the time that the Coaſts of this Kingdom were invaded by the French, the Lords and others of Their Majeſties moſt Honourable Privy Council, divers Lords, Gentlemen, and other good Subjects, being Magiſtrates and Officers, or acting in purſuance of their Orders, did for Their Majeſties Service, and the Safety of the Kingdom, apprehend and impriſon ſeveral ſuſpected perſons, and did ſeize and uſe Horſes and Arms, and did cauſe the greateſt part of the Militia of this Kingdom to be raiſed, continued and maintained, otherwiſe than is authorized by the Acts made in the Reign of King Charles the Second in that behalf, and to march and to be quartered in divers places upon that occaſion: That thoſe proceedings in that extraordinary Juncture, and the parties concerned therein may be Indemnified therefore; And for the preventing the Trouble and Charges which the ſaid good Subjects might be put to by the Proſecution of Their Majeſties, Their Heirs and Succeſſors, or by the means of Vexatious Suits of any perſon whatſoever, for and by reaſon of their actings and doings aforeſaid:

All Proſecutions, &c. made void.

II. Be it enacted by the King and Queens moſt Excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That all Perſonal Actions, Suits, Indictments, Informations, and all other Proſecutions whatſoever, for or by reaſon of the premiſſes, be, and are hereby diſcharged and made void: And if any Action or Suit, hereby declared to be diſcharged, hath been or ſhall be commenced or proſecuted, every perſon ſo ſued may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence; And if the Plaintiff ſhall become Nonſuit, or forbear further Proſecution, or ſuffer Diſcontinuance, or if a Verdict paſs againſt him, the ſaid Defendant ſhall recover his double Coſts, for which he ſhall have the like Remedy as in caſe where Coſts by Law are given to Defendants.

Defendant may plead the General Iſſue and recover double Coſts.

CAP. XIV. (24)

An Act for the more effectual putting in execution, an Act, Entituled, An Act for Prohibiting all Trade and Commerce with France. Revived by 4& 5 W. & M. Cap. 25.

Preamble. Cap. 24.

I. Whereas by an Act made in the Firſt year of Their Majeſties Reign, Entituled, An Act for Prohibiting all Trade and Commerce with France, it was provided, That if any French Wines, Vinegar, Brandy, Linen, Silks, Salt, Paper, and other Commodities of the growth, product or manufacture of France, or of the Territories or Dominions of the French King, or any Goods, Commodities or Manufactures, mixed with any Goods or Commodities being of the growth, product or manufacture of any of the Dominions or Territories of the French King, ſhould be Imported contrary to the ſaid Act, they ſhould be ſtav'd, ſpilt, deſtroyed or burnt, in ſuch manner as is by the ſaid Act directed: Notwithſtanding which, divers of the ſaid Goods, Commodities and Manufactures taken, or pretended to be taken as Prizes, have been Imported, but not ſtav'd, ſpilt, burnt or deſtroyed, according to the proviſion of the ſaid Act: For remedy whereof, and for the more effectual putting the ſaid Act in Execution, Penalty of Officer offending.

II. Be it Enacted by the King and Queens moſt Excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That if any Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms or Prizes ſhall wilfully or knowingly ſuffer any of the ſaid Goods, Commodities or Manufactures imported as Prizes, or otherwiſe, contrary to the ſaid Act, to be admitted to an Entry, or to be imbezeled, and not ſtav'd, ſpilt, burnt or deſtroyed, in ſuch manner as by the ſaid Act is directed, every ſuch Officer or Officers, ſhall, being thereof lawfully convicted, forfeit the Sum of Five hundred pounds, whereof one Moiety to be to Their Majeſties, Their Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to ſuch perſon or perſons as ſhall diſcover and ſue for the ſame, and alſo ſhall for ever afterwards be incapable of having or executing any Office in Their Majeſties Revenue.

Penalty upon any ſelling Wine in Veſſel unſealed, &c.

III. And it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon or perſons, at any time or times from and after the Firſt day of February, One thouſand ſix hundred and ninety, ſhall ſell or utter by Retail in or by any Glaſs Bottle or Bottles, or in or by any other Retail Meaſure, not made of Pewter, and ſealed according to Law, any kind of Wine or Wines whatſoever, or any other Liquor expoſed to ſale for Wine; or ſhall ſell the ſame for a greater price than by the afore-mentioned Act is appointed, and ſhall be convicted thereof by the Confeſſion of the party, or by the Oath of two credible Witneſſes before one or more Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace of the County, City or place where ſuch Offence ſhall be committed, (who are hereby required and impowered to Adminiſter an Oath to that purpoſe) ſuch perſon being proſecuted for ſuch Offence within Thirty days next after ſuch Offence committed, that then every perſon ſo offending, ſhall forfeit and pay for every ſuch Offence the penalty and ſum of Fifty Shillings, which if not paid upon demand, ſhall be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of the Goods and Chattels of every ſuch Offender, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of the Juſtice or Juſtices before whom ſuch Conviction ſhall be made, which Warrant the ſaid Juſtice and Juſtices are hereby impowered and required to grant to the Conſtable, Headborough or Tythingman of the Pariſh or place where ſuch Offence ſhall be committed, who are hereby required and authorized immediately to levy the ſame accordingly, rendring the Overplus to the Owner thereof; The ſaid Penalty, Forfeiture and Moneys ſo levied, to be given to the Informer; And for want of ſufficient Diſtreſs, the Offender ſhall be Committed to the Common Goal, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize, until he ſhall pay the ſaid Money and Penalty, and all neceſſary Coſts and Charges of ſuch Conviction and Proſecution, the ſaid Coſts to be taxed by the Juſtice or Juſtices before whom the ſaid Conviction was made.

Perſon puniſh'd exempt from other Laws.

No Certiorari.

IV. Provided, That where any Offender ſhall be puniſhed by force of this Act, he ſhall not be proſecuted, nor incur the penalty of any other Law or Statute for the ſame Offence; And that no Writ or Writs of Certiorari ſhall be granted or allowed to ſuperſede or remove any Conviction or Proceedings in purſuance of this Act, but that Execution, and all other Proceedings ſhall and may be had and made thereupon; Any ſuch Writ or Writs, or Allowance thereof notwithſtanding.

Penalty upon perſons diſturbing Informers.

V. And whereas ſeveral Officers and Informers have been hindred, abuſed, beaten and wounded, to the hazard of their Lives, in the due execution of their ſeveral Truſts and Services in their reſpective places, by Companies and multitudes of Men, and prohibited Goods have by force and violence, as well by Land as by Water, been forcibly carried and conveyed away; Be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That where any Officer or Informer, or any other perſon or perſons impowered by this Act, or the aforeſaid Act of Prohibition, ſhall be by any perſon or perſons forcibly hindred, abuſed, beaten or wounded in the due Execution of this or the aforeſaid Act, all and every perſon and perſons ſo reſiſting, abuſing, beating or wounding the ſaid Officer or Informer, or other perſons impowered thereby, or ſuch as ſhall act in their aid and aſſiſtance, ſhall by the next Juſtice of the Peace, or other Magiſtrate, be Committed to Priſon, there to remain till the next Quarter Seſſions; And the Juſtices of the ſaid Quarter Seſſions ſhall, and are hereby impowered to puniſh the Offenders by Fine, not exceeding Five pounds; And the Offender is to remain in Priſon till he be Diſcharged both of the Fine and Impriſonment, by Order of the ſaid Juſtices, or any two of them.

CAP. XV. (25)

An Act for Relief of poor Priſoners for Debt or Damages. Revived by 5 & 6.W.& M.Cap.8.

Preamble.

22,23 Car.2. cap.20.

30 Car.2.4.

I. Whereas for ſeveral charitable and good Reaſons, an Act of Parliament was made the Two and twentieth and Three and twentieth years of the Reign of our late Sovereign Lord King Charles the Second, Entituled, An Act for the Relief and Releaſe of poor diſtreſſed Priſoners for Debt; and becauſe of ſome dubious Conſtruction of ſome words mentioned in the ſaid Act, the ſame did not anſwer the full intent for which it was made; Wherefore for better Explanation thereof, and to ſupply the Defects which did obſtruct the good ends and purpoſes of the ſaid Act, another Act was made by the ſame Parliament, in the Thirtieth year of the ſaid late King, Entituled, An Act for the further Relief and Diſcharge of poor diſtreſſed Priſoners for Debt; By which ſaid laſt Act it was Enacted, That all perſons being in Priſon upon the Nine and twentieth day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ſeventy eight, for Debt or Damages, upon any manner of Proceſs whatſoever, iſſuing out of any Court of Law or Equity, and who ſhould take the Oath in the ſaid firſt recited Act mentioned, ſhould and might be releaſed and diſcharged from their Impriſonments in the ſame manner as perſons being Priſoners might have been by the firſt mentioned Act, and in caſe the ſaid Debt and Damages had been aſcertained by Judgment. Now Their preſent Majeſties taking into Their charitable and pious Conſideration, the ſad Condition of many thouſands of poor Priſoners in Priſon for Debt, ready to periſh; and being no leſs piouſly inclined and intended to eaſe and relieve their poor diſtreſſed Subjects in priſon, than any other Kings and Queens Their Predeceſſors have been: But ſeriouſly conſidering the many Abuſes which hapned under the Two before mentioned late Acts, by Sheriffs, Goalers and Keepers of Priſons, in diſcharging and releaſing Perſons from priſon who were not within the Benefit of the ſaid Acts, and who were not really and truly Priſoners at the aforeſaid Nine and twentieth day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ſeventy and eight; And the many Frauds by perſons abuſing the Favour thereby to them intended, by entring themſelves Priſoners under feigned Actions, thereby to deceive and defraud their Creditors of their juſt Debts; Their ſaid Majeſties, by and with the Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, have Enacted:

Perſons in Priſon taking the Oaths ſhall be diſcharged.

II. And it is hereby Enacted, That all Perſons in Priſon upon the Eight and twentieth day of November, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred and ninety, for Debt or Damages, or for or upon any Action or Actions, or upon any mean Proceſs for Debt, Account, or Treſpaſs upon the Caſe; Which Actions, by Proſecution of Law, may be Judgments for Debt or Damages, or who may have Judgments Entred upon Record againſt them, or are Charged in Execution, or Impriſoned upon Attachments for Debt, or upon Outlawries before or after Judgment for Debt, or upon any other Proceſs whatſoever, iſſued out of any Court of Law or Equity, for the cauſe of Debt or Damages, or Coſts only, who ſhall take the Oath in the ſaid firſt recited Act mentioned, and the Oath in this preſent Act following, ſhall and may be releaſed and diſcharged from their Impriſonments in the ſame Form, and in ſuch manner as is contained and mentioned in the ſaid two before mentioned late Acts, and as if ſuch perſon was Priſoner before and at the time mentioned for the Releaſe and Diſcharge of ſuch Priſoner in either of the aforementioned late Acts.

III And

Juſtices of Peace may give Goalers, &c. an Oath.

III. And it is further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That any Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, who purſuant to the before two mentioned late Acts, and according to the true intent and meaning of this preſent Act, ſhall make any Order for the Diſcharge of any poor Priſoner for Debt, they the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices ſhall cauſe to come and call before them any Sheriff, Goaler or Keeper of Priſon, of ſuch Gaol or Priſon of and from whence ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners, he, ſhe or they is or are, and ſhall adminiſter and give to ſuch Sheriff, Goaler or Keeper of Priſon, an Oath to this effect following: Viz.

The Oath. This Oath aboliſhed, and another appointed by 5 & 6 W. & M. Cap. 8.

I A. B. do Swear, That J. S. was really and truly my Priſoner in my Cuſtody, without any fraud or deceit by me, or by any other to my knowledge, at or upon the Eight and twentieth day of November, in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred and ninety.

So help me God.

Goaler refuſing to ſwear, penalty.

IV. And if ſuch Sheriff, Goaler or Keeper of Priſon, or who was Sheriff, Goaler or Keeper of ſuch Priſon at the time of ſuch perſons firſt Impriſonment, and thereof not Diſcharged, and from whence ſuch Priſoner is about to be Diſcharged, ſhall refuſe, being duly Summoned to appear before the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices, and ſhall refuſe to take the before mentioned Oath ſo to be given and adminiſtred by the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices, as aforeſaid, ſuch Sheriff, Goaler and Keeper of Priſon, ſhall forfeit and pay to ſuch Priſoner, ſo about to be diſcharged and releaſed from Priſon, and thereby detained, the value of ſuch Debt or Debts for which he or ſhe ſhall be Impriſoned, to be recovered by Action of Debt in any Their Majeſties Courts of Record: And if any ſuch Sheriff, Goaler or Keeper of Priſon ſhall forſwear and perjure himſelf, and ſhall be thereof lawfully convicted, ſuch Sheriff, Goaler or Keeper of Priſon, ſhall incur and ſuffer ſuch penalties as are now in force, and may by Law be inflicted upon perſons Convicted of Perjury.

Goaler liable to Perjury.

Priſoner muſt take an Oath.

V. And it is alſo Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That ſuch Priſoner as ſhall take the benefit of this Act, according to the Form of the two before mentioned late Acts, as is hereby required, and ſhall take the Oath in the firſt recited Act mentioned, ſhall alſo before ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace by whom ſuch Oath is to be given and adminiſtred, likewiſe take an Oath to this Effect: Viz.

The Oath.

I A.B. do Swear, That on the Eight and twentieth day of November, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred and ninety, I was actually a Priſoner in the Cuſtody of the Gaoler or Keeper of D. Priſon in the County of C. at the Suit of J.S. without my conſent or procurement, or by any fraud or colluſion whatſoever.

So help me God.

Penalty upon Priſoner forſworn.

VI. And if any Priſoner, who ſhall take the benefit of this Act, and ſhall in purſuance of the ſame take the Oaths for any the purpoſes hereby appointed, ſhall Forſwear himſelf, then ſhall ſuch perſon, being thereof lawfully Convicted, beyond and over and above the penalties which may by Law now in force be inflicted upon perſons Convicted of Perjury, ſuffer Impriſonment for the ſpace of Seven years, without Bail or Mainprize.

Priſoner for Fine excepted.

VII. Provided nevertheleſs, That this Act ſhall not extend to any perſon or perſons in Execution for any Fine on him, her or them impoſed, for any Offence by him, or her, or them committed.

Taking the Oaths, &c. how performed.

VIII. And laſtly, it is declared and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That taking the Oaths, and giving to the Creditors ſuch Notice as is by this preſent Act required in all other things for the releaſe and diſcharge of any poor Priſoner from priſon, it ſhall be obſerved and performed in the ſame form and method as is mentioned in, and directed by the ſaid two before mentioned late Acts of Parliament.

Debtors to the King, &c. excepted.

IX. Provided, That no perſon ſhall be Diſcharged out of Priſon, or have any benefit or advantage by force or virtue of this Act, who ſhall ſtand charged with more than the Sum of One hundred pounds principal Money or Damages, or ſhall ſtand charged with any Debt to Their Majeſties.

Judgment ſtill good againſt Land and Goods.

X. Provided always, and be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That notwithſtanding the Diſcharge of the Perſon of ſuch Priſoner, as aforeſaid, upon taking the Oath aforeſaid, all and every Judgment had and taken againſt him or her, ſhall be and ſtand good and effectual in the Law, to all intents and purpoſes, againſt the Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Goods and Chattels only of the ſaid Priſoner ſo Diſcharged; as aforeſaid: And it ſhall and may be lawful to and for ſuch Creditor of ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners, ſo Diſcharged, as aforeſaid, his Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, to take out any new Execution againſt the Lands, Tenements Hereditaments, Goods and Chattels of ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners, (his or her Wearing Apparel, Bedding for him and his, or her Family, and Tools neceſſary for his or her Trade and Occupation only excepted) for the ſatisfaction of his, her or their ſaid Debt, in ſuch ſort, manner and form as he, ſhe or they might have done, if the perſon or perſons of ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners had never been taken in Execution; Any Act, Statute or Cuſtom to the contrary notwithſtanding.

IV. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every perſon that ſhall become a Barriſter at Law, Attorney, Clerk or Officer in Chancery, or any other Court, their Deputy or Deputies, or ſhall ſucceed or practiſe as ſuch in Ireland, at any time after the laſt day of Hilary Term next, ſhall and is hereby required to take the ſaid Oaths, and make and ſubſcribe the ſaid Declaration in the Court of Kings Bench at Dublin, in open Court in Term time, between the hours aforeſaid, to be Recorded as aforeſaid, before he ſhall be admitted to enjoy or exerciſe any place or Office, or to practiſe or plead in any Court of Law or Equity, or any other Court of Record or not of Record; and that all perſons that ſhall after the Firſt day of March next be admitted into any Office or Imployment Eccleſiaſtical or Civil, or come into any capacity in reſpect, or by reaſon whereof they ſhould have been obliged to take the ſaid Abrogated Oath in the ſaid recited Act mentioned, ſhall take the ſaid Oaths, and make and ſubſcribe the ſaid Declaration hereby appointed, hereafter expreſſed in ſuch manner, at ſuch times, and before ſuch perſons as they ſhould or ought to have taken the ſaid former Oath, by Virtue of the ſaid Recited Act, in caſe the ſame had not been hereby Abrogated as aforeſaid.

Barriſters, &c. to take the Oaths before admitted to imployment.

All perſons who were to take the Abrogated Oath, to take this and Declaration.

V. And for as much as great diſquiet, and many dangerous attempts have been made, to deprive their Majeſties, and their Royal Predeceſſors of the ſaid Realm of Ireland, by the liberty which the Popiſh Recuſants there have had and taken to Sit and Vote in Parliament: Be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the laſt day of January next, no perſon that now is, or ſhall be hereafter a Peer of that Realm or Member of the Houſe of Peers there, ſhall Vote or make his Proxy in the ſaid Houſe of Peers, or Sit there during any Debate in the ſaid Houſe; Nor any perſon that after the ſaid laſt day of January ſhall be a Member of the Houſe of Commons, ſhall be capable to Vote in the ſaid Houſe, or Sit there during any debate in the ſame, after their Speaker is choſen, until he firſt take the Oaths herein and hereafter mentioned and expreſſed, and make, ſubſcribe and audibly repeat this Declaration following:

No Member of either Houſe of Parliament ſhall Sit before he has taken the New Oath and Declaration.

I A. B. Do Solemnly and Sincerely in the Preſence of God Profeſs, Teſtifie and Declare, That I do believe, That in the Sacrament of the Lords Supper, there is not any Tranſubſtantiation of the Elements of Bread and Wine into the Body and Blood of Chriſt, at or after the Conſecration thereof, by any Perſon whatſoever: And that the Invocation or Adoration of the Virgin Mary, or any other Saint, and the Sacrifice of the Maſs, as they are now uſed in the Church of Rome, are Superſtitious and Idolatrous. And I do Solemnly in the Preſence of God Profeſs, Teſtifie and Declare, That I do make this Declaration and every part thereof in the plain and ordinary ſenſe of the Words read unto me, as they are commonly underſtood by Proteſtants, without any Evaſion, Equivocation or Mental Reſervation whatſoever, and without any Diſpenſation already Granted me for this purpoſe by the Pope, or any other Authority or Perſon whatſoever, or without Diſpenſation from any Perſon or Authority whatſoever, or without Believing that I am or can be acquitted before God or Man, or Abſolved of this Declaration, or any part thereof, although the Pope or any other Perſon or Perſons, or Power whatſoever ſhould Diſpenſe with or Annul the ſame, or Declare that it was Null and Void from the beginning.

The Declaration.

VI. Which ſaith Oaths and Declaration ſhall be in the next, and every ſucceeding Parliament to be held in Ireland, ſolemnly and publickly made and ſubſcribed, betwixt the hours of Nine in the Morning and Four in the Afternoon, by every ſuch Peer and Member of the Penalty upon firſt refuſal.

Penalty upon ſecond refuſal.

ſuch Sum of Money not exceeding Ten pounds, nor under Five pounds, as the ſaid Juſtices ſhall require, which ſaid Money ſhall be diſpoſed of to the relief of the Poor of ſuch Pariſh or Place in manner as aforeſaid, and unleſs ſuch offender ſhall become bound with two ſufficient Sureties, with condition to appear at the next Aſſizes or General Gaol Delivery, to be holden for ſuch County where ſuch offender ſhall inhabit or reſide, and in the mean time to be of the Good Behaviour; At which Aſſizes or Gaol Delivery the ſaid Oath ſhall be tendred to ſuch offender by the Juſtices of Aſſize or General Gaol Delivery, in their open Aſſizes or Seſſions; And if upon ſuch tender, ſuch offender ſhall refuſe to take the ſaid Oath, he ſhall incur the Danger and Penalty of Præmunire, mentioned in the Statute of Præmuire in the Sixteenth Year of the Reign of King Richard the Second, except Women Covert, who upon refuſal of the ſaid Oath, ſhall be by the ſaid Juſtices of Aſſize in their open Aſſize or General Gaol Delivery, committed only to the Common Gaol, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize till they will take the ſaid Oath.

Penalty upon third refuſal.

XV. Provided nevertheleſs, That whereas there are certain Diſſenters in Ireland, commonly called Quakers, who ſcruple the taking any Oath, It ſhall be ſufficient for every ſuch Diſſenter, he or ſhe producing a Certificate under the Hands and Seals of Six or more ſufficient Men of the Congregation, to which he or ſhe belongs, owning him or her for one of them, to make and ſubſcribe the following Declaration:

Declarations appointed for Quakers in place of the Oaths which exempts them from the Penalties.

I A. B. do ſincerely Promiſe, and ſolemnly declare before God and the World, That I will be True and Faithful to King WILLIAM and Queen MARY. And I do ſolemnly Profeſs and Declare, That I do from my Heart Abhor, Deteſt and Renounce as Impious and Heretical, that damnable Doctrine and Poſition, That Princes Excommunicated or Deprived by the Pope, or any Authority of the See of Rome, may be Depoſed or Murdered by their Subjects, or any other whatſoever. And I do declare, That no Foreign Prince, Perſon, Prelate, State or Potentate, hath or ought to have any Power, Juriſdiction, Superiority, Preeminence, or Authority Eccleſiaſtical or Spiritual within this Realm.

And every ſuch Diſſenter ſo Subſcribing ſhall be, and is hereby exempted from the Penalties mentioned in this Act.

XVI. Provided nevertheleſs, That no ſuch perſon called Quaker, ſhall by ſuch Declaration, and Subſcription be capable to take, have or hold any Office, Imployment, Place, Pay, Salary, Fee, Grant, Wages, or any other Place of Profit or Truſt, whereunto any perſon taking the ſaid Oaths, and making and ſubſcribing the Declaration in the Courts aforeſaid, ſhall or may be Entituled; Any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Taking Declarations does not make them capable of Office.

XVII. Provided always, and be it Enacted, That this Act ſhall not be diſpenſed with by any Warrant or Letters Patents under the Great Seal of England or Ireland; but that all ſuch Warrants and Clauſes of Diſpenſation thereof, in any ſuch Warrants or Letters Patents, are hereby declared to be Null and Void and of no effect; Any Law, Statute or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The Act not to be diſpenſed with.

CAP. III.

An Act for the better Aſcertaining the Tythes of Hemp and Flax.

Preamble.

I. Whereas the Sowing of Hemp and Flax is, and would be exceeding beneficial to England, by reaſon of the multitude of People that are, and would be employed in the Manufacturing of thoſe two materials, and therefore do juſtly deſerve great encouragement. Seſſ. 1. cap. 4.

CAP. IX.

An Act to take away Clergy from ſome Offenders, and to bring other to Puniſhment.

I. FOraſmuch as divers wicked and ill diſpoſed perſons are encouraged to commit Robberies upon mens perſons, and in their Houſes, and other Offenders, by the priviledge as the Law now is of demanding the benefit of their Clergy: Be it therefore Enacted by the King and Queens moſt Excellent Majeſties, and by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament Aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, that all and every perſon or perſons that ſhall at any time from and after the Firſt day of March, in the year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred ninety one, Rob any other perſon, or ſhall Feloniouſly take away any Goods or Chattel, being in any Dwelling-houſe, the Owner or any other perſon being therein, and put in Fear, or ſhall Rob any Dwelling-houſe in the day time, any perſon being therein, or ſhall Comfort, Aid, Abet, Aſſiſt, Counſel, Hire or Command any perſon or perſons to commit any of the ſaid Offences, or to Break any Dwelling-houſe, Shop or Ware-houſe thereunto belonging, or therewith uſed in the day time, and Feloniouſly take away any Money, Goods or Chattel of the value of Five ſhillings or upwards therein being, although no perſon ſhall be within ſuch Dwelling-houſe, Shop or Ware-houſe, or ſhall Counſel, Hire or Command any perſon to commit any Burglary, being thereof Convicted or Attainted, or being indicted thereof ſhall ſtand mute, or will not directly anſwer to the Indictment, or ſhall peremptorily challenge above the number of Twenty perſons returned to be of the Jury, ſhall not have the benefit of his or their Clergy.

Preamble. Made perpetual by 6 & 7. W. 3. 14. Any perſon convict of Robbing a Dwelling-houſe wherein there is any or no perſon, &c. or ſtanding mute ſhall loſe his Clergy.

III. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, that if any perſon or perſons whatſoever be Indicted of any Offence, for which by virtue of any former Statute, he or they are excluded from having the benefit of his or their Clergy, if he or they had been thereof Convicted by Verdict or Confeſſion, if he or they ſtand Mute, or will not Anſwer Directly to the Felony, or ſhall Challenge peremptorily above the number of Twenty perſons returned to be of the Jury, or ſhall be Outlawed thereupon, ſhall not be admitted to the benefit of his or their Clergy.

Perſons indicted for a crime of which being convict they ſhould not have their Clergy if they ſtand mute, &c. ſhall not have it.

IV. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, that if any perſon or perſons hereafter be Indicted of Felony for Stealing of any Goods or Chattel in any County within this Realm of England, Dominion of Wales or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and thereof be Convicted or Attainted, or upon his or their Arraignment ſhall ſtand mute, or will not directly Anſwer to the Indictment, or ſhall Challenge peremptorily above the number of twenty perſons returned to be of the Jury, he or they ſhall be totally excluded from having the benefit of his or their Clergy, if it appear upon Evidence or Examination before the Juſtices, that the ſaid Goods or Chattel were taken by Robbery or Burglary, or in any other manner, in any other County, whereof if ſuch perſon or perſons had been Convicted by a Jury of the ſaid other County, he or they are excluded by virtue of this, or any other Act from having the benefit of his or their Clergy.

Perſons indicted of a crime as above in a wrong County if they ſtand mute, &c. ſhall not have it.

V. And foraſmuch as Thieves and Robbers are much encouraged to commit ſuch Offences, becauſe a great number of perſons make it their trade and buſineſs to deal in the Buying of Stoln Goods: Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, that if any Buyers of Stol'n Goods reputed acceſſories to Felony.

perſon or perſons ſhall buy or receive any Goods or Chattel that ſhall be Feloniouſly taken or Stoln from any other perſon, knowing the ſame to be Stoln, he or they ſhall be taken and deemed an Acceſſary or Acceſſaries to ſuch Felony after the Fact, and ſhall incur the ſame Puniſhment as an Acceſſary or Acceſſaries to the Felony, after the Felony committed.

Stealing Goods from Lodgings Felony.

VI. And whereas it is a frequent Practice for Idle and Diſorderly perſons to Hire Lodgings with an intent to have an opportunity to take away, imbezel or purloin the Goods and Furniture being in ſuch Lodgings: Be it therefore Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon or perſons ſhall take away with an intent to Steal, Imbezel or Purloin any Chattel, Bedding or Furniture, which by Contract or Agreement he or they are to uſe, or ſhall be let to him or them to uſe, in or with ſuch Lodging, ſuch taking, Imbezelling or Purloining ſhall be to all intents and purpoſes taken, reputed, adjudged to be Larceny and Felony, and the offender ſhall ſuffer as in caſe of Felony.

Women convict of crimes for which Men have their Clergy, upon Prayer puniſh'd as men.

VII. And whereas by the Laws of this Realm, Women Convicted of Felony for Stealing of Goods and Chattel of the value of Ten ſhillings and upwards, and for other Felonies where a man is to have the benefit of his Clergy, are to ſuffer Death: Be it therefore Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforeſaid, that where a Man being Convicted of any Felony for which he may demand the benefit of his Clergy, if a Woman be Convicted for the ſame, or like offence upon her Prayer to have the benefit of this Statute, Judgment of Death ſhall not be given againſt her upon ſuch Conviction or Execution awarded upon any Outlawry for ſuch offence, but ſhall ſuffer the ſame Puniſhment as a Man ſhould ſuffer, that has the benefit of his Clergy allowed him in the like caſe; That is to ſay, ſhall be Burnt in the Hand by the Gaoler in open Court, and further be kept in Priſon for ſuch time as the Juſtices in their Diſcretion ſhall think fit, ſo as the ſame do not exceed One years Impriſonment.

Where a perſon has had his Clergy in another County, Clerk of the Crown, &c. ſhall certifie it.

VIII. And for as much as ſuch Men who have once had their Clergy, and ſuch Women who ſhall have once the benefit of this Statute may happen to be indicted for an offence committed afterwards in ſome other County: Be it therefore Enacted that the Clerk of the Crown, Clerk of the Peace, Clerk of the Aſſizes where ſuch Man or Woman ſhall be convicted, ſhall at the requeſt of the Proſecutor, or any other in their Majeſties behalf certifie a Tranſcript, briefly and in few words, containing the effect and tenor of ever Indictment and Conviction of ſuch Man or Woman, of his having the benefit of the Clergy, or her having the benefit of this Statute and Addition of every ſuch perſon or perſons, and the certainty of the Felony, and Conviction to the Judges and Juſtices in ſuch other County where ſuch Man or Woman ſhall be indicted, which Certificate being produced in Court ſhall be a ſufficient proof that ſuch Man hath before had the benefit of his Clergy, and that ſuch Woman hath had the benefit of this Statute.

CAP. X.

An Act for the more Effectual Diſcovery and Puniſhment of Deer Stealers.

Preamble.

I. WHereas notwithſtanding the many good Laws before this time made, and ſtill in force, which do prohibit unlawful Courſing, Hunting or Killing of Deer; yet in aſmuch as the Penalties thereby provided, are found by daily experience not to be ſufficient to deter divers Lewd, Sturdy and Diſorderly perſons, who confederate together in great numbers, making amongſt themſelves as it were a Brotherhood and Fraternity, whereby if any of them ſhall be diſcovered and convicted, which ſeldom happens, becauſe of their great force and clandeſtine manner of combination, they by a common contribution (for the moſt part) advance and pay for ſuch perſons ſo apprehended, the pecuniary Penalties (which are but ſmall) inflicted on ſuch offenders, by reaſon whereof the other confederates eſcape diſcovery and condign Puniſhment.

Perſon Convict before a Juſtice of Peace of Deer ſtealing, if he afterwards Hunt Deer, forfeit 20 l.

For each Deer wounded 30 l. Penalty levied by diſtreſs.

Perſon to be impriſoned and pillored for want of diſtreſs.

II. Therefore, for the more effectual diſcovery and puniſhment of ſuch perſons, Be it Enacted by the King and Queens moſt Excellent Majeſties, and by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That if any perlon or perſons ſhall from and after the Twenty fifth day of March, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety two, unlawfully Courſe, Hunt, Take in Toyls, Kill, Wound or take away any Red or Fallow Deer in any Foreſt, Chaſe, Purlieu, Paddock, Wood, Park or other Ground incloſed, where Deer are, have, or ſhall be uſually kept within the Realm of England, or Dominion of Wales, without the conſent of the owner or perſon chiefly intruſted with the Cuſtody thereof, or ſhall be Aiding or Aſſiſting therein, and ſhall be convicted thereof by the confeſſion of the Party, or by the Oath of one or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes before one or more Juſtices of the Peace of the ſame County wherein the offence ſhall be committed or the Party offending apprehended, (which Oath the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices hereby are impowred to adminiſter) and ſuch perſons being proſecuted for ſuch offence within Twelve months after ſuch offence done; That then every ſuch perſon ſo offending by unlawful Courſing or Hunting only, when no Deer is Taken, Wounded or Killed, ſhall forfeit for every ſuch offence the Sum of Twenty pounds; And in caſe any Deer ſhall by ſuch perſon or perſons be Wounded, Taken in Toyls or Killed, that for each Deer ſo Wounded, Killed or Taken, ſuch perſon or perſons ſhall reſpectively forfeit and pay the Sum of Thirty pounds, to be levied by way of diſtreſs upon the Goods and Chattels of every ſuch offender, by Warrant under the Juſtice or Juſtices hand before whom ſuch Conviction or Convictions ſhall be made, the one third part of ſuch Forfeitures to be given to the Informer or Informers, the other part to the uſe of the Poor of the Pariſh where the offence ſhall be committed, and the other third part to the owner of ſuch Deer; And for want of ſufficient diſtreſs, that then ſuch perſon ſhall ſuffer Impriſonment by the ſpace of one whole year, without Bail or Mainprize, and ſhall be ſet in the Pillory by the ſpace of one hour, on ſome Market-day in the next adjoyning Town to the place where ſuch offence was committed by the chief Officer or Officers of ſuch Market-Town, or by his or their Under-officer or Officers.

III. And be it further Enacted, That every Conſtable, Headborough and Tythingman, (being thereto Authorized by the Warrant of one or more Juſtices of Peace, under his or their Hands and Seals) ſhall and may have full Power and Authority (and hereby is required) to Enter into and Search (in ſuch manner and with ſuch Power as in caſe where Goods are ſtolen or ſuſpected to be ſtolen) the Houſe or Houſes, Out-houſes or other places belonging to ſuch Houſes of ſuſpected Perſons; And in caſe any Veniſon or Skin of any Deer or Toyls, ſhall there be found, ſuch Officer ſhall apprehend ſuch Offender, and carry him before ſome Juſtice of the Peace of the ſame County; And if ſuch perſon do not give a good Account how he came by ſuch Veniſons, Skins or Toyles, ſuch as ſhall ſatisfie the ſaid Juſtice, or elſe ſhall not in ſome convenient time to be ſet him by the ſaid Juſtice, produce the Party of whom he bought ſuch Veniſon, Skins, or Toyls, or ſome other credible Witneſs to Depoſe upon Oath ſuch Sale of the ſaid Veniſon or Skins; That then ſuch perſon not giving ſuch good Account, nor producing any ſuch Witneſs as aforeſaid, ſhall be convicted by the ſaid Juſtice of ſuch Offence, who on ſuch Conviction ſhall be ſubject unto the Forfeitures and Penalties hereby inflicted for the killing of any one Deer in the ſame manner as if thereof convicted as aforeſaid.

Conſtables may ſearch ſuſpicious Houſes by Juſtice of Peace his Warrant. If Veniſon, &c. be found, and perſon whoſe Houſe it is cannot give a good account, 'tis a Conviction of Deer-ſtealing.

IV. And to the end that no perſons convicted of any the Offences as aforeſaid, may eſcape Puniſhment by their flight or other removal, after ſuch conviction, Be it further Enacted by and with the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for, and hereby Power and Authority is given (after conviction as aforeſaid) to the Conſtable or other Officer, or perſon or perſons proſecuting, to detain in Cuſtody ſuch Offender or Offenders (in caſe he or they ſhall not preſently pay the Moneys due by the ſaid Conviction) during ſuch reaſonable time as a return may be conveniently had and made to the Warrant for the Diſtreſs upon ſuch Conviction, ſo as ſuch Detainer do not exceed two days.

Conſtable may detain the perſon till diſtreſs returned.

V. And to the end all Owners of Deer in any Incloſed Ground may be Indemnified in the juſt Defence of ſuch their Right, Be it Enacted, That any Owner of ſuch Deer, or any perſon or perſons acting by, from and under him, ſhall and may oppoſe and reſiſt ſuch Offenders in the ſame manner, and be equally Indemnified for ſo doing, as if ſuch Fact had been committed within any ancient Chaſe or Park whatſoever.

Perſons having Deer in Incloſed Ground may oppoſe offenders.

VI. And whereas divers Offenders duly Convicted, do commonly procure Writs of Certiorari to remove ſuch Convictions into Superiour Courts at Weſtminſter, in hopes thereby to diſcourage and weary out ſuch perſons injured by great delays, expences and incertainties; Be it therefore Enacted, That no Certiorari ſhall be allowed to, remove any Conviction made, or other Proceeding of, for, or concerning any matter or thing in this Act, unleſs the Party or Parties againſt whom ſuch Conviction ſhall be made, ſhall before the allowance of ſuch Certiorari, become bounden to the perſon or perſons proſecuting, in the Sum of Fifty pounds, with ſuch ſufficient Sureties as the Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace before whom ſuch Offender was Convicted, ſhall think fit, with Condition to pay unto the ſaid Proſecutors, within one Month after ſuch Conviction confirmed, or a Procedendo granted, their full Coſts and Damages, to be aſcertained upon their Oaths; And that in default thereof, it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Juſtice and Juſtices, and others to proceed to the due Execution of ſuch Conviction, in ſuch manner as if no Certiorari had been awarded.

No Certiorari except the offender give ſecurity to pay the Proſecutor full Coſts, &c.

VII. Provided that where any Offender ſhall be puniſhed by force of this Act, that he ſhall not be proſecuted, nor incur the penalty of any other Law or Statute for the ſame Offence.

Perſons puniſhed by this Act, no other way puniſhable.

VIII. Provided always, That if any perſon or perſons whatſoever ſhall be ſued or proſecuted for, or by reaſon of any matter or thing, which he or they ſhall do in purſuance of this Act, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the perſon or perſons ſo ſued, or proſecuted to plead the General Iſſue and give the Special Matter in Evidence.

Perſons ſued for any thing done by vertue of this Act, plead General Iſſue.

IX. Provided alſo, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon or perſons ſhall in the night time pull down and deſtroy, or cauſe to be pulled down and deſtroyed the Pails or Walls of any Park, Foreſt, Chaſe, Purlieu, Paddock, Wood, or other Ground Incloſed, where any Red or Fallow Deer ſhall be then kept, That ſuch perſon or perſons ſo offending being thereof convicted by the Oath of one or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes, before one or more Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace of the ſame County wherein the Offence ſhall be committed, ſhall by Warrant from ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices as aforeſaid, ſuffer Impriſonment for three Months, without Bail or Mainprize.

Perſons convict before a Juſtice of Peace for pulling down the Pales of any Park, impriſoned three Months.

CAP. XI.

An Act for the better Explanation and Supplying the Defects of the former Laws for the Settlement of the Poor.

I. Whereas one Act of Parliament made in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth years of his late Majeſty King Charles the Second, Entituled, An Act for the better Relief of the Poor of this Kingdom; (except what relates to the Corporation therein mentioned and conſtituted thereby) was revived and continued with ſome Alterations by one other Act made in the Firſt year of the late King James the Second, and have been found by experience to be good and wholeſom Laws, but may ſhortly expire:

Preamble. 13, 14 Car. 2. 12.

II. Be it therefore Enacted by the King and Queens moſt Excellent Majeſties, by and with the Advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Acts, as to what relates to the Settlements of the Poor, ſhall be in force from the Firſt day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety one.

13, 14 Car. 2. 12. Ja. 2. revived.

The Note of Settlement muſt be read in the Church and regiſtred in the Poors Book.

III. But foraſmuch as the ſaid Acts are ſomewhat defective and doubtful; For ſupplying and explaining the ſame, Be it further provided and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Forty days continuance of ſuch perſon in a Pariſh or Town, intended by the ſaid Acts to make a Settlement, ſhall be accounted from the Publication of a Notice in Writing, which he or ſhe ſhall deliver of the Houſe of his or her Abode, and the number of his or her Family, if he or ſhe have any, to the Churchwarden or Overſeer of the Poor, which ſaid Notice in Writing the ſaid Churchwarden or Overſeer of the Poor, is or are hereby Required to Read, or Cauſe to be Read Publickly, immediately after Divine Service, in the Church or Chappel of the ſaid Pariſh or Town on the next Lords day, when there ſhall be Divine Service in the ſame; And the ſaid Churchwarden or Overſeer of the Poor, is or are hereby required to Regiſter, or cauſe to be Regiſtred the ſaid Notice in Writing in the Book kept for the Poors accounts.

No Soldier, &c. to have Settlement before diſmiſſion.

IV. Provided always, and be it Enacted, That no Soldier, Seaman, Shipwright, or other Artificer or Workman imployed in Their Majeſties Service ſhall have any Settlement in any Pariſh, Port-town, or other Town, by delivery and Publication of a notice in Writing as aforeſaid, unleſs the ſame be after the diſmiſſion of ſuch perſon out of their Majeſties Service.

Penalty upon Churchwarden refuſing to read or regiſter.

V. And be it further Enacted, That if any Churchwarden or Overſeer of the Poor ſhall refuſe or neglect to read, or cauſe to be read ſuch notice in Writing as aforeſaid, in ſuch manner, place and time as aforeſaid, he or they for every ſuch offence (upon proof thereof by two credible Witneſſes upon Oath before any Juſtice of the Peace of the ſame County, Riding or Diviſion, City or Town-Corporate, where complaint thereof ſhall be made) ſhall forfeit the Sum of Forty ſhillings to the uſe of the party grieved, to be Levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Offender or Offenders Goods, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of any Juſtice of the Peace within the ſaid Juriſdictions reſpectively, to the Conſtable of the Pariſh, or Town where ſuch Offender or Offenders dwell, the Overplus, if any be to be returned to the Owner or Owners, and for want of ſuch ſufficient Diſtreſs, the ſaid Juſtice ſhall commit him or them to the Common Gaol of the ſaid County, City or Town-Corporate, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize for the ſpace of one Month; and if any Churchwarden or Overſeer of the Poor ſhall refuſe or neglect to Regiſter, or cauſe to be Regiſtred ſuch Notice in Writing as aforeſaid, he or they ſo offending upon the like conviction ſhall forfeit the Sum of Forty ſhillings to the uſe of the Poor of the Pariſh, or Town where ſuch Offender or Offenders dwell, to be Levied as aforeſaid, the Overplus if any be, to be returned to the Owner or Owners; And for want of ſuch ſufficient Diſtreſs, then the ſaid Juſtice ſhall Commit ſuch Offender or Offenders as aforeſaid, for the time aforeſaid.

Serving as Officer, or paying Pariſh-duties, a Settlement.

VI. Provided always, and be it Enacted, That if any perſon who ſhall come to Inhabit in any Town or Pariſh, ſhall for himſelf and on his own Account, Execute any Publick, Annual Office, or Charge in the ſaid Town or Pariſh during one whole year, or ſhall be charged with and pay his ſhare towards the publick Taxes or Levies of the ſaid Town or Pariſh, then he ſhall be adjudged and deemed to have a legal Settlement in the ſame, though no ſuch notice in Writing be delivered and publiſhed, as is hereby before required.

Service for a year, of perſon without Wife or Child, a Settlement.

VII. And it is hereby further Enacted, That if any Unmarried perſon, not having Child or Children ſhall be lawfully Hired into any Pariſh or Town for one year, ſuch Service ſhall be adjudged and deemed a good Settlement therein, though no ſuch Notice in Writing be delivered and publiſhed, as is herein before required.

Apprentiſhip a Settlement.

VIII. And it is hereby further Enacted, That if any perſon ſhall be bound an Apprentice by Indenture, and inhabit in any Town or Pariſh, ſuch Binding and Inhabitation ſhall be adjudged a good Settlement, though no ſuch Notice in Writing be delivered and publiſhed as aforeſaid.

Appeal from Juſtice of Peace to Quarter-Seſſions, whoſe Order final.

IX. Provided always, and be it hereby Enacted, That if any perſon or perſons ſhall find him, her or themſelves agrieved by any determination which any Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace ſhall make in any of the Caſes aboveſaid, the ſaid perſon or perſons ſhall have liberty to appeal to the next General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, to be held for the ſaid County, Riding or Diviſion, City or Town-Corporate, who upon full hearing of the ſaid Appeal ſhall have full power, finally to determine the ſame.

Churchwarden muſt receive a perſon removed by Warrant of 2 Juſtices of Peace upon 5 l. Penalty.

X. And be it further Enacted, That if any perſon be removed by virtue of this Act from one County, Riding, City, Town-Corporate or Liberty to another, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of two Juſtices of the Peace, the Churchwardens or Overſeers of the Poor of the ſaid Pariſh or Town, to which the ſaid perſon ſhall be ſo removed, are hereby required to receive the ſaid perſon, and if he or they ſhall refuſe ſo to do, he or they ſo refuſing or neglecting (upon proof thereof by Two Credible Witneſſes upon Oath before any Juſtice of the Peace of the County, Riding, City or Town-Corporate to which the ſaid perſon ſhall be ſo removed) ſhall forfeit for each Offence the ſum of Five pounds to the uſe of the Poor of the Pariſh or Town from which the ſaid perſon was removed, to be Levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Offender or Offenders Goods, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of any Juſtice of the Peace of the County, Riding, City or Town-Corporate to which ſuch perſon was removed, to the Conſtable of the Pariſh or Town where ſuch Offender or Offenders dwell, which Warrant the ſaid Juſtice is hereby impowred and required to make, the Overplus if any be, to be returned to the Owner or Owners, and for want of ſuch ſufficent Diſtreſs, then the ſaid Juſtice ſhall Commit the ſaid Offender or Offenders to the Common Gaol of the ſaid County, Riding, City or Town-Corporate or Liberty, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize for the ſpace of Forty days.

Provided always, and be it hereby Enacted, that all ſuch perſons who think themſelves agrieved with any ſuch Judgment of the ſaid two Juſtices may Appeal to the next General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace to be held for the County, Riding, City, Town-Corporate or Liberty from which the ſaid perſon was ſo removed.

Perſons agrieved by ſuch removal may appeal to Seſſions.

XI. And whereas many inconveniences do daily ariſe in Cities, Towns Corporate, and Pariſhes where the Inhabitants are very numerous, by reaſon of the unlimited power of the Churchwardens and Overſeers of the Poor, who do frequently upon frivolous pretences (but chiefly for their own private ends) give relief to what perſons and number they think fit, and ſuch perſons being entred into the Collection Bill, do become after that a great charge to the Pariſh, notwithſtanding the occaſion or pretence of their receiving Collection oftentimes ceaſes, by which means the Rates for the Poor are daily increaſed, contrary to the true intent of a Statute made in the Forty third year of the Reign of Her Majeſty Queen Elizabeth, Entituled, An Act for the Relief of the Poor. For remedying of which, and preventing the like abuſes for the future, Be it further Enacted, That from and after the Firſt day of March, there ſhall be provided and kept in every Pariſh (at the charge of the ſame Pariſh) a Book or Books, wherein the Names of all ſuch perſons who do or may receive Collection ſhall be Regiſtred, with the day and year when they were firſt admitted to have Relief, and the occaſion which brought them under that neceſſity: And that yearly in Eaſter Week (or as often as it ſhall be thought convenient) the Pariſhioners of every Pariſh ſhall meet in their Veſtry or other uſual place of meeting in the ſame Pariſh, before whom the ſaid Book ſhall be produced, and all perſons receiving Collection to be called over, and the reaſons of their taking Relief examined, and a new Liſt made and entred, of ſuch perſons as they ſhall think fit and allow to receive Collection, and that no other perſon be allowed to have or receive Collection at the Charge of the ſaid Pariſh, but by Authority under the Hand of one Juſtice of Peace reſiding within ſuch Pariſh, or (if none be there dwelling) in the Parts near or next adjoyning, or by Order of the Juſtices in their reſpective Quarter Seſſions, except in Caſes of Peſtilential Diſeaſes, Plague or Small Pox, for and in reſpect of ſuch Families only as are or ſhall be therewith infected.

43 El. cap. 2.

A Regiſter to be kept of the admittances of the Poor.

Pariſhioners yearly in Eaſter week ſhall make a Liſt of their Poor.

None but thoſe in the Liſt to receive Alms, except by Order of Juſtice of Peace, &c.

XII. And whereas many Churchwardens and Overſeers of the Poor, and other perſons intruſted to receive Collections for the Poor, and other publick Moneys relating to the Churches and Pariſhes whereunto they do belong, do often miſpend the ſaid Moneys, and take the ſame to their own uſe, to the great prejudice of ſuch Pariſhes, and the Poor, and other Inhabitants thereof; And becauſe that many times the Judges when Actions are brought againſt ſuch Churchwardens and Overſeers, to recover the Moneys ſo miſpent, taken or miſapplied by the perſons aforeſaid, refuſe to admit the Pariſhioners to be Witneſſes in ſuch Caſes, who are the only perſons that can make proof thereof: Wherefore to prevent all ſuch Evil and Deceitful Practices of Churchwardens, and Overſeers, and other perſons, Be it Enacted and Declared, That in all Actions to be brought in Their Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or at the Aſſizes for the Recovery of any Sum or Sums of Money ſo miſpent, or taken by Churchwardens or Overſeers of the Poor, the Evidence of the Pariſhioners or any of them, other then of ſuch as receive Alms, or any Penſion or Gift out of ſuch Collections or Publick Monies of ſuch Pariſh or Pariſhes reſpectively, whereof the Defendant or Defendants is, or are Inhabitant or Inhabitants, ſhall be taken and admitted in all ſuch Caſes in the Courts aforeſaid; Any Cuſtom, Rule, Order or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Pariſhoners, except Alms men, may be Evidence againſt Churchwardens, &c. of their miſpending the Poors money

CHAP. XII.

An Act for the better repairing and Amending the Highways, and for Settling the Rates of Carriage of Goods.

I. WHereas the free and eaſie intercourſe and means of conveying and carrying Goods and Merchandizes from ond Market-Town to another, contributes very much to the Advancement of Trade, Increaſe of Wealth, and raiſing the value of Lands, as well as to the eaſe and convenience of the Subject in general; For which ends therefore divers good and neceſſary Laws have been heretofore made for the Enlarging, Repairing and Amending the Highways and Common Roads of this Kingdom: Notwithſtanding which Laws, the ſame are not in many parts ſufficiently Amended and Repaired, but remain almoſt Impaſſible; All which is occaſioned not only by reaſon of ſome Ambiguities in the ſaid Laws, but by want of a ſufficient Proviſion to compel the execution of the ſame.

Preamble.

II. For remedy whereof, Be it Enacted by the King and Queens moſt excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament Aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That all and every Law and Statute now in force, for or touching the Enlarging, Repairing or Amending Highways and Common Roads, and every Article and thing in them contained, and not herein and hereby altered or repealed, ſhall be duly put in execution, according to the Tenour of the ſaid Laws, and under the Penalties therein contained, to be Raiſed, Levied and Diſpoſed of, as in and by the ſaid Laws is directed.

All Laws about Highways to be put in Execution.

III. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from henceforth, upon the Six and twentieth day of December in every year, unleſs that day ſhall be Sunday, and then on the Seven and twentieth, the Conſtables, Headboroughs, Tythingmen, Churchwardens, Surveyor or Surveyors of the Highways, and Inhabitants in every Pariſh, ſhall Aſſemble together, and the major Pariſhioners Annually to make a Liſt of ſufficent perſons upon 26th of December.

Liſt to be returned to two Juſtices on the third of Jan. &c.

Juſtices ſhall hold a Seſſions, where they ſhall nominate one or more to be Surveyors of the Highways.

Conſtable to ſerve the nomination.

Five pounds penalty upon Nominee's refuſing, &c. after ſervice.

Juſtices may appoint other perſon after refuſal.

20 Shillings penalty upon Conſtables, &c. not returning a Liſt.

part of them as are ſo aſſembled, ſhall make a Liſt of the Names of a competent number of the Inhabitants in their Pariſh, who have an Eſtate in Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, in their own Right or their Wives of the value of Ten pounds by the year, or a perſonal Eſtate of the value of One hundred pounds, or are Occupiers or Tenants of Houſes, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments of the yearly value of Thirty pounds, if any ſuch there be; Or if there be no ſuch perſons in the Pariſh, then the ſaid Liſt to be of the moſt ſufficient Inhabitants of ſuch Pariſh, and ſhall return ſuch Liſt unto two or more of the Juſtices of the Peace in or near the Diviſion of the County in which their Pariſh lies, at a Special Seſſions to be held for that purpoſe within the ſaid Diviſion, on the Third day of January next following, unleſs it ſhall happen on a Sunday, and then to be the Fourth of the ſame Month, or within Fifteen days after; For which purpoſe the ſaid Juſtices are hereby authorized and required to hold a Special Seſſions at ſome place within that Diviſion where the Pariſh lies, and to give notice of the time and place where they intend to hold the ſame, to the Conſtables, Headboroughs, Tythingmen, Churchwardens and Surveyors of the Highways of every Pariſh within the ſaid Diviſion, at leaſt Ten days before the holding of the ſaid Seſſions; And the ſaid Juſtices ſhall then and there out of the ſaid Liſts according to their diſcretion, and the largeneſs of the Pariſh, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, nominate and appoint one, two or more, as they ſhall think fit and approve of, being of like ſufficiency as aforeſaid, to be Surveyor or Surveyors of the Highways of every Pariſh within the Diviſion, or for any Hamlet, Precinct, Liberty, Tything or Town of and in the ſame Diviſion for the year enſuing; Which nomination and appointment ſhall by the Conſtables, Headboroughs, Tythingmen or Surveyors of the Highways for the time being, or ſome of them, be notified to the perſon or perſons ſo nominated, choſen and appointed by the ſaid Juſtices, within Six days after ſuch nomination, by ſerving him or them with the ſaid Warrant or Warrants, or by leaving the ſame, or a true Copy thereof at his or their Houſes or uſual places of abode; And from thenceforth the perſon or perſons ſo nominated and appointed, ſhall be Surveyor or Surveyors of the Highways for the Pariſh, Town, Village, Hamlet, Precinct or Tything for which he ſhall have been ſo nominated, choſen and appointed for the year enſuing, and ſhall take upon him and them reſpectively, and duly execute the ſaid Office according to the Laws and Statutes heretofore made for the Enlarging, Amending or Repairing of Highways, and alſo this preſent Act; And if the ſaid perſons ſo nominated, and ſerved with the ſaid Warrant, ſhall refuſe or neglect ſo to do, he or they ſo refuſing and neglecting, ſhall forfeit the Sum of Five pounds, to be levied on his or their Goods and Chattels, by Diſtreſs and Sale of the ſame, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of two or more Juſtices of the Peace of the ſame Diviſion, or in default thereof any neighbouring Juſtices of the Peace for the ſaid County, which Warrant the ſaid Juſtices are hereby impowered and required to make upon Information of any one credible Witneſs upon Oath; The one Moiety of which ſaid Forfeiture ſhall go to him that ſhall Inform, and the other Moiety for and towards the Repair of the Highways of the ſame Pariſh, rendring the Overplus, if any be, to the Party or Parties whoſe Goods ſhall be Diſtrained, the Charges of the Diſtreſs and Sale being firſt deducted; And in caſe of ſuch neglect or refuſal as aforeſaid, the ſaid Juſtices are hereby impowered to nominate and appoint ſome other fit perſon or perſons to perform the ſaid Office, who upon like notice of ſuch nomination and appointment, ſhall take upon him or them, and duly execute the ſaid Office, and if he or they neglect or refuſe ſo to do, ſhall forfeit the like Sum of Five pounds to be levied and diſpoſed of as aforeſaid; And if the Conſtables, Headboroughs, Tythingmen, Churchwardens and Surveyor or Surveyors of the Highways of any Pariſh, Town, Liberty or Precinct, or ſome of them, ſhall not Return the ſaid Liſt of Names, in ſuch manner as in this Act is directed, every of them ſo neglecting ſhall forfeit the ſum of Twenty ſhillings, to be levied in the manner, and imployed to the Uſes aforeſaid.

5 s. Penalty upon perſon laying Timber, &c. in the Highway.

IV. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no perſon or perſons whatſoever ſhall lay in any Highway, not being twenty Foot broad, any Stone, Timber, Straw, Dung or other matter, whereby the ſame ſhall be any ways obſtructed or annoyed, on pain to forfeit for every ſuch offence the ſum of Five ſhillings, to be levied and diſpoſed of, as is aforeſaid.

Owner of Land adjoyning ſhall take away Timber &c. lying in the Highway.

Penalty for neglecting.

V. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Timber, Stone, Hay, Straw, Stubble or other matter for the making of Dung, or on any other pretence whatſoever, ſhall be laid in any ſuch Highway as aforeſaid, whereby the ſame ſhall be any ways obſtructed or annoyed, the Owners or Poſſeſſors of the Lands next adjoyning to the ſame, ſhall clear the ſaid Way by removing the ſaid Timber, Stone, Hay, Straw, Dung or other matter, and have, take and diſpoſe of the ſame to his and their own uſe; And if any ſuch Owner or Occupier of Lands next adjoyning to the ſaid Highways, ſhall neglect to clear the ſaid Ways of the ſaid Nuſances, or to cleanſe or Scower their Ditches, Gutters and Drains adjoyning to the ſaid Highways, or cauſe the Earth taken out thereof to be carried away, and lay ſufficient Trunks, Tunnels or Bridges where any Cart-ways are into the ſaid Grounds, for the ſpace of Ten days after Notice to him, her or them given by the ſaid Surveyors, or any of them, he, ſhe or they, ſo neglecting, ſhall for every ſuch Offence forfeit the Sum of Five ſhilling, to be levied and diſpoſed of in manner aforeſaid.

5 s. Penalty upon owner not ſtubbing up Trees, &c.

VI. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Tree, Buſh or Shrub, ſhall be permitted to ſtand or grow in any Highway not full twenty foot broad, but the ſame ſhall be cut down, grubbed up, and carried away by the Owner or Owners of the Land or Soil where the ſame doth or ſhall ſtand or grow, within Ten days after Notice to him or them given by the ſaid Surveyors, or any of them, on Pain to forfeit for every neglect the ſum of Five ſhillings, to be levied and diſpoſed as is aforeſaid.

Poſſeſſors ſhall prune the Hedges.

VII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Poſſeſſors of the Land next adjoyning to ſuch Highways, where they are not Twenty foot broad, ſhall from time to time, and at all times, keep their Hedges plaſht, cut or pruned, ſo as no Tree, Buſh or Shrub ſhall ſtand or grow in ſuch High-way, nor any Bough or Branch be ſuffered to hang over the ſame, or any part thereof; but the ſaid Hedges ſhall be kept cut and pared right up from the Roots, and not permitting in any ſort to ſpread into or hang over the Highway, or any part thereof, to the end that there may be a free and clear paſſage for Travellers, and all ſorts of Carriages loaden, without being any ways prejudiced or obſtructed by any Hedges, Trees, Boughs or Branches whatſoever, and that the Sun may freely ſhine into the ſaid Ways, to dry and amend the ſame.

Surveyor ſhall preſent the ſtate of the Highways to a Juſtice every four Months.

Neglect puniſhed as refuſal.

Defaults publiſhed in the Church, and if not amended within 30 days, Surveyor ſhall repair them, and be repaid by the perſon who ought to repair.

How the Surveyor ſhall recover his diſburſments.

VIII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Surveyor of the Highways, appointed as in and by this Act is directed, ſhall within Fourteen days next after his firſt Acceptance of the ſaid Office, and ſo from time to time every Four Months, during his being Surveyor, take a view of all the Roads, Common Highways, Water-Courſes, Bridges, Cawſeys and Pavements within the Pariſh, Town, Village, Hamlet, Precinct, or Tything, for which he is appointed Surveyor, that are to be Repaired by the ſaid Pariſh, Town, Village, Hamlet, Precinct or Tything, and ſhall make a Preſentment upon Oath, in what ſtate and condition he finds the ſame reſpectively, to ſome Juſtice of the Peace of the ſame Diviſion, if then reſident there, otherwiſe to ſome neighbouring Juſtice of the Peace for the ſaid County, and in default thereof ſhall incur the penalty aforeſaid, as if he or they had refuſed or neglected to accept and execute the ſaid Office, unleſs he ſhall have ſome reaſonable Excuſe for omitting the ſame, to be allowed of by Two Juſtices of the Peace of the ſame Diviſion of the County, or in default thereof by the Two neighbouring Juſtices; And what Defaults or Annoyances they ſhall find in any of the ſaid Highways, Cawſeys, Bridges, Ditches, Hedges, Trees, Water-Courſes, Dreyns or Gutters next adjoyning to the ſame, they ſhall from time to time the next Sunday immediately after Sermon ended, give publick Notice of the ſame in the Pariſh Church, and if the ſame ſhall not be removed, repaired and amended within Thirty Days after ſuch Notice given, That then the ſaid Surveyor or Surveyors of the ſaid Highways ſhall within Thirty Days remove, repair and amend the ſame, and diſpoſe of the ſame Annoyances to and for the Repair of the ſaid Highways; and the ſaid Surveyor and Surveyors ſhall be reimburſed what Charges and Expences they ſhall be at in ſo doing, by the parties who ſhould have done the ſame; And in caſe the ſaid parties ſhall upon Demand refuſe or neglect to pay the ſaid Surveyors their ſaid Charges, then the ſaid Surveyors ſhall apply him or themſelves to any Juſtice of the Peace within the Diviſion of the County wherein ſuch Highway is, and in default thereof to any neighbouring Juſtice for the ſaid County, and upon his or their making Oath before ſuch Juſtice of the Notice to the Defaulter in manner aforeſaid, which Oath the ſaid Juſtice is impowered and required to adminiſter, That then the ſaid Surveyors ſhall be repaid all ſuch their Charges as ſhall be allowed to be reaſonable by the ſaid Juſtice, to be levied in manner aforeſaid.

Juſtices of Peace once in 4 Months hold a Petty-Seſſions, where they are to receive Preſentments, and take the Accounts of the Surveyors.

Penalty upon Surveyor, not paying Surplus Money to his Succeſſor.

IX. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Juſtices of the Peace of every County ſhall in their reſpective Diviſions once in Four Months hold a ſpecial Seſſions, and ſhall thereunto Summon all the Surveyors of the Highways within that Diviſion to come before them, and ſhall give them a Charge to do their Duty, and declare to them what they are obliged to do by virtue of this, or any former Act; After which the ſaid Surveyors of the Highways ſhall make a Preſentment to them upon Oath, which Oath the ſaid Juſtices are hereby impowered to give, of the ſtate and condition of the Highways within their reſpective Pariſhes, Towns, Villages, Hamlets, Precincts or Tythings, for which they are appointed Surveyors, and what Offences and Neglects any are guilty of, contrary to the meaning of this or any other Statute made concerning the Highways, or any thing relating thereunto: And before any Surveyor of the Highways ſhall go out of, or be diſcharged from his Office, he ſhall at ſome ſuch Special Seſſions of the ſaid Juſtices, to be held, as aforeſaid, give an account upon Oath of all Money that has come to his hands, which ought to be employed in Amending of the Highways, and how he hath diſpoſed of the ſame; And in caſe any Moneys ſhall remain in his hands, he ſhall deliver the ſame to the Surveyors of the Highways that ſhall ſerve for the ſame Pariſh, Town, Village, Hamlet, Precinct or Tything for the year enſuing, and in caſe of failure, to forfeit the Double Value of what ſhall be adjudged to be in his hands by the ſaid Juſtices, to be Levied and Diſpoſed of, as is aforeſaid.

Forty ſhillings penalty upon Surveyors neglect.

X. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Surveyor of the Highways, after his Acceptance of his ſaid Office, ſhall neglect his Duty in any thing required of him by this Act, he ſhall forfeit for every ſuch Offence the Sum of Forty ſhillings, to be Levied and Diſpoſed of, as is aforeſaid.

Five pounds penalty upon the neglect of Juſtice of Peace.

XI. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Juſtice of the Peace ſhall neglect or refuſe to do what is required of him by this Act, ſuch Juſtice ſo neglecting or refuſing, ſhall forfeit the Sum of Five pounds, one Moiety whereof ſhall go to the perſon that ſhall ſue for the ſame, the other Moiety to be employed to and for the Repair and Amendment of the Highways of the Pariſh where the perſon who ſhall Sue for the ſame inhabits, to be recovered in any of Their Majeſties Courts of Record, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in which no Priviledge, Protection, or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed, or more than one Imparlance.

Surveyors may make new Ditches in Land adjoyning.

XII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Surveyors of the Highways aforeſaid, where the Ditches and Drains already made are not ſufficient to carry off the Water that lies upon the Highways, to make new Ditches and Drains in and through the Lands next adjoyning to the ſaid Highways, and keep them ſcoured, cleanſed and open, and come upon any of the ſaid Lands with their Workmen for ſo doing.

Surveyor laying out Money for Gravel, Stones, &c. ſhall be repaid by an Equal Rate, to be levied by diſtreſs.

XIII. And whereas divers Pariſhes and Townſhips have not any Gravel-Stones, Quarries, nor any other Materials fitting or convenient for the Amending or Repairing of the Highways within the ſaid Pariſhes and Townſhips, by reaſon whereof the Surveyors of the Highways of ſuch Pariſhes and Townſhips are forced to lay out their own Money for the Buying of ſuch Materials as are neceſſary for that purpoſe; And there being no proviſion made in or by any Law now in force for the Reimburſing the ſaid Surveyors the Moneys they have ſo laid out: For Remedy whereof, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That upon Notice given by the Surveyor or Surveyors of the Highways to the Juſtices of the Peace at their Special Seſſions, and Oath made of what Sum or Sums of Money he or they have or hath ſo laid out and expended upon Amending and Repairing of the ſaid Highways, the Juſtices of the Peace, or any two of them, at their Special Seſſions are hereby impowered, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to cauſe an equal Rate to be made for the Reimburſing the ſaid Surveyor or Surveyors, the Moneys by him or them laid out, as aforeſaid, upon all the Inhabitants of ſuch Pariſh or Townſhips, where ſuch Moneys are ſo Expended, according to the Rules and Methods preſcribed in an Act of Parliament made in the Three and fortieth year of the Reign of the late Queen Elizabeth, Entituled, An Act for the better Relief of the Poor of this Kingdom, which Rate being confirmed and allowed by the ſaid Juſtices in their Special Seſſions, ſhall be collected and gathered by the ſaid Surveyor or Surveyors of the Highways; And if any perſon or perſons refuſe to pay the Moneys ſo aſſeſſed on him or them, that then the ſame ſhall be Levied by the ſaid Surveyors, by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the perſons ſo refuſing, rendring to the party the Overplus, reaſonable Charges for making the ſaid Diſtreſs firſt to be deducted.

Cap. 2.

Fines ſhall be paid to the Survivor, and not returned into the Exchequer.

XIV. And whereas in purſuance of the Statute made in the Fifth year of the Reign of the late Queen Elizabeth, many Pariſhes and Places are oftentimes Preſented upon the knowledge and view of a Juſtice of Peace, or otherwiſe, for not Repairing and Amending their Highways, and the Fines impoſed and ſet on ſuch Preſentments and other Fines and Iſſues for not Repairing and Amending the Highways, are returned into the Court of Exchequer, or other Courts, and ſuch Fines and Iſſues againſt ſuch Pariſhes for not Amending their Highways, are Levied on ſome particular Inhabitants of ſuch Pariſhes or Places, and there being no proviſion made for the making of a Rate to reimburſe ſuch particular Inhabitants; Be it therefore further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Fine, Iſſue, Penalty or Forfeiture ſhall hereafter be Returned into the Court of Exchequer, or other Court, but ſhall be levied and paid into the hands of the Surveyors of ſuch Pariſh or Place, to be applied towards the Repair and Amendment of ſuch Highway; And that if any Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture impoſed on any Pariſh or Place, for not Repairing the Highways, ſhall hereafter be Levied on any one or more of the Inhabitants of ſuch Pariſh or place, that then ſuch Inhabitant or Inhabitants ſhall make his or their Complaint to the Juſtices of the Peace at their Special Seſſions, and the ſaid Juſtices, or any Two of them are hereby Impowered and Authorized by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to cauſe a Rate to be made, according to the form and manner aforeſaid, for the Reimburſing ſuch Inhabitant or Inhabitants the Moneys ſo levied on him or them, as aforeſaid, which Rate ſo made and confirmed by two Juſtices, as aforeſaid, ſhall be Collected and Levied by the Surveyor or Surveyors of the Highways of ſuch Pariſh or place ſo Preſented or Indicted, as aforeſaid, and the ſaid Surveyor or Surveyors ſhall within one Month next after the Making and Confirming the Rate aforeſaid, pay unto the Inhabitant or Inhabitants ſuch Money ſo Levied on him or them, as aforeſaid.

If Fine laid upon one Inhabitant, how he ſhall be repaid.

All Cart-ways to be 8 Foot wide.

XV. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, that the Surveyors of the Highways ſhall and are hereby required to make every Cart-way leading to any Market-Town, Eight foot Wide, at the leaſt, and as near as may be, Even and Level.

Inhabitants within the Weekly Bills, what Carts they may uſe.

XVI. Provided always, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Inhabitant of any of the Pariſhes within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, who dwells off from the Pavement, or uſes his Carts as well off as upon the Pavement; And to and for any Brewer, and to and for any Scavenger, or other perſon imployed in Carrying away the Dirt and Soyl of the Streets, Lanes and Allies, to make uſe of any Cart, Car, or Dray with Wheels ſhod with Iron, and narrower than Six Inches in the Felleys, and drawn with more than two Horſes; Any Act of Parliament, Law or Uſage to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding. 2 W. & M. Seſſ. 2. Cap. 8. Sect. 19.

Juſtices may in Seſſions order an Aſſeſment to be made, to Repair the Ways.

XVII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That where the Juſtices of the Peace of any County, City, Borough or other place, or the major part of them at their General or Quarter Seſſions, ſhall be fully ſatisfied, that the Common Highways, Cawſeys, Bridges, Streets or Pavements, within any Pariſh, Townſhip, Hamlet or other place within their reſpective Juriſdiction, cannot otherwiſe be ſufficiently Amended, Repaired, Paved, Cleanſed and Supported by means of the Laws now in force, without the help of this preſent Act, in all ſuch caſes, one or more Aſſeſſment or Aſſeſſments upon all and every the Inhabitants, Owners and Occupiers of Lands, Houſes, Tenements and Hereditaments, or any Perſonal Eſtate, uſually Rateable to the Poor, within any ſuch Pariſh, Townſhip, Hamlet, or other place, ſhall be Made, Levied, Collected and Allowed by ſuch perſon and perſons, and in ſuch manner as the ſaid Juſtices by their Order at ſuch Seſſions ſhall direct and appoint in that behalf; And the Money thereby raiſed, ſhall be employed and accompted for according to the Orders and Directions of the ſaid Juſtices, for and towards the Amending, Repairing, Paving, Cleanſing and Supporting ſuch Highways, Cawſeys, Streets, Pavements and Bridges, from time to time, as need ſhall require; And the ſaid Aſſeſſments ſhall be Levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods of every perſon ſo Aſſeſſed, (not paying the ſame within Ten days after demand) rendring the Overplus of the value of the Goods ſo Diſtrained, to the Owner and Owners thereof, (the neceſſary Charges of making and ſelling ſuch Diſtreſs being firſt deducted.)

XVIII. Provided nevertheleſs, and be it Enacted, That no ſuch Aſſeſſment or Aſſeſſments to be made in any one year, ſhall exceed the Rate of Six pence in the pound of the yearly Value of any Lands, Houſes, Tenements and Hereditaments ſo Aſſeſſed, nor the Rate of Six pence for Twenty pounds in Perſonal Eſtate.

Aſſeſſment not to exceed 6 d in the pound.

XIX. Provided always, That if any perſon or perſons ſhall find him or themſelves agrieved with any Aſſeſſment or Rate, or other Act by the ſaid Juſtices of Peace, That then it ſhall be lawful for the Juſtices of the Peace at their General Quarter Seſſions, or the greater number of them, to take ſuch Order therein as to them ſhall be thought convenient, and the ſame to conclude and bind all the ſaid Parties.

Perſons agrieved may appeal to the Seſſions.

XX. Provided alſo, That no perſon ſhall be puniſhed for any Offence againſt this Act, unleſs ſuch Offender be proſecuted for the ſame within Six Months after the Offence committed, and that no perſon who ſhall be puniſhed for any Offence by virtue of this Act, ſhall be puniſhed for the ſame Offence by virtue of any other Act or Law whatſoever.

Perſon here puniſhed, to be proſecuted within ſix Months, and puniſhable no other way.

XXI. And be it further Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Horſe-Cawſey, or Cawſey for Horſes travelling upon or in any publick Highway, be leſs or under Three foot in breadth.

Breadth of Horſe-Cawſeys.

XXII. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Juſtices of the Peace of the County of Middleſex, at their General Quarter Seſſions, to make Rates for the Paving the Town of Kenſington within the ſaid County (in all ſuch places thereof as they ſhall think convenient, and to amend, repair and cleanſe the ſame) upon old Streets and Houſes, as well as new, in ſuch manner as is directed by one Act made in the Second year of Their Majeſties Reign, for paving and cleanſing the Streets in the Cities of London and Weſtminſter.

Middleſex Juſtices may make Rates to Pave Kenſington.

XXIII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all matters concerning Highways, Cawſeys, Pavements and Bridges mentioned in this Act, ſhall be determined in the County where the ſame do lye, and not elſewhere: And that no Preſentment, Indictment, or Order made by Virtue of this Act ſhall be removed by Certiorari out of the ſaid County into any other Court.

No Certiorari of any Order, &c. upon this Act.

XXIV. And whereas divers Waggoners and other Carriers, by Combination amongſt themſelves, have raiſed the Prices of Carriage of Goods in many places to exceſſive Rates, to the great Injury of Trade, Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Juſtices of the Peace of every County and other place within the Realm of England, or Dominion of Wales, ſhall have Power and Authority, and are hereby Injoyned and Required at their next reſpective Quarter or General Seſſions after Eaſter-Day yearly, to Aſſeſs and Rate the Prices of all Land-Carriage of Goods whatſoever, to be brought into any place or places within their reſpective Limits and Juriſdictions, by any common Waggoner or Carrier, and the Rates and Aſſeſſments ſo made, to certifie to the ſeveral Mayors and other Chief Officers of each reſpective Market-Town within the Limits and Juriſdictions of ſuch Juſtices of the Peace, to be hung up in ſome publick place in every ſuch Market-Town, to which all perſons may reſort for their Information; And that no ſuch common Waggoner or Carrier ſhall take for Carriage of ſuch Goods and Merchandizes above the Rates and Prices ſo ſet, upon pain to forfeit for every ſuch Offence the Sum of Five pounds, to be Levied by diſtreſs and ſale of his and their Goods, by Warrant of any Two Juſtices of the Peace where ſuch Waggoner or Carrier ſhall reſide, in manner aforeſaid, to the uſe of the party grieved.

Juſtices once a year to ſettle the Rates of Carriages.

Five pounds penalty upon Carryer, taking above the rate.

XXV. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Action or Suit ſhall be hereafter commenced or proſecuted againſt any perſon or perſons by this Act Authorized to put the ſame in execution, every perſon or perſons ſo ſued may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence; And if the Plaintiff ſhall become Nonſuit, or forbear further Proſecution, or ſuffer Diſcontinuance, or if a Verdict paſs againſt him or her, the ſaid Defendant and Defendants ſhall Recover his and their double Coſts, for which he and they ſhall have the like Remedy, as in Caſes where Coſts by Law are given to Defendants.

Perſon proſecuted for executing this Act, may plead General Iſſue, and have double Coſts.

CAP. XIII.

An Act againſt Correſponding with Their Majeſties Enemies.

I. For preventing of Traiterous Correſpondence and Commerce with the French King or his Subjects, and ſupplying them with Warlike or other Stores or Commodities, by means of which they may be any way Aided or Comforted in carrying on their War againſt Their Majeſties, Be it Declared and Enacted by the King and Queens moſt Excellent Majeſties, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That if during the preſent War between Their Majeſties and the French King, any perſon or perſons ſhall Send, or Load, or Tranſport or Deliver, or cauſe to be Sent, or Laden, or Tranſported or Delivered unto, or for the Uſe of the ſaid French King, or any of his Subjects reſiding within his Dominions, or any Town or Territory in his poſſeſſion, or into, or for any Port or Place within his ſaid Dominions, any Arms, Ordnance, Powder, Bullets, Pitch, Tar, Hemp, Maſts, Cordage, Iron, Coals, Lead, or Salt-Peter, that every perſon or perſons ſo as aforeſaid Offending being legally thereof Convicted or Attainted by due Courſe of Law, ſhall be deemed, declared and adjudged to be a Traytor or Traytors, and ſhall ſuffer Pains of Death, and alſo Loſe and Forfeit as in Caſes of High Treaſon.

Preamble.

Exporting of any Arms, &c. into France, High Treaſon.

II. And

Exporting any other Commodities into France, Præmunire.

II. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon or perſons, during the War aforeſaid, ſhall ſend, or load, or tranſport, or deliver, or cauſe to be ſent, or laden, or tranſported, or delivered unto or for the Uſe of the ſaid French King, or any of his Subjects reſiding within his Dominions, or into or for any Port or Place within his ſaid Dominions, any Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, or Commodities whatſoever, other than the Goods and Commodities herein before particularly mentioned, That every perſon or perſons ſo as aforeſaid offending, being thereof Convicted or Attainted by due Courſe of Law, ſhall incur the Danger, Pain and Forfeiture ordained and provided by the Statute of Præmunire, made in the Sixteenth year of the Reign of King Richard the Second.

To go into France without License, High Treaſon.

III. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any of Their Majeſties Subjects ſhall from and after the Tenth day of March, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety one, without Licence from Their Majeſties, voluntarily Go or Repair, or Imbark in any Veſſel, with an intent to go into France, or any Dominions of the French King, and be upon full proof Convicted thereof, he ſhall be taken, deemed and adjudged to be guilty of High Treaſon, and ſhall ſuffer ſuch Penalties as in caſe of High Treaſon.

Perſons returning out of France without leave, Impriſon'd for 12 Months.

IV. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon or perſons, being Their Majeſties Subjects, ſhall after the Five and twentieth day of March, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety two, voluntarily come, or return from France, or any of the French Kings Dominions in Europe, into England, or any of Their Majeſties Dominions in Europe, during the ſaid War, without Their Majeſties leave for that purpoſe firſt had and obtained, and be thereof Convicted by due courſe of Law, ſhall be committed to Priſon, and there cloſely kept without Bail or Mainprize during Their Majeſties pleaſure, for any time not exceeding Twelve Months.

CAP. XIV.

An Act for Relief of Creditors againſt Fraudulent Deviſes.

Preamble.

I. Whereas it is not reaſonable or juſt, that by the practice or contrivance of any Debtors, their Creditors ſhould be defrauded of their juſt Debts; And nevertheleſs it hath often ſo happened that where ſeveral perſons having by Bonds or other Specialties bound themſelves and their Heirs, and have afterwards died ſeized in Fee-ſimple of and in Mannors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, or had Power or Authority to diſpoſe of or charge the ſame by their Wills or Teſtaments, have (to the defrauding of ſuch their Creditors by their laſt Will or Teſtaments) deviſed the ſame, or diſpoſed thereof in ſuch manner as ſuch Creditors have loſt their ſaid Debts.

Wills fraudulent, againſt Creditors.

II. For remedying of which, and for the maintenance of juſt and upright Dealing, Be it Enacted and Declared by the King and Queens moſt Excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That all Wills and Teſtaments, Limitations, Diſpoſitions or Appointments, of or concerning any Mannors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, or of any Rent, Profit, Term or Charge out of the ſame, whereof any perſon or perſons, at the time of his, her or their deceaſe, ſhall be ſeized in Fee-ſimple in Poſſeſſion, Reverſion or Remainder, or have power to diſpoſe of the ſame by his, her, or their laſt Wills or Teſtaments, to be made after the Five and twentieth day of March, in the year of our Lord God, one thouſand ſix hundred ninety and two, ſhall be deemed and taken (only as againſt ſuch Creditor or Creditors, as aforeſaid, his, her and their Heirs, Succeſſors, Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, and every of them) to be fraudulent, and clearly, abſolutely and utterly void, fruſtrate and of none effect; (any pretence, colour, feigned or preſumed Conſideration, or any other matter or thing to the contrary, notwithſtanding.)

Debt upon a Bond joyntly ſuable againſt the Heir and Deviſee of an Obligor. Deviſee chargeable for a falſe Plea, as an Heir

III. And for the means that ſuch Creditors may be enabled to recover their ſaid Debts, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in the Caſes before mentioned, every ſuch Creditor ſhall and may have and maintain his, her and their Action and Actions of Debt, upon his, her and their ſaid Bonds and Specialties, againſt the Heir and Heirs at Law of ſuch Obligor or Obligors, and ſuch Deviſee and Deviſees, joyntly by virtue of this Act; And ſuch Deviſee or Deviſees ſhall be liable and chargeable for a falſe Plea by him or them pleaded, in the ſame manner as any Heir ſhould have been for any falſe Plea by him pleaded, or for not confeſſing the Lands or Tenements to him deſcended.

Deviſe for raiſing Portions, purſuant to a Marriage Contract, good.

IV. Provided always, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That where there hath been or ſhall be any Limitation or Appointment, Deviſe or Diſpoſition, of or concerning any Mannors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, for the raiſing or payment of any real and juſt Debt or Debts, or any Portion or Portions, Sum or Sums of Money for any Child or Children of any perſon, other than the Heir at Law, according to, or in purſuance of any Marriage-Contract or Agreement in Writing bona fide, made before ſuch Marriage, the ſame and every of them ſhall be in full force; And the ſame Mannors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, ſhall and may be holden and enjoyed by every ſuch perſon or perſons, his, her and their Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns for whom the ſaid Limitation, Appointment, Deviſe or Diſpoſition was made, and by his, her and their Truſtee or Truſtees, his, her and their Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns for ſuch Eſtate or Intereſt as ſhall be ſo limited or appointed, deviſed or diſpoſed, until ſuch Debt or Debts, Portion or Portions, ſhall be raiſed, paid and ſatisfied; Any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding

V. And whereas ſeveral perſons being Heirs at Law, to avoid the payment of ſuch juſt Debts, as in regard of the Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments deſcending to them, they have by Law been liable to pay, have ſold, aliened, or made over ſuch Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, before any Proceſs was or could be iſſued out againſt them; Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in all caſes where any Heir at Law ſhall be liable to pay the Debt of his Anceſtor in regard of any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, deſcending to him, and ſhall ſell, alien or make over the ſame, before any Action brought, or Proceſs ſued out againſt him, that ſuch Heir at Law ſhall be anſwerable for ſuch Debt or Debts, in an Action or Actions of Debt, to the value of the ſaid Land ſo by him ſold, aliened or made over; in which Caſes all Creditors ſhall be preferred, as in Actions againſt Executors and Adminiſtrators, and ſuch Execution ſhall be taken out upon any Judgment or Judgments ſo obtained againſt ſuch Heir, to the value of the ſaid Land, as if the ſame were his own proper Debt or Debts, ſaving that the Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments (bona fide) aliened before the Action brought, ſhall not be liable to ſuch Execution.

If the Heir aliens before Action brought, he ſhall be liable to the value of the Land.

Creditors preferred, as in Actions againſt Executors.

VI. Provided always, and be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That where any Action of Debt upon any Specialty is brought againſt any Heir, he may plead Riens per Diſcent, at the time of the Original Writ brought, or the Bill filed againſt him; Any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding, and the Plaintiff in ſuch Action may Reply, That he had Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments from his Anceſtor before the Original Writ brought, or Bill filed, and if upon Iſſue joyned thereupon it be found for the Plaintiff, the Jury ſhall enquire of the value of the Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments ſo deſcended, and thereupon Judgment ſhall be given, and Execution ſhall be awarded, as aforeſaid, but if Judgment be given againſt ſuch Heir by Confeſſion of the Action, without confeſſing the Aſſets deſcended, or upon Demurrer, or Nihil dicit, it ſhall be for the Debt and Damages, without any Writ to Enquire of the Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments ſo deſcended.

Upon Riens per Diſcent pleaded, Jury ſhall inquire of the value of the Lands. Otherwiſe, if Judgment by Confeſſion, &c.

VII. Provided alſo, and be it further Enacted, That all and every Deviſee and Deviſees, made liable by this Act, ſhall be liable and chargable in the ſame manner as the Heir at Law by force of this Act, notwithſtanding the Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, to him or them deviſed ſhall be aliened before the Action brought. Provided always, That this Act ſhall be in force for Three years, and to the end of the next Seſſion of Parliament after the expiration of the ſaid Three years, and no longer. Made perpetual by 6 & 7 W. 3. c. 14.

Deviſee chargable as Heirs.

To continue for 3 years.

VIII. And be it further Enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for any perſons, Natives or Foreigners, to Contribute towards the advancing the ſaid Sum of Ten hundred thouſand Pounds for the purpoſes aforeſaid, by paying into the Receipt of Their Majeſties Exchequer, at any time before the Firſt day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and three, ſuch Sum or Sums of Money, and upon ſuch Terms reſpectively, as herein after is mentioned and expreſſed; (that is to ſay,) That out of the Moneys ariſing by virtue of this Act, the Sum of One hundred thouſand pounds yearly, until the Four and twentieth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred, be ſeparated and kept apart, as the yearly Fund to be divided amongſt the perſons Contributing to the Raiſing the ſaid Sum of Ten hundred thouſand Pounds; and that from and after the ſaid Four and twentieth day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred, out of the Moneys ariſing by virtue of this Act the Sum of Seventy thouſand Pounds be yearly ſeparated and kept apart, as the yearly Fund to be divided, as herein after is mentioned; That any perſon who will become a Contributor, ſhall and may advance the Sum of One hundred Pounds at the leaſt, for which Sum ſo advanced he is to name to the Auditor of the Receipt, or the Clerk of the Pells in the Exchequer for the time being, his own, or ſome other Life, during which he ſhall be Intituled to receive a ſhare or dividend of the ſaid yearly Fund, as hereafter is expreſſed; That every Contributor may advance as many Sums of One hundred Pounds as he ſhall think fit, for which Sums ſo advanced, he is to name to the Auditor of the Receipt, or the Clerk of the Pells for the time being, One or more Life or Lives; (ſo as no more Lives be named, than there are diſtinct Hundred pounds advanced) during which Life or Lives he ſhall be Intituled to receive ſo many ſhares or dividends of the ſaid yearly Fund, as there are Hundred pounds by him advanced; That all the ſaid Lives ſhall be named by the ſeveral Contributors, their Executors or Adminiſtrators, or ſuch as ſhall be employed by them to pay in the ſaid Sums within Fourteen days after the Four and twentieth day of June, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and three; That in the ſaid Office of Auditor of the Receipts, and in the Office of the Clerk of the Pells ſeverally, there be provided and kept one or more Book or Books, in which ſhall be fairly entred the Names of all who ſhall be Contributors, and of all perſons by whoſe hands the ſaid Contributors ſhall pay in any of the ſaid Sums, and alſo the ſeveral Sums ſo paid, and the time when the ſame are reſpectively paid; the ſaid Entry to be made upon payment of the ſaid Sums, And alſo in the ſaid Books there ſhall be entred the ſeveral Nominees, for whoſe Lives reſpectively the ſeveral Dividends of the ſaid yearly Fund, ſhall be payable at the times when the ſame ſhall be nominated, as aforeſaid: To which Books it ſhall be lawful for the reſpective Contributors, their Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, from time to time, at all ſeaſonable times, to have reſort, and to inſpect the ſame without Fee or Reward: And as well the ſaid ſeveral Contributors, as the ſaid Nominees, ſhall be deſcribed in the ſaid Books by their Chriſtian and Sirnames, Additions, Places of abode, and other deſcriptions, which ſhall beſt aſcertain the Perſons: And every Contributor upon payment of the Sum of one or more Hundred pounds, as aforeſaid, ſhall immediately have one or more Tally or Tallies levied, importing the receipt of the Conſideration-Money, for which the Contributor is to receive one or more Shares or Dividends of the ſaid yearly Fund, during the Life or Lives of the Nominee or Nominees, whether ſuch Nominee be the Contributor himſelf, or her ſelf, or any other perſon, and an Order for payment thereof accordingly, bearing the ſame date with the Tally; Which Orders ſhall be ſigned by the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, or any three or more of them now being, or by the Treaſurer of the Exchequer, or any Three or more of the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the time being; And after the Signing thereof, the ſame ſhall be firm, good, valid and effectual in the Law, according to the purport and true meaning thereof, and of this Act, and ſhall not be de determinable by, or upon the Deaths or Removal of any Commiſſioners or Commiſſioner of the Treaſury, or Lord High Treaſurer, or Treaſurer of the Exchequer, or by or upon the determination of the Power or Office of any Commiſſioner or Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, or Lord High Treaſurer, or Treaſurer of the Exchequer; Nor ſhall any Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, or Lord High Treaſurer, or Treaſurer of the Exchequer, now, or for the time being, have power to revoke, countermand, or make void ſuch Orders ſo ſigned, as aforeſaid, or any of them. And the ſaid reſpective yearly Funds of One hundred thouſand Pounds, and Seventy thouſand Pounds, (in caſe the whole Sum of Ten hundred thouſand Pounds ſhall be advanced upon Credit of the ſaid Funds) ſhall be equally divided amongſt the Contributors, their Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, during the lives of their reſpective Nominees, in proportion to the Sums by them advanced, yearly and every year, by two equal Half yearly payments; That is to ſay, The Four and twentieth day of December, and the Four and twentieth day of June; The firſt payment to be made the Four and twentieth day of December, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and three; And upon the death of every Nominee, the ſhare or ſhares of the ſaid Funds which was or were payable during his Life, ſhall be equally divided amongſt the reſt of the Contributors, whoſe Nominees ſhall be living; And ſo from time to time upon the death of every Nominee, whatſoever ſhare or dividend was payable during the Life of ſuch Nominee, ſhall be equally divided amongſt the reſt of the Contributors, their Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, during the Lives of their reſpective Nominees; So that from time to time the whole reſpective yearly Funds ſhall be divided and paid amongſt the Contributors, whoſe Nominees do ſurvive, until ſuch time as there ſhall be but Seven Nominees living; after which time there ſhall be no more advantage of Survivorſhip; but upon the death of every of the ſaid Seven Nominees, a Seventh ſhare of the ſaid yearly Funds, ſhall be anſwered to the uſe of Their Majeſties, Their Heirs and Succeſſors. And in caſe the whole Sum of Ten hundred thouſand Pounds, ſhall not by the Firſt day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and three, be advanced and paid by ſuch Contributors upon the Terms aforeſaid, That then there ſhall be divided to and amongſt ſuch Contributors as ſhall before the ſaid Firſt day of May, have advanced and paid, as aforeſaid, towards the ſame, yearly and every year, by two equal payments, as aforeſaid, ſo much only of the ſaid yearly Funds as ſhall bear proportion to the ſaid Sum ſo advanced after the Rates aforeſaid, that is to ſay, ſo much only of the ſaid yearly Funds as ſhall, during the firſt Seven years, to commence from the ſaid Four and twentieth day of June, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety three, anſwer yearly the Sum of Ten pounds for every Hundred pounds ſo advanced and paid; And from and after the expiration of the ſaid Seven years, during the Lives of the ſaid Nominees, and the Survivor of them, yearly and every year, by Two equal payments, as aforeſaid, the Sum of Seven pounds for every hundred Pounds ſo advanced and paid, to be divided, as aforeſaid, with the like benefit and advantage of Survivorſhip, as is herein directed, in caſe the whole Sum of Ten hundred thouſand Pounds ſhall be advanced and paid upon the Terms aforeſaid; and from and after the ſaid Firſt day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and three, no Contributors ſhall advance any further Sum upon the Terms and advantages aforeſaid.

If the whole Sum be not advanced the Contributors ſhall be paid ſuch part of the Annual Funds as is proportionable to the advance.

IX. And for the Encouragement of the Contributors, to advance and pay forthwith into the Receipt of the Exchequer the Sums by them intended to be advanced upon the Terms aforeſaid, It is Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every ſuch Contributor ſhall receive out of the ſaid yearly Funds, for all Moneys by him ſo advanced and paid, from the reſpective days of payment, unto the ſaid Four and twentieth day of June, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety three, Intereſt for the ſame, at the rate of Ten pounds per Centum per Annum; which Intereſt ſhall be mentioned and expreſſed in the Order hereby appointed to be given, upon payment of any ſuch Sums.

Ten pound per Cent. allowed the Contributors from the payment, till the 24th of June.

X. And be it further Enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for any Contributor, his Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, at any time, during the Life of his or their reſpective Nominee, by any Writing under Hand and Seal, or by his or their laſt Will in Writing, to aſſign or deviſe any one or more ſhare or ſhares of the ſaid Fund, payable during the Life of any one or more Nominee or Nominees, to any perſon or perſons, and ſo toties quoties, and no ſuch Aſſignments to be revokable, ſo as an Entry or Memorandum of ſuch Aſſignment or Will be made in Books to be kept for that purpoſe, in the ſaid Office of the Receipt, within the ſpace of two Months after ſuch aſſignment or death of the Deviſor; And that upon the producing ſuch Aſſignment, or Will or Probat thereof, in the ſaid Office of Receipt, to be Entred, as aforeſaid; the party ſo producing the ſame, ſhall bring therewith an Affidavit, taken before ſome perſon authorized to take Affidavits in Cauſes depending in any of the Courts at Weſtminſter, of the due execution of the ſaid Aſſignment or Will, which Affidavits ſhall be ſeverally filed in the ſaid Office; Which ſaid Entry or Memorandum, the ſaid Officers in the ſaid Receipt of the Exchequer, are hereby required to make accordingly, and to file the ſaid Affidavits; And in default of ſuch Aſſignment or Deviſe by Deed or Will, the Intereſt of ſuch Contributor ſhall go to his Executors and Adminiſtrators, for the Life of the Nominee, ſuch Nominee being ſome other perſon, as aforeſaid.

Contributor may aſſign or deviſe his Intereſt.

Entry of the Aſſignment, and Will, and Affidavit of the Execution, to be filed in the Receipt Office.

If no aſſignment, Intereſt goes to Executors.

XI. And be it further Enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for any Guardian or Truſtee, having the diſpoſal of the Money of any Infant under the age of Twelve years, for the uſe and benefit of ſuch Infant, to advance and pay, for the purpoſe aforeſaid, the Sum of One hundred Pounds of the Moneys of ſuch Infant, and ſhall thereupon within ſuch time as is herein before appointed for the naming of Lives, name the ſaid Infant to be a Nominee, and ſuch Infant, upon payment of the Sum, ſhall become a Contributor within the meaning of this Act, and be Intituled to have and receive, during his or her Life, a ſhare of the ſaid Funds in ſuch manner and proportion as any other Contributor; And the ſaid Guardian and Truſtee, as to the ſaid Sum of One hundred pounds ſo advanced, is hereby diſcharged.

Guardians may advance Money for Infants under 12.

XII. And to the intent and purpoſe that all Deceits in receiving any ſhare of the ſaid yearly Fund may be prevented, and that the full advantage of Survivorſhip may be had, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Contributor, his Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, upon their demanding any Half yearly payment of his or their reſpective ſhares, (unleſs the Nominee appear in perſon at the ſaid Receipt) ſhall produce a Certificate of the Life of his or their reſpective Nominee, ſigned by the Miniſter and Churchwardens of the Pariſh where ſuch Nominee ſhall be then living, upon the Day when the ſaid Half yearly payment ſhall become due (if ſuch Nominee ſhall be then reſiding in the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed;) Which Certificate the ſaid Miniſter and Churchwardens are hereby required to make without Fee or Reward; And the ſaid Certificates ſhall be filed in the ſaid Office of Receipt of the Exchequer.

Contributor upon demanding a ſhare, muſt bring a Certificate from Vicar and Churchwarden of Nominees Life.

XIII. And be it further Enacted, That in caſe any Nominee ſhall, at the time of ſuch demand, be reſident in Scotland, or beyond the Seas, and any one or more of the Barons of the Exchequer for the time being, ſhall certifie, That upon Proof to him or them made (which Proof he and they is and are hereby authorized and required to take in a ſummary way) it doth ſeem probable to him or them, that the ſaid Nominee is living (which Certificate is is to be given, and Examination made without any Fee or Charge) the ſaid Certificate being filed, as aforeſaid, ſhall be a ſufficient Warrant for payment of the ſaid Half yearly ſhare to the reſpective Contributors, their Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns.

Contributor neglecting to demand his half yearly payment, goes to the reſt.

XIV. And be it further Enacted, That in caſe any perſon, who by the intent of this Act ſhall be Intituled to receive any half yearly payment of his ſhare of the ſaid Funds, ſhall at any time neglect to demand the ſame in manner, as aforeſaid, until within twenty days before the next Half yearly payment ſhall become due, he ſhall loſe and forfeit ſuch Half yearly payment ſo neglected to be demanded, and the ſame ſhall be divided amongſt the Contributors, as if his reſpective Nominee had been dead, and ſo from time to time upon every default. Provided nevertheleſs, That if ſuch Contributor ſhall afterwards make a Demand in due time, in manner aforeſaid, for any following Half yearly payment, ſuch Contributor ſhall for the future have his ſhare of the ſaid Funds, as if ſuch default had not been made.

Account to be made within 20 Days of every payment of the deaths of Nominees.

XV. And to the intent it may appear and be aſcertained upon every Half yearly payment, unto and amongſt what perſons, and in what proportions the ſaid Funds are to be diſtributed, Be it Enacted, That in the ſaid Office of Auditor of the Receipt, every Half year within Twenty days before the reſpective days of payment, there ſhall be made up an Account of the ſeveral Nominees whoſe Deaths are come to knowledge, and of the ſeveral Contributors who have made default in making demand, as aforeſaid, that ſo the reſt of the Contributors may have the advantage thereof.

Contributor receiving ſhare after Nominees death, how puniſhed.

XVI. And be it further Enacted, That if any perſon ſhall receive any one or more Half yearly payments of the ſaid Funds after the death of any Nominee, for whoſe Life ſuch ſhare was payable, it ſhall be lawful for any Contributor to require the ſame to be repaid into the Receipt of the Exchequer, for the benefit of the Contributors. And in caſe of refuſal or neglect to pay in the ſame within one Month after ſuch Demand, ſuch perſon ſo refuſing or neglecting ſhal! forfeit treble the Sum ſo rceived, to be recovered by Action of Debt in any of their Majeſties Courts at Weſtminſter, in the name of ſuch Contributor who ſhall make the demand, as aforeſaid; In which Action no Eſſoign, Protection, Priviledge or Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance ſhall be allowed.

Officer offending how puniſhed.

XVII. And be it further Enacted for the better encouraging perſons to advance the ſaid Sum of Ten hundred thouſand Pounds upon the Terms aforeſaid, That all Receipts and Iſſues, and all other things directed by this Act to be performed in the Exchequer, ſhall be done and performed by the Officers there, without demanding or receiving, directly or indirectly, any Fee, Gratuity or Reward for the ſame. And in caſe any of the Officers of the Exchequer ſhall take or demand any ſuch Fee or Reward, or ſhall divert or miſapply any of the ſaid weekly Sums, to be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer, for making up the aforeſaid Funds, or ſhall pay or iſſue out the ſame, otherwiſe than according to the intent of this Act, or ſhall not keep Books and Regiſters, and make Entries, and do and perform all other things which by this Act they are required to perform, every ſuch Officer ſhall forfeit his Office, and be for the future incapable of any Office or place of Truſt whatſoever, and ſhall anſwer and pay treble damages, with coſts of Suit to every Contributor, their Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of Their Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoign, Protection, Priviledge of Parliament, or other Priviledge, Wager of Law, Injunction, or Order of Reſtraint, or more than one Imparlance ſhall be granted or allowed; And in the ſaid Action the Plaintiff upon Recovery ſhall have his full Coſts, one Third part of which Sum ſo to be recovered ſhall be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer, for the benefit of the ſaid Contributors, and the other Two third parts ſhall be to the uſe of the Proſecutor. And in caſe there ſhall be any Colluſion, or faint Proſecution between the Plaintiff and Defendant in ſuch Action, it ſhall be lawful for any other Contributor to bring another Action, wherein he ſhall recover, as aforeſaid, to the uſes aforeſaid. Provided always, and be it Enacted, That in caſe any Officer of the Exchequer ſhall make payment of any ſhare or ſhares of the ſaid Funds, upon ſuch Certificate as is before directed, ſuch Officer ſhall not incur any penalty, forfeiture or diſability, or be liable to any Action of the Contributors for doing thereof, although the ſaid Certificate be forged or falſe, or the ſaid Nominee be dead, unleſs the ſaid Officer did know at the time of ſuch payment that the ſaid Nominee was dead, or that the ſaid Certificate was forged or falſe.

Officer not puniſhable for paying Money upon a forged Certificate, except privy.

Contributor to certifie Death of his Nominee, and return his Tally, upon 10 l. penalty.

XVIII. And be it further Enacted, That every Contributor, his Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, within one Month next after notice of the Death of his or their reſpective Nominee, ſhall certifie ſuch Death to the Auditor of the Receipt of the Exchequer for the time being, and ſhall alſo within three Months after ſuch Notice, deliver, or cauſe to be delivered up to the ſaid Auditor his or their Tally and Order, by which he or they were or was Intituled during the Life of ſuch Nominee, to receive any ſhare of the ſaid Fund, in caſe ſuch Tally and Order be in his or their hands or power, and in default thereof ſuch Contributor, his Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, ſhall forfeit the Sum of Ten pounds, to be recovered by Action of Debt, as aforeſaid, and to be had and received to the uſe of any perſon who ſhall Sue for the ſame.

A Credit of Loan, to make up the Sum of 1000000 l.

XIX. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if the whole Sum of Ten hundred thouſand Pounds be not advanced and paid into the Exchequer upon this Act, before the Four and twentieth day of June, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety three, that then it ſhall and may be lawful for Their Majeſties, or Their Officers in the Receipt of Their Majeſties Exchequer, by Their Command and Appointment, to borrow and take into the ſaid Receipt, for Their Majeſties uſe, by way of Loan, any Sum or Sums of Money, which, together with the whole value or amount of all the Sums of Money which ſhall before the ſaid Four and twentieth Day of June, be advanced and paid upon the Terms and Advantage of Survivorſhip, as aforeſaid, or upon the Terms hereafter in this Act mentioned, ſhall not exceed the Sum of Ten hundred thouſand pounds; Which Sum or Sums ſo taken up by way of Loan, ſhall and may be charged upon the Credit of Their Majeſties Exchequer in General, and Tallies of Loan and Orders of Repayment of the ſame, ſhall be levied accordingly; Which Orders ſhall be aſſignable and transferrable from one perſon to another.

Seven pounds per Cent. allowed to the Lender, and the charge of the Principal and Intereſt transferred to the next Parliament aid, and if no aid to next Revenue.

XX. And it is hereby Enacted, That all and every Sum and Sums of Money ſo to be borrowed, not exceeding, as aforeſaid, together with the Intereſt for the ſame, not exceeding the Rate of Seven pounds per Centum per Annum, to be paid every three Months until ſatisfaction of the Principal, or ſo much thereof as ſhall not be repaid out of ſuch Moneys as ſhall be advanced upon the Terms hereafter in this Act mentioned, at or after the ſaid Four and twentieth day of June, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety three, and before the Twenty ninth day of September next following (all which ſaid Moneys ſo to be advanced from and after the ſaid Four and twentieth day of June, and before the ſaid Twenty ninth day of September, ſhall be applied and appropriated, and are appropriated for the diſcharging the ſeveral Loans made upon this Act ſo far as the ſame will extend) ſhall be payable, and be paid or ſatisfied unto the reſpective Lender or Lenders of the ſame, his, her, or their Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, out of any of the next Aids or Supplies to be granted to Their Majeſties in Parliament, and ſhall be transferred and transferrable thereunto, as ſoon as any ſuch aid or ſupply ſhall be granted; And in caſe no ſuch aid or ſupply ſhall be granted to Their Majeſties before the Second day of February, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety three, then the ſaid Sum and Sums of Money ſo to be borrowed, not exceeding, as aforeſaid, and the Intereſt thereof, or ſo much thereof as ſhall not be repaid out of the Moneys which ſhall be advanced before the ſaid Twenty ninth day of September, as aforeſaid, ſhall be payable and be paid and ſatisfied to the ſaid Lender or Lenders, his or their Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns reſpectively, by and out of any of their Majeſties Treaſure, which from thenceforth ſhall come into, be or remain in the Receipt of Their Majeſties Exchequer, not being already appropriated to any particular Uſes by any Act or Acts of Parliament before this time made.

If 500000 l. only advanced before May, the King may borrow 500000 l. more, to be paid out of Money raiſed by this Act betwixt that time and September, and if that fall ſhort next aid chargeable.

XXI. And be it further Enacted, That for the better and more effectual ſupply of Their Majeſties preſent Occaſions, That if the Sum of Five hundred thouſand Pounds, part of the ſaid Sum of Ten hundred thouſand Pounds, be not advanced and paid into the Exchequer upon this Act, before the Firſt day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety three, That then it ſhall and may be lawful for Their Majeſties to borrow upon Intereſt, as aforeſaid, any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding Five hundred thouſand Pounds, to be paid out of ſuch other Moneys as ſhall be advanced upon this Act between the Firſt day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety three, and the ſaid Twenty ninth day of September, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety three, in caſe the Money ſo advanced ſhall be ſufficient for the payment thereof, or otherwiſe ſo much thereof, as the ſame ſhall extend to pay; And the reſidue of the ſaid Sum of Five hundred thouſand Pounds, ſo taken up upon Loan, which ſhall remain unpaid out of the Moneys advanced upon this Act, as aforeſaid, ſhall be taken and reckoned as part of the ſaid Sum, before directed to be, and made payable out of any of the next Aids or Supplies, to be granted to Their Majeſties in Parliament, or out of Their Majeſties Treaſure, as aforeſaid.

If the whole Sum be not raiſed before May, perſons contributing ſhall have the advantage of 14 l. per Cent. for Life of the Nominee.

XXII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe the whole Sum of Ten hundred thouſand Pounds, ſhall not be advanced by the ſaid Contributors, and paid into the Exchequer, before the ſaid Firſt day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and three, upon the Terms and Advantage of Survivorſhip, as aforeſaid, That then it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any perſon or perſons, Natives or Foreigners, after the ſaid Firſt day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety three, and before the Nine and twentieth day of September then next following, to advance and pay into Their Majeſties Exchequer, any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the whole (together with what ſhall have been before the ſaid Firſt day of May, advanced by the ſaid Contributors, as aforeſaid) the ſaid Sum of Ten hundred thouſand Pounds upon the Terms following, that is to ſay, That every ſuch Perſon, out of the Moneys ariſing by the Rates and Duties of Exciſe granted by this Act, ſhall have and receive, for every Sum of One hundred Pounds, by them reſpectively advanced and paid, a yearly Annuity, Rent or Payment of Fourteen Pounds of lawful Engliſh Money (and proportionably for a greater Sum) and for and during the Life of ſuch perſon ſo advancing or paying the ſame, or during any other Life, to be nominated by the perſon advancing or paying any ſuch Sum, as aforeſaid, the ſame to be nominated within Six days after payment of the ſaid Sum; which yearly Annuities, Rents or Payments, ſhall commence from the Nine and twentieth day of September, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety three; and ſhall be paid and payable at the Four moſt uſual Feaſts in the year; That is to ſay, at the Feaſts of the Birth of our Lord Chriſt, the Annunciation of the Bleſſed Virgin Mary, the Nativity of Saint John Baptiſt, and the Feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangel, by even and equal portions; And every perſon on payment of any ſuch Sum or Sums, as aforeſaid, ſhall immediately have one or more Tally or Tallies importing the Receipt of the Conſideration-Money, and Orders for payment of the ſaid Annuities, bearing the ſame Date with the Tally, the ſaid Orders to be ſigned in the ſame manner as is in this Act before mentioned, touching Orders to be given to the before mentioned Contributors, and not to be determinable, revokable or countermandable, as touching the before mentioned Orders, is Enacted; Which ſaid Orders ſhall be aſſignable and transferrable in ſuch and the ſame manner as is before mentioned touching the ſaid Orders given to the Contributors, as aforeſaid, upon the Terms and Advantages in this Act firſt mentioned; And all the Moneys ariſing by the Rates and Duties hereby granted (over and beſides ſo much as ſhall bear proportion after the Rates aforeſaid, Penalties upon Officers, as before.

Intereſt after the rate of 10 per Cent. allowed till September.

to the whole Sum which ſhall be advanced by the Contributors before the ſaid Firſt day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and three) are and ſhall be appropriated and applied, and are hereby appropriated to and for the payment of the ſaid Annuities or yearly Rents or Sums, after the Rate of Fourteen Pounds per Annum for every Hundred Pounds advanced, as aforeſaid, according to the true intent and meaning of this Act, and ſhall not be divertible or diverted to any other uſe, intent or purpoſe whatſoever, under the like Penalties, Forfeitures and Diſabilities, in reſpect to all and every the Officers above-mentioned, as are before Appointed and Enacted; in caſe of diverting or miſapplying any part of the Moneys, which ought to be paid to the Contributors, who are to have the advantage of Survivorſhip, as aforeſaid; and the ſaid Officers reſpectively, are hereby required to keep Books and Regiſters, and make Entries of the Names of all perſons who ſhall advance any Money after the ſaid Firſt day of May, as aforeſaid, and of the ſeveral Sums ſo advanced, and the Times of paying in the ſame reſpectively, and the Names of ſuch Perſons, for whoſe Lives the ſeveral Annuities, and yearly Payments, are to be payable, without Fee or Reward, as aforeſaid, (to which Books all Perſons concerned ſhall have acceſs, aas aforeſaid); All wich the ſaid Officers are to do and perform, under the like Penalties nd Forfeitures, and Diſabilities, as aforeſaid; And every Perſon who ſhall advance and pay any ſuch Sum, as aforeſaid, after the ſaid Firſt day of May, ſhall receive out of the Money granted by this Act, for all Moneys by him ſo advanced and paid, from the reſpective Days of payment, unto the ſaid Nine and twentieth day of September, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety three, Intereſt for the ſame, at the rate of Ten Pounds per Centum per Annum.

Perſons contributing upon Survivorſhip, may change it into the advantage of 14 per Cent. for Life.

XXIII. Provided alſo, and be it Enacted, That if any Contributor, who on or before the ſaid Firſt day of May ſhall have advanced any Sum or Sums of Money, in reſpect whereof ſuch Contributor ſhall be Entituled to have a proportionable ſhare of the ſaid yearly Funds, with the benefits of Survivorſhip, as aforeſaid, ſhall at any time after the ſaid Firſt day of May, and before the ſaid Nine and twentieth day of September, be minded or deſirous (in lieu and ſatisfaction of ſuch proportionable ſhare of the ſaid Funds, with ſuch benefits of Survivorſhip) to have an yearly Annuity, Rent or Payment of Fourteen Pounds of lawful Engliſh Money for every or any Sum of One hundred Pounds by ſuch Contributor ſo advanced, to be paid during the Life of his, her, or their Nominee before mentioned, and ſhall ſignifie ſuch deſire to the ſaid Auditor of the Receipt, or the Clerk of the Pells for the time being; That then the ſaid Auditor of the Receipt, or Clerk of the Pells, ſhall cauſe an Entry or Memorial thereof to be made in a Book or Books for this purpoſe, to be kept in the ſaid Receipt; And the ſaid Entry or Memorial being ſigned by the ſaid Contributor, ſuch Contributor, his Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, during the Life of the ſaid Nominee (whether ſuch Nominee ſhall be the Contributor, or any other perſon) ſhall have and receive for every Sum of One hundred Pounds, which ſhall have been ſo advanced, a yearly Annuity, Rent or Payment of Fourteen Pounds, as aforeſaid, at the Four Feaſts aforeſaid, by equal Portions, in ſuch manner, and with ſuch and the ſame advantages, as if ſuch Contributor had originally paid in the Moneys by him advanced after the ſaid Firſt day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety three.

King after change ſhall have his advantage of Survivor.

XXIV. Provided always, That after ſuch Entry or Memorial ſhall be made in the ſaid Book or Books, and ſigned by the Contributor, as aforeſaid, all further Payments which ſhould grow due to ſuch Contributor for his proportionable part of the ſaid yearly Funds ſhall ceaſe and determine for Their Majeſties benefit, any thing contained in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The Annual ſurplus Money of the Duties given to the King.

XXV. And be it further Enacted, That in caſe there ſhall be any ſurplus or remainder of the Moneys ariſing by the Rates and Duties granted by this Act, at the end of any year, during the ſaid Term of Ninety nine years, after all the ſaid ſeveral proportions of the ſaid yearly Funds, and all and every the Annuities, Rents and yearly Payments, and all Intereſt payable by this Act, ſhall be fully ſatisfied, paid and diſcharged, ſuch ſurplus or remainder ſhall be to the uſe of Their Majeſties, Their Heirs and Succeſſors.

Entituled, An Act for taking away the Court of Wards and Liveries, and Tenures in Capite, and by Knights Service, and Purveyance, and for Settling a Revenue upon His Majeſty in lieu thereof: And alſo in another Act of Parliament made in the Fifteenth year of his Reign, Cap. 11. Entituled, An Additional Act for the better ordering and collecting the Duty of Exciſe, and Preventing the Abuſes therein, or in either of them, or in any other Law now in force relating to the Revenue of Exciſe.

Merchant give Security to pay in a years time, or 10 l. per Cent. rebated for preſent payment.

VI. And be it further Enacted, That for all Additional Duties hereby impoſed upon the aforementioned Goods and Merchandize to be Imported as aforeſaid, the Importer giving Security at the Cuſtom Houſe, ſhall have time, not exceeding Twelve months, for the payment of the ſame from the Importation, to be paid by Four equal and quarterly payments, or in caſe ſuch Importer ſhall pay ready money, he ſhall have after the Rate of Ten pounds per Centum of the ſaid Duty for a year abated to him, and if the Goods and Merchandizes aforementioned, Imported as aforeſaid, for which the Duties hereby granted, paid or ſecured at the Importation thereof, be again Exported by any Merchant Engliſh, within Twelve Months, or by Strangers within Nine Months after the Importation, then the aforeſaid Duty ſhall be wholly repaid, or the Security Vacated, as to what ſhall be ſo Exported, except all Brandy, for which the aforeſaid Duty ſhall not be repaid.

Rebate to exporter of Amber-Beads, &c.

VII. Provided nevertheleſs, That the ſeveral Duties charged by this Act upon all Amber Beads, Amber Ruff, Coral Beads, and Poliſhed Coral, and all Cowries, ſhall be repaid to the Merchant Exporting the ſame within Three years after the Importation thereof; Any thing in this Act contained to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Brandy imported in veſſel not 60 Gallons, forfeited.

VIII. And for preventing the Frauds frequently uſed in Importing of Strong Water Spirits, Aqua vitæ or Brandy, in ſmall quantities, whereby the ſame is more eaſily conveyed away without Payment of the Duties thereof: Be it Enacted, That from and after the Five and twentieth day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety three, no Brandy, ſingle or double ſhall be Imported from parts beyond the Seas, in any Veſſel or Cask which ſhall not contain Sixty Gallons at the leaſt, upon pain of forfeiting the ſaid Brandy or the value thereof, ſo to be Imported as aforeſaid, whereof one half ſhall be to their Majeſties, and the other half to ſuch perſons as ſhall Inform or Sue for the ſame, to be recovered of the Importer or Proprietor thereof, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information in any of their Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoign, Wager of Law or Protection ſhall be allowed, nor any more then one Imparlance.

IX. And be it further Enacted, That all and every the Officer and Officers who ſhall be concerned in Levying the Duties ariſing by this Act, do keep a ſeparate and diſtinct accompt thereof, and pay the ſame in ſpecie into their Majeſties Exchequer Weekly; and upon neglect and refuſal of the ſame, every Officer offending, ſhall be forejudged from, and ſhall forfeit his Place or Office.

2 W & M. Seſſ. 2. cap. 4. The Sum of 5 l. per 100 l. upon Raiſins and 2 l. 10 s. upon Currants only.

X. And whereas by the ſaid Act Entituled, An Act for Granting to their Majeſties certain Impoſitions on all Eaſt-India Goods and Merchandize, and upon all wrought Silks, and upon ſeveral other Goods and Merchandize to be Imported after the Five and twentieth Day of December, One thouſand ſix hundred and ninety, The Sum of ten pounds is impoſed on every Hundred pounds value of Grocery Ware and Druggs, wherein the ſeveral ſorts of Raiſins mentioned in the ſaid Book of Rates, are included, and likewiſe the Sum of Five pounds for every Hundred pounds value of Currants, which is found by experience to leſſen the Importation thereof; Wherefore for remedy thereof, and the Incouragement of Merchants to Import the ſaid Goods: Be it Enacted, That from and after the Five and twentieth day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and three, and thenceforth during the Continuance of the ſaid Act, the Sum of five pounds only ſhall be paid for every hundred pounds value of Raiſins of any ſort to be Imported after the ſaid time, over and above the Rates thereon charged in the ſaid Book of Rates: And Fifty ſhillings and no more, for every Hundred Pounds value of Currants Imported after the ſaid time, and thenceforth during the Continuance of the laſt mentioned Act, over and above the Rates charged thereon in the ſaid Book of Rates (the ſaid Act, or any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding) the ſame to be collected as in and by the ſaid Act is directed and appointed.

The Length and Breadth of Calico ſetled.

XI. And whereas by the ſaid Book of Rates a value is impoſed on every Piece of Calico without mention of the length whereof ſuch Piece ſhould conſiſt: Be it further Enacted, That no Piece of Calico Imported from and after the firſt day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety two, during the Continuance of the ſaid laſt recited Act of the breadth of one Yard and a quarter or under, ſhall exceed in length ten Yards; And no Piece of Calico Imported after the ſaid time, during the Continuance of the ſaid Act, above that breadth, ſhall exceed ſix yards; And if any Piece of Calica ſhall exceed thoſe lengths, the ſame ſhall be Rated according to the reſpective length of ten yards, and ſix yards for each Piece, and pay for the ſame in that proportion for a greater or leſſer Quantity according to the Sum rated upon each Piece of Calico in the ſaid Book of Rates; And that the Subſidy as well as the Additional Duties upon Calicoes by the ſaid laſt recited Act appointed, ſhall be Collected and Paid according to that Admeaſurement of each Piece of Calico ſo Imported from and after the ſaid time, and not otherwiſe; Any thing in the ſaid Book of Rates or in the ſaid Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Meaſure of Eaſt-Country-Linnen ſetled.

XII. And for the better aſcertaining, explaining and ſettling the Meaſures of Eaſt Country Linen, Be it Enacted, That all Linen of Pruſſia, Polonia, or any part of the Eaſt Country (Except Ruſſia) above the breadth of Three quarters and half Quarter of a yard, ſhall pay as Broad Germany Linen during the Continuance of the ſaid laſt recited Act; And all Whited Hinderlands from the ſame Countries, under that breadth, ſhall pay during the ſaid time, as Narrow Eaſt Country Linen.

Seſſ.2. cap.6. Coffee, reduc'd to 2 l. 16 s. per 100. Cocoa-Nuts to 6 d. per l. Tea to 1 s. per l. and Chocolate, 1 s. per l.

XIII. And whereas by one Act made in the firſt year of their Majeſties Reign, Entituled, An Act for the Charging and Collecting the Duties upon Coffee, Tea, and Chocolate at the Cuſtom Houſe, It is Enacted, That from and after the Five and twentieth day of December, One thouſand ſix hundred eighty nine, Five pounds and twelve ſhillings ſhall be paid for every Hundred Weight of Coffee Imported into any parts within this Kingdom, Dominion of Wales or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, (accounting One hundred and twelve pounds to the hundred weight) over and beſides what was then paid or payable for the ſame at the Cuſtom Houſe: And for every hundred weight of Cocao Nuts Imported, and containing as aforeſaid, Eight pounds and eight ſhillings over and beſides what was then paid for the ſame at the Cuſtom Houſe: And for every pound weight of Tea Imported five ſhillings: And for every pound weight of Chocolate ready made Five ſhillings over and beſides what was then charged on Tea or Chocolate reſpectively at the Cuſtom Houſe, which Duties are ſo exceſſive, that few of the ſaid Goods or Merchandizes have been entred at the Cuſtom Houſe ſince the making of the ſaid Act, or any Duty anſwered to their Majeſties for the ſame. Wherefore for reducing the ſaid Duties to a more reaſonable Rate and Impoſition, for the Incouragement and Advancement of Trade, and the greater Importation of the ſaid reſpective Goods and Merchandizes: Be it Enacted, That from and after the ſaid Five and twentieth day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and three, there ſhall be anſwered and paid to their Majeſties for every hundred weight of Coffee Imported, containing as aforeſaid, during the Continuance of the ſaid laſt mentioned Act, the Sum of Six and fifty ſhillings and no more: And for every pound of Cocao Nuts, Imported from any of the Dominions or Plantations belonging to the Crown of England, after the ſaid time during the Continuance of the ſaid Act, the Sum of ſix pence and no more; and from any other Countries or Places after the ſaid time, during the Continuance of the ſaid Act, Eight pence: And for every pounds of Tea Imported after the ſaid time, from any place from which it may be by Law Imported, one ſhilling and no more: And for every pound weight of Chocolate ready made, Imported after the time aforeſaid, during the Continuance of the ſaid Act, One ſhilling and no more; Any thing in the ſaid laſt recited Act, or any other matter or thing to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding. Provided always, That the Rates and Duties hereby appointed to be paid as aforeſaid, for the ſaid reſpective Merchandizes of Coffee, Cocao Nuts, Tea and Chocolate ſhall be paid and anſwered to their Majeſties during the Continuance of the ſaid Act, over and above the reſpective Duties charged or chargeable upon every of them in the ſaid Book of Rates before the making of the ſaid Act.

Alamodes how to be imported.

XIV. Provided always, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, for the better Encouragement of the Manufacture of plain Silks, called Alamodes and Luſtrings, in this Kingdom, None of the ſaid Foreign Silk ſhall be Imported into this Kingdom after the Five and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and three, but upon Notice firſt given to the Commiſſioners or Farmers of their Majeſties Cuſtoms for the time being, of the quality and quantity, with marks, numbers and package of ſuch Silks ſo intended to be Imported, with the Name of the Ship and Maſter or Commander, on which they are to be Laden, and the place into which they intend to Import the ſame, and taking a Licence under the Hands of the Commiſſioners or Farmers for the time being, or any three of them, for the Lading and Importing thereof as aforſaid, which Licence they are hereby Authorized and required to grant without any Fee or Reward, or any other charge to the perſons demanding the ſame; Any Law, Cuſtom or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding; And in caſe any of the ſaid Goods ſhall be Imported without ſuch notice being firſt given, and Licence taken out as aforeſaid, the ſame ſhall be forfeited, one Moiety thereof to the uſe of their Majeſties, their Heirs or Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to him or them that ſhall Seize or Sue for the ſame in any of their Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoyn, Priviledge, Protection or Wager of Law, nor more then one Imparlance ſhall be allowed.

XV. Provided always, And be it Enacted by the Authority afore ſaid, That the Officers of the Cuſtoms ſhall not take or receive, from the Merchant Exporting, any of the Commodities Chargeable by this or any other Act with any Additional Duties, above what is chargeable by the Book of Rates, any Fee or Reward for paſſing any Debenture for Repayment of the Duties to be paid back on Exportation, according to the ſaid Acts, but ſhall only receive ſuch Fees as were payable for Debentures, for the repayment of the half Subſidy, according to the Book of Rates, and no more: Nor ſhall any Fee or Reward be taken for any Oath to be Adminiſtred at any Cuſtom Houſe upon this Act.

XVI. And whereas by an Act made in the Third year of Their Majeſties Reign, Entituled, An Act for Granting to Their Majeſties certain Impoſitions upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors for one year, It is Enacted, That no Collector, Superviſor, Gauger or other Officer, concerned in the Charging, Collecting or Managing the Duty of Exciſe, ſhall either by Letter, Meſſage or Word of Mouth, endeavour to perſwade any Elector to give, or diſſwade any Elector from giving his Vote for any perſon or perſons that ſhall be in Nomination to be Elected a Member or Members of Parliament. And whereas by the ſaid Act it is further declared and enacted, That true Notes in Writing of the laſt Gauges, made or taken by the ſaid Gaugers, ſhall be left by them with all Brewers, Makers or Retaylers of Beer, Ale, or other Exciſeable Liquors reſpectively, or ſome of their Servants at the time of their taking the ſaid Gauges, containing the Quantity and Quality of the Liquors ſo Gauged, under the ſeveral Penalties in the ſaid Act mentioned: Be it Declared and Enacted, That the ſaid Act, ſo far as relates to Elections of Members to ſerve in Parliament, and leaving true Notes in Writing of the laſt Gauges, made or taken by the ſaid Gaugers, with the ſeveral Penalties reſpectively relating thereunto, be, from and after the Firſt day of March next, hereby Revived, and ſhall continue and be in force during the continuance of this Act, and from thence to the end of the next Seſſion of Parliament, and no longer.

3 W & M. Car. 1. That Collectors ſhall not be concerned in Elections, and ſhall give Notes of their Gauges continued.

XVII. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any perſon or perſons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, to advance and lend to Their Majeſties into the Receipt of Their Exchequer, upon the credit of this Act, any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding the Sum of Five hundred and ten thouſand pounds in the whole, and to have and receive for the forbearance of all ſuch Moneys as ſhall be lent, Intereſt not exceeding the Rate of Eight pounds, per Centum per Annum.

Clauſe of credit for 510000l.

XVIII. And be it further Enacted and Ordained by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every the Officer and Officers who ſhall be concerned in the Levying, Collecting and receiving the Duties ariſing by this Act, do keep a ſeparate and diſtinct accompt thereof, and pay the ſame in ſpecie into the Receipt of Their Majeſties Exchequer weekly on Wedneſday in every Week, unleſs it be an Holiday, and then the next day after which ſhall not be an Holiday; And upon neglect or refuſal of the ſame, ſhall incur the Penalties, Forfeitures, Damages and Coſts, as other the Officers of the Exchequer herein after mentioned, ſhall be liable to; Which Moneys ſo paid in, ſhall be applied to the uſes hereafter mentioned in this Act, and no otherwiſe.

Money to be paid into the Exchequer Weekly.

XIX. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That there ſhall be provided and kept in Their Majeſties Exchequer (that is to ſay) in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipts one Book in which all Moneys that ſhall be paid into the Exchequer by virtue of this Act, ſhall be Entred and Regiſtred apart and diſtinct from all other Moneys paid or payable to their Majeſties upon any Account whatſoever: And that all and every perſon and perſons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, who ſhall lend any Money to Their Majeſties upon the Credit of this Act, and pay the ſame into the Receipt of the Exchequer, ſhall immediately have a Tally of Loan Struck for the ſame, and an Order for his or their Repayment bearing the ſame Date with the Tally, in which Order ſhall be alſo contained a Warrant for payment of Intereſt for forbearance, not exceeding the Rates aforeſaid, for his or their Conſideration, to be paid every three Months until repayment of his or their principal: And that all Orders for Repayment of Money ſhall be Regiſtred in Courſe, according to the Date of the Tally reſpectively, without Preference of one before another: And that all and every perſon and perſons ſhall be paid in Courſe, according as their Orders ſhall ſtand Regiſtred in the ſaid Book, ſo as that the perſon, Native or Foreigner, his or their Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, who ſhall have his, her or their Order or Orders firſt Entred in the ſaid Book, ſhall be taken and accounted as the firſt perſon to be paid upon the Moneys to come in by virtue of this Act: And he or they who ſhall have his or their Order or Orders next entred ſhall be taken and accounted to be the ſecond perſon to be paid, and ſo Succeſſively and in Courſe: And that the Moneys to come in by this Act, ſhall be in the ſame Order liable to the Satisfaction of the ſaid reſpective Parties, their Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns Succeſſively, without preference of one before another, and not otherwiſe, and not to be divertible to any other uſe, intent or purpoſe whatſoever: And that no Fee, Reward or Gratuity, directly or indirectly be demanded or taken of any of Their Majeſties Subjects for providing or making any ſuch Books, Regiſters, Entries, View or Search as aforeſaid, or in or for the payment of Money lent, or the Intereſt as aforeſaid, by any of Their Majeſties Officer or Officers, their Clerks or Deputies, on pain of Payment of Treble Damages to the party grieved by the party offending, with coſts of Suit; Or if the Officer himſelf take or demand any ſuch Fee or Reward, then to loſe his place alſo: And if any undue preference of one before another ſhall be made, either in point of Regiſtry or Payment, contrary to the true meaning of this Act, by any ſuch Officer or Officers, then the party offending ſhall be liable by Action of Debt, or on the Caſe, to pay the value of the Debt, Damages, and Coſts to the party grieved, and ſhall be forejudged from his Place or Office: And if ſuch preference be unduly made by any his Deputy or Clerk, without direction or Privity of his Maſter, then ſuch Deputy or Clerk only ſhall be liable to ſuch Action, Debt, Damages and Coſts, and ſhall be for ever after uncapable of his Place or Office. And in caſe the Auditor ſhall not direct the Order, or the Clerk of the Pells Record,

A particular Book to be kept, Tallyes how to be given, Regiſter to be in Courſe without preference.

or the Teller make payment according to each perſons due place and order, as afore directed, then he or they ſhall be judged to forfeit, and their reſpective Deputies and Clerks herein offending, to be liable to ſuch Action, Debt, Damages and Coſts, in ſuch manner, as foreſaid; All which ſaid Penalties, Forfeitures, Damages and Coſts to be Incurred by any of the Officers aforeſaid, or any their Deputies or Clerks, ſhall and may be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information in any of their Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoign, Protection, Priviledge, Wager of Law, Injunction, or order of Reſtraint ſhall be in any wiſe granted or allowed.

What ſhall not be an undue preference.

XX. Provided always, and be it hereby declared, That if it happen that ſeveral Tallies of Loan, or orders for payment as aforeſaid, bear Date, or be brought the ſame day to the Auditor of the Receipt to be Regiſtred, Then it ſhall be interpreted no undue preference which of thoſe he enters firſt, ſo he enters them all the ſame day.

XXI. Provided alſo, That it ſhall not be interpreted any undue preference to incur any Penalty in point of payment, if the Auditor direct, and the Clerk of the Pells Record, and the Teller do pay ſubſequent orders of perſons that come and demand their Money, and bring their Order before the perſons that did not come to demand their Money, and bring their Order in their courſe, ſo as there be ſo much Money reſerved as will ſatisfie precedent Orders, which ſhall not be otherwiſe diſpoſed, but kept for them, (Intereſt upon Loan being to ceaſe from the time the Money is ſo reſerved and kept in Bank for them.)

Money in the Exchequer how aſſigned over.

XXII. And be it farther Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every perſon or perſons to whom any Moneys ſhall be due by virtue of this Act, after Order entred in the Book of Regiſter aforeſaid for payment thereof, his Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, by Indorſement of his Order, may Aſſign and Transfer his Right, Title, Intereſt and Benefit of ſuch Order, or any part thereof to any other; Which being notified in the Office of the Auditor of Receipt aforeſaid, and an Entry or Memorial thereof alſo made in the Book of Regiſter aforeſaid for Orders (which the Officer ſhall upon requeſt without Fee or charge accordingly make) ſhall Entitle ſuch Aſſignee, his Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, to the benefit thereof, and payment thereon; And ſuch Aſſignee may in like manner Aſſign again, and ſo toties quoties; And afterwards it ſhall not be in the power of ſuch perſon or perſons who have or hath made ſuch Aſſignments, to make void, releaſe or diſcharge the ſame, or any the Moneys thereby due, or any part thereof.

1226516 Appropriated out of this years Tax to the Sea.

XXIII. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That out of the Money which ſhall be Levied and paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer, as well upon Loan as otherwiſe, by virtue of this Act, or any other Act of this Seſſion of Parliament for Granting Aids or Supplies to Their Majeſties (other then an Act Entituled, An Act for Granting to Their Majeſties an Aid of Four ſhillings in the pound for one year, for Carrying on a Vigorous War againſt France,) the Sum of Twelve hundred twenty ſix thouſand five hundred and ſixteen pounds ten ſhillings ſhall be applied and Appropriated, and is hereby Appropriated to and for the payment of Officers and Seamen that have ſerved, and ſhall ſerve in their Majeſties Navy Royal, and for the paying for Stores, Proviſions and Victuals, Supplied, and to be Supplied for the ſaid Navy, and to, and for the expences of their Majeſties Office of Ordinance in reſpect to Naval Affairs, and for other neceſſary Uſes and Services performed, and to be performed in and for the ſaid Navy, and not otherwiſe. And if any Officer any way belonging to Their Majeſties Revenue, or to the Exchequer, Navy or Ordnance reſpectively, ſhall wittingly and wilfully divert or miſapply any part of the Money hereby appropriated to any other purpoſe, then to the uſes hereby directed, contrary to the true intent of this Act, ſuch Officer and Officers ſo offending, ſhall forfeit his and their Office and Place, and is and are hereby diſabled and made incapable to hold or execute the ſaid Office, or any other Office whatſoever.

Puniſhment upon Officer miſapplying.

Foreign Stores ſold to the Navy, not charged by this Act.

XXIV. Provided nevertheleſs, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the New, or Additional Duties impoſed by this Act, ſhall not extend to affect ſuch Foreign Stores as have been ſold to the uſe of Their Majeſties Navy by contract with the Navy Board before the Firſt day of January, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety two, ſo as a Certificate be given from the Commiſſioners of the Navy, that ſuch Foreign Stores have been ſo contracted for by them for Their Majeſties Service as aforeſaid, and ſo as the Importer of the ſame do make Oath before the Commiſſioners appointed to manage the Cuſtoms (which Oath they are hereby impowered to Adminiſter) of the Truth of the ſaid Contract, and that he will deliver the ſaid Goods into Their Majeſties Stores, purſuant to the contract ſo certified by the Commiſſioners of the Navy.

An Oath to be taken by the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms.

XXV. And as well that the Revenue of the Cuſtoms may be more duly and regularly anſwered, as to render the ſeveral Impoſts Granted by this preſent Act, a more effectual ſupply to Their Majeſties: Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That as well the Commiſſioners as the Patent Officers, and any of their Deputies, Clerks, or Servants who have or ſhall have any Imployment in or about Their Majeſties Cuſtoms, ſhall before the Nineteenth day of April next, or at their reſpective Admiſſions hereafter to ſuch Imployment, take their Corporal Oaths for the true and faithful Execution, to the beſt of their Knowledge and Power, of their ſeveral Truſts and Imployments committed to their Charge and Inſpection, and that they will not take or receive any Reward or Gratuity directly or indirectly, other then their reſpective Salaries, and what is or ſhall be allowed them from the Crown, or the regular Fees eſtabliſhed by Law, for any Service done, or to be done in the Execution of their Imployment in the Cuſtoms upon any Account whatſoever.

An Act for Raiſing the Militia of this Kingdom for the Year One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and three, although the Months pay formerly Advanced be not Repaid. E X P.

CAP. VII.

CAP. VII.

An Act to Prevent Abuſes Committed by the Traders in Butter and Cheeſe.

Preamble.

13 14, Ca. 2. 26.

I. FOraſmuch as divers Countries of this Kingdom conſiſt chiefly of Dairy Farms, and are in great meaſure ſupported by the ſale of Butter and Cheeſe, the Growth and Product of the ſame; And by an Act of Parliament made in the Fourteenth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King Charles the Second, Entituled, An Act for reforming Abuſes in Weighing and Falſe Packing of Butter, the Weight thereof is aſcertained, and the goodneſs of the Butter is ſecured, under the Pains and Penalties therein mentioned. And whereas the Cheeſemongers of London, their Factors or Agents (without any Authority) have appointed in all or moſt of the Sea Port Towns in the ſaid Counties a certain Officer, called a Weigher, who often times, ſeveral Weeks after the Cheeſe and Butter hath been bought and approved by the Factors and Agents of the ſaid Cheeſemongers at the Sellers Houſe, have taken upon them (without any Authority) to Weigh and Search the ſaid Butter when the ſame comes to the Sea Ports to be Shipped, and there pretend that the ſame is faulty, and ſet Rates of Deduction thereupon, and give Notes thereof to the Factors, who bought ſuch Butter; And when the Factor comes to pay the Seller for the ſame, they demand the Abatement accordingly, which if the Seller refuſeth to allow, there are frequent Indictments or Informations exhibited againſt the Sellers, upon the ſaid Act of the Fourteenth of the ſaid late King, and great Oppreſſions have been, and are daily committed, to the great Loſs and Damage of divers Land-Owners and Farmers in the ſaid Counties, contrary to the true intent and meaning of the ſaid Act.

Seller of Butter, &c. diſcharged from the penalty of 13&14 Ca. 2. 26. after the buyer hath bought and approved of the Commodity.

II. For prevention whereof, Be it Enacted by the King and Queens moſt Excellent Majeſties, by, and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament Aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That after the Factor or Buyer hath Bought and Contracted for the ſaid Commodity, and approved the ſame at the Sellers Houſe, or the place where he expoſes the ſame to Sale by Searching and Weighing the ſame (if he think fit) the Seller ſhall not after be charged or chargeable with, or liable to any of the Penalties in the ſaid recited Act of the Fourteenth year of the ſaid late King Charles the Second, mentioned or inflicted upon any pretence of want of Weight, Falſe Packing, or Mouldy Butter, or the Tare or Weight not being ſet upon the Cask or otherwiſe; but from thenceforth ſhall be, and is hereby diſcharged off and from the ſaid Act; Any other Law, Statute or Uſage to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Penalty upon Seller changing, &c. the Commodity after ſold.

III. And for the preventing any Fraud in the Seller, after the Factor or Buyer hath Bought and contracted for the ſaid Butter, and approved of the ſame: Be it further Enacted, by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Factor or Buyer ſhall ſet his Seal or mark upon the ſaid Butter, or the Cask in which it is, or his name at length; And in caſe the ſame ſhall afterwards be exchanged or be opened and the Cask wherein the ſame is put up changed, or any bad and decaied Butter ſhall be mixed and packed up with ſound and good Butter, or any other fraud be committed by the Seller, and the Offender be thereof convicted upon Oath made of the ſaid offence before one or more of their Majeſties Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace by one or more witneſs or witneſſes, which Oath the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices are hereby impowered and required to Adminiſter, or upon confeſſion of the Offender or Offenders before ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices, the ſaid Party or Parties ſhall forfeit the ſum of twenty ſhillings for every ſuch Ferkin and Offence, to be Levied by Diſtreſs, and ſale of the offenders Goods and Chattels, the overplus to be reſtored after all charges of the ſaid diſtreſs defrayed: And every Conſtable of the Pariſh, or chief Conſtable of the Hundred where ſuch offence ſhall be committed, are hereby authorized and required to Levy the ſame accordingly by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices ſo to do.

The weigher of Butter and Cheeſe ſhall Ship off all that belongs to the London-Cheeſe-mongers.

IV. And to the end the trade for Butter and Cheeſe may not be ingroſſed by particular perſons, but may be free and open to all perſons, and eſpecially to all the Cheeſemongers who are Free of the City of London, Be it further Enactd by the authority aforeſaid, that all and every Warehouſe-keeper, Weigher, Searcher, or Shipper of Butter and Cheeſe at any Port or Place in this Kingdom, ſhall receive into his or their Poſſeſſion or Warehouſe, all Butter and Cheeſe that ſhall be brought to him or them for any of the Cheeſemongers Free of the City of London, or other perſon making the ſaid Commodities, and ſhall take due care thereof until the ſame can be Shipped, and ſhall Ship the ſaid Butter and Cheeſe ſucceſſively, as it ſhall come to his or their Hands reſpectively (without undue preferring one mans goods before anothers) on the next Ship or Hoy, or Veſſel that ſhall come to ſuch Port or Place to lade Butter or Cheeſe for London, (except the owners of the ſaid Goods ſhall give orders to the contrary) and ſhall receive for his and their reſpective care and pains therein, of the owners of the ſaid goods, the ſum of two ſhillings and ſix pence for every Load and no more, and ſo proportionably: And if any ſuch perſon or perſons, or his or their ſervant or ſervants ſhall refuſe or neglect to receive ſuch goods, or to take due care thereof, or ſhall not Ship the ſaid goods as they come to his or their hands ſucceſſively as aforeſaid, That every ſuch offender and offenders being thereof convict in manner as aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit for every Ferkin of Butter, ten ſhillings, and for every weigh of Cheeſe, five ſhillings, to be levied in manner as aforeſaid.

Fee to the Weigher.

Penalty upon Weighers offending.

Weigher, &c. ſhall keep a Book of the receiving and Shipping the Butter, &c.

V. And for the prevention of frauds and undue practice herein: Be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all and every Warehouſe-keeper, Weigher, Searcher, or Shipper of Butter and Cheeſe in any ſuch Port or Place, ſhall from and after the firſt day of April, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and three, keep a Book wherein he and they ſhall duly and fairly enter all Butter and Cheeſe that ſhall be brought to him or them, as the ſame comes to his or their reſpective hands: In which Entry ſhall be inſerted the time when Penalty for offending upon conviction before a Juſtice.

ſuch Goods were Received, and the Quantity of ſuch Goods, and the Name of the Owner of the ſame; And ſhall make the like Entries when the ſaid Goods are Shipped or put on Board, of the time when the ſame were Shipped on Board, and the Maſters name, and the Veſſels name in which the ſame are Shipped or put on Board, and to whom the ſame are conſigned; Which Book ſo kept, ſhall be free and open for all perſons to ſee and ſearch at all times, without paying any thing for ſuch Search; And ſuch Warehouſe-keeper, Weigher, Searcher or Shipper of Butter and Cheeſe ſhall not keep ſuch Book as aforeſaid, or ſhall refuſe, neglect or omit to make ſuch entries therein as aforeſaid, or ſhall make any undue Entries therein (by undue preferring one Mans Goods before another) or ſhall refuſe in the Day-time to produce ſuch Book to be ſearched as aforeſaid, That every ſuch Offender and Offenders being thereof convict in manner as aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit for every Ferkin of Butter Two ſhillings and ſix pence, and for every Weigh of Cheeſe, Two ſhillings and ſix pence, and for every other the aforeſaid Offence, the Sum of Two ſhillings and ſix pence, to be levied in manner as aforeſaid: And in caſe ſuch Offender or Offenders ſhall not have Goods and Chattels ſufficient for the Levying the ſaid penalty, That then it ſhall and may be lawful for the Juſtice or Juſtices before whom ſuch Conviction ſhall be made, to commit ſuch Offender and Offenders to the Gaol without Bail or Mainprize, there to remain until ſuch Penalties ſhall be paid and ſatisfied.

Penalty upon Maſter of Ship refuſing to take in Butter, &c.

VI. V. Provided always, That if upon the accompt of any Sheriff or Sheriffs, there ſhall not be Moneys ſufficient in the hands of ſuch Sheriff or Sheriffs to reimburſe him or them ſuch Moneys paid by him or them by virtue of this Act, That then the Sheriff or Sheriffs having ſo paid the ſaid Moneys, ſhall have the ſame repaid by the Lord Treaſurer or Commiſſioners of their Majeſties Treaſury for the time being, out of the Revenue of the Crown, upon Certificate from the Clerk of the Pipe to that Effect.

Highway-Mans Horſe &c. given to the apprehender.

VI. And it is hereby further Enacted, That all and every perſon or perſons who ſhall ſo take, apprehend, proſecute or convict ſuch Robber or Robbers as aforeſaid, as a further reward ſhall have and enjoy to his and their proper uſe and behoof the Horſe, Furniture and Arms, Money or other Goods of the ſaid Robber or Robbers that ſhall be taken with him or them; Any their Majeſties Right or Title, Bodies Politick or Corporate, or the Right or Title thereunto of the Lord of any Mannor, Liberty or Franchiſe, or of him or them lending or letting the ſame to Hire to any ſuch Robber or Robbers in any wiſe notwithſtanding. Provided always, That this Clauſe, or any thing therein contained ſhall not be Conſtrued to extend to take away the right of any perſon or perſons to ſuch Horſes, Furniture and Arms, Money or other Goods from whom the ſame were before Feloniouſly taken.

Perſon concerned, diſcovering Two others, pardoned.

VII. And be it further Enacted, That if any perſon or perſons, being out of Priſon, ſhall from and after the ſaid Five and twentieth day of March Commit any Robbery, and afterwards diſcover Two or more perſon or perſons, who already hath, or hereafter ſhall commit any Robbery, ſo as two or more of the perſon or perſons diſcovered ſhall be convicted of ſuch Robbery, any ſuch diſcoverer ſhall himſelf have, and is hereby Entituled to the gracious pardon of their Majeſties, their Heirs and Succeſſors, for all Robberies which he or they ſhall have committed at any time or times before ſuch diſcovery made; which Pardon ſhall be likewiſe a good Bar to any Appeal brought for any ſuch Robbery.

CAP. IX.

An Act for Reviving two former Acts of Parliament for the Repairing the Highways in the County of Hertford.

Preamble. 15 Ca. 2. 1. 16, 17. Ca. 2. 10.

I. WHereas there was an Act of Parliament made in the Fifteenth year of the Reign of our late Sovereign Lord King Charles the Second, Entituled, An Act for repairing the Highways within the Counties of Hertford, Cambridge and Huntingdon, to be in force for the ſpace of Eleven years from the Commencement thereof: And whereas there was afterwards one other Act of Parliament made in the Sixteenth and Seventeenth years of the Reign of the ſaid late King Charles the Second, Entituled, An Act for Continuance of a former Act for Repairing the Highways within the County of Hertford, both which ſaid Acts are ſome years paſt expired, and the Highways within the ſaid County of Hertford, intended by the ſaid Acts to be Repaired, are ſince (by great Burthens and Carriages uſed to paſs through the ſame) become dangerous and impaſſable. To the end therefore that the ſaid Highways within the County of Hertford, (being the great Roads to the North parts of this Kingdom may be ſufficiently repaired and amended by the proviſions mentioned in the ſaid Acts, the ſame being not to be done by the ordinary courſe of the Laws and Statutes of this Realm, May it pleaſe your Majeſties that it may be Enacted:

Toll at Wades Mill revived for 15 years.

II. And be it Enacted by the King and Queens moſt excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament Aſſembled, That the Toll mentioned in the ſaid Acts, to be taken at Wades Mill for the County of Hertford, be revived, ſet up and taken again in the manner by the ſaid Acts mentioned, to continue for the ſpace of Fifteen years from the paſſing of this Act, and that the Moneys thereby ariſing be imployed for the Repair of the ſaid Highways within the ſaid County of Hertford, according to the Tenor of the ſaid Acts.

Toll how it may ceaſe.

III. Provided always, That if the ſaid Highways before the Expiration of the ſaid Term of Fifteen years be in good and ſufficient repair, and an Adjudication thereof be made at the Aſſize or General Quarter Seſſions to be holden for the ſaid County (as is provided by the ſaid Statutes of the Sixteenth and Seventeenth years of King Charles the Second) the Toll ſhall from thenceforth ceaſe and determine, as in the ſaid Act is directed and appointed.

Officers and collecting as formerly.

IV. And it is further Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforeſaid, and the ſeveral Officers and Perſons impowered in and by the ſaid Acts to the purpoſes therein mentioned, ſo far as may any ways concern or relate to the ſaid County of Hertford, ſhall from henceforth have the like Powers and Authorities by virtue of this preſent Act, as they and every of them had by Virtue of the ſaid former Acts, and that all Clauſes, Proviſions, Penalties, Forfeitures and Exceptions whatſoever therein mentioned, concerning the collecting, paying, ingaging or accounting for the ſaid Toll at Wades Mill, be from henceforth by virtue of this Act renewed and put in Execution again, during the Continuance of this preſent Act, as if they were herein particularly expreſſed and repeated.

CAP. X.

An Act for Prohibiting the Importation of all Foreign Hair Buttons.

Preamble. 13, 14. Ca. 2. 13.

I. WHereas by an Act made in the Fourteenth year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King Charles the Second, Entituled, An Act Prohibiting the Importation of Foreign Bone Lace, Cutwork, Imbroidery, Fringe, Band-ſtrings, Buttons and Needle Work, amongſt other things in the ſaid Act mentioned, all Foreign Buttons made of Thread or Silk are Prohibited to be Imported or Sold in the Kingdom of England, or Dominion of Wales. And whereas ſince the making of the ſaid Act, Hair Buttons are chiefly uſed and worn, and the Button Makers of England do make better Hair Buttons then any are Imported from Foreign parts, and are able to ſupply this Kingdom with greater Quantities of them then they can make uſe of; Yet becauſe Buttons made of Hair are not expreſly mentioned in the ſaid Act (although they were thereby intended to be prohibited) many perſons who are Enemies to the Manufactures of this Kingdom, taking advantage of the ſaid Omiſſion, do daily Import ſuch great Quantities of Hair Buttons, that the Button Trade of England is very much decayed, and many thouſands of poor people that were formerly kept at Work in the ſaid Trade, are like to periſh for want of Imployment, and all the other miſchiefs mentioned in the ſaid Act, which relate to the Button Trade, and were thereby intended to be remedied, are become as great as they were at the time of the making of the ſaid Act.

Foreign Hair-Buttons not to be imported, &c.

II. For redreſs whereof, and the more effectual Prevention of the like miſchiefs for the future, Be it Enacted by the King and Queens moſt Excellent Majeſties, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament Aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the Five and twentieth day of March in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and three, No Foreign Buttons made or to be made of Hair, nor any other Foreign Buttons whatſoever, ſhall be Imported, Brought in, Sent or Conveyed into the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Port or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or Bartered, Sold, Exchanged, or Offered to be Bartered, Sold or Exchanged, upon pain of Forfeiting all the ſaid Buttons ſo Imported, Brought in, Bartered, Sold or Exchanged, or Offered to be Bartered, Sold or Exchanged, and upon ſuch further and other Pains, Penalties and Forfeitures as are mentioned, contained and expreſſed in the ſaid recited Act, one Moiety of all which Forfeitures to be to the uſe of our Sovereign Lord and Lady the King and Queen, Their Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety thereof to the perſon or perſons ſons that ſhall Sue for the ſame in any of Their Majeſties Courts of Record, by Bill, Plaint, Action of Debt, Information or otherwiſe, wherein no Eſſoign, Protection, or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed.

Penalty.

III. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That for the preventing the importing, bartering, ſelling, vending or expoſing to ſale any Foreign Buttons whatſoever, the Juſtices of the Peace within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Port or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, within their ſeveral and reſpective Counties, Cities and Towns Corporate, have the ſame Authority and Power, and the ſame Authority and Power is hereby given unto the ſaid Juſtices, to iſſue forth their Warrants to ſeize, or cauſe to be ſeized all Foreign Buttons whatſoever, as by the ſaid Act is given unto them for the ſeizing of Foreign Buttons made of Thread or Silk, and other the Manufactures in the ſaid Act mentioned.

Juſtices of Peace power to ſeize.

CAP. XI.

An Act for Examining, Taking and Stating the Publick Accounts of this Kingdom. EXP.
Revived by 5 & 6 W.& M. cap.23. till *Apr.*1695.

CAP. XII.

An Act to make Pariſhioners of the Church United Contributors to the Repairs and Ornaments of the Church to whom the Union is made.

I. Whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the Seventeenth year of the Reign of King Charles the Second of bleſſed Memory, proviſion was made for the Uniting Churches in Cities and Towns Corporate; And foraſmuch as it is highly reaſonable that Pariſhioners of Pariſhes whoſe Churches are demoliſhed, and either before or afterwards United to other Churches, ſhould be Contributors towards the Repairs and other Parochial Charges of ſuch other Church, to which by virtue of the ſaid Act they are united:

Preamble.
17 Car.2. 3.

II. Therefore be it Enacted by the King and Queens moſt Excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That where any Churches heretofore have been, or hereafter ſhall be united by virtue of the ſaid Act, and one of the ſaid Chucches ſo united was at the time of ſuch Union, or ſhall afterwards be demoliſhed, that in all ſuch Caſes, as often as the Church which was or ſhall be made the Church Preſentative, and to which the Union was or ſhall be made, ſhall be out of Repair, or there ſhall be need of decent Ornaments for the performance of Divine Service therein, That the Pariſhioners of the Pariſh whoſe Church ſhall then be down or demoliſht, ſhall bear and pay towards the charges of ſuch Repairs and decent Ornaments, ſuch ſhare and proportion as the Archbiſhop or Biſhop that ſhall make ſuch Union, ſhall by the ſame Union direct and appoint, and for want of ſuch Direction and Appointment, then one Third part of ſuch charges of the Repairs and decent Ornaments which ſhall be made or provided; And the ſame ſhall be rated, taxed and levied, and in default thereof ſuch Proceſs and Proceedings ſhall be had and made againſt him or them, as if it were for the Reparation, and finding decent Ornaments for their own Pariſh Church, if no ſuch Union had been made; Any Law, Cuſtom, Uſage or Opinion to the contrary heretofore notwithſtanding.

If two Churches be united; and one of them down, the Pariſhioners of that Church ſhall pay toward the Repairs, &c. of the other.

CAP. XIII.

An Act for puniſhing Officers and Soldiers, who ſhall mutiny or deſert Their Majeſties Service, and for puniſhing Falſe Muſters, and for the payment of Quarters. Continued by 5 & 6 W. & M.cap.15. till 1 March 1693.

I. Whereas the raiſing or keeping a Standing Army within this Kingdom in time of Peace, unleſs it be with conſent of Parliament, is againſt Law; And whereas it is adjudged neceſſary for their Majeſties and this preſent Parliament, That during this time of War, ſeveral of the Forces which are now on foot ſhould be continued, and others raiſed for the ſafety of this Kingdom, for the common defence of the Proteſtant Religion, and for the carrying on the War againſt France; And whereas no man may be forejudged of Life or Limb, or ſubjected to any kind of puniſhment by Martial Law, or in any other manner then by the Judgment of his Peers, and according to the known and eſtabliſhed Laws of this Realm: Yet nevertheleſs it being requiſite for the retaining ſuch Forces as are or ſhall be raiſed during this Exigence of Affairs, in their Duty, That an exact Diſcipline be obſerved, and that Soldiers who ſhall Mutiny, or ſtir up Sedition, or ſhall deſert Their Majeſties Service, be brought to a more exemplary and ſpeedy puniſhment then the uſual Forms of the Law will allow;

Preamble.

II. Be it therefore Enacted by the King and Queens moſt Excellent Majeſties, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the Tenth day of March, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety two, every perſon being in Their Majeſties Service in the Army, and being Muſtered and in pay as an Officer or Soldier, who ſhall at any time before the Firſt day of March, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety three, excite, cauſe or joyn in any Mutiny or Sedition in the Army, or ſhall deſert Their Majeſties Service in the Army, ſhall ſuffer death, or ſuch other puniſhment as by a Court Martial ſhall be inflicted, or being a Soldier actually Liſted in any Regiment, Troop or Company, ſhall Liſt himſelf into any other Regiment, Troop or Company, without a Diſcharge produced in writing from the Captain, or the Officer Commanding the Troop or Company in which he laſt ſerved as a Liſted Soldier, ſhall ſuffer death, or ſuch other puniſhment as by a Court Martial ſhall be inflicted.

Commiſſioners may be appointed to call a Court-Martial.

III. And it is hereby further Enacted and Declared, That Their Majeſties, or the General of Their Army for the time being, may by virtue of this Act have full power and authority to grant Commiſſions to any Lieutenant General, or other Officers (not under the degree of a Field Officer or Commander in Chief of a Garriſon) from time to time to call and aſſemble Court Martials for puniſhing ſuch Offences, as aforeſaid.

Number, &c. of the Court.

IV. And it is hereby further Enacted and Declared, That no Court Martial which ſhall have power to inflict any puniſhment by virtue of this Act, for the Offences aforeſaid, ſhall conſiſt of fewer than Thirteen, whereof none to be under the degree of a Commiſſion Officer; And the Preſident of ſuch Court Martial not to be under the degree of a Field Officer, or the then Commander in Chief of the Garriſon where the Offender ſhall be tried.

Field-Officer, by whom try'd.

Court may give an Oath.

V. Provided always, That no Field Officer ſhall be tried by any Officer under the degree of a Captain, and that ſuch Court Martial ſhall have power and authority to adminiſter an Oath to any Witneſs, in order to the Examination or Trial of the Offences aforeſaid.

Soldier ſtill liable to Law.

VI. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained, ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to exempt any Officer or Soldier whatſoever from the ordinary proceſs of Law.

VIII. Provided alſo, That this Act ſhall continue and be in force until the Firſt day of March, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety three, and no longer.

How the Trial ſhall be in Capital Caſes.

IX. Provided always, and be it Enacted, That in all Trials of Offenders by Courts Martial, to be held by virtue of this Act, where the offence may be puniſhed by death, every Officer preſent at ſuch Trial, before any proceeding be had thereupon, ſhall take an Oath upon the Evangeliſts before the Court; And the next Juſtice of Peace, Judge Advocate, or his Deputy, or one of them, are hereby authorized to adminiſter the ſame in theſe words, (That is to ſay,) You ſhall well and truly try and determine, according to your Evidence, the Matter now before you, between our Sovereign Lord and Lady the King and Queens Majeſties, and the Priſoner to be Tried: So help you God. And no Sentence of Death ſhall be given againſt any Offender in ſuch caſe, by any Court Martial, unleſs Nine of Thirteen Officers preſent ſhall concur therein; And if there be greater number of Officers preſent, then the Judgment ſhall paſs by the concurrence of the greater part of them ſo ſworn; Which major part ſhall not be leſs than Nine, and not otherwiſe. And no Proceedings, Trial, or Sentence of Death ſhall be had or given againſt any Offender, but between the hours of eight in the Morning and one in the Afternoon.

Penalty for making falſe Certificate, to excuſe Soldiers abſence.

X. And for the preventing of fraud and deceipt in Muſtering of Soldiers, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon ſhall make or give, or procure to be made or given any falſe or untrue Certificate, whereby to excuſe any Soldiers for their abſence from any Muſter or other Service which they ought to attend or perform, upon a pretence of Sickneſs, or other cauſe, That then every ſuch perſon ſo making, giving or procuring ſuch Certificate, ſhall forfeit for every ſuch offence the Sum of Fifty pounds, and ſhall be forthwith caſhiered and diſplaced from ſuch his Office and ſhall be thereby utterly diſabled to have or hold any Military Office or Imployment within this Kingdom, or in Their Majeſties Service.

Penalty for making a falſe Muſter.

XI. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Officer that ſhall make any falſe or untrue Muſter of Man or Horſe, and every Commiſſary, Muſter-maſter, and other Officer that ſhall allow or ſign the Muſter-Roll wherein ſuch falſe Muſter is contained, or any Duplicate thereof, upon proof thereof upon Oath made by two Witneſſes before a Court Martial, to be thereupon called (which is hereby authorized and requireed to adminiſter ſuch Oath) ſhall for ſuch their offence be forthwith caſhiered and diſplaced from ſuch their Office, and ſhall be thereby utterly diſabled to have or hold any Civil or Military Office or Employment within this Kingdom, or in Their Majeſties Service, and ſhall likewiſe forfeit the Sum of One hundred pounds.

Where they have no Subſiſtence-Money, &c. the Officer muſt ſign the Account and the Pay-Maſter of the Army ſhall pay it.

XXIV. And be it further Enacted, That no Commiſſary ſhall muſter any Forces within the City of Weſtminſter, and Borough of Southwark and Liberties thereof, but in the preſence of Two Juſtices of the Peace, not being Officers in the Army, under the forementioned penalty.

Muſters in Weſtminſter, &c. made before two Juſtices.

XXV. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That this Act ſhall be conſtrued to extend to the Iſlands of Jerſey and Guernſey, as to the Clauſes therein for Muſtering and Paying, and the penalties thereunto belonging.

Jerſey, &c. within the Act.

XXVI. Provided always, and be it further Enacted, That all Cloaths, Arms and Accoutrements of War belonging to the Horſe, Foot and Dragoons in Their Majeſties Pay and Service, who receive Engliſh Pay, ſhall be bought in the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and not elſewhere: And every Officer or perſon who ſhall offend herein (upon Proof made in that behalf) ſhall be caſhiered.

Cloaths, &c. to be bought in England.

XXVII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Commiſſary General of the Muſters, or his Deputies, ſhall upon every Muſter taken by him or them reſpectively, of any Regiment, Troop or Company in Their Majeſties Service, cloſe the Muſter Rolls of the ſaid Regiment, Troop or Company, upon the place, the ſame day the ſaid Muſter is taken, and ſhall return one of every the ſaid Rolls ſo taken in Parchment, to the Pay-maſter General of Their Majeſties Forces, the next day after the ſaid Rolls ſhall be reſpectively cloſed, if in London or within Twenty Miles diſtance from the ſame; and if at further diſtance, by the next Poſt, after the Rolls ſhall be ſo reſpectively cloſed, upon pain of forfeiting their reſpective Employments.

Muſter-Maſter to return a Roll of the Muſter to the Pay-Maſter-General.

XXVIII. And it is further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, For the better and more regular proviſion of Carriages for Their Majeſties Forces in their Marches in this Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, That all Juſtices of the Peace within their ſeveral Counties, Ridings, Diviſions and Liberties, being duly required thereunto, by an Order from his or her Majeſty, ſhall, as often as ſuch Order is brought and ſhewn unto one or more of them (by the Quarter-maſter, Agent, or other Officer of the Regiment, Detachment, Troop or Company then marching) iſſue out his or their Warrants to the Conſtables or Petty Conſtables of the Diviſion, Riding, Liberty or Hundreds next adjacent, requiring them to make ſuch proviſion of Carriages as is mentioned in the ſaid Warrant, allowing them ſufficient time to do the ſame, that the Neighbouring parts may not always bear the burthen. And the aforeſaid Officer or Officers, who by virtue of the aforeſaid Warrant from the Juſtice of the Peace, do demand the Carriage or Carriages therein meetioned of the Conſtable to whom the Warrant is directed, is, and are hereby required at the ſame time to pay down in hand to the ſaid Conſtable the Sum of Eight pence, for every Mile any Wagon with five Horſes ſhall travel loaden, and the Sum of Eight pence for every Mile any Wain with ſix Oxen, or four Oxen and two Horſes ſhall travel loaden, and the Sum of Six pence for every Mile any Cart with four Horſes ſhall travel loaden, and ſo in proportion for leſſer Carriages. And if any Military Officer or Officers, for the uſe of whoſe Troop or Company the Carriage was provided, ſhall force and conſtrain any Wagon, Wain, Cart or Carriage, to travel more than One days journey, or ſhall not diſcharge the ſame in due time for their return home, or ſhall ſuffer or connive at his or their Soldiers or Servants (Except ſuch who are ſick or wounded) or any Women to ride in the Wagon, Wain, Carts or Carriage aforeſaid, or ſhall force any Conſtable or Petty Conſtable by threatning and menacing Words to provide Saddle-Horſes for themſelves or Servants, or ſhall force Horſes from the Owners by themſelves, Servants or Soldiers, ſhall for every ſuch offence forfeit the Sum of Five pounds, proof thereof being made upon Oath before two of Their Majeſties Juſtices of the Peace of the ſame County or Riding, who are to certifie the ſame to the Pay-maſter General of Their Majeſties Forces, who is hereby required to pay the aforeſaid Sum of Five pounds, according to the Order and Appointment under the Hands and Seals of the aforeſaid Juſtices of the Peace, who are hereby impowred to deduct the ſame out of ſuch Officers Pay.

Penalty upon Officers quartering Wives, &c.

XXIX. And whereas great abuſes are frequently committed by the liberty taken by ſome Officers and Soldiers to quarter their Wives, Children and Maid Servants in their Quarters, contrary to the purport and meaning of this Act, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Officer, Military or Civil, by this Act authorized to quarter Soldiers in any Houſes hereby appointed for that purpoſe, ſhall at any time during the continuance of this Act, quarter any of the Wives, Children or Maid Servants of Officer or Soldier, in any ſuch Houſes, againſt the conſent of the Owners, the party offending, if Officer or Soldier of the Army, ſhall upon complaint and proof thereof made to the Commander in Chief of the Army, or Judge Advocate, be ipſo facto caſhiered; and if a Conſtable, Tythingman, or other Civil Officer, he ſhall forfeit to the party grieved, the Sum of Twenty ſhillings, upon complaint and proof thereof made to the next Juſtice of Peace of the place, to be levied by Warrant of ſuch Juſtice, by diſtreſs and ſale of his Goods, rendring the overplus to the party, after deduction of reaſonable Charges in taking the ſame.

Penalty upon Officer for his, or his Soldiers deſtroying the Game.

XXX. And foraſmuch as the Game has of late years been very much deſtroyed by the Officers and Soldiers in or near ſuch places as they have been quartered in, Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if from and after the ſaid Tenth day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety two, any Officer or Soldier ſhall without the leave of the Lord of the Mannor under his Hand and Seal firſt had and obtained, take, kill or deſtroy any Hare, Coney, Pheſant, Partridge, Pigeon, or any other ſort of Fowl or Poultrey, or Fiſh, or Their Majeſties Game within the Kingdom of England, and Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and upon complaint thereof, ſhall be upon Oath, of one or more Witneſs or Witneſſes, convicted before any Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace who is, and are hereby impowred and authorized to hear and determine the ſame, (that is to ſay) Every Officer ſo offending, ſhall for every ſuch offence forfeit the Sum of Five pounds, to be diſtributed amongſt the Poor of the place where ſuch offence ſhall be committed; And every Officer commanding in Chief upon the place, for every ſuch offence committed by any Soldier under his Command, ſhall forfeit the Sum of Ten ſhillings, to be paid and diſtributed in like manner as aforeſaid; And in caſe, upon ſuch Conviction made by the Juſtice of Peace, and demand thereof alſo made by the Conſtable or Overſeer of the Poor, ſuch Officer ſhall refuſe or neglect, and not within Two days pay the ſaid reſpective penalties, ſuch Officer ſo refuſing or neglecting, ſhall, and is hereby declared to have forfeited his Commiſſion; And his ſaid Commiſſion is hereby made null and void.

How Accounts are to be kept betwixt Pay-maſter of the Army, and Colonel of every Regiment, &c.

XXXI. And be it Enacted, That there ſhall be an exact account of all Money due according to the Muſter Rolls, to every Regiment in Their Majeſties Service, made upon the Firſt day of July, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety three, or ſix days after, between the Pay-maſter General of the Army for the time being, and Colonel of every ſuch Regiment, or the Agent by ſuch Colonel reſpectively appointed and authorized to receive the Pay thereof from the Firſt of March in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety two, to the laſt of April, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety three, both incluſive, and ſo ſucceſſively from time to time, when Four Months become due an Account ſhall be ſtated, as aforeſaid, for the two preceding Months; And after the ſaid Account ſhall be ſo made up and perfected, it ſhall be Regiſtred in a Book to be kept for that purpoſe in the Pay-Office, and there ſubſcribed by ſuch Pay-maſter General or his Deputy, and the Colonel or Agent of the Regiment, who together with the ſaid Pay-maſter made up the ſame; And a Duplicate thereof by them reſpectively ſigned ſhall be given to the ſaid Colonel or Agent, without any Fee or Reward to be paid for the ſame; Which Colonel or Agent ſhall deliver to each Captain of the Regiment, an Account of ſo much thereof as reſpectively appertaineth to him, and his Troop or Company, and the inferior Officers and Soldiers thereof; And the Ballance which ſhall remain upon making up every ſuch Account, as aforeſaid, and alſo all other Money as ſhall then become due to every ſuch Regiment, ſhall be by the ſaid Pay-maſter General paid to the ſaid Colonel or Agent reſpectively, at ſuch time as His or Her Majeſty ſhall direct; And the Pay-maſter General for the time being offending herein, ſhall loſe and forfeit for every ſuch offence, the Sum of One hundred pounds to any perſon or perſons who will ſue for the ſame in any of Their Majeſties Courts of Record; and if any Deputy of the ſaid Pay-maſter, or any Agent of a Regiment ſhall offend in the premiſſes, upon proof thereof made at a Court Martial, ſuch Deputy or Agent ſhall ipſo facto loſe his place; And if any Colonel of a Regiment ſhall offend therein, ſuch Colonel ſhall forfeit for every ſuch offence the Sum of One hundred pounds to any perſon or perſons who will ſue for the ſame, to be recovered, as aforeſaid.

Penalty for offending.

Warrant to take off Reſpits ſigned by the Treaſurer.

XXXII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Warrant to take off the Reſpits from any Muſter Rolls ſhall be allowed by any Pay-maſter, during the continuance of this Act, unleſs the ſame be Counterſigned by the Lords Commiſſioners of Their Majeſties Treaſury, or Lord High Treaſurer of England for the time being.

intents and purpoſes, as if the ſaid laſt mentioned Act, and all and every the Clauſes, Matters and Things therein contained, had been again repeated in this Act, and enacted particularly; (Except only as to ſuch part of the ſaid Impoſitions, touching which other Proviſions or Alterations are or ſhall be made by any other Act of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, which other Proviſions or Alterations are to be obſerved, and to continue during the continuance of this preſent Act.)

Clauſe of Credit for 500000 l. at 8 per Cent.

V. Provided always, and it is hereby Enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any perſon and perſons, to advance and lend unto Their Majeſties, as well upon the Security of this Act, as of the ſeveral herein before-mentioned Acts, from and after the ſeveral and reſpective Sums, thereupon reſpectively charged, ſhall be fully ſatiſfied and paid, any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Five hundred thouſand Pounds, and to have and receive for the forbearance thereof, any Sum not exceeding Eight pounds by the Hundred, for one whole year, and no more directly or indirectly.

Regiſter to be kept in the Exchequer, giving out Tallies and payment of the money in courſe.

VI. And to the end that all Moneys which ſhall be lent unto Their Majeſties upon the Credit of this Act, and of the before-mentioned Acts, may be well and ſufficiently ſecured out of the Moneys ariſing and payable by this Act, or by any of the ſaid before-mentioned Acts, from and after the ſeveral Sums charged upon the ſaid Acts, or any of them at any time before the Fifth day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety two, ſhall be reſpectively anſwered and paid, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That there ſhall be provided and kept in Their Majeſties Exchequer (that is to ſay) in the Office of the Auditor of Receipts, one Book or Regiſter, in which all Moneys that ſhall be paid into the Exchequer by virtue of this Act, or any of the before mentioned Acts, ſhall be Entred and Regiſtred apart and diſtinct from all Moneys paid or payable to Their Majeſties upon any other branch of Their Majeſties Revenue, or any other account whatſoever. And that all and every perſon and perſons, who ſhall lend any Money to Their Majeſties upon the Credit of this Act, and pay the ſame into the Receipt of the Exchequer, ſhall immediately have a Tally of Loan ſtruck for the ſame, and an Order for his Repayment, bearing the ſame date with his Tally. In which Order ſhall be alſo contained a Warrant for payment of Intereſt for forbearance after the rate ſo to be allowed for the ſame, ſo as ſuch Intereſt do not exceed the rate of Eight pounds per Centum per Annum, for his Conſideration, to be paid every Three months, until Repayment of his Principal; And that all Orders for Repayment of Money ſhall be Regiſtred in courſe, according to the date of the Tally reſpectively, without preference of one before another. And that all and every perſon and perſons ſhall be paid in courſe, according as their Orders ſhall ſtand entred in the ſaid Regiſter Book, ſo as that the perſon, Native or Foreigner, his Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, who ſhall have his Order or Orders firſt Entred in the ſaid Book of Regiſter, ſhall be taken and accounted as the firſt perſon to be paid, upon the Moneys to come in by virtue of this Act, or any the before-mentioned Acts, from and after payment of the ſeveral Sums reſpectively charged upon the ſaid Acts before-mentioned; and he or they who ſhall have his or their Order or Orders next Entred, ſhall be taken and accounted the Second perſon to be paid, and ſo ſucceſſively and in courſe. And that the Moneys to come in by this Act, or by the ſaid former Acts, ſhall be in the ſame Order liable to the ſatisfaction of the ſaid reſpective parties, their Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns ſucceſſively, without preference one before another, and not otherwiſe, and not to be divertible to any other uſe, intent or purpoſe whatſoever. And that no Fee, Reward, or Gratuity, directly or indirectly, be demanded or taken of any of Their Majeſties Subjects, for providing or making of any ſuch Books, Regiſters, Entries, Views or Search in or for payment of Money lent, or the Intereſt, as aforeſaid, by any of Their Majeſties Officer or Officers, their Clerks or Deputies, upon pain of payment of treble Damages to the party grieved by the party offending, with Coſts of Suit, or if the Officer himſelf take or demand any ſuch Fee or Reward, then to loſe his place alſo. And if any undue preference of one before another ſhall be made either in point of Regiſtry or Payment, contrary to the true meaning of this Act, by any ſuch Officer or Officers, then the party offending ſhall be liable by Action of Debt, or on the Caſe, to pay the value of the Debt, Damages and Coſts to the party grieved, and ſhall be forejudged from his Place or Office; And if ſuch preference be unduly made by any his Deputy or Clerk, without direction or privity of his Maſter, then ſuch Deputy or Clerk only ſhall be liable to ſuch Action, Damages and Coſts, and ſhall be for ever after uncapable of his Place or Office; And in caſe the Auditor ſhall not direct the Order, or the Clerk of the Pells Record, or the Teller make payment according to each perſons due place and order, as afore directed, then he or they ſhall be judged to forfeit, and their reſpective Deputies and Clerks herein offending, to be liable to ſuch Action, Debt, Damages and Coſts in ſuch manner, as aforeſaid: All which ſaid Penalties, Forfeitures, Damages and Coſts to be incurred by any of the Officers of the Exchequer, or any their Deputies or Clerks, ſhall and may be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information in any of Their Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoign, Protection, Priviledge, Wager of Law, Injunction or Order of Reſtraint ſhall be in any wiſe granted or allowed.

VII. Provided always, and be it hereby declared, That if it happen that ſeveral Tallies of Loan, or Orders for Payment, as aforeſaid, bear date, or be brought the ſame day to the Auditor of the Receipt to be Regiſtred, then it ſhall be interpreted no undue Preference which of thoſe he Enters firſt, ſo he Enters them all the ſame day.

VIII. Provided

VIII. Provided alſo, That it ſhall not be interpreted any undue preference to incur any penalty in point of payment, if the Auditor direct, and the Clerk of the Pells record, and the Tellers do pay ſubſequent Orders of perſons that come and demand their money, and bring their Orders before other perſons that did not come to demand their moneys, and bring their Orders in their courſe, ſo as there be ſo much money reſerved as will ſatiſfie precedent Orders, which ſhall not be otherwiſe diſpoſed, but kept for them; Intereſt upon Loan being to ceaſe from the time the money is ſo reſerved and kept in Bank for them.

Manner of Tranſferring.

IX. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every perſon or perſons to whom any moneys ſhall be due by virtue of this Act, after Order entred in the Book of Regiſter for payment thereof, his Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns by indorſment of his Order, may aſſign and tranſfer his right, title, intereſt and benefit of ſuch Order, or any part thereof, to any other, which being notified in the Office of the Auditor of Receipts aforeſaid, and an entry and memorial thereof alſo made in the Book of Regiſter aforeſaid, for Orders (which the Officers ſhall upon requeſt, without Fee or Charge, accordingly make) ſhall entitle ſuch Aſſignee his Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns to the benefit thereof, and payment thereon; And ſuch Aſſignee may in like manner aſſign again, and ſo toties quoties, and afterwards it ſhall not be in the power of ſuch perſon or perſons who have, or hath made ſuch Aſſignments to make void, releaſe or diſcharge the ſame, or any the moneys thereby due, or any part thereof.

Five pounds per Cent. upon Eaſt India Stocks.

X. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſeveral Rates and Sums of money herein after mentioned ſhall be anſwered and paid to Their Majeſties, that is to ſay, There ſhall be anſwered to Their Majeſties the Sum of Five pounds for every Hundred pounds of the Joynt Stock of the Eaſt India Company, the ſaid Joynt Stock being valued at the rate of Seven hundred forty four thouſand pounds, the ſame to be paid by the Governour and Treaſurer of the ſaid Eaſt India Company, by four equal Quarterly payments; the firſt payment to be made upon the Five and twentieth day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and three, and to be deducted from the ſeveral perſons intereſted in the ſaid Joynt Stock, according to their ſeveral ſhares and proportions therein, upon their next Dividends.

Twenty ſhillings upon African Shares.

XI. And be it further Enacted, That for every ſhare in the Joynt Stock of the Royal African Company, according as the number of Shares are now reckoned and computed, there ſhall be anſwered and paid to Their Majeſties the Sum of Twenty ſhillings, the ſame to be paid by the Governour and Treaſurer of the ſaid Royal African Company, by four equal quarterly payments, the Firſt payment to be made upon the ſaid Five and twentieth day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and three, and to be deducted according to the ſeveral ſhares and proportions of the Members of the ſaid Company, in the Joynt Stock thereof, upon their next Dividends.

Five pounds upon Hudſons-Bay Shares.

XII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That for every ſhare in the Joynt Stock of the Hudſons-Bay Company, according as the number of ſhares are now reckoned and computed, there ſhall be anſwered and paid to Their Majeſties the Sum of Five pounds, the ſame to be paid by the Governour and Treaſurer of the ſaid Hudſons-Bay Company, by four equal Quarterly payments, the firſt payment to be made upon the ſaid Five and twentieth day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and three, and to be deducted according to the ſeveral ſhares and proportions of the Members of the ſaid Company in the Joynt Stock thereof, upon their next Dividends. And in caſe the Governours and Treaſurers of the ſaid reſpective Companies ſhall make default in payment of the ſaid ſeveral Sums, or any of them reſpectively, charged on the Stocks of the ſaid Companies, at the days and times aforeſaid, according to the true intent of this Act, the Charter of ſuch Company reſpectively, ſhall be, and is hereby adjudged to be void.

Perſon intereſted only to ſwear to Debenture for Rebate.

XIII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, that from and after the Sixth day of April, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and three, no perſon be admitted to ſwear to a Debenture for any Duties to be drawn back upon Re-exportation, but he who is the true Exporter, as being either intereſted in the propriety and hazard of the Goods on the Exportation, or as being employed by Commiſſion, is concerned in the Direction of the Voyage, ſo as to be able to judge that the Goods are really and bona fide exported, and not landed, nor intended to be Re-landed in the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed.

Five hundred pounds penalty upon perſon inſuring to import prohibited Goods, or Goods without Cuſtom.

XIV. And whereas it is found by Experience, That great quantities of Goods are daily Imported from Foreign parts in a fraudulent and clandeſtine manner, without paying the Cuſtoms and Duties due and payable to Their Majeſties, and the ſame hath of late been much increaſed and promoted by Ill men, who, notwithſtanding the Laws already made, do undertake, as Inſurers or otherwiſe, to deliver ſuch Goods ſo clandeſtinely Imported at their charge and hazard, into the Houſes, Ware-houſes, or poſſeſſion of the Owners thereof. For the preventing ſo great a miſchief, be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every perſon or perſons whatſoever, who by way of Inſurance or otherwiſe, ſhall undertake or agree to deliver any Goods or Merchandizes whatſoever, to be imported from parts beyond the Seas, at any Port or place whatſoever within this Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, without paying the Cuſtoms and Duties that ſhall be due and payable for the ſame at ſuch Importation, or any prohibited Goods whatſoever, or in purſuance of ſuch Inſurance, Undertaking or Agreement, ſhall deliver, or cauſe or procure to be delivered any prohibited Goods, or ſhall deliver, or cauſe or procure to be delivered, any Goods or Merchandizes whatſoever, without paying ſuch Duties and Cuſtoms, as aforeſaid, knowing thereof, and all and every their Aiders, Abettors and Aſſiſtants, ſhall for every ſuch Offence forfeit and loſe the Sum of Five hundred Pounds over and above all other Forfeitures and Penalties to which they are liable by any Act already in force.

Five hundred pounds penalty upon Perſon who ſhall be ſo inſured.

XV. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every perſon or perſons whatſoever, who ſhall agree to pay any Sum or Sums of Money for the inſuring or conveying any Goods or Merchandizes that ſhall be ſo imported, without paying the Cuſtoms and Duties due and payable at the Importation thereof, or of any prohibited Goods whatſoever, or ſhall receive or take ſuch prohibited Goods into his or their Houſe, or Warehouſe or other place on Land, or ſuch other Goods, before ſuch Cuſtoms and Duties are paid, knowing thereof, ſhall alſo for every ſuch offence forfeit and loſe the like Sum of Five hundred pounds, the one half of the ſaid Forfeitures to be to Their Majeſties, and the other half to the Informer, or ſuch perſon or perſons as ſhall ſue for the ſame.

Reward to Inſurer, diſcovering.

XIV. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if the Inſurer, Conveyer or Manager of ſuch Fraud be the diſcoverer of the ſame, he ſhall not only keep and enjoy the Inſurance Money or Reward given him, and be diſcharged of the penalties to which he is liable by reaſon of ſuch Offence, but ſhall alſo have to his own uſe one half of the Forfeitures hereby impoſed upon the party or parties making ſuch Inſurance or Agreement, or receiving the Goods, as aforeſaid; And in caſe no diſcovery ſhall be made by the Inſurer, Conveyer or Manager, as aforeſaid, and the party or parties inſured or concerned in ſuch Agreement ſhall make diſcovery thereof, he ſhall recover and receive back ſuch Inſurance Money or Prœmium, as he hath paid upon ſuch Inſurance or Agreement, and ſhall have to his own uſe one moiety of the Forfeitures impoſed upon ſuch Inſurer, Conveyer or Manager, as aforeſaid, and ſhall alſo be diſcharged of the Forfeitures hereby impoſed upon him or them.

Manner of recovering the penalty.

XVII. And be it Enacted, That all the ſaid Penalties and Forfeitures ſhall be recoverable according to the courſe of the Court of Exchequer, in like manner as other penalties and forfeitures in like caſes are recoverable.

XVIII. Provided, That no Penalty hereby inflicted ſhall be recoverable, unleſs the ſame be proſecuted within Twelve months after the time ſuch Fact was committed; Any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Application of the Duties.

XIX. And for preventing Doubts touching the application of Moneys which ſhall accrue to Their Majeſties for the Cuſtom of Prize Goods, Be it declared and directed by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Duties, as well Cuſtoms as Impoſts, and by what Act or Acts ſoever, that ſhall accrue and be payable to Their Majeſties at the Cuſtom-Houſe after the Five and twentieth day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety three, for any Goods or Merchandize taken, condemned and ſold as Prize, ſhall be applied entirely to the Credit of an Act of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, Entituled, An Act for Granting to Their Majeſties certain additional Impoſitions upon ſeveral Goods and Merchandize, for the proſecuting the preſent War againſt France, any other Act to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

CAP. XVI.

An Act to prevent Frauds by Clandeſtine Mortgages.

Preamble.

I. Whereas great Frauds and Deceits are too often practiſed by Neceſſitous and Evil diſpoſed perſons in borrowing of Money, and giving Judgments, Statutes and Recognizanes privately, for ſecuring the re-payment of the ſaid money, and the ſame perſons do afterwards borrow money upon Security of their Lands of other perſons, and do not acquaint the latter Lender thereof with the ſame, whereby ſuch late Lender is very often in danger to loſe his whole money, or forced to pay off the Debts ſecured by the ſaid Judgments, Statutes and Recognizance, before they can have any benefit of the ſaid mortgages. And whereas divers perſons do many times mortgage their Lands more then once, without giving Notice of their firſt mortgage, whereby Lenders of money upon ſecond or after mortgages do often loſe their money, and are put to great charges in Suits and otherwiſe.

Debtor upon Judgment, &c. taking up Money of another upon a Mortgage, without Notice of the Judgment to the Mortgagee, ſhall loſe his Equity to redeem.

II. For remedy whereof, and preventing the ſame as much as may be for the future, Be it Enacted by the King and Queens moſt Excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That if any perſon or perſons from and after the Firſt day of May which ſhall be in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and three, ſhall borrow any money, or for any other valuable Conſideration, for the payment thereof, voluntarily give, acknowledge, permit or ſuffer to be entred againſt him or them, one or more Judgment or Judgments, Statute or Statutes, Recognizance or Recognizances to any perſon or perſons, Creditor or Creditors; And if the ſaid Borrower or Borrowers, Debtor or Debtors, ſhall afterwards take up, or borrow any other Sum or Sums of money of any other perſon or perſons, or for other valuable Conſideration, become indebted to ſuch perſon or perſons, and for ſecuring the re-payment and diſcharge thereof, ſhall mortgage his, her or their Lands or Tenements, or any part thereof, to the ſaid ſecond or other Lender or Lenders of the ſaid money, Creditor or Creditors, or to any other perſon or perſons in Truſt for, or to the uſe of ſuch ſecond or other Lender or Lenders, Creditor or Creditors, and ſhall not give Notice to the ſaid Mortgagee or Mortgagees of the ſaid Judgment or Judgments, Statute or Statutes, Recognizance or Recognizances in writing under his, her or their Hand or Hands before the Execution of the ſaid mortgage or mortgages, unleſs ſuch Mortgager or Mortgagers, his her or their Heirs, upon Notice to him, her or them, given by the Mortgagee or Mortgagees of the ſaid Lands and Tenements, his, her or their Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, in writing under his, her or their Hands and Seals atteſted by two or more ſufficient Witneſſes of any ſuch former Judgment or Judgments, Statute or Statutes, Recognizance or Recognizances, ſhall within Six months pay off and diſcharge the ſaid Judgment or Judgments, Statute or Statutes, Recognizance or Recognizances, and all Intereſt and Charges due thereupon, and cauſe or procure the ſame to be vacated or diſcharged by Record, That then the Mortgager or Mortgagers of the ſaid Lands and Tenements, his, her or their Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, ſhall have no benefit or remedy againſt the ſaid Mortgagee or Mortgagees, his, her or their Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, or any of them, in Equity or elſewhere, for redemption of the ſaid Lands and Tenements, or any part thereof; But the ſaid Mortgagee and Mortgagees, his, her or their Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, ſhall and may hold and enjoy the ſaid Lands and Tenements for ſuch Eſtate and Term therein, as were or was granted and ſetled to the ſaid Mortgagee or Mortgagees againſt the ſaid Mortgager or Mortgagers, and all perſon and perſons lawfully claiming from, by, or under him, her or them, freed from Equity of Redemption, and as fully to all intents and purpoſes whatſoever, as if the ſame had been purchaſed abſolutely and without any power or liberty of Redemption.

Perſon mortgaging twice, without Notice to the ſecond Mortgagee, loſes his Equity.

III. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon or perſons, who have or hath once mortgaged, or from and after the ſaid Firſt day of May ſhall mortgage any Lands or Tenements to any perſon or perſons, for Security of Money lent, or otherwiſe accrued or become due, or for other valuable Conſiderations; And if the ſaid Mortgager or Mortgagers ſhall again mortgage the ſame Lands or Tenements, or any part thereof, to any other perſon or perſons for valuable Conſiderations (the ſaid former mortgage being in force and not diſcharged) and ſhall not diſcover to the ſaid ſecond or other Mortgagee or Mortgagees, or ſome or one of them, the former mortgage or mortgages in writing under his or their hands; That then and in thoſe caſes alſo, the ſaid Mortgager or Mortgagers, his, her or their Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, ſhall have no Relief or Equity of Redemption againſt the ſaid ſecond or after Mortgagee or Mortgagees, his, her or their Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, upon the ſaid after mortgage or mortgages, but that ſuch Mortgagee or Mortgagees, his, her or their Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, ſhall and may hold and enjoy ſuch more then once mortgaged Lands and Tenements, for ſuch Eſtate and Term therein, as were or was granted and conveyed by the ſaid Mortgager or Mortgagers, againſt him, her or them, his, her or their Heirs, Executors or Adminiſtrators reſpectively, freed from Equity of Redemption, and as fully to all intents and purpoſes, as if the ſame had been an abſolute purchaſe, and without any power or liberty of Redemption.

Under-Mortgagees may redeem.

IV. Provided always, and be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That nevertheleſs, if it ſo happen there be more then one mortgage at the ſame time, made by any perſon or perſons, to any perſon or perſons, of the ſame Lands and Tenements, the ſeveral late or under Mortgagees, his, her or their Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, ſhall have power to redeem any former mortgage or mortgages upon payment of the principal Debt, Intereſt and Coſts of Suit, to the prior Mortgagee or Mortgagees, his, her or their Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns; Any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Dower ſaved.

V. Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained ſhall be conſtrued, deemed or extended to bar any Widow of any Mortgager of Lands or Tenements, from her Dower and Right, in or to the ſaid Lands, who did not legally joyn with her Husband in ſuch mortgage, or otherwiſe lawfully bar or exclude her ſelf from ſuch her Dower or Right.

CAP. XVII.

An Act for the Regaining, Encouraging and Setling the Greenland Trade.

Preamble.

I. Whereas the Trade to Greenland and the Greenland Seas, in the fiſhing for Whales there, hath been heretofore a very beneficial Trade to this Kingdom, not only in the employing great number of Seamen and Ships, and conſuming great quantities of Proviſions, but alſo in the bringing into this Nation great quantities of Oyl, Blubber and Fins.

II. And whereas neighbouring Nations do yearly make great advantage thereby, not only ſupplying themſelves with that ſort of Oyl and Fins, but by vending into other parts great quantities thereof, and particularly into this Kingdom, where the ſaid Trade is now quite decayed and loſt.

III. And whereas ſeveral Merchants of this Kingdom did heretofore endeavour to ſettle and regain the ſaid Trade, and for their Encouragement therein, it was by an Act of Parliament made in the Five and twentieth year of the Reign of His late Majeſty King Charles the Second, Entituled, An Act for the Encouragement of the Greenland and Eaſtland Trades, and for the better ſecuring the Plantation Trade, (amongſt other things) Enacted, That in regard there was then great want of Harpinierers and Seamen skilled and exerciſed in the Trade of Whale-fiſhing, it ſhould and might be lawful for any Ship or Veſſel truly belonging to England, Wales, or the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and whereof the Maſter ſhould be an Engliſhman, and inhabiting within the places aforeſaid, from and after the firſt day of May, which was in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſeventy and three, and until the Five and twentieth day of March, which was in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred eighty and three, employed for the catching of Whales, during ſuch Voyage, to be Navigated with one moiety of the Harpinierers, and one moiety of the reſt of the Mariners only Engliſh, and yet to pay no further or other Cuſtom for the Oyl, Blubber or Fins, caught or imported in ſuch Ship or Veſſel, then if ſuch Ship or Veſſel had been Navigated with Three fourths of the Mariners Engliſh; Which ſaid Act was by another Act of Parliament made in the Second year of Their preſent Majeſties Reign, Entituled, An Act for Granting to Their Majeſties a Subſidy of Tonnage and Poundage, and other Sums of Money payable upon Merchandizes Exported and Imported, continued for Four years.

Cap. 7.

Seſſ.1.Cap.4.

IV. And whereas ſeveral Merchants and other perſons of this Kingdom were by the firſt recited Act encouraged to fit out, and ſend to the ſaid Greenland Seas ſome Ships or Veſſels for the catching of Whales, whereby ſome ſmall quantities of Oyl, Blubber and Whale Fins were imported into this Kingdom, but they not being able to carry on the ſaid Trade upon their ſingle or ſeparate Intereſts, in regard that the Neighbouring Nations did yearly ſend far greater numbers of Ships into thoſe Seas, the ſaid Merchants and other perſons of this Kingdom were forced to deſiſt from following the ſaid Trade, which is now wholly ingroſſed by Foreigners; And ſince the expiration and revival of the ſaid Act, there hath not been any Ships ſent from England to the ſaid Greenland Seas, or any Oyl, Blubber, or Whale Fins imported into England, but ſuch as have been bought of Foreigners, whereby great Sums of Money are yearly drawn out of England for thoſe Commodities, and the Rates and Prices which are now paid for the ſame, are now above ſix times more then heretofore they were, and the ſaid Trade having been for above theſe Twelve years laſt paſt wholly loſt to this Kingdom, there are very few, or no Engliſh Harpinierers or Engliſh Seamen skilled and exerciſed in the ſaid Trade of Whale-catching, ſo that the ſaid Trade cannot now be regained to this Kingdom, nor can be carried on by, or without the aſſiſtance of foreign Harpinierers and Seamen, or upon the ſingle Intereſts or Stocks of any particular perſons, or by any other way then by a Joynt Stock.

V. And whereas for the regaining, enlarging and encouraging the ſaid Trade, a Stock of Forty thouſand pounds at the leaſt is a neceſſary Fond to be raiſed, for the regaining and carrying on the ſaid Trade, whereby it may become beneficial to this Kingdom. And whereas Sir William Scawen Knight, Henry Bertie, Robert Hooks, John Skinner, George Boddington, Francis Goſfright, Edmond Prideaux, Edmond Harriſon, John Jurin, Edward Buckley, Benjamin Steele, Mordecai Abbot, Robert Michell, John Gunſton, John Knapp, Thomas Skinner, William Broughton, Robert Briſtow, Robert Hackſhaw, John Bridges, James Boddington, Peter Percivall, Thomas Philips, Charles Michell, Samuell Howard, Samuel Naſh, Benjamin Smith, Nicholas Cutler, Thomas Chambers, Peter Gray, James Ball, Thomas Kett, Humphry Simpſon, Richard Munford, John Plumbe, Richard Cook, Peter Godfrey, Ambroſe Bray, Auguſtine Munford, Joſiah Ordway, Joſeph Paice and Thomas Gunſton, Have undertaken and agreed to raiſe by Subſcriptions amongſt themſelves the ſaid Stock or Fond of Forty thouſand Pounds at leaſt, to be wholly employed in the regaining, managing and carrying on the ſaid Trade; May it pleaſe your moſt Excellent Majeſties, that it may be Enacted:

VI. And be it Enacted by the King and Queens moſt Excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That a Joynt Stock of Forty thouſand Pounds at leaſt, ſhall be raiſed by Subſcriptions by the ſaid Sir William Scawen, Henry Bertie, Robert Hookes, John Skinner, George Boddington, Francis Goſfright, Edmond Prideaux, Edmond Harriſon, John Jurin, Edward Buckley, Benjamin Steel, Mordecai Abbot, Robert Mitchell, John Gunſton, John Knapp, Thomas Skinner, William Broughton, Robert Briſtow, Robert Hackſhaw, John Bridges, James Boddington, Peter Percival, Thomas Phipps, Charles Michell, Samuel Howard, Samuel Naſh, Benjamin Smith, Nicholas Cutler, Thomas Chambers, Peter Gray, James Ball, Thomas Kett, Humphry Simpſon, Richard Munford, John Plumbe, Richard Cook, Peter Godfrey, Ambroſe Bray, Auguſtine Munford, Joſiah Ordway, Joſeph Paice and Thomas Gunſton, on or before the First day of May now next coming, and ſhall be paid to the uſe of the Company eſtabliſhed by this Act, in ſuch manner as by this Act is directed.

Sir William Scawen, &c. made a Corporation by the name of the Greenland Company, and to buy Lands, not exceeding 100 l. per annum.

VII. And for the better regaining, managing and carrying on the ſaid Trade, for the publick good of this Kingdom, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Sir William Scawen, Henry Bertie, Robert Hookes, John Skinner, George Boddington, Francis Goſfright, Edmond Prideaux, Edmond Harriſon, John Jurin, Edward Buckley, Benjamin Steele, Mordecai Abbot, Robert Michell, John Gunſton, John Knapp, Thomas Skinner, William Broughton, Robert Briſtow, Robert Hackſhaw, John Bridges, James Boddington, Peter Percival, Thomas Phipps, Charles Michell, Samuel Howard, Samuel Naſh, Benjamin Smith, Nicholas Cutler, Thomas Chambers, Peter Gray, James Ball, Thomas Kett, Humphrey Simpſon, Richard Munford, John Plumbe, Richard Cook, Peter Godfrey, Ambroſe Bray, Auguſtine Munford, Joſiah Ordway, Joſeph Paice and Thomas Gunſton, and all and every other perſon and perſons, being Natural born Subjects of this Realm, or perſons Naturalized or Endenizend, who ſhall have any ſhare or intereſt in the ſaid Joynt Stock, ſhall be one Body Corporate and Politick, in deed and in name, by the Name of the Company of Merchants of London, Trading to Greenland; And that by the ſame Name of the Company of Merchants of London Trading to Greenland, they ſhall have Succeſſion and a Common Seal, and that they and their Succeſſors by the Name aforeſaid, ſhall be able and capable in Law, and ſhall have perfect power and ability in Law to have, purchaſe, receive, poſſeſs, enjoy and retain to them and their Succeſſors, Lands, Rents, Tenements and Hereditaments, of what kind, nature or quality ſoever, ſo as the ſame exceed not the yearly value of One hundred Pounds; And alſo to ſell, grant, demiſe, alien or diſpoſe of the ſame, and by the ſame Name to ſue and implead, to be ſued and impleaded, anſwer, and be anſwered in any Courts of Record, or other places whatſoever, and to do and execute all and ſingular other matters and things by the Name aforeſaid, that to them ſhall or may appertain to do, and all other things whatſoever, which any other Body Corporate or Politick can or may lawfully do or execute.

The Company may Trade to Greenland, &c.

VIII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Company of Merchants of London Trading to Greenland, and their Succeſſors ſhall, during the Continuance of this Joynt Stock hereby appointed to be raiſed, have, uſe and enjoy the Free Trade and Traffick, and ſhall and may freely traffick and uſe the Trade and Art of Merchandize and catching of Whales by Sea or otherwiſe, to, into and from Greenland, and the Greenland Seas, and to, into and from the ſeveral Ports, Havens and places which are ſituate, lying and being in Greenland and the Greenland Seas, and in all other Seas and places whatſoever (Except in the Seas belonging to Their Majeſties Colonies and Plantations in America,) and to, and from all and every of them, without any Hinderance Interruption, Denial or Diſturbance whatſoever, any Statute, Uſage, or other Cauſe or Matter whatſoever to the contrary notwithſtanding.

IX. And be it further Enacted, That a Governour, Deputy Governour and Sixteen Committees of the ſaid Company, ſhall be Elected and Choſen in manner as hereafter is Appointed, who ſhall have the Management and Direction of the ſaid Trade, and of the Voyages and Affairs of the ſaid Company.

A Governour, &c. to be choſen.

X. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That a Book for Subſcriptions ſhall be provided within Ten days after the paſſing of this Act, by the firſt Five of the aforenamed perſons, or any Three of them: In which ſaid Book ſhall be Subſcribed on or before the ſaid Firſt day of May now next coming, by all the perſons in this Act before named, or the Survivors of them, the ſaid Joynt Stock, which ſhall not be leſs then Forty thouſand pounds; And that each of the ſaid Subſcribers ſhall not Subſcribe leſs then Five hundred pounds, nor more then Two thouſand pounds.

A Book of Subſcriptions and each Subſcriber muſt Subſcribe 500 l.

XI. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every the ſaid perſons ſo as aforeſaid, ſubſcribing, ſhall on or before the ſaid Firſt day of May now next coming, actually and bona fide pay down unto ſuch perſon or perſons as the ſaid perſons herein before named, or the major part of them ſhall nominate and appoint, one full and entire Fourth part of the ſeveral Sums of Money by each of them reſpectively ſubſcribed to the ſaid Joynt Stock, and ſhall alſo pay the Remainder thereof at ſuch times, and in ſuch manner as ſhall be Directed and Appointed from time to time by the Governour or Deputy Governour and Court of Committees of the ſaid Company for the time being, ſo as the whole Sum to be ſubſcribed, be paid within four years next after the ſaid Firſt day of May.

Money ſubſcribed how and when to be paid.

XII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every perſon and perſons, making default in any of the ſaid payments, ſhall immediately from and after ſuch default, have or enjoy no further or other Benefit or Advantage by ſuch Subſcription, then according and in Proportion to ſuch Sum or Sums of Money only, which ſuch perſon or perſons ſhall have actually and really paid into the ſaid Joynt Stock as aforeſaid.

Defalters to loſe of the Subſcription of above what is actually paid.

XIII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every perſon or perſons who ſhall make default in paying any Part or Proportion of ſuch his Subſcription, in ſuch manner as by this Act is Appointed, ſhall forfeit and loſe to the Uſe and Benefit of the Adventurers in the ſaid Joynt Stock, after the Rate of Ten pounds for every One hundred pounds of ſuch Sum or Sums which he or they ſhall ſo neglect or omit to pay in as aforeſaid, to be deducted out of the Money paid in by ſuch perſon making default as aforeſaid.

Defaulters to forfeit 10 l. per Cent. of what they have paid.

XIV. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That before the Five and twentieth day of May now next coming, any Thirteen of them the ſaid perſons, herein before named, ſhall Summon and Call together a General Court of all the ſaid Subſcribers, and of all and every other perſon and perſons who ſhall then have any Share or Intereſt in the ſaid Joint Stock, who ſhall and may quietly and freely aſſemble themſelves, and meet together at the time and place ſo appointed, and then and there at their Will and Pleaſure, Name, Chooſe and Elect one fit perſon who ſhall have ſubſcribed One thouſand pounds or upwards to the ſaid Joynt Stock, and actually paid in one fourth part thereof as aforeſaid, to be Governour of the ſaid Company: And one other fit perſon in like manner, who ſhall have ſubſcribed the Sum of One thouſand pounds to the ſaid Joynt Stock, and actually paid in one fourth part thereof as aforeſaid, to be Deputy Governour of the ſaid Company: And alſo Sixteen other fit perſons in like manner, each of them having ſeverally Subſcribed the Sum of Five hundred pounds or upwards to the ſaid Joynt Stock, and ſeverally paid in one fourth part thereof as aforeſaid, to be Committees of the ſaid Company. The ſaid Governour, Deputy Governour and Committees, to continue in their reſpective Offices and Places, until the Twentieth day of October, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and four.

Choice of Governour and Deputy Governour and ſixteen Committees.

XV. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Governour and Deputy Governour of the ſaid Company for the time being, before they be admitted to the Execution of their reſpective Offices or Places of Governour and Deputy Governour, ſhall take the following Oath, viz.

Oath to be taken by Governour and Deputy Governour.

YOU Swear, That you ſhall Aſſiſt, and with all your Power Support and Maintain the Company of Merchants of London Trading to Greenland, and the Priviledges of the ſame, having no reſpect to your ſelf, in Derogation, Hindrance or Prejudice of the Good Government, Order and Common Weal thereof. The By-Laws and Ordinances which ſhall be made by Authority of this Company, and which are not Repugnant to the Laws of this Kingdom, you ſhall uprightly and duly Execute according to your Knowledge thereof. And to every perſon you ſhall miniſter upright Juſtice. And you ſhall not Engage or Oblige the ſaid Company in any wiſe, as Governour or Deputy Governour of the ſaid Company, without Agreement and Conſent of the Court of Committees of the ſaid Company,

So help you Almighty God.

XVI. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every one of the ſaid Sixteen Committees of the ſaid Company for the time being, before they be admitted to the Execution of their ſaid reſpective Offices or Places of Committees, ſhall take the following Oath, viz.

Oath of Committees.

YOU Swear to be Faithful and True, during the time of your Place of Truſt, as one of the Committees to the Company of Merchants of London Trading to Greenland, and their Succeſſors. The Good Eſtate of the Adventurers in this preſent Joynt Stock you ſhall Favour and Affect, and the Priviledges Granted unto them (to your Power) Endeavour to Maintain and Preſerve. You ſhall be careful to ſee and provide that an equal and indifferent Hand be carried in the Government of the Company, and in the Affairs thereof, to all the Adventurers that ſhall Adventure or put in Stock: And that an equal Diviſion from time to time be made to all the Adventurers, according to the Proportion of their ſeveral Stocks duly paid in,

So help you God.

CAP. XVIII.

An Act to Prevent Malicious Informations in the Court of Kings-Beneh, and for the more eaſie Reverſal of Outlaries in the ſame Court.

Preamble.

I. WHereas divers Malicious and Contentious perſons have more of late then in times paſt, procured to be exhibited and proſecuted Informations in their Majeſties Court of Kings-Bench at Weſtminſter, againſt perſons in all the Counties of England, for Treſpaſſes, Batteries, and other Miſdemeanors, and after the parties ſo informed againſt have appeared to ſuch Informations, and pleaded to Iſſue, the Informers do very ſeldom proceed any further, whereby the perſons ſo informed againſt are put to great Charges in their Defence; And although at the Tryals of ſuch Informations Verdicts are given for them, or a Noli proſequi be Entred againſt them, they have no remedy for obtaining Coſts againſt ſuch Informers. And whereas divers perſons are proſecuted in the ſaid Court of Kings-Bench to Outlaries for Debts, Treſpaſſes, and other Miſdemeanors, and there is no Reverſing ſuch Outlaries but by the perſonal appearance of the perſons Outlawed, ſo that the perſon Arreſted upon ſuch Outlaries (if Poor) lye in Priſon till their Deaths, but if able, it coſts them very dear to Reverſe the ſame Outlaries.

Clerk of the Crown to exhibit no Information for Crimes abovementioned except by Order of Court, nor iſſue proceſs till proſecutor has given 20 l. recognizance to proſecute.

II. For remedy whereof, Be it Enacted by the King and Queens moſt Excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament Aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the Firſt day of Aaſter Term, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and three, the Clerk of the Crown in the ſaid Court of Kings-Bench for the time being, ſhall not without expreſs Order, to be given by the ſaid Court in open Court, Exhibit, Receive or File any Information for any of the Cauſes aforeſaid, or Iſſue out any Proceſs thereupon, before he ſhall have taken, or ſhall have delivered to him a Recognizance from the perſon or perſons procuring ſuch Information, to be Exhibited with the place of his, her, or their Abode, Title or Profeſſion, to be entred to the perſon or perſons againſt whom ſuch Information or Informations, is or are to be exhibited in the penalty of Twenty pounds that he, ſhe, or they will effectually proſecute ſuch Informations or Information, and abide by, and obſerve ſuch Orders, as the ſaid Court ſhall direct, which Recognizance the ſaid Clerk of the Crown, and alſo every Juſtice of the Peace of any County, City, Franchiſe, or Town Corporate, (where the Cauſe of any ſuch Information ſhall ariſe) are hereby impowred to take; After the taking whereof by the ſaid Clerk of the Crown, or the Receipt thereof from any Juſtice of the Peace, the ſaid Clerk of the Crown ſhall make an Entry thereof upon Record, and ſhall File a Memorandum thereof in ſome publick place in his Office, that all perſons may reſort thereunto without Fee; And in caſe any perſon or perſons againſt whom any Information or Informations for the Cauſes aforeſaid, or any of them, ſhall be exhibited, ſhall

Memorandum in the Office Defendant ſhall have Coſts if cauſe not tryed within one year after Iſſue joyned, &c.

Appear thereunto, and plead to Iſſue, and that the Proſecutor or Proſecutors of ſuch Information or Informations, ſhall not at his and their own proper Coſts and Charges within one whole year next after Iſſue joyned therein procure the ſame to be tryed; Or if upon ſuch Tryal a Verdict paſs for the Defendant or Defendants, or in caſe the ſaid Informer or Informers procure a Noli proſequi to be entred, Then in any of the ſaid Caſes the ſaid Court of Kings-Bench is hereby Authorized to Award to the ſaid Defendant and Defendants, his, her, or their Coſts, unleſs the Judge, before whom ſuch Information ſhall be tryed, ſhall at the Tryal of ſuch Information, in open Court, Certifie upon Record, that there was a reaſonable cauſe for exhibiting ſuch Information; And in caſe the ſaid Informer or Informers ſhall not within Three Months next after the ſaid Coſts taxed, and demand made thereof, pay to the ſaid Defendant or Defendants the ſaid Coſts, then the ſaid Defendant and Defendants ſhall have the benefit of the ſaid Recognizance, to compel them thereunto.

Defendants remedy for Coſts.

III. And for the more eaſie and ſpeedy reverſing of Outlaries in the ſaid Court, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Firſt day of Eaſter Term, no perſon or perſons whatſoever, who are or ſhall be Outlawed in the ſaid Court for any Cauſe, Matter or Thing whatſoever (Treaſon and Felony only excepted) ſhall be compelled to come in perſon into, or appear in perſon in the ſaid Court to Reverſe ſuch Outlary, but ſhall or may appear by Attorney, and Reverſe the ſame without Bail in all Caſes (Except where Special Bail ſhall be Ordered by the ſaid Court.)

Outlawry may be reverſed by Attorney except in Treaſon and Felony.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon or perſons Outlawed, or hereafter to be Outlawed in the ſaid Court (other then for Treaſon and Felony) ſhall from and after the ſaid Firſt day of Eaſter Term, be taken and arreſted upon any Capias Utlagatum out of the ſaid Court, It ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Sheriff or Sheriffs who hath or ſhall have taken and arreſted ſuch perſon and perſons (in all Caſes where Special Bail is not required by the ſaid Court) to take an Attorneys engagement under his Hand to appear for the ſaid Defendant or Defendants, and to Reverſe the ſaid Outlaries, and thereupon to diſcharge the ſaid Defendant and Defendants from ſuch Arreſts: And in thoſe Caſes where Special Bail is required by the ſaid Court, the ſaid Sheriff and Sheriffs ſhall and may take Security of the ſaid Defendant or Defendants by Bond, with one or more ſufficient Surety or Sureties in the penalty of double the Sum for which Special Bail is required, and no more, for his, her or their Appearance by Attorney in the ſaid Court at the return of the ſaid Writ, and to do and perform ſuch things as ſhall be required by the ſaid Court, and after ſuch Bond taken, to diſcharge the ſaid Defendant and Defendants from the ſaid Arreſts.

Perſons taken upon Capias Utlag. in Common Bayl-Caſes, diſcharged by an Attorneys engagement to appear in Special Bayl-Caſes, giving Bond with Sureties to appear.

V. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon or perſons, Outlawed as aforeſaid, and taken and arreſted upon a Capias Utlagatum, ſhall not be able within the return of the ſaid Writ, to give Security as aforeſaid, in Caſes where Special Bail is required, ſo as he or they are committed to Gaol for default thereof, that whenſoever the ſaid Priſoner or Priſoners ſhall find ſufficient Security to the Sheriff or Sheriffs, in whoſe Cuſtody he or they ſhall be, for his or their Appearance by Attorney in the ſaid Court, at ſome return in the Term then next following, to Reverſe the ſaid Outlary or Outlaries, and to do and perform ſuch other thing and things as ſhall be required by the ſaid Court, It ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Sheriff and Sheriffs, after ſuch Security taken, to diſcharge and ſet at liberty the ſaid Priſoner and Priſoners for the ſame; Any Law or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Perſon taken as before ſhall be diſcharged giving Security after return of the Writ.

VI. Provided that nothing in this Act relating to Informations ſhall extend or be conſtrued to extend to any other Informations then ſuch as are or ſhall be exhibited in the name of Their Majeſties Coroner or Attorney in the Court of King-Bench for the time being, (commonly called the Maſter of the Crown-office) any thing in the ſaid Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

This Act only extends to Informations by Maſter of Crown office.

VII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That upon the Demiſe of any King or Queen of this Realm, all Pleas to Informations in the ſaid Court ſhall ſtand, and be good in Law, without calling Defendants to plead again to the ſame, unleſs the Defendants deſire ſo to do, and make requeſt to the ſaid Court for that purpoſe within Five Months next after ſuch Demiſe; Any Law or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Defendants (except deſiring) not to plead anſwer upon the King's Demiſe.

CAP. XIX.

An Act for Preventing Suits againſt ſuch as acted for Their Majeſties Service in Defence of the Kingdom.

I. Whereas in this preſent year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and two, it was notoriouſly known that there was great preparations for an Invaſion intended from France, the Lords of the Council, and thoſe that have acted by their Authority, having apprehended and impriſoned ſeveral ſuſpected perſons, and ſeized and uſed Horſes and Arms, and cauſed ſome part of the Milita of this Kingdom to be raiſed, continued and maintained, otherwiſe then is Authorized by the Acts made in the Reign of King Charles the Second in that behalf, and to march and be quartered in divers places upon that occaſion: That thoſe proceedings in that extraordinary Juncture, and the parties concerned therein may be indemnified; therefore and for the preventing the trouble and charges which the ſaid good Subjects might be put to by the proſecution of their Majeſties, their Heirs and Succeſſors, or by the means of Suits of any perſon whatſoever, for and by reaſon of their actings and doings aforeſaid, Preamble. To Indemnifie Lords of the Council, &c. acting beyond their power in defence of the Kingdom.

II. Be it Enacted by the King and Queens moſt Excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That all perſonal Actions, Suits, Indictments, Informations, and other Proſecutions whatſoever, for or by reaſon of the Premiſſes, be, and are hereby diſcharged and made void. And if any Action or Suit hereby declared to be diſcharged, hath been, or ſhall be commenced or proſecuted, every perſon ſo ſued may plead the general Iſſue,

All Actions againſt them for acting void.

Defendant plead general Iſſue and have double Coſts.

and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence: And if the Plaintiff become Nonſuit, or forbear further Proſecution, or ſuffer diſcontinuance, or if a Verdict paſs againſt him, the ſaid Defendant ſhall recover his double coſts, for which he ſhall have the like remedy, as in caſe where Coſts by Law are given to Defendants.

CAP. XX.

An Act for the better Diſcovery of Judgments in the Courts of Kings-Bench, Common-Pleas, and Exchequer at Weſtminſter.

Preamble.

I. WHereas great Miſchiefs and Damages happen, and come, as well to perſons in their Life times, but more often to their Heirs, Executors and Adminiſtrators, and alſo to Purchaſers and Mortgagees by Judgments entred upon Record in their Majeſties Courts at Weſtminſter, againſt the perſons Defendants, by reaſon of the difficulty there is in finding out ſuch Judgments.

Judgments to be Doggeted.

II. For remedy whereof, Be it Enacted by the King and Queens moſt Excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament Aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the Clerk of the Eſſoigns of the Court of Common-Pleas, every Clerk of the Doggets of the Court of Kings-Bench, and the Maſter of the Office of Pleas in the Court of Exchequer for the time being, ſhall, before the laſt day of Eaſter Term next coming, and ſo in every Eaſter Term after, make, or cauſe to be made and put into an Alphabetical Dogget by the Defendants names, a particular of all Judgments for Debt, by Confeſſion, Non ſum Informatus, or Nihil dicit, Entred in the ſaid reſpective Courts, of the Term of St. Hillary preceding, which ſhall contain the name and names of the Plaintiff and Plaintiffs, the name and names of the Defendant and Defendants, his, her or their place or places of Abode, and Title, Trade or Profeſſion (if any ſuch be in the Record of the ſaid Judgment) and the Debt, Damages and Coſts recovered thereby; and in what County, City or Town the reſpective Actions were laid, and the Number-Roll of the Entry thereof; And alſo that every Clerk of the Judgments, and every other Clerk of the ſaid Court of Common-Pleas, and King's-Bench reſpectively, ſhall, within ten days before the time aforeſaid, bring to the reſpective Clerks of the Doggets of the ſaid reſpective Courts, Notes in writing of all the Judgments, by them and every of them reſpectively entred, of the ſaid Term of St. Hillary, upon Verdicts, Writs of Inquiry, Demurrer, and every other Judgment for Debt or Damages in all things, as aforeſaid; And alſo that the Clerk of the Judgments, and every other Clerk of the ſaid Court of Exchequer, ſhall within the times aforeſaid, bring to the ſaid Maſter of the ſaid Office of Pleas, the like note in writing of all the like Judgments, by him and them reſpectively entred, of the ſaid Term in all things as aforeſaid, to the end the ſame may be (by the Clerk of the Eſſoigns of the ſaid Court of Common-Pleas, the Clerk of the Doggets of the ſaid Court of Kings-Bench, and Maſter of the Office of Pleas) reſpectively entred in the reſpective Doggets before mentioned, in manner and form aforeſaid; And alſo that the reſpective Officers and Clerks of the ſaid reſpective Courts, ſhall likewiſe before the laſt day of the Term of St. Michael alſo next coming, and in every Michaelmas Term after, make, or cauſe to be made as aforeſaid, the like Dogget, containing all ſuch Judgments in the ſaid reſpective Courts, of the reſpective Terms of Eaſter and Trinity then laſt paſt, and the names of the Plaintiffs and Defendants, Titles and Additions, Debt and Damages in all things as aforeſaid; And alſo that the ſaid reſpective Officers and Clerks of the ſaid reſpective Courts, ſhall likewiſe before the laſt day of the Term of St. Hillary, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and three, and ſo in every Hillary Term after, make, or cauſe to be made, the like Dogget, containing all ſuch Judgments in the ſaid reſpective Courts, of the Term of St. Michael then laſt paſt, with the names of the Plaintiffs and Defendants, Titles and Additions, Debt and Damages in all things as aforeſaid: And that the ſaid reſpective Doggets ſhall be fairly put into, and kept in Books in Parchment in the reſpective Offices of the reſpective Officers, before named, to be ſearched and viewed by all perſons at all reaſonable times, paying to the reſpective Officers, in whoſe keeping the ſaid Books reſpectively ſhall be, for every Terms ſearch for Judgments againſt any one perſon, four pence and no more, upon pain that every Clerk of Eſſoigns of the Court of Common-Pleas, Clerk of the Doggets of the Kings-Bench, and Maſter of the Office of Pleas in the Court of Exchequer, Clerks of the Judgments, and every Clerk, before mentioned, reſpectively, ſhall, for every Term in which he ſhall omit or neglect to do his duty in the premiſſes, Forfeit the Sum of One hundred pounds; The one moiety to the party or parties agrieved, and the other moiety to him or them who ſhall Sue for the ſame, in any of their Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Priviledge or Eſſoign, or Protection of Law ſhall be admitted, nor any more then one imparlance.

Fee for ſearch

Penalty.

Judgments not Doggeted ſhall not affect Purchaſers, &c.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That no Judgment not Doggetted and entred in the Books as aforeſaid, ſhall affect any Lands or Tenements as to Purchaſers or Mortgagees, or have any preference againſt Heirs, Executors or Adminiſtrators in their Adminiſtration of their Anceſtors Teſtators or Inteſtates Eſtates.

Fee to the Clerk of the Judgments.

IV. And whereas the Clerks of the Judgments of the ſaid reſpective Courts are to be at great charge and trouble in the execution of this Act, for recompence whereof, Be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that hereafter there ſhall be paid by the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in every of the ſaid Judgments upon Verdicts, Writs of Enquiry, Demurrer, and every other Judgment by them reſpectively to be entred, over and above the Fees now due for the ſame, the Sum of four pence and no more.

Continue one year.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That this Act ſhall continue and be in force for one year, from the five and twentieth day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and three, and from thence to the end of the next Seſſion of Parliament, and no longer. CAP. XXI.

An Act for delivering Declarations to Priſoners.

Preamble.

Whereas by the Courſe of Practice in the reſpective Courts of Record at Weſtminſter after the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in any Writ Iſſued out of any of the ſaid Courts, have been at great Charge to Arreſt the Defendant or Defendants upon ſuch Writ, and the Defendant or Defendants for want of ſufficient Bail, are often Committed to Goal, and unleſs the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs ſhall, before the End of Two Terms next after ſuch Arreſt, cauſe ſuch Defendant or Defendants, by Writ of Habeas Corpus, to be removed, to be charged in the ſaid reſpective Courts with declarations of the cauſe of ſuch action or actions, ſuch priſoner or priſoners, are upon a common bail or appearance by Attorney, diſcharged from their Impriſonment, to the great prejudice of the Plaintiffs;

Priſoner in Cuſtody how Charged.

II. For remedy whereof, Be it enacted by the King and Queens moſt Excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That if now, or at any time after the Five and twentieth day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and three, any Defendant or Defendants be taken or charged in cuſtody at the ſuit of any perſon or perſons, upon any writ or writs out of any of the ſaid Courts at Weſtminſter, and impriſoned or detained in priſon for want of ſureties for their appearance to the ſame, the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, in ſuch writ or writs, ſhall and may, by virtue of this Act, before the end of the next Term after ſuch writ or proceſs ſhall be returnable, declare againſt ſuch priſoner or priſoners in the reſpective Court or Courts out of which the writ or writs ſhall iſſue; Whereupon the ſaid priſoner or priſoners ſhall be taken and impriſoned or charged in cuſtody, and ſhall or may cauſe a true copy thereof to be delivered to ſuch priſoner or priſoners, or to the Goaler or Keeper of the priſon, or Goaler in whoſe cuſtody ſuch priſoner ſhall be or remain: To which declaration or declarations the ſaid priſoner or priſoners ſhall appear and plead; And if ſuch priſoner or priſoners ſhall not appear and plead to the ſame, the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in ſuch caſes ſhall have Judgment as if the priſoner or priſoners had appeared in the ſaid reſpective Courts, and refuſed to anſwer or plead to ſuch declaration.

In the Kings-Bench Declaration muſt be in Cuſtodia Sheriff, &c.

III. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in all declarations againſt any priſoner or priſoners, detained in priſon by virtue of any writ or proceſs, iſſued or to be iſſued out of the Court of Kings-Bench, it ſhall be alledged in cuſtody of what Sheriff, Bayliff or Steward of any Franchiſe, or other perſon having the return and execution of Writs, ſuch priſoner or priſoners ſhall be at the time of ſuch declaration by virtue of the proceſs of the ſaid Court, at the ſuit of the Plaintiffs: Which allegation ſhall be as good and effectual to all intents and purpoſes, as if ſuch priſoner or priſoners were in the cuſtody of the Marſhal of the Marſhalſea of our Sovereign Lord and Lady, the King and Queen.

CAP. XXII.

An Act for Regulating Proceedings in the Crown Office of the Court of Kings-Bench at Weſtminſter:

Preamble.

Perſons having grants by Charter and have inrolled them not bound to plead them to an inquiſition.

For Rectifying the Proceedings in the Crown Office in their Majeſties Court of Kings-Bench; and for the greater Eaſe of all their Majeſties Subjects who ſhall hereafter be Proſecuted in the ſame, Be it Enacted by the King and Queens moſt excellent Majeſties, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament Aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That no Corporation, Lord or Lords of Manors, or other perſon or perſons, having Grants by Charter, or other good Conveyances, who have Inrolled, and had the ſame allowed, in and by the ſaid Court, ſhall hereafter be compelled to plead the ſame, to any Inquiſition returned by any Coroner, any cuſtom or uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding: And if there be any Corporations, Lord or Lords of Manors, or other perſon or perſons, who now have, or hereafter ſhall have ſuch Charters or Grants, from the Crown, for Felons Goods, Deodands, and other Forfeitures, ſuch Corporations, Lords of Manors, and other perſons, ſhall not be compelled to Inrol their whole Charters and Grants, but bringing the ſame to the Clerk of the Crown of the ſaid Court, he ſhall Inrol and Enter upon record ſo much thereof, as may expreſs and ſet forth the Grants of ſuch Felons Goods, Deodands and Forfeitures, and no more, for doing whereof, he ſhall have and receive twenty ſhillings for his fee and entry thereof, and no more; And from and after ſuch Inrolment, no Corporation, Lord of Manor, or other perſon or perſons, grantees of ſuch Goods or Forfeitures, ſhall be compelled to plead the ſame in the ſaid Court, to any Inquiſition thereafter, filed therein, touching any Goods found thereby, any uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

So much of grants hereafter of Felons &c. as may expreſs the grant to be entred by Clerk of the Crown.

Fee Twenty Shillings.

After ſuch entry Grantee diſcharged from pleading the grant to inquiſition.

Penalty upon Clerk of the Crown Iſſuing proceſs after ſuch entry.

II. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Clerk of the Crown of the ſaid Court, ſhall hereafter iſſue out any proceſs againſt any Corporation, Lord of Manor, or other perſon or perſons Grantees of ſuch Felons Goods, Deodands, and other Forfeitures, after Inrolment or Entry, as aforeſaid, the ſaid clerk of the Crown ſhall for every offence forfeit and pay to the corporation, or party grieved thereby, the ſum of five pounds, to be recovered by bill, plaint or information, in any of their Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no eſſoign, priviledge, protection, or wager of Law ſhall be admitted, nor any more then one Imparlance.

Clerk of the Crown not puniſhable for iſſuing Proceſs againſt Heirs, &c. till they have entred or pleaded their Title.

III. And whereas divers perſons, having Grants of Felons Goods and Deodands, and Inrolled and Pleaded, as aforeſaid, do many times alien and convey their Intereſts therein to other perſon or perſons, or by their laſt Wills do deviſe the ſame, or by their deaths ſuch Eſtates do deſcend to their Heirs, whereby the Clerk of the Crown of the ſaid Court is rendred uncapable to diſcern where ſuch Intereſt lies, until the perſon or perſons, to whom ſuch Eſtates are conveyed, deviſed or deſcended, ſhall come into the ſaid Court, and make entry of ſuch their claim, as aforeſaid, Be it therefore hereby further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Clerk of the Crown of the ſaid Court for the time being, nor any ſucceeding Clerk there ſhall incur any penalty mentioned in this Act, for iſſuing proceſs, againſt any perſon or perſons, who ſhall not upon every purchaſe of the Title of ſuch Felons Goods, and Deodands, Inrol and plead the ſame purchaſe in the ſaid Court, nor againſt any Deviſee of the like Eſtate, who ſhall not likewiſe Inrol or Plead ſuch deviſe, nor againſt any Heir, who ſhall not in like manner Inrol his or her right by deſcent to the ſame, and until after ſuch pleas have been allowed of, and approved by the ſaid Court, nor whereby any inqueſt of any Coroner or Coroners, the goods of any Felon or Felons, or deodands, ſhall be by ſuch inqueſt, not found to be in the hands of ſuch Purchaſer, Deviſee or Heir, or their reſpective Officer or Officers in truſt for them reſpectively.

A Proclamation at the time of the Exigent in criminal caſes to be delivered three months before return.

IV. And whereas it is agreeable to juſtice, That Proceedings to outlaries in Criminal cauſes ſhould be as publick and notorious as in Civil cauſes, becauſe the conſequences to perſons outlawed in Criminal cauſes, are more fatal and dangerous to them and their poſterities, then in any other cauſes; Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That upon the iſſuing of any Exigent out of any of their Majeſties Courts, againſt any perſon or perſons for any Criminal matter, before Judgment or Conviction, there ſhall alſo iſſue a Writ of Proclamation bearing the ſame teſt and return to the Sheriff or Sheriffs of the county, city, or town corporate, where the perſon or perſons, in the record of the ſaid proceedings, is or are mentioned to be or inhabit, according to the form of the Statute made in the one and thirtieth year of the Reign of the late Queen Elizabeth of bleſſed memory, which Writ of Proclamation ſhall be delivered to the ſaid Sheriff or Sheriffs, three months before the return of the ſame.

Cap. 3.

Act continues three years.

V. Provided always, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That this Act ſhall continue and be in force for three years from the five and twentieth day of March, one thouſand ſix hundred ninety three, and from thence to the end of the next Seſſion of Parliament, and no longer.

CAP. XXIII.

An Act for the more eaſie diſcovery and conviction of ſuch as ſhall deſtroy the Game of this Kingdom.

Preamble.

Whereas divers good and neceſſary Laws have been heretofore made for the better preſervation of the Game, notwithſtanding which Laws, or for want of the due execution thereof, the Game of this Kingdom hath been very much deſtroyed by many idle perſons, who afterwards betake themſelves to Robberies, Burglaries, or other like Offences, and neglect their lawful employments.

Laws againſt Game not hereby repealed to be executed.

II. For remedy whereof, and the more effectual preſervation of the Game, Be it Enacted by the King and Queens moſt Excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That all and every Law and Statute now in force for the better preſervation of the Game, and every article and thing in them contained, and not herein, and hereby altered or repealed, ſhall be duly put in execution according to the tenor of the ſaid Laws, and under the penalties therein contained, to be raiſed, levied and diſpoſed of, as in and by the ſaid laws are directed.

Conſtable by Warrant from a Juſtice may ſearch houſes of ſuſpected perſons.

3 & 4 W & M Cap. 10.

If Hare, &c. be found and Owner cannot give good Account, he ſhall be convicted by a Juſtice.

Penalty upon Conviction, and manner of Levying.

III. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That for the more eaſie conviction of ſuch Offenders, as by the ſaid Laws are prohibited, every Conſtable, Headborough, and Tythingman, being thereunto Authorized by Warrant of one or more Juſtice of the Peace, under his or their hands and ſeals, ſhall and may have full power and authority, and is hereby required to enter into and ſearch (in ſuch manner, and with ſuch power as in and by An Act for the more effectual diſcovery and puniſhment of Deer Stealers, made in the third and fourth years of their preſent Majeſties Reign is provided, in caſe of Veniſon or Skin of any Deer or Toyles) the houſe or houſes, outhouſes or other places belonging to ſuch houſes of ſuſpected perſons not qualified, as aforeſaid: And in caſe any Hare, Partridge, Pheaſant, Pidgeon, Fiſh, Fowl, or other Game, ſhall (upon ſuch ſearch or otherwiſe) be found, the Offender ſhall be carried before ſome Juſtice of Peace of the ſame County, Riding or Diviſion; And if ſuch perſon do not give a good account how he came by ſuch Hare, Partridge, Pheaſant, Pidgeon, Fiſh, Fowl, or other Game, ſuch as ſhall ſatisfie the ſaid Juſtice, or elſe ſhall not in ſome convenient time, to be ſet by the ſaid Juſtice, produce the Party of whom he bought the ſame, or ſome other credible perſon to depoſe upon oath ſuch ſale thereof, That then ſuch perſon not giving ſuch good account, nor producing any ſuch Witneſs, as aforeſaid, ſhall be convicted by the ſaid Juſtice of ſuch Offence, and upon ſuch conviction ſhall forfeit for every Hare, Partridge, Pheaſant, Pidgeon, Fiſh, Fowl, or other Game, any Sum not under five ſhillings, and not exceeding the Sum of twenty ſhillings, to be aſcertained by the ſaid Juſtice, one moiety thereof to be paid to the Informer, and the other moiety to the Poor of the Pariſh where the Offence was committed, the ſame to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of the Offenders goods, by warrant under the hand and ſeal of the Juſtice before whom the Offender ſhall be convicted, rendring the overplus, if any be; And for want of diſtreſs, the Offender or Offenders ſhall be committed to the houſe of correction, for any time not exceeding one month, and not leſs then ten days, there to be whipt, and kept to hard labour; And in caſe any perſon or perſons not qualified by the Laws of this Realm ſo to do, ſhall have, keep, or uſe any Bows, Greyhounds, Setting-Dogs, Ferrits, Coney-Dogs, Hayes, Lurchers, Nets, Tunnels, Lowbels, Hare-Pipes, Snares, or any other Inſtruments for deſtruction of Fiſh, Fowl, or other Game, and ſhall be thereof convicted upon ſuch evidence, as aforeſaid, the perſon or perſons ſo convicted, ſhall forfeit and be ſubject to the ſame pains and penalties, as are hereby directed to be inflicted upon the perſon or perſons who ſhall be found to have any Hare, Partridge, Pheaſant, Pidgeon, Fiſh, Fowl, or other Game, as aforeſaid; and if any perſon or perſons ſo produced or charged with the ſaid Offence, ſhall not before the ſame Juſtice give ſuch evidence of his innocence, as aforeſaid, he ſhall be convicted thereof, in the ſame manner as the perſon or perſons firſt charged therewith is hereby directed to be, and ſo from perſon to perſon, until the firſt Offender ſhall be diſcovered.

Perſon having Greyhounds, &c. how convicted, and puniſhed.

IV. And to the end all Keepers and Game-keepers mentioned in, and duly Authorized according to the Act made in the Reign of the late King Charles the ſecond, may be Indemnified in the execution of the ſaid Office, Be it Enacted that all Lords of Manors or other Royalties, or any perſon or perſons Authorized by them as Game-keepers, ſhall, and may within their reſpective Manors or Royalties, oppoſe, and reſiſt ſuch offender in the night time, in the ſame manner, and be equally Indemnified for ſo doing, as if ſuch Fact had been committed within any ancient Chaſe, Park, or Warren Incloſed whatſoever.

Game Keepers may oppoſe Perſons in the Night. 22 & 23 Car. 2. Cap. 25.

V. And whereas divers idle, diſorderly and mean perſons have and keep Nets, Angles, Leaps, Piches, and other Engines for the taking and killing of Fiſh out of the Ponds, Waters, Rivers, and other Fiſheries, to the damage of the owners thereof; Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no perſon or perſons whatſoever, ſhall and may at any time or times, from and after the Five and twentieth day of March, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety three, have or keep any Net, Angle, Leap, Piche, or other Engine for the taking of Fiſh (other then the Makers and Sellers thereof, for their better conveniency in the Sale of the ſame;) And other then the Owner and Occupier of a River or Fiſhery, for the time being; And moreover, That it ſhall and may be lawful, not only for the Owner or Occupier of any River or Fiſhery, and alſo for all and every other perſon and perſons, by him or them for that purpoſe appointed, to ſeize, detain and keep to his and their own uſe, and uſes, all and every Net, Angle, Leap, Piche, and other Engine, which he or they ſhall find uſed, or laid, or in the cuſtody or poſſeſſion of any perſon or perſons whatſoever, Fiſhing in any River or Fiſhery whatſoever, without the conſent of the Owner or Occupier thereof, but alſo for any perſon or perſons whatſoever, (being thereunto Authorized by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of any Juſtice of the Peace of the ſame County, Diviſion, Borough, Town Corporate, or any other place, in the day time) to ſearch the houſes, out-houſes, or other places of any perſon or perſons hereby prohibited to have or keep the ſame, as ſhall be ſuſpected to have or keep in his or their cuſtody or poſſeſſion any Net, Angle, Leap, Piche, or other Engine aforeſaid, and the ſame and every or any of them to ſeize, detain and keep to his and their own uſe and uſes, or otherwiſe to cut in pieces, or deſtroy, as things by this Act prohibited to be kept by perſons of their degree.

Perſons not Owners of Fiſheries, may not keep Nets, &c.

Owner of Fiſhery may ſeiz Nets, &c. uſed in his Fiſhery, and any perſons may Search by Warrant for Nets and diſpoſe of them as he will.

VI. Provided always that this Act, or any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend, or be conſtrued to extend to abridge any Fiſherman, or his apprentice or apprentices, lawfully Authorized to Fiſh in Navigable Rivers or Waters, with lawful nets and engines, but that every of them ſhall and may (according to the laws and orders made, and to be made and ſettled for the good order, rule and government of ſuch Navigable Rivers and Waters) uſe the Trade of Fiſhing, as they lawfully might have done before the making of this Act; Any thing in this Act contained to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Fiſhermen &c. lawfully authorized Excepted.

VII. And whereas divers offenders duly convicted, do commonly procure Writs of Certiorari to remove ſuch convictions into Superiour Courts at Weſtminſter, in hopes thereby to diſcourage and weary out ſuch perſons Injured by great Delays, Expences and Incertainties; Be it therefore Enacted, That no Certiorari ſhall be allowed to remove any conviction made, or other proceeding of, for, or concerning any matter or thing in this Act, unleſs the party or parties againſt whom ſuch conviction ſhall be made, ſhall before the allowance of ſuch Certiorari become bound to the perſon or perſons proſecuting in the Sum of Fifty pounds, with ſuch ſufficient Sureties, as the Juſtice or Juſtices of the peace before whom ſuch offender was convicted, ſhall think fit, with condition to pay unto the ſaid Proſecutors (within one month after ſuch conviction confirmed, or Procedendo granted) their full Coſts and Charges to be aſcertained upon their Oaths; And that in default thereof it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Juſtice and Juſtices, and others to proceed to the due execution of ſuch conviction, in ſuch manner as if no Certiorari had been awarded.

No Certiorari of Conviction, except Party Convicted give Fifty pound ſecurity to pay Coſts.

VIII. Provided, That where any offender ſhall be puniſhed by force of this Act, he ſhall not be proſecuted, nor incur the penalty of any other law, or ſtatute for the ſame Offence.

Perſon Puniſhed by this Act puniſhable no no other way.

IX. Provided always, That if any Action, Bill, Plaint, or Suit, ſhall at any time after the ſaid Five and twentieth day of March, be commenced or brought againſt any perſon or perſons whatſoever, for or by reaſon of any matter or thing which he or they ſhall do in purſuance of this Act, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the perſon or perſons ſo ſued or proſecuted, to plead the general iſſue and give this Act, or any other ſpecial matter in Evidence; And if the Verdict ſhall paſs with the defendant or defendants in ſuch Action, or the plaintiff or plantiffs become Nonſuit, or ſuffer any diſcountenuance thereof, That in any ſuch caſe, ſuch defendant or defendants ſhall have his or their treble Coſts, which he or they ſhall have ſuſtained in defence of ſuch Action or Suit, for which the ſaid defendant or defendants ſhall have the like remedy, as in other caſes where coſts by the Laws of this Realm are given to the defendants.

Proſecutor upon this Act, ſued may plead General Iſſue, and recover treble Coſts.

X. And whereas great miſchiefs do enſue by Inferiour Tradeſmen, Apprentices, and other diſſolute perſons neglecting their Trades and Employments, who follow Hunting, Fiſhing, and other Game, to the ruine of themſelves, and damage of their Neighbours; For remedy whereof, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any ſuch perſon as aforeſaid, ſhall preſume to Hunt, Hawk, Fiſh or Fowl (unleſs in company with the Maſter of ſuch Apprentice, duly qualified by law) ſuch perſon or perſons ſhall be ſubject to the penalties of this Act, and ſhall or may be ſued and proſecuted for their wilful Treſpaſs in ſuch their coming on any perſons land, and if found guilty thereof, the plaintiff ſhall not only recover his damages thereby ſuſtained, but his full Coſts of ſuit; Any former law to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Tradeſemen &c. lyable to this Act, and treſpaſs lies for coming on another mans ground in which Coſts are given.

XI. Provided always, and be it Enacted, That for the better preſerving the red and black Game of Growſe, commonly called Heath-Cocks, or Heath-Polts, no perſon whatſoever, on any Mountains, Hills, Heaths, Moors, Foreſts, Chaſes, or other Waſts, ſhall preſume to burn, between the ſecond day of February, and twenty fourth of June, any Grig, Ling, Heath, Furz, Goſs or Fern, upon pain that the offender or offen-

XI. And whereas an Act made in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of the Reign of King Charles the Second, Entituled, An Act for the better Relief of the Poor of this Kingdom, was enacted to have Continuance (Except what related to the Corporations therein mentioned, and thereby conſtituted) until the nine and twentieth day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty five, and from thence to the end of the firſt Seſſion of the next Parliament; Which ſaid Act, by an Act made in the firſt year of the Reign of the late King James (Except as to what related to the Corporations therein mentioned, and conſtituted thereby,) was enacted to be in force, from the firſt day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred eighty five, and ſo to continue for the ſpace of ſeven years, and from thence to the end of the next Seſſion of Parliament. And whereas by an Act made in the laſt Seſſion of this preſent Parliament the ſaid laſt mentioned Act (as to what therein related to the ſettlement of the Poor) was enacted to be in force from the firſt day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety one, but no proviſion was thereby made for continuing of divers other parts of the ſaid Act, which by Experience are found to be uſeful and beneficial for the publick: Be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Act for the better relief of the poor of this Kingdom, as to all parts thereof, not mentioned and continued in and by the ſaid Act made in the laſt Seſſion of this preſent Parliament (other then, and except what relates to the Corporations mentioned in the ſaid Act for the better relief of the poor of this Kingdom, and thereby conſtituted,) ſhall be continued, and ſhall be in force for the ſpace of ſeven years, from the thirteenth day of February, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety two, and from thence to the end of the next Seſſion of Parliament, and no longer.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That an Act made in the thirtieth year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, Entituled, An Act to enable Creditors to recover their debts of the Executors and Adminiſtrators of Executors in their own Wrong; Which ſaid Act, in the firſt year of the Reign of the late King James the Second, was enacted to be in force from the firſt day of the then preſent Seſſion of Parliament, and to continue for ſeven years, and from thence to the end of the firſt Seſſion of the then next Parliament, ſhall be, and is hereby continued and made perpetual. And foraſmuch as it hath been a doubt whether the ſaid Act did extend to any Executor or Executors, Adminiſtrator or Adminiſtrators of any Executor or Adminiſtrator of Right, who for want of privity in Law, were not before Anſwerable, nor could be Sued for the debts due from or by the firſt Teſtator or Inteſtate, notwithſtanding that ſuch Executors or Adminiſtrators had waſted the Goods and Eſtate of the firſt Teſtator or Inteſtate, or Converted the ſame to his or their own Uſe: For remedy whereof, Be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every the Executor and Executors, Adminiſtrator or Adminiſtrators of ſuch Executor or Adminiſtrator of Right, who ſhall waſte or Convert to his own Uſe, Goods, Chattels or Eſtate of his Teſtator or Inteſtate, ſhall from henceforth be liable and chargeable in the ſame manner as his or their Teſtator or Inteſtate, ſhould or might have been, any Law or Uſage, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

XXII. And be it enacted, that ſo much of this preſent Act as does relate to the returning of Jurors, ſhall be in force for the ſpace of three years, from the ſaid firſt day of May, one thouſand ſix hundred ninety three, and from thence to the end of the next Seſſion of Parliament.

Act continues three years as to return of Jurors.

CAP. XXV.

An Act for continuing the Acts for prohibiting all Trade and Commerce with France, and for the Encouragement of Privateers.

Whereas an Act made in the firſt year of their Majeſties Reign, Entituled, An Act for prohibiting all Trade and Commerce with France, And alſo another Act made in the ſecond year of their Majeſties Reign, Entituled, An Act for the more effectual putting in execution an Act, Entituled, An Act for prohibiting all Trade and Commerce with France, will expire at the end of this preſent ſeſſion of Parliament, unleſs ſome proviſion be made in that behalf; Be it enacted by the King and Queens moſt excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that the ſaid two Acts, and every clauſe, article, matter and thing in them contained, except what is altered, and otherwiſe provided for, by this preſent Act, ſhall continue and be in force during the term of three years, if the preſent war with France ſhall ſo long laſt, to be accounted from the end of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, and from thence to the end of the next Seſſion of Parliament, after the expiration of the ſaid three years.

1 W & M S. Cap. 34. continued by 2 W & M S. 2 Cap. 14. continued for three years.

II. And whereas it would much tend to the annoying and damaging their Majeſties enemies, and to the better ſecuring the trade and commerce of this Kingdom, if greater numbers of ſhips were equipped, and ſet out in warlick manner by their Majeſties Subjects: To which end it is requiſite that all fitting encouragement ſhould be given to all Merchants, Owners, and Setters out of, and all the Officers, Mariners and Seamen, commanding & ſerving in any private Man of War, for the ſeizing, ſurprizing, and taking of ſhips and veſſels belonging to their Majeſties enemies: yet nevertheleſs effectual proviſion ought alſo to be made, that under pretence of prize goods, no evil minded perſons may by colluſion carry on any trade with France, contrary to the true intent of the before mentioned Acts; Be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all ſhips and veſſels with their ladings, and all goods and merchandizes that ſhall be taken or ſeized as prize, either by their Majeſties ſhips of War, or by any ſhips ſet forth as Privateers, or otherwiſe, ſhall be imported & brought into ſome of their Majeſties ports of this Kingdom, and immediately without breaking of bulk, put into the poſſeſſion of their Majeſties Commiſſioners for prizes, or their Officers or Agents in the ſaid Port, who together with two or more ſuch perſons as the Officers or Mariners of the reſpective ſhips ſhall intruſt, and alſo ſuch perſon or perſons as ſhall be appointed by the Commiſſioners of the cuſtoms in that behalf, are to take care of, and preſerve the ſame from imbezelments, until ſuch time as the ſame ſhall be adjudged lawful prize; except where it ſhall appear to the Judge of the Admiralty that the goods taken are periſhable, in which caſe the ſaid Judge ſhall take Bail for ſuch goods in order to the ſale thereof, as he might have done before the making this Act, yet ſo as to be ſubject to ſuch manner of ſale and diſtribution as is particularly provided by this Act.

Prizes to be put into the Commiſſioners hands till judged Prize.

Bail may be given for periſhable Goods.

III. And be it further enacted, that notwithſtanding any thing in the before mentioned Acts, or either of them contained, if any goods, merchandizes, or other things which by the ſaid Acts, or either of them, are prohibited to be imported into the Kingdom of England or Ireland, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or Iſles of Jerſey, Guernſey, Alderney, Sark, or Iſle of Man, ſhall be really and bona fide, without any manner of fraud or colluſion, taken as prize by any Private Ships of War duly Commiſſioned in that behalf, or by any of their Majeſties Ships of War, and ſhall be adjudged good and lawful prize, as aforeſaid, it ſhall be lawful for their Majeſties Commiſſioners for prizes, or their Officers or Agents in the ſame port, as ſoon as may be, after that the ſame ſhall be adjudged prize as aforeſaid, to cauſe the ſaid goods or commodities to be entred, and to be landed, and brought into their Majeſties Warehouſe of ſuch port where ſuch goods or merchandizes ſhall be imported, there to remain, and to be ſafely and entirely kept and preſerved, until the ſame ſhall be ſold in manner as hereafter is directed.

Ship adjudged prize the goods ſhall be put into the Kings Warehouſe.

IV. And be it further enacted, that as ſoon as conveniently may be, after the ſaid goods, merchandizes, or other things, ſhall be adjudged prize, and landed, as aforeſaid, the ſame ſhall be by the Commiſſioners for prizes, or their Officers or Agents, in the preſence of ſuch perſons as ſhall be intruſted by the Commiſſioners of the cuſtoms, and by the Owners, Officers, & Mariners of ſuch ſhip of War, publickly and openly ſold by inch of candle to the beſt advantage (publick notice being firſt given by the ſpace of fourteen days at the Market Croſs, or other moſt publick place of the ſaid port, as alſo upon the Exchange in the port of London, of the quantity or quality of the goods, merchandizes and things to be ſold, and of the time and place of ſale.

Prize-goods ſhall be publickly Sold.

V. And be it further enacted, that out of the proceed of ſuch ſale, the ſubſidy of tonnage and poundage, and all other duties and impoſitions payable to their Majeſties for ſuch goods, merchandizes and things, ſhall be deducted and anſwered to their Majeſties, and the Neat proceed of the ſaid ſale, after ſuch deductions, in caſe where ſuch prize was taken by any Private Man of War, ſhall be divided into five parts, of which four parts ſhall be anſwered and paid to the perſons intereſted in the Privateer or Privateers which took the ſaid Prize, and the other fifth part ſhall be anſwered and paid to their Majeſties, their heirs and ſucceſſors; And in caſe any ſuch prize was taken by any Private Man of War, the Ship or Veſſel ſo ſurprized or taken as prize, and all the Arms, Ammunition, Tackle, Cables, Anchors, Sails, and Furniture thereof, ſhall be had, taken and enjoyed by the perſons intereſted in the Private Man of War which took the ſame; And in caſe ſuch prize was taken by any of their Majeſties Ships of War, the ſaid Neat proceed thereof, after ſuch ſale, as aforeſaid, and after the duties and impoſitions payable to their Majeſties deducted, as aforeſaid, ſhall be divided into three equal parts, one third part whereof ſhall be anſwered and paid to the Commander or Captain, Mariners and Seamen ſurprizing and taking the ſame, to be diſtributed according to the uſual cuſtom of the Sea for ſharing of prizes, or ſuch declarations or orders as have been, or ſhall be made by their Majeſties in that behalf.

VI. Provided, that one third part thereof ſhall be diſtributed amongſt the Ships Crew, one third part to be paid to the Treaſurer of their Majeſties Navy, for relief of ſick and wounded Mariners and Seamen, and the Widows, Children, and Impotent Parents of perſons ſlain in their Majeſties Service at Sea, and the other third part to the uſe of their Majeſties, their Heirs and Succeſſors; And in caſe ſuch prize was taken by any Merchant Ship or Ships imployed in their Majeſties Service, the Neat proceed thereof, after ſuch Sale, as aforeſaid, and after the Duties, Impoſitions, and Cuſtoms to their Majeſties deducted, as aforeſaid, ſhall be divided into three equal parts, one third part to be anſwered and paid to the Captain, Officers, Mariners and Seamen ſurprizing and taking the ſame, one third part to the uſe of their Majeſties, their heirs and ſucceſſors, and the other third part ſhall be paid to the Treaſurer of their Majeſties Navy for the time being, to be diſpoſed of for the purpoſes aforeſaid.

Penalty upon Imbezelling the Goods, &c.

VII. Provided always, and be it enacted, that if any Captains, or other Officers, Mariners or Seamen, who ſhall take ſuch prize or prizes as aforeſaid, ſhall imbezel, purloin, conceal, or convey away, or put on ſhore, or cauſe or procure to be imbezelled, purloined, concealed or conveyed away, or put on ſhore any part or parcel of ſuch Goods or Merchandizes in any place whatſoever, other then their Majeſties warehouſes of the ſaid ports, as aforeſaid, ſuch perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit and loſe the whole ſhare, benefit and advantage which otherwiſe he might or ought to have had in the prize, whereof the goods & merchandizes ſo imbezelled, concealed or conveyed away, or put on ſhore, were part or parcel, upon proof thereof made by one or more witneſſes upon oath, before the Commiſſioners of the cuſtoms in the port of London (if ſuch goods and merchandizes ſhall be ſo imbezelled or put on ſhore in the ſaid port, or in any place within the view or knowledge of any of the Officers of their Majeſties cuſtoms belonging to the port of London) and before the chief Magiſtrate of the place, in the preſence of the chief officer of the port, in any other port where ſuch prize goods ſhall be imported, which oath the ſaid Commiſſioners of the cuſtoms in the port of London, and the chief Magiſtrate reſpectively, are hereby required and impowered to adminiſter, aand to hear and determine the ſaid matter without delay: And one moiety of the ſaid Wares and Merchandizes ſhall be to the uſe of the informer, and ſhall be delivered to him by Warrant of the ſaid Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms in the Port of London, or of the chief Magiſtrate of the place, Signed and Sealed in the preſence of the chief Officer of the Cuſtoms, in ſuch port reſpectively, and the other moiety ſhall be to the uſe of their Majeſties, their Heirs and Succeſſors.

Perſon concerned to ſee the Accounts.

VIII. And it is hereby further enacted, that any Perſon, Seaman or other, concerned in any prize, ſhall and may at any ſeaſonable time be permitted to ſee and peruſe the accounts of any prize, that he or they may be ſatisfied whether the ſhares have been rightly diſtributed, and the Commiſſioners for prizes, and their officers, are hereby required to ſhew or cauſe to be ſhewn unto ſuch perſon or perſons ſuch accounts for their peruſal, and to take no more fee or reward for the ſame, then one ſhilling for one account at one time.

Forfeiture and puniſhment of taking French Ships by colluſion.

IX. And be it further enacted, that in caſe any Ship or Veſſel, or any Goods or Merchandizes of the Growth, Product or Manufacture of the Dominions or Territories of the French King, ſhall be taken by any Privateer, through conſent or clandeſtinely, or by colluſion, ſuch Ship and Veſſel, and ſuch Goods and Merchandizes, and alſo the Ship, Tackle, Apparel, Furniture and Ammunition of ſuch Privateer, ſhall upon proof thereof to be made in their Majeſties Court of Exchequer, or in the Court of Admiralty, be declared and adjudged to be good prize to their Majeſties; and one moiety thereof ſhall be to the uſe of their Majeſties, their Heirs and Succeſſors and the other moiety to the uſe of ſuch perſon who ſhall diſcover the ſame, and the Bond given by the Captain of ſuch privateer, ſhall be, and is hereby adjudged to be forfeited to their Majeſties: And in caſe any ſuch Ship, Veſſel, or any Goods or Merchandizes, as aforeſaid, ſhall be taken by any Man of War, through conſent, clandeſtinely, or by colluſion of the Commander or Captain, ſuch Commander or Captain, ſhall forfeit the ſum of one thouſand pounds, one moiety thereof to the uſe of their Majeſties, their heirs and Succeſſors, and the other moiety to the uſe of ſuch perſon who ſhall diſcover the ſame, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information in any of their Majeſties Courts of Record, wherein no eſſoign, protection, priviledge or wager of Law, nor any more then one imparlance ſhall be allowed; and ſuch Captain or Officer ſhall forfeit his Command or Imployment, and ſhall be, and is hereby diſabled and made incapable of any Office or Imployment under their Majeſties, during the ſpace of ſeven years: And the ſaid Goods and Merchandize, and the ſhip, tackle, apparel, furniture, guns and ammunition ſo taken by colluſion, ſhall be, and is hereby adjudged to be good prize to their Majeſties.

X. Provided always, and be it further enacted, that in all caſes where the ſaid prize ſhall not be taken by any Private Man of War, one tenth part thereof, after ſuch ſale and deduction of their Majeſties Cuſtoms as aforeſaid, and before any diviſion of the proceed thereof ſhall be made, as aforeſaid, ſhall be paid to the Treaſurer of the Navy for the time being, which ſaid tenth part ſhall be ſeparated and kept apart by the ſaid Treaſurer of the Navy, and ſhall be diſpoſed of from time to time, by Warrant of the Commiſſioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, or Lord High Admiral for the time being, for Medals and other Rewards for Officers, Mariners and Seamen in their Majeſties Service at Sea, who ſhall be found to have done any ſignal or extraordinary Service.

Reward for taking, &c. a French Man of War.

XI. And for the better encouragement of Officers, Seamen and Mariners, to anoy the enemy, and to attempt, and take or deſtroy Ships of War, and of Force belonging to the enemy: Be it further enacted, That in caſe any of their Majeſties Ships of War, or any Private Man of War, ſhall take in fight as prize, or ſhall ſink, fire, or by any other means deſtroy any Ship of War, or any Private Man of War belonging to the French King, or his ſubjects, or in the Service of the French King, they ſhall receive and have, as a reward for ſuch Service, for each piece of ordnance, whether Iron or Braſs, in any ſuch Ship of War, or Private Man of War ſo taken or deſtroyed, ten pounds, to be paid by the Commiſſioners for Prizes out of their Majeſties ſhare of Prizes.

XII. Provided always, and be it enacted, that if the Commiſſioners for Prizes ſhall not pay any ſum or ſums of money, or give a Bill or Bills payable out of the firſt money that comes to their hands to the perſons intereſted in Private Men of War, for the reward hereby given them of ten pounds a gun, by the ſpace of three days after the ſame ought by the true intent of this Act, to be paid, and demand thereof made, free of all charges, Fees and Deductions whatſoever, in ſuch caſe the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall be made incapable of any Office in their Majeſties Service for the future.

Shares, &c. here given in lieu of Shares in Prize taken in Fight.

XIII. And be it further enacted and declared, that the ſhares, proportions and rewards by this Act given to the reſpective Commanders, Officers and Seamen, ſhall be in lieu and full ſatisfaction of all ſhares in prizes taken in fight, as well as otherwiſe, during this preſent War; Any thing in an Act made in the thirteenth year of the Reign of the late King Charles the Second, entituled, Articles and Ordinances for the Regulating and Government of his Majeſties Navy, Ships of War, and Forces by Sea, or any Declaration or Order of their Majeſties to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Penalty for Imbezeling Goods upon the Gun Deck.

XIV. And be it further Enacted, that if any Captain or Officer, or any other perſon by his command or direction, or any Seaman, Soldier or other perſon ſerving in their Majeſties Navy, or in any Privateer, ſhall take to him or themſelves, or imbezel any Money, Plate, Goods, Lading or Tackle, or other things upon, or above the Gun Deck, or any other part or place whatſoever, in any Ship taken or ſeized on for Prize, or Retaken from the Enemy, the party Offending ſhall loſe and forfeit the Shares, Proportions and Rewards to him allowed by this Act. And alſo in caſe ſuch perſon be an Officer, he ſhall forfeit the ſum of Five hundred pounds (whereof one moiety ſhall be to their Majeſties, and the other moiety to him who ſhall Sue for the ſame in any of their Majeſties Courts at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoign, Protection, Priviledge, Wager of Law, or more then one Imparlance ſhall be allowed) for every ſuch offence, and ſuch Officer ſhall be uncapable of any Office or Imployment under their Majeſties during the ſpace of ſeven years. It being the true intent of this Act, that all Goods upon or above the Gun Deck, and elſewhere, ſhall in all places be preſerved intire from Imbezelments, and ſhall not be pillaged in any caſe whatſoever.

Prizes taken in the Streights may be carried to Cadiz, &c.

XV. Provided always, and be it enacted, that where any Ship or Veſſel ſhall be taken as Prize in the Mediterranean Sea, or within the Streights of Gibraltar, it ſhall be lawful for the Captors to carry ſuch Ship or Veſſel into the Port of Cadiz, or Alicant in Spain, or the Port of Meſſina in Sicilly, or the Port of Naples, and to put the ſame into the poſſeſſion of ſuch perſon or perſons, as is, are, or ſhall be authorized by their Majeſties to receive and preſerve the ſame, there to remain and be kept without Imbezelment, until the ſame ſhall be, by the Court of Admiralty of England, adjudged lawful Prize, or cleared and diſcharged, or otherwiſe legally diſpoſed of; ſuch Captors being hereby required with all poſſible ſpeed to tranſmit the Original Papers, taken in ſuch Ship or Veſſel, or atteſted Copies thereof to the ſaid Court.

Prizes in the Weſt Indies may be carried to any Engliſh Port there.

XVI. And be it further Enacted, that where any Ship or Veſſel ſhall be taken as Prize in the Weſt Indies or America, it ſhall be lawful for the Captors to carry ſuch Ship or Veſſel into any of their Majeſties ports in any of their Iſlands or Plantations there, and to put the ſame into the poſſeſſion of the chief Governour of ſuch reſpective Iſlands or Plantations, there to remain and be kept, as aforeſaid, until the ſame ſhall be condemned, or diſcharged, or otherwiſe lawfully diſpoſed of, as aforeſaid, by ſuch perſons as ſhall be lawfully Commiſſioned in that behalf.

Prizes in the Eaſt Indies to any Engliſh Port there.

XVII. And be it further Enacted, that in caſe any Ship or Veſſel ſhall be taken as Prize in the Eaſt Indies, or in any place beyond the Cape of Good Hope, it ſhall be lawful for the Captors to carry ſuch Ship or Veſſel into any port or place where any Engliſh Factory is eſtabliſhed, and to put the ſame into the poſſeſſion of the Governour or Chief Perſon of the ſaid Factory, to be preſerved, as aforeſaid, until Condemnation by ſuch perſons as ſhall be lawfully Commiſſioned in that behalf.

Prize taken by Privateer, not having French Commodities pays only Cuſtoms.

XVIII. And be it further Enacted, that where any Ship or Veſſel ſhall be taken as Prize by any Private Man of War, in which Ship or Veſſel there ſhall be no Goods or Merchandizes of the growth, production or manufacture of the Dominions of the French King, and the ſame ſhall appear upon landing thereof, as aforeſaid, and due proof made, that then after lawful Condemnation of ſuch Prize and payment of Cuſtoms, and other duties to their Majeſties, payable for ſuch Goods and Merchandizes, the perſons intereſted in ſuch Private Man of War ſhall have the ſaid Ship, Goods, and Merchandizes to their own uſe, without deduction for Tenths, or any other part or proportion thereof payable to their Majeſties, or to the Lord High Admiral of England.

Prize taken in Ports given to the King.

XIX. And for preventing abuſes practiſed by Privateers in pretending to take as Prize Ships or Veſſels being within their Majeſties Ports, Rivers or Havens, be it Enacted, that where any Ship or Veſſel ſhall be taken in any of their Majeſties Ports, Havens or Rivers, by any Privateer, ſuch Prize upon Condemnation thereof, ſhall be and belong wholly and entirely to their Majeſties, as a perquiſite of the Admiralty of England; and the ſaid Captors to have ſuch part or proportion thereof only as their Majeſties ſhall think fit to allow.

Ship Retaken from the French ſhall be reſtored to the Owner paying Salvage

XX. Provided always, and be it Enacted, that if any Ship, Veſſel or Boat, taken as Prize, or any Goods therein, ſhall appear and be proved in the Court of Admiralty, to be belonging to any of their Majeſties Subjects of England, Scotland or Ireland, or any of the Dominions and Territories thereunto belonging, remaining and continuing under their Majeſties protection and obedience, which were before taken or ſurprized by the Subjects of the French King, or any of their Majeſties Enemies, and afterwards again ſurprized and Retaken by any of their Majeſties Ships of War, or any Private Man of War, or other Ship, Veſſel or Boat under their Majeſties protection or obedience, that then ſuch Ships, Veſſels, Boats and Goods, and every ſuch part and parts thereof, as aforeſaid, belonging to ſuch their Majeſties Subjects ſhall be adjudged to be reſtored, and ſhall be, by Decree of the ſaid Court of Admiralty, accordingly reſtored to ſuch former Owner or Owners, or Proprietors, he or they paying for, and in lieu of Salvage, if taken by one of their Majeſties Ships of War, an eighth part of the true value of the Ships, Veſſels, Boats and Goods reſpectively ſo to be reſtored; which Salvage ſhall be anſwered and paid to the Captains, Officers, and Seamen in the ſaid Man of War, to be divided in ſuch manner as before in this Act is directed, touching the Share of Prizes belonging to the Captains, Officers and Seamen, where Prizes are taken by any of their Majeſties Ships of War; And if taken by a Privateer, or other Ship, Veſſel or Boat, after having been in the poſſeſſion of the Enemy twenty four hours, an eighth part of the true value of the ſaid Ships, Veſſels, Boats and Goods; and if above Twenty four hours, and under Forty eight, a fifth part thereof; and if above Forty eight hours, and under Ninety ſix, a third part thereof; and if above Ninety ſix hours, a moiety thereof: All which payments to be made to any Privateer, or other Ship, Veſſel or Boat, ſhall be without any deductions; and if ſuch Ship ſo Retaken, ſhall appear to have been, after the taking by the Enemy, by them ſet forth as a Man of War, the former Owners and Proprietors, to whom the ſame ſhall be reſtored, ſhall be adjudged to pay, and ſhall pay for Salvage the full moiety of the true value of the ſaid Ship, ſo taken and reſtored, without deduction, as aforeſaid; Any law, cuſtom or uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Ship tranſporting Wooll forfeited.

XXI. And be it further Enacted, That in Caſe at any time, during the continuance of this Act, any Boat or Veſſel, laden with Wooll, or whereupon Wooll is laden, with intent to Tranſport the ſame, contrary to Law, ſhall be taken by any Private Man of War, on due Proof thereof, upon Tryal or Proceeding had in their Majeſties Court of Exchequer, the Perſons Intereſted in ſuch Private Man of War, ſhall have to their own uſe one full Moiety of the ſaid Veſſel and Goods, the other Moiety to be to the uſe of their Majeſties their Heirs and Succeſſors; Any law or ſtatute to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Admirals to expreſs the purport of this Act in their inſtructions.

XXII. And to prevent all pretence of Ignorance of the Matters contained in this Act, by any Captains, Officers or Seamen, ſerving in any of their Majeſties Ships of War, or Private Ship of War, the Lord High Admiral or Commiſſioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral for the time being, is, and are hereby Required to Expreſs all things, by this Act directed to be obſerved, concerning Prizes, and the Shares, Proportions and Rewards of, and for the ſame in the Inſtructions by them from time to time given, during the continuance of this Act, to all Captains and Commanders of any of their Majeſties Ships of War, and to all Commanders of any Private Ship of War, by them Authorized during that time.

Manner of Suing for French Goods Imported.

XXIII. And for the incouragement of ſuch perſons duly Authorized by the Commiſſioners of their Majeſties Cuſtoms as ſhall make diſcovery, and ſeize any Goods of the Growth, Manufacture or Product of France, Imported into any of their Majeſties Dominions, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this preſent Act; Be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all ſuch Goods ſo Imported and Seized, ſhall be Sued for and Proſecuted in their Majeſties Court of Exchequer, in ſuch Manner and Form as is Provided by an Act made in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth year of the Reign of the late King Charles the Second, Entituled, An Act for Preventing of Frauds in their Majeſties Cuſtoms; Two thirds of the ſaid Goods to be for the Uſe of their Majeſties, their Heirs and Succeſſors (they defraying the Charges of the Proſecution of ſuch Goods) and One third to the Proſecutor, and no compoſition to be made for their Majeſties part upon any pretence whatſoever; All the ſaid Goods to be ſecured and ſold in ſuch manner as Prize Goods are by this Act appointed to be ſecured and ſold; Any law or ſtatute to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Cap. 11.

Penalty upon the Commiſſioners detaining the Shares.

XXIV. Provided always, and be it Enacted, That if the Commiſſioners of the Prizes, or Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms ſhall detain in their Hands the Shares and Proportions belonging to the Perſons Intereſted in any Private Man of War, by the ſpace of Two days after the ſame ought, by the true intent of this Act, to be paid, and Demand thereof made, Free of all Fees, Charges and Deductions whatſoever, except Warehouſe Room, and Two Pounds per Centum, for all other Charges; In ſuch Caſe the perſons offending ſhall Forfeit double the Sum ſo detained, to be recovered, together with Coſts of Suit, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, wherein no Eſſoign, Protection, Priviledge or Wager of Law, or more then one Imparlance ſhall be granted.

Anno Regni GULIELMI & MARIÆ, Regis & Reginæ Angliæ, Scotiæ Franciæ & Hiberniæ, Quinto & Sexto.

AT the Parliament begun at Weſtminſter the Twentieth day of March, Anno Dom. 1689. In the Second Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord and Lady, WILLIAM and MARY, by the Grace of God, of England, Scotland, France and Ireland, King and Queen, Defenders of the Faith, &c. And from thence Continued by ſeveral Prorogations and Adjournments to the Seventh Day of November, 1693. being the Fifth Seſſion of this preſent Parliament.

CAP. I.

An Act for Granting to Their Majeſties an Aid of Four Shillings in the Pound for One year, for Carrying on a Vigorous War againſt France.

CAP. II.

CAP. II.

An Act for Repealing ſuch Parts of ſeveral former Acts, as Prevent or Prohibit the Importation of Foreign Brandy, Aqua Vitæ and other Spirits, and Bacon, except from France.

Whereas by one Act of Parliament made in the fourth and fifth year of their Majeſties Reign, Entituled, An Act for Granting to Their Majeſties certain Additional Impoſitions upon ſeveral Goods and Merchandizes for the proſecuting the preſent War againſt France, The Commons Aſſembled in Parliament, amongſt other Duties and Charges by the ſaid Act Granted to their Majeſties upon Goods and Merchandizes imported after the firſt day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety two, and before the firſt day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſix, Did Grant to their Majeſties for every Gallon of Strongwaters, Aqua Vitæ or Brandy, commonly called, Single Brandy or Strongwaters, Imported within the ſaid time, to be paid by the Importer before Landing, Two Shillings, over and above the Duties of Exciſe and Cuſtoms at any time before the Second year of their Majeſties Reign payable for the ſame; And for every Gallon of Strongwaters, Spirits or Brandy above Proof, called Double Brandy, Imported within the ſaid time, to be paid by the Importer before Landing, Four Shillings, over and above the Duties of Exciſe and Cuſtoms at any time before the Second Year of their Majeſties Reign payable for the ſame; And by One other Act in the ſame Year made, Entituled, An Act for Granting to Their Majeſties certain Rates and Duties of Exciſe upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, for Securing certain Recompences and Advantages in the ſaid Act mentioned to ſuch perſons as ſhall Voluntarily Advance the Sum of Ten hundred thouſand Pound towards Carrying on the War againſt France, The ſaid Commons did Grant to their Majeſties for every Gallon of ſingle Brandy, Spirits or Aqua vitæ, Imported from beyond the Seas, to be paid by the Importer before Landing, over and above all other duties payable for the ſame, Six pence; And for every Gallon of Brandy, Spirits or Aqua vitæ, above Proof commonly called double Brandy, Imported from beyond the Seas, to be paid by the Importer before Landing, over and above all other duties payable for the ſame, One ſhilling. Which Grant contrary to the intention of the ſaid Commons, became ineffectual to their Majeſties; for that all Importation of Brandy was by one Act of Parliament made in the Firſt year of their Majeſties Reign, Entituled, An Act for Prohibiting all Trade and Commerce with France, prohibited to be Imported into England, and Ireland, and the Dominions and Iſlands therein named, from and after the Four and twentieth day of Auguſt, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred eighty nine.

Seſ. 1. Cap. 34.

II. For remedy whereof, and that the Revenue ariſing by the ſaid Grants may be for the future anſwered to their Majeſties, according to the purport of the ſaid firſt recited Acts, Be it enacted by the King and Queens moſt excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, that one Clauſe in the ſaid Act, for prohibiting of all Trade and Commerce with France, in theſe words (That is to ſay) And be it further enacted, that no ſort of Brandy, Aqua vitæ, or other ſpirits or diſtilled waters of any Kingdom, Countrey, or Place whatſoever, ſhall after the ſaid Four and Twentieth day of Auguſt, be Imported into the Kingdoms of England or Ireland aforeſaid, Dominion or Iſlands aforeſaid, under pain of forfeiture thereof, as alſo of the Ship or Veſſel wherein the ſame ſhall be Imported, Is, and ſhall be by virtue of this Act, from the Firſt day of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament Repealed, any thing in the ſaid Act for prohibiting all Trade and Commerce with France, or any other Law or Statute to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Clauſe of 1 W&M Prohibiting Brandy, repealed. Sect. 8.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, that the duties of Two ſhillings and Four ſhillings a Gallon upon ſingle Brandy and double Brandy reſpectively Impoſed by the ſaid Firſt recited Act, above the duties of Exciſe & Cuſtoms, at any time before the ſecond year of their Majeſties Reign payable for the ſame, was thereby intended, and ſhall be conſtrued to extend to ſuch duties as were then payable for the ſame, by any Statute then in force, and not otherwiſe; And that no ſort of Brandy, Aqua vitæ, or other Spirits, ſhall be Imported from France into this Kingdom, or any of the Dominions and Territories thereunto belonging, by virtue of this Act, other then as the ſame is provided and enacted, to be Imported by one Act of this preſent Parliament, made in the ſaid Fourth and Fifth year of their Majeſties Reign, Entituled, An Act for continuing the Acts for Prohibiting all Trade and Commerce with France, and for the Encouragement of Privateers.

Brandy Cuſtom, and Importation.
Cap. 25.

IV. And whereas there was further Granted to their Majeſties by the ſaid firſt recited Act, Four pence for every pound of Bacon imported within the time limited by the ſaid Act, which could not be anſwered to their Majeſties, becauſe the Importation of Bacon, is prohibited by one Act of Parliament made in the eighteenth year of the Reign of the late King Charles the ſecond, entituled, An Act againſt Importing Cattel from Ireland, and other parts beyond the Seas, and Fiſh taken by Foreigners; And by one other Act made in the twentieth year of his ſaid late Majeſties Reign, Entituled, An Additional Act againſt the Importation of Foreign Cattel: Be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, that the ſaid ſum of Four pence for every pound of Bacon, Imported, Granted to their Majeſties by the ſaid Act, ſhall be paid and anſwered to their Majeſties from the Firſt day of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, for and during the Continuance of the ſaid Act, any thing in the ſaid recited Acts of the eighteenth and twentieth of the ſaid King Charles the Second, or any other Law or Statute to the contrary notwithſtanding.

in ſuch manner as in and by an Act made in the Twelfth year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, Entituled, An Act for the Incouragement and Encreaſing of the Shipping and Navigation, is directed or allowed, and brought from ſome of the Ports of thoſe Countries or Places whereof the ſame is of the Growth or Production, and which ſhall come directly by Sea, and not otherwiſe. And whereas by the Act of Navigation, Italian and Sicilian Thrown Silk may be brought from any Port or Place of Europe, and that it hath been found by experience, that the Importation of Italian, Sicilian and Naples Silk by the ways preſcribed by the ſaid recited Act (in regard of the great difficulties and hazard occaſioned by the preſent War with France) is greatly prejudicial, and if longer continued will endanger the loſs of the Silk Manufactory of this Nation.

Italian Silk may be imported.

II. Be it therefore enacted by the King and Queens moſt excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That from and after the Twentieth day of December, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and three, It ſhall and may be lawful, to and for any perſon or perſons, who do or ſhall reſide in their Majeſties Dominions, to import or bring into this Kingdom from any Port or Place whatſoever (excepting the Ports of France) during the preſent War with France, and three Months after, Fine Thrown Silk of the growth or production of Italy, Sicily or Naples, any thing in the ſaid recited Acts to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Courſe Silk, &c not to be imported.

III. Provided always, That this Act, nor any thing herein contained, ſhall extend to give liberty to bring over-land and import any Italian thrown Silk that ſhall be courſer then a ſort thereof, known and diſtinguiſhed by the name of Third Bolonia; Nor any Sicilian Thrown Silk that ſhall be courſer then a ſort thereof, known and diſtinguiſhed by the name of Second Orſoy, nor any ſorts of Silks commonly called Trams, of the growth of Italy, Sicily or Naples; Nor any other Thrown Silk of the growth or production of Turkey, Perſia, Eaſt-India or China, under the penalty and forfeiture of all ſuch Thrown Silk as ſhall be brought over-land, and imported contrary to the purport, true intent and meaning of this Act; One Moiety whereof ſhall be to the uſe of the King and Queens Majeſties, their heirs and ſucceſſors, and the other Moiety to ſuch perſon or perſons as ſhall ſeize, inform, or ſue for the ſame, to be recovered by bill, plaint, or information, in any of their Majeſties Courts of Record, wherein no eſſoign, protection, or wager of law ſhall be allowed.

Penalty.

All Italian Silk muſt be brought to the Cuſtomhouſe, London.

IV. And for the better and more effectual execution of this Act, and to prevent the importation of any ſort of Thrown Silk contrary to the true intent and meaning hereof, Be it further enacted and declared, That all ſuch fine Italian, Sicilian and Naples Thrown Silks, as are allowed to be imported by this Act, whereſoever landed, ſhall be brought to their Majeſties Cuſtomhouſe, London, to the intent that no other ſort may be imported over-land then thoſe only allowed by this Act, under the penalties and forfeitures before mentioned and recited, any thing to the contrary hereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

CAP. IV.

An Act to Repeal a Clauſe in the Statute made in the four and thirtieth and five and thirtieth years of King Henry the Eighth, by which Juſtices of Peace in Wales are limited to Eight in each County.

Preamble.

Cap. 26.

Sect. 55.

Whereas in a Statute made in the thirty fourth and thirty fifth years of the Reign of King Henry the Eighth, Entituled, An Act for certain Ordinances in the Kings Majeſties Dominion and Principality of Wales, there is a Clauſe or Article contained in theſe words; That is to ſay, Item, That there ſhall not exceed the number of Eight Juſtices of the Peace in any of the ſaid Shires, over and beſides the Preſident, Council, and Juſtices aforeſaid, and the Kings Attorney and Solicitor; Which Preſident, Council, Juſtices, and the Kings Attorney and Solicitor, ſhall be put in every Commiſſion of Peace in every of the ſaid Twelve Shires.

II. And whereas the Law contained in this Clauſe or Article is by experience found to be inconvenient: Be it therefore enacted by the King and Queens moſt excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Clauſe or Article be from henceforth abſolutely Repealed and Vacated to all intents and purpoſes; And that it ſhall and may be lawful, to and for the King and Queens moſt excellent Majeſties, their heirs and ſucceſſors, by Commiſſion under the Great Seal of England, to conſtitute, nominate, and appoint, from time to time, any ſuch number of perſons to be Juſtices of Peace in any of the ſaid Counties of Wales, as they ſhall think fitting and convenient, according to ſuch ways and methods as are commonly uſed for the conſtituting, nominating and appointing of Juſtices of the Peace, in and for any County of England; And that the perſons ſo conſtituted, nominated and appointed, ſhall have power and authority, to act and do any manner or thing pertaining to the Office of a Juſtice of Peace, in as large and ample manner, as any Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace within the Dominion of Wales, might or ought to have done before the making of this Act; Any Law, Statute, Uſage or Ordinance to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

King may nominate any number of Juſtices in Wales.

CAP. V.

An Act to ſupply the deficiency of the Money raiſed by a former Act, Entituled, An Act for granting to their Majeſties certain Rates and Duties of Exciſe upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, for ſecuring certain Recompences and Advantages in the ſaid Act mentioned, to ſuch perſons, as ſhall voluntarily Advance the Sum of Ten hundred thouſand Pounds towards Carrying on the War againſt France.

Preamble.

4. & 5. W & M. Cap. 3.

Whereas by an Act of this preſent Parliament, Entituled, An Act for granting to their Majeſties certain Rates and Duties of Exciſe, for ſecuring certain Recompences and Advantages in the ſaid Act mentioned, to ſuch perſons as ſhall voluntarily advance the ſum of Ten hundred thouſand pounds towards carrying on the war againſt France, It was enacted that it ſhould be lawful for any perſons, natives or foreigners, to contribute towards the advancing the ſum of ten hundred thouſand pounds for the purpoſes therein mentioned, by paying into their Majeſties Receipt of Exchequer, ſuch ſum or ſums of Money, at ſuch times, and upon ſuch terms reſpectively, as in the ſaid Act are particularly mentioned and expreſſed: And whereas the ſeveral ſums paid in upon the ſaid Act by the ſeveral contributors, did and do in the whole amount but to the ſum of Eight hundred eighty one thouſand four hundred ninety three pounds fourteen ſhillings and two pence: We your Majeſties moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects the Commons in Parliament aſſembled, being ſenſible of the great and neceſſary expences in which your Majeſties are engaged for carrying on the preſent War againſt the French King, and being deſirous to ſupply the ſame in ſuch manner, as may be leaſt grievous to your Majeſties Subjects, do beſeech your Majeſties, that it may be enacted.

14 l. per Cent. for life.

II. And be it enacted by the King and Queens moſt excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That it ſhall and may be lawful for any perſons, natives or foreigners, to contribute towards the advancing the ſum of One hundred and eighteen thouſand five hundred and ſix pounds five ſhillings and ten pence, to make up the whole ſum of Ten hundred thouſand pounds by the ſaid recited Act intended to be advanced, by paying into the Receipt of their Majeſties Exchequer at any time before the firſt day of May, one thouſand ſix hundred ninety four, any ſum or ſums of Money, not exceeding in the whole the ſum of one hundred and eighteen thouſand five hundred and ſix pounds five ſhillings and ten pence, upon the terms following, (that is to ſay) That every ſuch perſon, out of the rates and duties of Exciſe granted by the ſaid recited Act, ſhall have and receive for every ſum of one hundred pounds by them reſpectively advanced and paid a yearly annuity, rent or payment of fourteen pounds of lawful Engliſh Money, and proportionably for a greater ſum, for and during the Life of ſuch perſon ſo advancing or paying the ſame, or during any other Life, to be nominated by the perſon advancing or paying any ſuch ſum, as aforeſaid, the ſame to be nominated within ſix days after payment of ſuch ſum, which yearly annuities, rents or payments ſhall commence from the four and twentieth day of June next enſuing, and ſhall be paid and payable at the four moſt uſual Feaſts of the year, (that is to ſay) The Annunciation of the Bleſſed Virgin Mary, the Nativity of Saint John Baptiſt, the Feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangel, and the Feaſt of the Birth of our Lord Chriſt, by even and equal portions: And every perſon on payment of any ſuch ſum or ſums, as aforeſaid, ſhall immediately have one or more Talley, or Talleys importing the receipt of the conſideration Money, and orders for the payment of the ſaid annuities, bearing the ſame date with the Talley, the ſaid Tallies to be levied, and the ſaid orders to be ſigned in the ſame manner as in the ſaid recited Act is mentioned touching Tallies, and orders to be given to the contributors for annuities upon the ſaid Act, and the ſaid orders not to be determinable, revocable or countermandable, as touching the forementioned orders in the ſaid recited Act is enacted; which ſaid orders ſhall be aſſignable and transferrable in ſuch and the ſame manner, as is mentioned in the ſaid recited Act, touching orders given to the contributors in the ſaid Act mentioned, and all the rates and duties by the ſaid recited Act granted, over and beſides ſo much as ſhall bear proportion at the rates in the ſaid Act mentioned, to the whole ſum of eight hundred eighty one thouſand four hundred ninety three pounds fourteen ſhillings and two pence, already advanced by the contributors upon the ſaid recited Act, are and ſhall be appropriated and applied, and are hereby appropriated to and for the payment of the ſaid annuities, yearly rents or ſums, after the rate of fourteen pounds per Centum per Annum for every hundred pounds to be advanced, as aforeſaid, according to the true intent and meaning of this Act, and ſhall not be diverted or divertible to any other uſe, intent or purpoſe whatſoever, under the like penalties, forfeitures and diſabilities, in reſpect to all and every the Officers and other perſons in the ſaid recited Act mentioned, as are in the ſaid Act appointed and enacted, in caſe of diverting or miſapplying any part of the Moneys which ought to be paid to the contributors upon the ſaid Act; And the ſaid Officers are hereby required to keep Books and Regiſters, and make Entries of the names of all perſons who ſhall advance any Moneys before the ſaid firſt day of May, as aforeſaid, and of the ſeveral ſums ſo advanced, and the times of paying in the ſame reſpectively, and the names of ſuch perſons, for whoſe Lives the ſeveral annuities or yearly payments are to be payable without fee or reward, in ſuch manner as in the ſaid recited Act is mentioned; To which Books, all perſons concerned ſhall have acceſs, as in the ſaid Act alſo is directed; All which the ſaid Officers are to do and perform, under the like penalties and forfeiture, and diſabilities, as in the ſaid recited Act are mentioned: And every perſon who ſhall advance and pay any ſuch ſum, as aforeſaid, before the firſt day of May, as aforeſaid, ſhall receive out of the Money granted by the ſaid recited Act, for all Money ſo advanced by him, and paid, from the reſpective days of payment, unto the four and twentieth day of June, as aforeſaid, intereſt, at the rate of ten pounds per Centum per Annum.

the ſaid recited Act is appointed, or otherwiſe, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for every Contributor, his or her Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, at his, her or their Election, to make Oath of the truth of his, her or their reſpective Nominees Life, upon the day when the ſaid payments ſhall become due before any one or more Juſtices of the Peace of the reſpective County, Riding, City, Town or Place wherein ſuch perſon at the time of making the ſaid Oath ſhall reſide (which Oath he or they are hereby impowered to adminiſter) and the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices ſhall make a Certificate thereof, for which Oath and Certificate no fee or reward ſhall be required; And the ſaid Certificates ſhall be filed in the ſaid Office of Receipt of the Exchequer; And if any perſon ſhall be guilty of a falſe Oath, or forging any Certificate touching the Premiſſes, and being thereof lawfully Convicted, he ſhall incur the pains and penalties to be inflicted upon perſons who commit wilful Perjury or Forgery; And in caſe any Nominee ſhall at the time of ſuch demand be reſident in Scotland, or beyond the Seas, and any one or more of the Barons of the Exchequer for the time being, ſhall certifie, That upon proof to him or them made (which proof he and they is and are hereby authorized and required to take in a ſummary way) it doth ſeem probable to him or them, that the ſaid Nominee is living (which Certificate is to be given and examination made without fee or charge) the ſaid Certificate being filed, as aforeſaid, ſhall be a ſufficient Warrant for making the ſaid Quarterly payment to the reſpective Contributors or Advancers, their executors, adminiſtrators or aſſigns; And if any perſon or perſons ſhall receive one or more Quarterly payments upon his, her or their Annuity or Annuities for any time beyond the death of his, her or their Nominee when the ſame ought to ceaſe, ſuch perſon or perſons ſhall forfeit treble the value of the Moneys ſo by him, her or them received; The one half thereof to their Majeſties, their Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other half to him or them that will ſue for the ſame by action, ſuit, bill or information, in which no eſſoign, protection, priviledge or wager of law, or more then one imparlance ſhall be allowed.

Proviſion for thoſe that have not named any life.

V. And whereas ſeveral perſons who did contribute, advance or pay ſeveral of the ſums of Money which have been contributed, advanced or paid upon the ſaid recited Act for Shares, Dividends, Annuities, or other Benefits in the ſaid Act mentioned reſpectively, as well upon the Benefit of Survivorſhip, as upon the yearly Annuities of fourteen pounds per Centum, did not name to the Auditor of the Receipt, or Clerk of the Pells in the Receipt of the Exchequer, by or within the reſpective times by the ſaid Act appointed, the reſpective Lives, during which ſuch Dividends, Shares, Annuities or other Benefits reſpectively, were to continue: It is hereby further enacted and provided by the authority aforeſaid, That if ſuch perſons, or any of them, ſhall at any time or times before the firſt day of March next, nominate to the Auditor of the Receipt or the Clerk of the Pells in the ſaid Exchequer, the reſpective lives (their own or others) during which ſuch Dividends, Shares, Annuities or other Benefits, ſhould continue reſpectively, That then and in every ſuch caſe, his, her or their Nominees ſhall be Entred in the Books kept in the ſaid Receipt for the Nominees; And every ſuch contributor or contributors, his, her and their executors, adminiſtrators and aſſigns reſpectively, ſhall have, receive and enjoy, and be entituled to have, receive and enjoy ſuch and the like dividends, ſhares, annuities and other benefits, for and in reſpect of the moneys ſo contributed, advanced or paid, as he, ſhe or they might, ſhould or ought to have had, received or enjoyed, in caſe the reſpective Lives for the ſame had been named within the reſpective times by the ſaid Act preſcribed, any thing in this or the ſaid former Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Surplus not to be granted.

VI. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted, That the ſurplus or remainder of the Moneys ariſing by the ſaid rates and duties appointed by the ſaid Act to be to the uſe of their Majeſties, their Heirs and Succeſſors, ſhall not be charged or chargeable with any gift, grant or penſion whatſoever; And that all and every grant and grants of any ſuch penſions, ſhall be, and is hereby declared to be utterly void: And all and every perſon and perſons to whom ſuch grants are or ſhall be paſſed, ſhall be, and are hereby made accountants unto their Majeſties, their Heirs and Succeſſors, and ſhall pay back all ſums of Money received by pretence of ſuch grants, and the Court of Exchequer is hereby required to iſſue out proceſs accordingly.

CAP. VI.

An Act to prevent Diſputes and Controverſies concerning Royal Mines.

Preamble.

Seſſ. 1. Cap. 30.

WHereas by a Clauſe in one Act of Parliament made in the firſt year of their Majeſties Reign, Entituled, An Act to Repeal the Statute made in the fifth year of King Henry the Fourth, againſt the multiplying of Gold and Silver, It is, amongſt other things, enacted, That no Mine of Tin, Copper, Iron or Lead, ſhall hereafter be adjudged, reputed or taken to be a Royal Mine, although Gold or Silver may be extracted out of the ſame: But notwithſtanding the good proviſion by the ſaid Statute, to prevent the diſcouraging their Majeſties good Subjects, who have Mines of Copper, Tin, Iron or Lead in their Soyls, from digging and opening the ſame, many doubts and queſtions have ariſen upon the ſaid Statute, whereby great ſuits and troubles have ariſen to many owners and proprietors of ſuch Mines.

Owners of Mines ſhall enjoy them.

II. Wherefore for the better explanation of the ſaid Statute, Be it enacted and declared by the King and Queens moſt excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That all and every perſon or perſons being Subjects of the Crown of England, bodies politick or corporate, that now are or hereafter ſhall be the owner or owners, proprietor or proprietors of any Mine or Mines within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, wherein any Ore now is or hereafter ſhall be diſcovered, opened, found or wrought, and in which there is Copper, Tin, Iron, or Lead, ſhall and may hold and enjoy the ſame Mine or Mines and Ore, and continue in the poſſeſſion thereof, and dig and work the ſaid Mine or Mines or Ore, notwithſtanding that ſuch Mine or Mines or Ore ſhall be pretended or claimed to be a Royal Mine or Royal Mines; any law, uſage or cuſtom to the contrary notwithſtanding.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted and declared, That their Majeſties, their Heirs and Succeſſors, and all claiming any Royal Mines under them, ſhall and may have the Ore of any ſuch Mine or Mines in any part of the ſaid Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, (other then Tin-Ore in the Counties of Devon and Cornwall) paying to the Proprietors or Owners of the ſaid Mine or Mines wherein ſuch Ore is or ſhall be found, within Thirty days after the ſaid Ore is or ſhall be raiſed and laid upon the Banks of the ſaid Mine or Mines, and before the ſame be removed from thence, the Rates following (that is to ſay;) For all Ore waſht, made clean and merchantable, wherein is Copper, the rate of ſixteen pounds per Tun; and for all Ore waſht, made clean, and merchantable, wherein there is Tin, the rate of fourty ſhillings per Tun; and for all Ore waſht, made clean, and merchantable, wherein there is Iron, the rate of fourty ſhillings per Tun; and for all Ore waſht, made clean, and merchantable, wherein there is Lead, the rate of nine pounds per Tun; and in default of payment of ſuch reſpective ſums, as aforeſaid, it ſhall and may be lawful for the Owners and Proprietors of the ſaid Mine or Mines, wherein ſuch Ore is, are, or ſhall be found, to ſell and diſpoſe of the ſaid Ore to his and their own uſes; any Law, Statute, or Cuſtom to the contrary notwithſtanding.

King ſhall have the Ore at a rate.

Several rates.

IV. Provided always, That nothing contained in this Act ſhall alter, determine or make void the Charters granted to the Tinners of Devon and Cornwall, by any of the Kings and Queens of this Realm, or any of the liberties, priviledges or franchiſes of the ſaid Tinners, or to alter, determine, or make void the Laws, Cuſtoms or Conſtitutions of the Stanneries of Devon or Cornwall, or any of them.

The Tinners Charters, &c. ſaved.

CAP. VII.

An Act for granting to their Majeſties certain Rates and Duties upon Salt, and upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, for ſecuring certain Recompences and Advantages in the ſaid Act mentioned, to ſuch perſons as ſhall voluntarily Advance the ſum of Ten hundred thouſand pounds towards carrying on the War againſt France.

WE your Majeſties moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Commons in Parliament aſſembled, being ſenſible of the great and neceſſary expence in which your Majeſties are engaged for carrying on the preſent War againſt the French King; and being deſirous to ſupply the ſame in ſuch manner as may be leaſt grievous to your Majeſties Subjects: Therefore for the incouragement of ſuch perſons who ſhall voluntarily contribute to the advancing and paying into your Majeſties Exchequer, towards carrying on the ſaid War, any ſum or ſums of Money, not exceeding the ſum of ten hundred thouſand pounds, upon the reſpective terms and recompences hereafter mentioned, we your Majeſties ſaid loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Commons in Parliament aſſembled, have given and granted, and do hereby give and grant unto your Majeſties, the ſeveral Rates and Duties herein after mentioned, for and during the ſeveral terms herein after expreſſed; And do beſeech your Majeſties that it may be enacted.

Preamble.

II. And be it enacted by the King and Queens moſt excellent Majeſties, by the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, That from and after the five and twentieth day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety four, there ſhall be throughout the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, raiſed, levied, collected and paid unto their Majeſties, their heirs and ſucceſſors, until the ſeventeenth day of May, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſeven, and no longer, for Salt, the Rates and Duties following; (That is to ſay)

Rates upon Salt for three years.

III. For every gallon of Salt not being of the product or manufacture of the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, imported or to be imported from and after the ſaid five and twentieth day of March, into the ſaid Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, the ſum of Three pence of lawful Money of England, to be paid by the importer thereof, over and above the preſent Duties now payable for Salt imported, and after that rate for a greater or leſſer quantity. And for every gallon of Salt and Rock-Salt, made at the Salt-works, or taken out of any Pits within the ſaid Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, the Sum of One peny half peny, and after that rate for a greater or leſſer quantity.

conſtituted and appointed under the Hands and Seals of the ſaid Commiſſioners and Governors of the Receipt of Exciſe for the time being, or the major part of them, and that all penalties and forfeitures by this Act impoſed, ſhall be ſued for, recovered, levied and received or mitigated by the ſame means, rules, ways and methods, as any penalty or forfeiture is to be ſued for or recoverable, or is mentioned, expreſſed or directed to be recovered in and by one Act of Parliament made in the twelfth year of the Reign of the late King Charles the Second, Entituled, An Act for Taking away the Court of Wards and Liveries, and Tenures in capite, and by Knights Service and Purveyance, and Settling a Revenue on His Majeſty in lieu thereof, or by any other Law or Statute now in force relating to the Revenue of Exciſe; and that as fully and amply to all intents, as if the ſeveral clauſes in the ſaid Acts, or any of them contained, were herein re-enacted or repeated.

Entries of the Quantities.

Officers Warrant to remove.

Rebate.

VI. And be it Enacted, That all makers and proprietors of Salt, and Rock-Salt within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, ſhall from time to time make true entries with the ſaid Officers ſo to be appointed, as aforeſaid, ſome or one of them, of the quantities of Salt ſo by them made, or taken out of any pit or pits, and delivered or imported, as aforeſaid, and ſhall likewiſe have a Warrant or Ticket under the Hand and Seal of ſome one of the ſaid Officers, impowering ſuch maker or proprietor of Salt, to carry away the ſame, before ſuch time as the ſaid Salt made or taken out of any pit or pits, within any the places aforeſaid, or any part thereof, ſhall be removed or carried from the reſpective Salt-works or pits, under the ſeveral penalties and forfeitures herein after mentioned, which ſaid Warrant the ſaid Officers are hereby required to give gratis unto the ſaid makers or proprietors of ſuch Salt, upon payment, or giving ſecurity for the payment of the duties hereby granted, within ſix months after ſuch entry made; which ſecurity the ſaid Commiſſioners and Officers are hereby authorized and required to accept upon ſuch entry, as aforeſaid. Provided always, That if any perſon or perſons, at the time of the entry and delivery of his or their Salt, ſhall pay down the Duty hereby impoſed, ſuch perſon or perſons ſhall be allowed at the Rate of Ten Pounds per Cent. per Annum for the ſame.

Penalty for conveying without Warrant.

VII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Officers ſo appointed, to ſeize all ſuch Salt which ſhall, from and after the ſaid Five and twentieth day of March, be conveying, or conveyed by day or by night, either by land or by water, before due entry be made of ſuch Salt, without Warrant, Ticket or Licence obtained from the Commiſſioners of the Duties granted by this Act, their Collectors or Officers, or ſome or one of them, as aforeſaid, for the Conveying or Carrying the ſaid Salt: And the Salt that ſhall be ſo ſeized, ſhall be brought to the Office appointed for theſe Duties, next adjoyning to the place where ſuch Salt ſhall be ſo ſeized, there to be detained and kept; And in Caſe the Salt ſo ſeized ſhall not be claimed by the true and lawful Owner thereof, or by one deputed under his or their Hand, within Ten days after ſeizure, the ſaid Salt ſhall be abſolutely forfeited to their Majeſties, and ſhall be ſold the next general day of Sale to be appointed by the Commiſſioners, or their Officers reſpectively, after the ſaid days are expired, the one moiety or half part of the proceed thereof (all neceſſary Charges being firſt deducted out of the whole) to be paid to the uſe of their Majeſties, and the other moiety or half part to be paid to the party or parties who ſeized the ſame; And in caſe ſuch Salt ſo ſeized ſhall be claimed within Ten days, by the true and lawful Owner thereof, or by one deputed thereunto under his Hand; And if the ſaid Owner or Claimer ſhall nevertheleſs neglect, or refuſe to make it appear before the next Juſtice of Peace of the County where ſuch ſeizure ſhall be made, by the Oath of one or more credible Witneſſes, (which Oath the ſaid Juſtice is hereby impowered to adminiſter) that the ſaid Salt ſo ſeized was, or had been duly entred, and a Warrant, Ticket, or Licence obtained, for the carrying and conveying the ſame, as aforeſaid, That then the ſaid Salt ſhall likewiſe be forfeited to their Majeſties, to be ſold and diſpoſed of, as aforeſaid; And every perſon who ſhall carry or convey, or cauſe any Salt to be carried and conveyed before due entry made, and Warrant or Licence obtained, as aforeſaid, ſhall likewiſe forfeit to their Majeſties double the value of ſuch Salt ſo carried or conveyed.

Retailer conveying Salt by water.

VIII. And be it further Enacted, That no Retailer nor Shopkeeper ſhall be permitted to Ship any Salt to be ſent to any Port within this Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, before he hath made it appear by Oath, or otherwiſe, before the Commiſſioners for Collecting of the ſaid Duties granted by this Act, or their Officers, or ſome or one of them, that the Duty of ſuch Salt is paid, or ſecured to be paid, or that it was bought of ſome other Retailer or Shopkeeper that hath paid the Duty.

Maſter of Veſſel, how he muſt act.

IX. And be it further Enacted, That all and every Maſter and Commander of any Ship or Veſſel whatſoever, that from and after the ſaid Five and twentieth day of March, ſhall Tranſport or Carry any Salt, or Rock-Salt, from one Port to another, within this Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, ſhall (before he or they have any Warrant for the Landing or Delivering of ſuch Salt (by him tranſported and carried) on Shore in any Port) deliver to the Officers for Collecting the ſaid Duties granted by this Act, in the ſaid Port, appointed to receive the ſame, a true particular of the quantity ſo tranſported and carried, as aforeſaid, Signed by the Officers for Collecting the ſaid Duties granted by this Act, and by the Officers of the Cuſtoms of the Port from whence the ſaid Ship or Veſſel came; and that then the Maſter or his Mate, or the Boatſwain of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, ſhall make Oath before the Commiſſioners for Collecting the ſaid Duties granted by this Act, or their Officers, ſome, or one of them, That to his knowledge there hath not been laid on Board, or taken into the ſaid Ship or Veſſel, any Salt, ſince he or they came from ſuch Port, as aforeſaid; And in caſe ſuch Ship or Veſſel be to deliver one part of her Salt at one Port, and another part at another Port or Ports, That then the Officers for Collecting the ſaid Duties, and Officers of the Cuſtoms, when ſuch part of the ſaid Salt ſhall be delivered, ſhall certifie on the backſide of the Cocquet Tranſire, or other Warrant, or elſe by Certificate alone, under the Hands and Seals of the Officers, how much, and what quantity of the Salt mentioned in the Cocket Tranſire, or other Warrant, from the Port from whence ſuch Ship or Veſſel came, hath been there landed and delivered, upon the penalty of forfeiting double the Value of the Salt that ſhall be otherwiſe delivered. And be it further Enacted, That no Fee or Reward be had or taken, for making, iſſuing or granting any of the Tickets, Warrants or Licences herein before mentioned, but that the ſame be made, iſſued and granted gratis.

Ticket gratis.

Reward to exporter of certain Fiſh.

X. Provided always, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That for all ſuch Fiſh, hereafter mentioned, as ſhall be Exported, during the continuance of the Duty upon Salt by this Act impoſed, from any Port or Place in this Kingdom, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, into parts beyond the Seas, by any perſon or perſons whatſoever, the Rates or Sums of Money hereafter expreſſed (That is to ſay,) For every Cask or Veſſel of Pilchards or Scads, containing Fifty Gallons, Twelve Shillings, and ſo proportionably for a greater or leſſer quantity: For every Barrel of White Herring, Two Shillings and Six pence: For every Barrel of Red Herrings, Two Shillings: For every Barrel of Salmon, Five Shillings: For every Hundred of Cod-Fiſh, Ling, Conger or Hake, Fifteen Shillings, and ſo proportionably for a greater or ſmaller number or quantity, ſhall be paid by the Officer appointed to collect the Duties upon Salt, payable by this Act, in the ſame Port from whence any ſuch Fiſh ſhall be exported, within Thirty days after demand thereof, on a Debenture, to be prepared by the Collector of the Cuſtoms in the Port where ſuch Fiſh ſhall be entred out for exportation, and verified by the perſon executing the Office of Searcher in ſuch Port, as to the quantity of Fiſh actually Shipped; and that the Oath of the Exporter or Agent be firſt taken before the principal Officers of the ſaid Port, before the Debenture be allowed, who are hereby required and impowered to give the ſaid Oath, That the Fiſh, in ſuch Debenture mentioned, were Engliſh taken, and really exported to parts beyond the Seas, and not intended to be relanded in England, Wales or Berwick; for which Debenture, no fee or reward ſhall be taken. And in caſe the Officer hereby directed to pay ſuch Debenture, ſhall not have ſufficient Money in his Hands to pay the ſame, then upon Certificate thereof by him made (which Certificate he is hereby required to give the party gratis) the principal Commiſſioners for managing their Majeſties Revenue of Exciſe for the time being, ſhall be chargeable with the ſaid payment, to be made in courſe out of the firſt Money in their Hands ariſing out of the ſaid Duties upon Salt; And any Officer neglecting or refuſing to pay the ſaid Money, or to give ſuch Certificate, as is here directed, ſhall forfeit double the ſum ſo to be paid to the party grieved, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, wherein no Eſſoign, Protection or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed.

Duty repaid upon exportation.

XI. Provided always, and be it Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon or perſons ſhall export beyond the Seas any Salt, as well Foreign as Engliſh, or any Rock-Salt, the Officer of the place where the ſaid Salt was made, taken out of Pits, or imported, and the Duty thereof paid or ſecured to be paid, ſhall upon demand deliver gratis a Certificate under his Hand and Seal, That the Duty impoſed by this Act, on ſuch Salt, hath been duly paid or ſecured to be paid, and then the Officer of the place where the Salt is exported upon producing the ſaid Certificate, and Oath made of Shipping off the ſaid Salt, and of its not being relanded in England or Wales, ſhall give a Debenture under his Hand for repayment of the ſaid Duty, which being produced to the Officer of the place where the Duty on the ſaid Salt ſhall have been paid, or ſecured to be paid, ſuch ſecurity ſhall be diſcharged; And all and every ſum and ſums of money, paid for the duty of the ſaid Salt ſhall be repaid upon demand by the ſaid Officer without fee or reward.

Juſtices ſhall ſet the Rate of Salt.

XII. And be it further Enacted, That the Juſtices of the Peace not concerned in making or ſelling Salt, in every County, Riding or Diviſion of England, ſhall and are hereby authorized and impowered at every Eaſter and Michaelmas Quarter Seſſions, to ſet the prices of all Salt and Rock-ſalt, to be ſold by the maker or firſt ſeller thereof in the ſaid County for the half year next enſuing, and that no perſon or perſons tha ſhall be the maker or firſt ſeller of any Salt, ſhall ſell the ſame for more then the prices ſo ſet by the ſaid Juſtices, as aforeſaid, over and above the duty payable by virtue of this Act, upon pain of forfeiting for every ſuch Offence Five pounds, and double the value of the Salt ſo ſold, to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of the Offenders Goods, the one moiety thereof to be paid to their Majeſties, their Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other moiety thereof to the Informer.

Penalty for ſelling above the Rate.

Salt imported Foreign Salt.

XIII. And be it Enacted and declared, That all Salt imported or brought by Sea or Land into the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and not of the product of any of the ſaid places, ſhall be adjudged and deemed to be foreign Salt imported, and ſhall be charged as ſuch with the duty of Three pence per Gallon by this Act granted, and that all Scotch Salt brought into England by land, ſhall be entred at Carliſle or Berwick, with the Officer or Officers for that purpoſe there to be appointed, under the penalty of the forfeiture of double the value of ſuch Salt ſo brought in.

Oaths taken by Commiſſioner. Seſſ. 1. Cap. 8.

XIV. And be it Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That no perſon or perſons ſhall be capable of acting as chief Commiſſioner for collecting the ſaid duties granted by this Act, until he or they ſhall, before one of the Barons of the Exchequer, take the Oaths appointed by an Act of Parliament made in the firſt year of their Majeſties Reign, Intituled, An Act for the Abrogating the Oaths of Supremacy and Allegiance, and appointing other Oaths, and the Oath following;

Oaths taken by the under Officers.

YOU ſhall ſwear to execute your Office truly and faithfully without favour or affection, and ſhall from time to time true Accompt make and deliver to ſuch perſon and perſons as their Majeſties ſhall appoint to receive the ſame, and ſhall take no Fee or Reward for the execution of the ſaid Office from any other perſon then from their Majeſties, or thoſe whom their Majeſties ſhall appoint on that behalf; So help you God, &c.

XV. And be it likewiſe Enacted, That no perſon or perſons ſhall be capable of intermeddling with any office or imployment relating to the ſaid Duties granted by this Act, other then that of chief Commiſſioner, until he or they ſhall (before two or more of the chief Commiſſioners for collecting the Duties granted by this Act, or before two or more of the Juſtices of the Peace of the County or Place where they ſhall be appointed Officers for execution of this Act) take the aforeſaid Oaths appointed by the ſaid Act, and the ſaid other laſt mentioned Oath mutatis mutandis; And the ſaid Barons of the Exchequer, and chief Commiſſioners for collecting the ſaid Duties granted by this Act, the ſaid Juſtices are hereby impowered, and required to adminiſter the ſaid Oaths.

Perſon executing ſued, plead general iſſue, have double Coſts.

XVI. Provided always, and be it Enacted, That if any perſon or perſons, ſhall at any time be ſued or proſecuted for any thing by him or them done, or executed in purſuance of this Act, he or they ſhall or may plead the general Iſſue, and give this Act in evidence for his defence; and if upon a Tryal a verdict ſhall paſs for the defendant or defendants, or the plaintiff or plaintiffs be nonſuit, diſcontinue or forbear proſecuting the ſaid Actions, then ſuch defendant or defendants, ſhall have double Coſts, to him or them awarded againſt ſuch plaintiff or plaintiffs; for which coſts he ſhall have ſuch remedy as in other caſes where coſts are by law given to defendants.

No Certiorari upon Orders.

XVII. Provided alſo, and be it Enacted, That no Writ or Writs of Certiorari ſhall ſuperſede Execution or other proceedings upon any order or orders made by the ſaid chief Commiſſioners or Juſtices of Peace, in purſuance of this Act; but that execution and other proceedings ſhall and may be had and made thereupon; any ſuch Writ or Writs, or Allowance thereof notwithſtanding.

Meaſure ſettled.

XVIII. Provided always, and be it further Enacted, for the aſcertaining of all meaſures where the ſaid duties are to be paid, That all Salt be meaſured by a Buſhel of Eight Gallons Wincheſter meaſure, and by fit meaſurers living upon the place where the Salt is made, to be ſworn and admitted by ſome Juſtice of Peace near adjoyning, without charge or fee, upon forfeiture of double the value of the Salt that ſhall not be ſo meaſured.

Penalty for removing without notice.

XIX. And be it Enacted, That no Salt ſhall be delivered from any Salt, works or pits, without notice firſt given to the Officer appointed for that purpoſe, upon pain of forfeiture of the Salt ſo delivered; and upon pain of twenty pounds to be forfeited by the Owner or Owners of the Salt-works or pits where ſuch Salt ſhall be ſo delivered; the moiety of which forfeitures to be to the uſe of the proſecutor, and the other moiety to the uſe of their Majeſties.

Penalty for re-landing.

XX. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any of the Salt for which the duty ſhall have been repaid and diſcharged upon the exportation thereof, as is herein before directed, ſhall (by fraud or otherwiſe) be landed in England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, before the duty be again paid, and ſuch entry, and all other things performed, as are herein before required, in caſe where any foreign Salt is imported, every perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit double the value of ſuch Salt ſo landed, and ſuch other penalties and forfeitures as are herein inflicted upon any perſon who ſhall land any Foreign Salt, contrary to the true intent and meaning of this Act.

Proviſion for perſons loſing Salt at Sea.

XXI. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Merchant or other perſon, being a ſubject of this Realm of England, ſhall, during the continuance of this Act, ſhip any Salt or Rock-Salt, that hath paid the duty to their Majeſties by this Act impoſed, to convey it by Sea to any part of England, and the Veſſel, on which ſuch Salt, as aforeſaid, is ſhipt, ſhall either periſh at Sea, or be taken by enemies with ſuch Salt on Board her, that in ſuch caſe any Merchant or perſon, owner of the ſaid Salt, ſhall, upon proof made before the Juſtices of the Peace at the Quarter Seſſions held for the County, Riding, Diviſion or Town wherein he doth inhabit, of the loſs of ſuch Salt ſo ſhipt, receive from the ſaid Seſſions a Certificate that ſuch proof was made before them, and, upon producing the ſaid Certificate to any of their Majeſties Officers appointed to collect the duty by this Act impoſed, the ſaid Officer or Officers are hereby required to let ſuch perſons buy the like quantity of Salt, as is expreſſed in the Certificate to be loſt, without paying to their Majeſties any duty or Exciſe for the ſame; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Owner not to pay Exciſe till ſold.

XXII. Provided alſo, and be it Enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the owners and proprietors of any Salt-Rock or Rock-Salt, to remove and carry out of and from the Pits or Warehouſes adjoyning to or belonging to ſuch Pits, into his or their other Warehouſes, or other places for ſtoring thereof, for conveniency of ſelling or ſhipping off the ſame, any of the ſaid Salt-Rock or Rock-Salt, after due entry made thereof, and a Warrant or Ticket taken for the ſame, from the Officer next to ſuch Salt-pits, which Warrant or Ticket the ſaid Officer is hereby required, upon demand, to give without fee or reward, as aforeſaid; And that the ſaid owners or proprietors ſhall not be obliged to pay or ſecure the payment of the ſaid duty, until ſuch time as the ſaid Salt-Rock or Rock-Salt ſhall be ſold and delivered, as aforeſaid.

Contracts heretofore made how charged.

XXIII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no perſon or perſons whatſoever ſhall be obliged by virtue of any contract made, at any time before the firſt day of December, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety three, to deliver any Salt or Rock-Salt, unleſs the perſon who is to receive the ſame, ſhall before or at the time for delivery of the ſame, by ſuch contract pay to the ſeller thereof ſuch ſum or ſums, as he ſhall have paid or ſecured to pay for the duty for the ſame by virtue of this Act.

Cheſter Salts entred by weight.

XXIV. And whereas Salt made at the preſent Salt-works in the County Palatine of Cheſter, when taken from the Pans is put into Walms, Baskets or Veſſels, and muſt be carried by the maker ſome miles diſtant from the works before he can deliver the ſame to the Merchant or firſt buyer, ſo that to break and meaſure the Salt at the ſaid Salt-works, would be great loſs to the makers thereof, Be it therefore enacted, That all Salt made at the ſaid Salt-works in the ſaid County, ſhall be entred by weight only, and that Fifty ſix pounds weight thereof ſhall be deemed and taken to be a Wincheſter Buſhel of Eight Gallons Wincheſter meaſure, and ſhall be entred, rated and taxed accordingly.

Salt-Rock by weight.

XXV. And whereas Salt-Rock or Rock-Salt taken out of pits is in ſuch great Lumps that it cannot be meaſured without breaking the ſame to powder, which would be great loſs to the Proprietors thereof, Be it therefore enacted, that all Salt-Rock or Rock-Salt taken out of Pits, ſhall be entred by weight only, and that ſixſcore pounds weight thereof ſhall be deemed and taken to be a Wincheſter Buſhel of eight Gallons Wincheſter Meaſure, and ſhall be entred, rated and taxed accordingly.

Allowance to Refiner.

XXVI. And to the intent that Salt made by melting and refining of Rock-Salt may not, contrary to the true intent and meaning of this Act, be charged more then other Engliſh Salt, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, that where any ſuch Rock-Salt ſhall be melted and refined, which had before paid the Duty Impoſed by this Act, according to the direction of the ſame, the perſon who ſhall make ſuch Salt by refining, ſhall receive an allowance and abatement of Duty on the Salt by him ſo made, after the Rate and Proportion of twelve pence for every Buſhel of ſuch Rock-Salt ſo melted and refined, which had paid the Duty, as aforeſaid, Oath being firſt made before ſome Juſtice of the Peace near adjoyning to ſuch Salt-Works of the particular quantities of the ſaid Rock-Salt ſo by him employed in making the ſaid Salt by refining; which Oath the ſaid Juſtice of the Peace is hereby Impowred to Adminiſter, and upon due proof by Oath or otherwiſe made of the payment of the Duty Impoſed by this Act.

XXVII. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the ſecond year of their Majeſties Reign, Entituled, An Act for Granting to their Majeſties ſeveral Additional Duties upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors for Four years, from the time that an Act for Doubling the Duty of Exciſe, upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, during the ſpace of one year doth Expire, It was enacted from and after the ſeventeenth day of November, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety one, there ſhould be throughout their Majeſties Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, Raiſed, Levied, Collected and Paid unto their Majeſties their Heirs and Succeſſors, during the ſpace and term of Four years and no longer, for Beer, Ale, Cyder and other Liquors therein mentioned by way of Exciſe, over and above all other Duties, Charges and Impoſitions by any former Act or Acts which ſhould be then unexpired, ſet and impoſed in ſuch manner as therein is mentioned: Be it further enacted, that for the further encouragement of ſuch perſons who ſhall voluntarily Contribute, as aforeſaid, towards the raiſing and paying into their Majeſties Exchequer, any Sum or Sums, not exceeding in the whole, the Sum of ten hundred thouſand pounds, upon the ſeveral Terms and Recompences herein after mentioned, that from and after the Seventeenth day of May, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſeven, there ſhall be throughout their Majeſties Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, Raiſed, Levied, Collected and Paid unto their Majeſties, their Heirs and Succeſſors, during the Space and Term of ſixteen years and no longer, for Beer, Ale, Cyder and other Liquors herein after expreſſed, by way of Exciſe, over and above all Duties, Charges and Impoſitions by any former Act or Acts then unexpired, ſet and impoſed one moiety or half part of the ſeveral Rates and duties of Exciſe granted by the ſaid laſt mentioned Act, in manner and form following: (that is to ſay) (1) For every Barrel of Beer, or Ale, above ſix ſhillings the Barrel, excluſive of the Duty of Exciſe, Brewed by the common Brewer, or any other perſon or perſons who doth, or ſhall Sell or Tap out Beer or Ale publickly or privately, to be paid by the Common Brewer, or by ſuch other perſon or perſons reſpectively, and ſo proportionably for a greater or leſſer quantity, over and above the Duties payable for the ſame, Nine pence. (2) For every Barrel of Beer or Ale of ſix ſhillings the Barrel or under, Brewed by the Comon Brewer, or any other perſon or perſons who ſhall Sell or Tap out Beer or Ale publickly or privately, to be paid by the Common Brewer, or by ſuch other perſon or perſons reſpectively, as aforeſaid, and ſo proportionably for a greater or leſſer quantity, over and above the Duties payable for the ſame, three pence. (3) For every Barrel of Vinegar, or Vinegar Beer, Brewed or Made of any Engliſh Materials, by any Common Brewer, or any other perſon for ſale, to be paid by the Maker thereof, and ſo proportionably for a greater or leſſer quantity, over and above the Duties of Exciſe payable for the ſame, One Shilling Six pence. (4) For every Barrel of Vinegar, or Liquor prepared for Vinegar, made here for ſale, that hath run through Rape, or made with, or paſſing through any Foreign Materials, or any mixture with foreign Materials, to be paid by the Maker thereof, and ſo proportionably for a greater or leſſer quantity, Four Shillings. (5) For every Barrel of Beer, Ale or Mum Imported from beyond the Seas, or from the Iſlands of Guernſey, or Jerſey and ſo proportionably for a greater or leſſer quantity, to be paid by the Importers before landing, over and above the duties payable for the ſame, Three Shillings. into the ſaid Office of Exciſe by the Receivers or Collectors of the ſame, or by any other perſon whatſoever: And the ſaid Commiſſioners and Governours of Exciſe for the time being, are hereby required, and ſtrictly enjoyned from time to time to pay weekly, (videlicet) on Wedneſday in every week, if it be not a holiday, and if it be, then the next day after that is not a holiday, all and every the moneys ariſing by the rates and duties of Exciſe, and other duties hereby granted, into the receipt of their Majeſties Exchequer, diſtinct, and apart from the other moneys, which the ſaid Commiſſioners and Governours of Exciſe ſhall receive for the uſe of their Majeſties, their heirs and ſucceſſors. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, that there ſhall be provided and kept in their Majeſties Exchequer (that is to ſay,) in the Office of the Auditor of the receipts, one book, in which all the ſaid weekly moneys, which ſhall be paid into the Exchequer, as aforeſaid, ſhall be entred apart and diſtinct from all other moneys paid or payable to their Majeſties, their heirs and ſucceſſors, upon any account whatſoever.

Penalty upon Officers.

XXX. And be it further enacted, that if the ſaid Commiſſioners and Governours of Exciſe for the time being, ſhall refuſe or neglect to pay into the Exchequer all or any the ſaid weekly ſums appointed to be paid, as aforeſaid, in ſuch manner as they are before by this Act required to do, or ſhall divert or miſapply any of the ſame, then they for every ſuch Offence ſhall forfeit their Offices of Commiſſioners and Governours for the management and receipt of the Exciſe, and be incapable of any Office or Place of Truſt whatſoever, and ſhall be lyable to pay the full value of any Sum or Sums, ſo diverted or miſapplied, to any perſon or perſons, who will ſue for the ſame by any Action of debt, bill, plaint or information, in any of their Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no eſſoign, protection, wager of Law, priviledge of Parliament, or other Priviledge, or more then one Imparlance ſhall be granted or allowed.

Sums to be a Fond.

Salaries provided.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, that all the ſaid Sums, ſo as aforeſaid, appointed to be paid weekly into the receipt of Exchequer, during the ſaid term of Sixteen years, ſhall be the yearly Fond for the ſeveral and reſpective purpoſes herein after mentioned and expreſſed. Provided always and be it enacted, that it ſhall and may be lawful to and for their Majeſties, their heirs and ſucceſſors, out of the ſaid duties ariſing upon Salt, to cauſe ſuch Sum and Sums of Money to be expended and paid from time to time for Salaries or other incident Charges, as ſhall be neceſſary in and for the Receiving, Collecting, Levying or Managing of the ſame duties upon Salt, during the ſaid term therein by this Act granted; Any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Accounts of Salt, and Exciſe kept apart.

XXXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, that the Head Office of Exciſe which is now eſtabliſhed within the City of London, ſhall be continued and be within the ſaid City, or ten miles thereof, and a ſufficient number of Commiſſioners therein from time to time ſhall be continued or appointed by their Majeſties, their heirs and ſucceſſors, to govern and manage the receipt of Exciſe, and to perform and execute the ſeveral matters and things hereby enjoyned to be done and executed by ſuch Commiſſioners, until the ſame ſhall be fully performed and complyed with, according to the true intent and meaning of this Act; And that in like manner there ſhall be continued, and be within the ſaid City, or ten miles thereof, by the appointment of their Majeſties, their heirs and ſucceſſors, a Comptroller of Exciſe, until ſuch time as all matters and things, which by this Act ſuch Comptroller is enjoyned to do and perform ſhall be fully performed and accompliſhed; which ſaid Comptroller for the time being, is hereby alſo required and commanded to keep a perfect and diſtinct account in Books fairly written of all the moneys which ſhall ariſe by the ſaid Duties upon Salt, and the ſaid Duties of Exciſe by this Act granted, as the ſame reſpectively ſhall from time to time ariſe, come or be brought into the ſaid Office of Exciſe; To which Books all perſons concerned ſhall have free Acceſs at all ſeaſonable times, without Fee or Charge; And that the ſaid Commiſſioners and Comptroller ſhall execute their reſpective Offices, in the performance of all things enjoyned by this Act, without any other Salary, Fee or Reward then what they now have or enjoy.

140000 l. a yearly Fond.

The Kings Revenue chargeable if theſe Duties fall Short.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, that yearly and every year, reckoning the firſt year to begin from the ſaid five and twentieth day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety four, the full Sum of One hundred and fourty thouſand pounds, by or out of the Moneys to ariſe by the ſaid Duties upon Salt, and by the ſaid Rates and Duties of Exciſe hereby Granted, or either of them, and to be brought into the Receipt of Exchequer, by weekly payments, as aforeſaid, in caſe the ſaid weekly payments ſhall extend thereunto, ſhall be the whole and entire yearly Fond: And in caſe the ſaid weekly payments ſhall not amount to one hundred and fourty thouſand pounds per Annum, then the ſaid weekly Moneys or payments, ſo far as the ſame will extend, ſhall be part of the yearly Fond for and towards the anſwering or paying of the Annuities herein after mentioned, and for other the purpoſes hereafter in this Act expreſſed. And in caſe the ſaid Duties upon Salt, and the ſaid Rates and Duties of Exciſe by this Act Granted, or either of them ſhall at any time or times appear to be ſo deficient or low in the produce of the ſame, as that within any One year, to be reckoned, as aforeſaid, the weekly payments upon the ſame Rates or Duties, or any of them, ſhall not amount to ſo much as One hundred and forty thouſand pounds, or to ſo much as ſhall be ſufficient to diſcharge and ſatisfie the ſaid Annuities, and other Benefits and Advantages by this Act appointed, or intended to be paid, within, or for the ſame year reſpectively; That then, and ſo often, and in every ſuch caſe, the Commiſſioners of their Majeſties Treaſury, and the Under Treaſurer of the Exchequer now being, and the Treaſurer and Under Treaſurer of the Exchequer, or Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the time being, are hereby ſtrictly enjoyned and required by virtue of this Act, and without any further or other Warrant, to be ſued for, had or obtained from their Majeſties, their heirs or ſucceſſors in this behalf, to cauſe every ſuch deficiency to be made Good, by applying and iſſuing or paying, ſo much of any Treaſure or Revenue, belonging or to belong to their Majeſties, their Heirs or Succeſſors (not being Appropriated to any particular uſe or uſes, by any Act or Acts of Parliament) towards the diſcharging or paying of the ſaid Annuities, or other benefits or advantages appointed to be paid by this Act, as together with the moneys, which ſhall have been brought into the ſaid receipt, of, or for the ſaid Rates or Duties upon Salt, and the ſaid Rates and Duties of Exciſe, as aforeſaid, ſhall be ſufficient to pay off and diſcharge all the moneys, which within the ſame year reſpectively, ſhall be grown due or ought to be paid upon the ſaid Annuities, or other benefits or advantages, according to the true intent and meaning of this preſent Act.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, that it ſhall and may be lawful for any perſon or perſons, Natives or Foreigners, to contribute towards advancing the Sum of Ten hundred thouſand pounds for carrying on of the ſaid War, by paying at or before the tenth day of September, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety four, to any Receiver or Receivers, to be appointed for that purpoſe, as is herein after mentioned, the Sum of Ten pounds, or divers intire Sums of Ten pounds upon this Act; And that for the raiſing the ſaid Sum of Ten hundred thouſand pounds, any perſon who will become an Adventurer, ſhall and may advance the Sum of Ten pounds, for which ſum ſo advanced, he, ſhe or they for Sixteen years, ſhall be entituled to receive a Share or Dividend of the ſaid yearly Fond, as hereafter is expreſſed; And that every Adventurer may advance as many entire Sums of Ten pounds as he, ſhe or they ſhall think fit, and for every ſuch Sum of Ten pounds ſo advanced, he, ſhe or they is or are to be Intereſted in one Lot or Share in the ſaid yearly Fond.

Native or Alien may Advance 10 l. &c.

XXXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, that ſuch perſons as their Majeſties by their Commiſſion under the Great Seal of England, ſhall nominate or appoint, ſhall be Managers and Directors for preparing and Delivering of Tickets, and to Overſee the Drawing of Lots, and to order, do and perform ſuch other matters and things as are hereafter in and by this Act directed or appointed, by ſuch Managers or Directors to be done and performed. And that ſuch Managers or Directors ſhall meet together from time to time, at ſome publick Office or Place within London or Weſtminſter, for the execution of the powers and truſts in them repoſed by this Act; and that the ſaid Managers or Directors, or ſo many of them as ſhall be preſent at any ſuch meeting, or the major part of them, ſhall cauſe Books to be prepared, in which every Leaf ſhall be divided or diſtinguiſhed, into three Columns, and upon the innermoſt of the ſaid Columns, there ſhall be printed One hundred thouſand Tickets, Numbered 1, 2, 3. and ſo onwards in Arithmetical Progreſſion, where the common exceſs is to be One, until they ariſe to and for the Number One hundred thouſand, and upon the middle Column in every of the ſaid Books there ſhall be printed One hundred thouſand Tickets of the ſame length, breadth and form, and Numbred in like manner; And in the extream Columns of the ſaid Books there ſhall be printed a third Rank or Series of Tickets, of the ſame Numbers with thoſe in the two other Columns, which Tickets ſhall ſeverally be of an Oblong Figure; And in the ſaid Books ſhall be joyned with Oblique Lines, in ſuch manner as is here Deſcribed, XXXVIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the ſaid Managers and Directors, or the major part of them which ſhall be preſent at any Meeting, as aforeſaid, ſhall alſo prepare, or cauſe to be prepared, other Books, in which every Leaf ſhall be divided or diſtinguiſhed into two Columns, and upon the innermoſt of thoſe Columns there ſhall be Printed, one hundred thouſand Tickets; and upon the outermoſt of the ſaid two Columns, there ſhall be printed one hundred thouſand Tickets, all which ſhall be of equal length and breadth, as near as may be, which two Columns in the ſaid Books, ſhall be joyned with ſome flouriſh or deviſe, thorow which the outermoſt Ticket may be cut off indent-wiſe; and that two thouſand five hundred Tickets, part of thoſe to be contained in the outermoſt Columns of the Books laſt mentioned, ſhall be, and be called the Fortunate Tickets, to which extraordinary benefits ſhall belong, as is herein after mentioned: and in caſe the ſaid whole ſum of ten hundred thouſand pounds ſhall be advanced and contributed by Contributors or Adventurers, as aforeſaid, then the ſaid Managers and Directors, or the major part of them, or ſuch of them as ſhall be preſent at a meeting, as aforeſaid, ſhall cauſe the ſaid Fortunate Tickets to be written upon, as well in figures, as in words at length, in manner following: that is to ſay, upon One of them, one thouſand pounds yearly; Upon every one of Nine of them ſeverally, five hundred pounds yearly; And upon every one of Twenty of them ſeverally, one hundred pounds yearly; And upon every one of Eighty of them ſeverally, fifty pounds yearly; And upon every one of Ninety of them ſeverally, five and twenty pounds yearly; And upon every one of Three hundred of them ſeverally, twenty pounds yearly; And upon every one of Two thouſand of them ſeverally, ten pounds yearly. Which yearly ſums ſo to be written upon the ſaid Fortunate Tickets, together with one hundred and fifty pounds yearly, to be allowed to the Owner of the firſt drawn Ticket; and one hundred pounds yearly to the Owner of the laſt drawn Ticket (beſides the benefits which may happen to belong to the two Tickets laſt mentioned) will amount in the whole to fourty thouſand pounds per Annum, part of the ſaid yearly fond.

Fond muſt be proportionable to the Sum advanc'd.

Blanks 20s. a year.

XXXIX. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, that if the ſaid whole ſum of ten hundred thouſand pounds ſhall not be advanced and contributed by the Contributors or Adventurers, as aforeſaid, on or before the tenth day of September, then ſo much only of the abovesaid yearly ſum of one hundred and fourty thouſand pounds, as ſhall bear proportion to the real ſum which ſhall be actually advanced or contributed by the Contributors or Adventurers, as aforeſaid, ſhall be the yearly Fond to be applyed by this Act for ſatisfaction of the Annuities, and other purpoſes hereby intended, that is to ſay, as the ſum of ten hundred thouſand pounds is to one hundred and fourty thouſand pounds per Annum, ſo the real ſum which ſhall be actually advanced or contributed on this Act, as aforeſaid, ſhall be to the certain yearly Fond in ſuch caſe provided by this Act for the ſaid Annuities and other purpoſes; and in ſuch caſe a diligent calculation ſhall be made by the ſaid Managers and Directors, or the major part of them, who ſhall cauſe all the yearly ſums to be written upon the ſaid Fortunate Tickets; and the two yearly ſums for the ſaid firſt and laſt drawn Tickets to be proportioned accordingly; yet ſo as that every numbred Ticket which ſhall be drawn, not having a Fortunate Lot to come up for it exceeding twenty ſhillings a year, ſhall nevertheleſs be Entituled to twenty ſhillings a year for the ſaid term of ſixteen years. And that all the ſaid hundred thouſand Tickets, ets, as well the Fortunate as the Blanks, which ſhall be contained in the ſaid outermoſt Columns of the Books laſt mentioned, ſhall, in the preſence of the ſaid Managers and Directors, or the major part of them, which ſhall be preſent at a meeting, as aforeſaid, and in the preſence of ſuch Adventurers as will then be there, be carefully rolled up and faſtned with Thread or Silk, and be ſeverally cut out indent-wiſe, thorow the ſaid figure or Deviſe into another Box to be prepared for this purpoſe, and to be marked with the letter B. which Box ſhall preſently be put into another ſtrong Box, and be lockt up with ſeven different Locks and Keys, to be kept by as many of the ſaid Managers, and Sealed up with their Seals, or the Seals of ſome of them, until theſe Tickets ſhall alſo be drawn in the manner and form herein after mentioned; and that no Money ſhall be received from any Contributor or Adventurer, as aforeſaid, after the ſaid tenth day of September: And that the whole buſineſs of rolling up, cutting off, and putting into the ſaid Boxes the ſaid Tickets, and locking up and ſealing the ſaid Boxes, ſhall be performed by the ſaid Managers and Directors, or ſuch of them, as aforeſaid, on or before the firſt day of October, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety four. And to the end every perſon concerned may be well aſſured that the Counter-part of the ſame number with his Ticket, is put into the Box marked with the letter A. from whence the ſame may be drawn, and that other matters are done as hereby directed, ſome publick Notification in print ſhall be given of the preciſe time or times of cutting the ſaid Tickets into the ſaid Boxes, to the end that ſuch Adventurers as ſhall be minded to ſee the ſame done, may be preſent at the doing thereof.

The Tickets to be rolled up and cut into another Box marked B. which is to be put into another Box locked with ſeven Locks, &c.

No Money advanced after 10th. September.

Publick Notice of time of cutting the Tickets.

XL. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, that on the Eighth day of October, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety four, the ſaid Managers and Directors ſhall cauſe the ſaid ſeveral Boxes, with all the Tickets therein, to be brought into the Guild Hall in the City of London, by Eight of the Clock in the Forenoon of the ſame day, and placed on a Table there for the purpoſe, and ſhall then and there ſeverally attend this ſervice, and cauſe the two Boxes containing the ſaid Tickets, to be taken out of the other two Boxes in which they ſhall have been lockt up, and the Tickets or Lots in the reſpective innermoſt Boxes being in the preſence of the ſaid Managers and Directors, or ſuch of them as ſhall be then preſent, and of ſuch Adventurers as will be there for the ſatisfaction of themſelves, well ſhaken and mingled in each Box diſtinctly, ſome one indifferent and fit perſon to be appointed and directed by the Managers aforeſaid, or the major part of them, or of ſuch of them, as ſhall be then preſent, ſhall take out or draw one Ticket from that Box where the ſaid numbred Tickets ſhall be, as aforeſaid, put, and one other indifferent and fit perſon to be appointed and directed in like manner, ſhall preſently take out a Ticket or Lot from that Box where the ſaid Two thouſand five hundred Fortunate, and Ninety ſeven thouſand five hundred Blank Tickets ſhall be promiſcuouſly put, as aforeſaid, and immediately both the Tickets ſo drawn ſhall be opened, and the numbred Ticket, as well as the Fortunate or Blank Ticket, ſhall be named aloud; and if the Ticket taken or drawn from the Box containing the Fortunate and Blank Lots ſhall appear to be a Blank, then the numbred Ticket ſo drawn, with the ſaid Blank at the ſame time drawn, ſhall both be put upon one File; and if the Ticket ſo taken or drawn from the Box containing the Fortunate and Blank Lots ſhall appear to be one of the Fortunate Tickets, then the yearly ſum written upon ſuch Fortunate Ticket (whatſoever it be) ſhall be entred by a Clerk, which the ſaid Managers, or the major part of them, as aforeſaid, ſhall imploy, and overſee for this purpoſe, into a Book to be kept for entring the Numbers coming up with the ſaid Fortunate Tickets, and the yearly ſums whereunto they ſhall be entituled reſpectively; and two of the ſaid Managers ſhall ſet their names as witneſſes to every ſuch entry, and the ſaid Fortunate and numbred Ticket ſo drawn together, ſhall be put upon another File; and ſo the ſaid drawing of the Tickets ſhall continue by taking one Ticket at a time out of each Box, and with opening, naming aloud, and filing the ſame, and by entring the Fortunate Lots in ſuch method as is before mentioned, until the whole number of two thouſand five hundred Fortunate Tickets, and one more for the laſt, as aforeſaid, ſhall be compleatly drawn; and if the ſame cannot be performed in one days time, the ſaid Directors or Managers ſhall cauſe the Boxes to be lockt up and ſealed in manner, as aforeſaid, and adjourn till the next day, and ſo from day to day, and then open the ſame and proceed, as above, till the ſaid whole number of Fortunate Tickets ſhall be compleatly drawn, as aforeſaid; and afterwards, the ſaid numbred Tickets ſo drawn, with the Fortunate Tickets drawn againſt the ſame, ſhall be and remain in a ſtrong Box lockt up, as aforeſaid, and under the cuſtody of the ſaid Managers, until they ſhall take them out to examine, adjuſt and ſettle the property thereof.

The manner of Drawing the Tickets.

XLI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that at any time after ſix days, and within ſixty days after the Drawing ſhall be finiſhed, the ſeveral Adventurers, or their Agents or Aſſigns, who ſhall be actually poſſeſſed of the numbred Tickets delivered out by the aboveſaid Receivers, for which Fortunate Lots ſhall be drawn, as aforeſaid, ſhall, or may appear with the ſaid Tickets ſo in their reſpective poſſeſſions, for the Managers, or the major part of them which ſhall be preſent at a meeting, as aforeſaid, to know, and write down the names of the reſpective perſons to whom the Fortunate Lots ſhall ſeverally belong, and the ſeveral yearly ſums ſo written upon the ſaid Fortunate Tickets, as aforeſaid, ſhall ſeverally and reſpectively belong, and be adjudged, accepted, and taken to belong, and appertain to ſuch perſons reſpectively, as ſhall ſo appear with the numbred Tickets to the ſaid Managers, or to ſuch perſons as ſhall have their names indorſed upon any ſuch Tickets, in caſe they be brought to the Managers by any other hands. And to the end the Fortunate may know (whether abſent or preſent) to what degree they have been ſo, as ſoon as the Drawing is over, the ſaid Managers are hereby required, forthwith to cauſe to be Printed and Publiſht, the number of the Ticket drawn, againſt each Fortunate Ticket, and the yearly ſum written in the ſame: And if any contention or diſpute ſhall ariſe in adjuſting the property of the ſaid Fortunate Tickets, the major part of the Managers aforeſaid agreeing

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That any Money contributed or lent by or payable to any perſon or perſons, upon or by virtue of this Act, ſhall not be charged or chargeable with any rates, duties or impoſitions whatſoever.

Grants made by the King void.

L. Provided always, and it is hereby further declared and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all grants or diſpoſitions of any of the Moneys ariſing, or which ſhall be collected by the authority of this Act, hereafter to be made by their Majeſties, their Heirs or Succeſſors, to any other perſon or perſons, or in any other manner, or for any longer term or intereſt, then by this Act is appointed, ſhall be, and are hereby declared null and void to all intents and purpoſes whatſoever.

A particular Officer appointed by the Treaſury in the Exchequer for the payment of theſe Annuities, who ſhall be ſubject to the Rules of the Treaſury.

LI. And whereas by reaſon of the multiplicity of payments, which are to be made in purſuance of this Act, it will be difficult (if not impoſſible) that every particular payment ſhould be directed, recorded, paid and accounted for by the ſeveral Officers of the receipt of the Exchequer, in the ordinary courſe of payments there uſed; Therefore and to the end that the Exchequer may be regularly diſcharged of all the Moneys of the ſeveral rates and duties before mentioned, which ſhall be brought into the ſame for the ſaid Fond: Be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That there ſhall be in the ſaid receipt of the Exchequer, a diſtinct Office for paying the annuities or benefits by this Act appointed to be paid, and ſome convenient Room or Rooms, in or near the receipt of the Exchequer at Weſtminſter, ſhall be prepared, aſſigned and uſed for that purpoſe; which Office ſhall continue until all the payments to grow due by this Act, during the ſaid term of Sixteen years, ſhall be ſatisfied; And an Officer or Officers ſhall be appointed thereunto from time to time by the Commiſſioners of their Majeſties Treaſury now being, or by the Treaſurer of the Exchequer or Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the time being, who ſhall alſo take ſecurity according to the beſt of their judgments and diſcretions, from every or any ſuch Officer or Officers, for his or their due paying, anſwering and accounting for all the Moneys which he or they ſhall receive, and for the due and faithful performance of his or their Office and Offices reſpectively; And that the Moneys of the Fond by this Act appointed, which ſhall from time to time come or be brought into the receipt of the Exchequer, as abovesaid, ſhall by the Commiſſioners of their Majeſties Treaſury, and the Under Treaſurer of the Exchequer now being, or by the Treaſurer and under Treaſurer of the Exchequer, or Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the time being, without any further or other Warrant to be ſued for, had or obtained from their Majeſties, their Heirs or Succeſſors, and in ſuch proportions from time to time as ſhall be neceſſary and ſufficient to anſwer the reſpective payments which ſhall grow due, and are to be made by the ſaid particular Officer or Officers, be iſſued or paid over from time to time, to the hands of ſuch Officer or Officers by way of impreſt, and upon account, to and for the payment of the ſaid annuities or benefits by this Act appointed to be paid; And that ſuch particular Officer and Officers ſhall apply the ſame thereunto in ſuch manner and form as are above mentioned, and by this Act directed in that behalf; and ſhall be ſubject and liable to ſuch inſpection, examination, comptrol and audit, and to ſuch rules, in reſpect of his paying, accounting and other matters relating to the execution of his Office, as the ſaid Commiſſioners of the Treaſury now being, or the Treaſurer and Under Treaſurer of the Exchequer, or the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the time being, ſhall think fit, or find neceſſary or reaſonable to eſtabliſh or appoint from time to time, for the better execution of the intent and end of this Act, and the ſatisfaction of contributors, adventurers or others concerned or to be concerned therein; any thing in this preſent Act contained, or any law, cuſtom, uſage or courſe of the Exchequer to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Transfer Office to be ſubject to the Orders of the Treaſury.

LIII. And it is enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the Transfer Office above mentioned, ſhall be continued for the purpoſes aforeſaid by their Majeſties, their Heirs and Succeſſors, and an Officer in the ſame, until all matters and things hereby required to be done by ſuch an Officer ſhall be fully accompliſhed; And that as well the Managers and Directors above mentioned, as alſo the Commiſſioner and Officer of the Transfer Office, and the ſaid Receivers, and the ſaid particular Officer in the Exchequer, and all the Clerks, Miniſters and Servants, to be employed by, or under them reſpectively, from time to time, ſhall in, and for the better execution of their ſeveral places and truſts, and for purſuing the directions, ends or intents of this Act, obſerve, and perform ſuch rules, methods, and orders, as they reſpectively ſhall, from time to time, receive from the ſaid Commiſſioners of the Treaſury now being, or from the Treaſurer of the Exchequer, or Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the time being, ſo as ſuch rules, methods and orders be conduceable to the ends and purpoſes of this Act, and not otherwiſe.

Borrowing Clauſe, if 1000000 l. be not advanced before 24 June,

LIV. And be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if the whole ſum of ten hundred thouſand pounds be not advanced and paid into the Exchequer upon this Act, before the four and twentieth day of June, one thouſand ſix hundred ninety four, That then it ſhall and may be lawful for their Majeſties, or their Officers in the receipt of their Majeſties Exchequer, by their command and appointment, to borrow and take into the ſaid receipt, for their Majeſties uſe, by way of Loan, any ſum or ſums of money, which, together with the whole value or amount of all the ſums of money, which ſhall before the ſaid four and twentieth day of June, be contributed or adventured, as aforeſaid, ſhall not exceed the ſum of ten hundred thouſand pounds, which ſum or ſums ſo taken up by way of Loan, ſhall, and may be charged upon the Credit of their Majeſties Exchequer in general, and Tallies of Loan, and Orders of repayment of the ſame, ſhall be levied and drawn accordingly, which ſaid Orders ſhall be aſſignable and transferrable from one perſon to another.

8 l. per Cent. allowed for Intereſt, and this Fond, &c. chargeable for the payment of Principal and Intereſt.

LV. And it is hereby Enacted, That all and every ſum and ſums of Money ſo to be borrowed, not exceeding, as aforeſaid, together with the intereſt for the ſame, not exceeding the rate of eight pounds per Centum per Annum, to be paid every three Months, until ſatisfaction of the principal, ſhall be payable and ſatisfied unto the reſpective lender or lenders of the ſame, his, her or their Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, out of the Moneys which ſhall afterwards ariſe, and be brought into the Exchequer, by, or for contributions upon this Act, ſo far as the ſame will extend: And in caſe the Money ſo ariſing by this Act, ſhall not be ſufficient for the paying thereof, then the ſaid loans which ſhall remain unſatisfied, and the intereſt of the ſame ſhall be paid and ſatisfied out of the next Aids or Supplies to be granted to their Majeſties in Parliament, and ſhall be transferred and transferrable thereunto, as ſoon as any ſuch Aid or Supply ſhall be granted to their Majeſties; And if no ſuch Aids or Supplies ſhall be granted to their Majeſties before the ſecond day of February, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord, one thouſand ſix hundred ninety four, then the ſaid ſum and ſums of Money ſo to be borrowed, not exceeding, as aforeſaid, and the intereſt thereof ſhall be payable, and be paid and ſatisfied to the ſaid lender or lenders, his, her, or their Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns reſpectively, by, and out of any their Majeſties Treaſure, which from thenceforth ſhall come into, be, or remain in the receipt of their Majeſties Exchequer, not being already appropriated to any particular uſes by any Act or Acts of Parliament before this time made.

The Annual Surplus Money how diſpoſed.

CAP. VIII.

An Act for the explaining, and for the more effectual execution of a former Act for the Relief of Poor Priſoners.

Preamble. Seſſ. 2. Cap. 15.

Whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the ſecond Year of their Majeſties Reign, Intituled, An Act for Relief of poor Priſoners for Debt and Damages, it is (among other things) enacted, That the Sheriffs, Goalers or Keepers of Priſons, ſhould ſwear that the Priſoner to be diſcharged, was really and truly his Priſoner, in his cuſtody, without fraud or deceit, at or upon the Eight and twentieth day of November, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred and ninety. And whereas ſeveral of the ſaid Sheriffs, Goalers or Keepers of Priſons, were not then Sheriffs, Goalers or Keepers of the Priſons to which they now belong, ſo that they cannot take the Oath preſcribed by the ſaid Act, whereby, and by the artifice of the ſaid Sheriffs, Goalers, or Keepers of Priſons, and other perſons, enemies to the ſaid poor priſoners, a great number of the ſaid poor priſoners that are in a more deplorable condition, and deſerve to be relieved by the ſaid Act, and were really and truly priſoners at the day referred to in the ſaid Act, though the ſaid Sheriffs, Goalers or Keepers of the reſpective Priſons have refuſed to ſwear for them, either out of pretended ſcruple of conſcience, that they cannot take the ſaid Oath, or becauſe they had not Money enough to give them.

Revival of the former Acts.

II. For Remedy whereof, Be it Enacted by the King and Queens moſt excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, That the aforeſaid Acts be Revived, and that the ſaid Oath in the ſaid Act of Parliament contained, ſhall for the future be Aboliſhed, and inſtead thereof, the Oath herein after mentioned ſhall be the Oath to be tendred to the Sheriffs, Goalers and Keepers of Priſons.

Sheriffs, &c. Oath aboliſhed.

New Oath.

I A. B. do ſwear, That I have examined the Commitments or Books belonging to the ſaid Priſon, and that by them it doth appear, that I.S. was really and truly a Priſoner in the cuſtody of the then Goaler or Keeper of the Priſon of D. Priſon in the County of C. without any fraud or deceit, by me or any other, to my knowledge or belief, at or upon the Eight and twentieth day of November, in the year of our Lord God, One thouſand ſix hundred and ninety.

Sheriff refuſing the Oath ſhall pay the Debt.

III. Provided always and be it enacted, that no perſon or perſons whatſoever ſhall at any time be compelled or obliged by virtue of any Cuſtom within the ſaid City, or by any Order or Proceſs of the Court of Orphans or otherwiſe howſoever, to pay or deliver into the Chamber of the ſaid City of London, any ſum or ſums of Money or perſonal eſtate, due or to be due, or belonging to any Orphan or Orphans of any Freeman of the ſaid City; any Law or Uſage for inforcing the ſame notwithſtanding.

Proceſs upon Recognizance ſaved.

XIX. Provided always, that nothing herein contained ſhall be deemed or conſtrued, to extend to impeach, make void or prevent Proceſs upon any Recognizance already given, according to the Cuſtom of the ſaid City.

Corporation Lands charged if Mayor, &c. miſapply.

XX. And be it further enacted, that if any of the ſaid ſum or ſums by this Act appropriated, or any part thereof ſhall happen to be miſapplyed or converted to any other uſe, then as aforeſaid, by the ſaid Corporation of the Mayor, Commonalty and Citizens of London for the time being, or any of their Officers, or any other Perſon, by colour of any Warrant or authority, by, from or under them, that then in ſuch caſe, the ſaid Mayor, Commonalty and Citizens, ſhall and may be anſwerable for the ſame, out of the Revenue of the ſaid Corporation, in any Action to be brought by any of the ſaid Orphans, or other Creditors, their Heirs or Aſſigns; which ſaid ſum ſo recovered, ſhall go, and be, to and for the uſes aforeſaid, in like manner as the ſame, if not miſapplied, ſhould or might have been, excepting the coſts of ſuch ſuit, which ſhall be to, and for the benefit of him, her or them ſo Suing.

Fines, &c. upon the Mayor, &c. cannot be acquitted.

XXI. Provided always and be it enacted, that all Amerciaments, Fines, Iſſues or Diſtreſſes againſt the ſaid Corporation of the ſaid Mayor, Commonalty and Citizens, and their Succeſſors reſpectively had, charged or levied, in or upon account of ſuch Suit or Actions brought, ſhall be applied to the uſes aforeſaid, and to no other uſe whatſoever, nor ſhall the ſame be pardoned, acquitted or diſcharged by any Letters of Signet, Privy Seal or Great Seal of their Majeſties, their Heirs or Succeſſors, or otherwiſe howſoever; any Law or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Orphans hereafter may take advantage of the Act,

XXII. Provided always, and be it enacted, that when, and as often as any application ſhall be made to the ſaid Mayor and Court of Aldermen for the time being, on behalf of any Orphan or Orphans of the ſaid City, by the Executors or Adminiſtrators of the Father of ſuch Orphans, to pay in, and lodge any ſum or ſums of Money, of, or belonging to ſuch Orphan or Orphans in the ſaid Chamber, and to have the benefit of the ſaid proviſion hereby made, it ſhall, and may be lawful, to, and for the ſaid Mayor and Court of Aldermen, and they are hereby impowered and directed, to order the Chamberlain of the ſaid City for the time being, to pay off the like ſum to ſuch perſon or perſons Entituled to the ſaid yearly payments, as aforeſaid, as they think fit, not being Orphans, under the Age of one and twenty years, and giving Three months notice, to, or for the perſon or perſons ſo to be paid off and diſcharged; at the end of which Three months, upon payment, or tendring of the ſaid Moneys due for Principal and Intereſt to, or for the perſon or perſons to whom ſuch notice ſhall be given, according to the proviſion hereby made at the Office of the ſaid Chamberlain in Guildhall, London, then, and from thenceforth, the annual ſum or ſums of Money payable to ſuch perſon or perſons, to whom ſuch notice, payment, or tender ſhall be made or given, ſhall ceaſe and determine, and the ſame ſhall become due and payable to or for the uſe of ſuch Orphan or Orphans, who ſhall have paid in the Moneys for the ſame, and ſhall be regiſtred accordingly, and be aſſignable, as aforeſaid. Nevertheleſs the Moneys ſo tendred ſhall be paid to ſuch perſon and perſons, upon their demand of the ſame, and aſſigning or giving a diſcharge for the ſame: it being hereby enacted and declared, that the proviſion hereby made, ſhall be and remain a perpetual Stock, or Fond for the benefit of the Orphans of the ſaid City ſucceſſively.

Orphans that have already transferred may redeem in 3. years time.

XXIII. And be it further enacted and declared, that all ſuch of the ſaid Debts due to any of the ſaid Orphans as have been at any time before the ſaid five and twentieth day of December, aſſigned, or granted, or covenanted to be aſſigned or granted, or for which any authority hath heretofore been given or granted, by any of the ſaid Orphans, their Husbands, Executors, or Adminiſtrators to any perſon or perſons, to receive the ſame, or any part thereof, to the uſe of ſuch perſon ſo authorized, or any other perſon beſides ſuch Orphan, ſhall and may be redeemed, and are hereby declared to be redeemable by the ſaid Orphans, or their Husbands, or their reſpective Executors, or Adminiſtrators, on payment of the ſaid Principal ſum of Money paid in conſideration of making the ſaid aſſignment, grant, covenant or authority, together with the charges and intereſt for the ſame, from the time of the payment thereof, after the rate of eight pounds per Centum per Annum, for one year, diſcounting for what hath been received for, or in reſpect of the ſaid Debt, by any ſuch perſon to whom ſuch aſſignment or authority was made or given, and upon payment, or tender of the ſaid Principal Money, Intereſt and Charges, ſuch grant, aſſignment or authority, and all covenants and agreements concerning the ſame ſhall be void. Provided nevertheleſs, that ſuch redemption, as aforeſaid, be made within the ſpace of three years, from and after the end of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament.

Bonds to Agents void.

XXIV. And whereas divers perſons, pretending as Agents and Solicitors to obtain the payment of the Orphans Debts, by Act of Parliament or otherwiſe, have induced many Orphans, and others for them, to enter into obligations, agreements, contracts, ſubſcriptions or other ſecurities, for payment of large portions of their Debts whenſoever it ſhould be recovered, which may amount to very great ſums, Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all ſuch bonds, obligations, agreements, contracts, ſubſcriptions, and other ſecurities ſo entred into, ſhall be Null and Void; and that it ſhall be lawful for the Mayor and Court of Aldermen of the City of London, out of the Revenue Settled by this Act, for XXXII. Provided nevertheleſs and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if after the deduction and allowance of the ſaid two thouſand pounds per Annum, for the uſe and ſupport of the Government of the ſaid City of London, during the ſaid term of ſeven years, there ſhall not be raiſed and paid to the Orphans and Creditors by this Act intended to be provided for, out of the reſidue of the rents, iſſues and profits of the ſeveral Proviſions and Fonds abovementioned, ſo much Money as will fully ſatisfie all the ſaid Orphans and Creditors intereſt for all their ſeveral and reſpective Debts, after the rate of four pounds per Centum per Annum, during the ſaid whole term of ſeven years, that then and in ſuch caſe the ſaid Mayor, Commonalty and Citizens of the ſaid City of London for the time being, ſhall repay into the hands of the Chamberlain of London for the time being, within ſeven years after the expiration of the ſaid term, the whole and full ſum of fourteen thouſand pounds, or ſo much thereof as they ſhall have made uſe of for the ſupport of the Government, by two thouſand pounds per Annum, or ſuch leſs yearly ſum, as ſhall be proportionable to what they ſhall have ſo made uſe of, until the ſame or ſo much thereof, as ſhall make good the deficiency that ſhall appear in the ſatisfaction of the intereſt of all the ſaid Moneys due to the ſaid Orphans and other Creditors, at the rate aforeſaid, by reaſon of applying the ſaid two thouſand pounds per Annum, or any part thereof to the uſe of, and for the ſupport of the Government of the ſaid City, for the term aforeſaid, ſhall be ſatisfied; And for ſecuring the repayment thereof, as aforeſaid, all and every the eſtate, rents, revenues, intereſt, perquiſites, profits, and emoluments of any ſort (except the manors, meſſuages, lands, eſtates, poſſeſſions and revenue, of and belonging to the ſaid Hoſpitals, in or belonging to the ſaid City of London or Borough of Southwark, and ſuch as are chargeable with and for the Repairs of London-Bridge, which at the expiration of the ſaid term of ſeven years, ſhall belong unto the ſaid Mayor, Commonalty and Citizens thereof in their politick or publick capacity only, ſhall be, and are hereby charged and made ſubject and liable thereunto.

City Lands charged with repayment.

CAP. XI.

An Act to prevent Delays of Proceedings at the Quarter Seſſions of the Peace.

Preamble.

Whereas it is experienced that notwithſtanding the Statutes made in the One and twentieth year of the Reign of King James the Firſt, and in the thirteenth and fourteenth, and two and twentieth years of King Charles the Second, concerning the granting of Writs of Certiorari, to remove Indictments of Riots, Forcible Entry, Aſſault and Battery, and other Preſentments and Indictments out of the Courts of the General or Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, in the Counties or Places wherein ſuch Indictments have been found, and Proceedings thereupon recorded, into their Majeſties Court of Kings Bench, diverſe turbulent, contentious, lewd and evil diſpoſed perſons, fearing to be deſervedly puniſhed, where they and their offences are well known, have not only obtained Writs of Certiorari for removing ſuch Indictments found againſt them, as aforeſaid; but alſo Indictments for ſundry other treſpaſſes, frauds, nuſances, contempts and miſdemeanors, after iſſue joyned, and the Proſecutors attending with their Council and Witneſſes, to try the ſame before the ſaid Juſtices of the Peace in their ſaid Seſſions, to the great diſcouragement of the Proſecutors, and of ſuch Conſtables and other Officers, as, according to their duty, preſent perſons for thoſe and ſuch like treſpaſſes, offences and miſdemeanors.

Certiorari in Term-time grantable only upon motion.

Recognizance given that the Iſſue be Tryed next Aſſizes.

London and Weſtminſter.

Certiorari granted without Recognizance void

II. For remedy whereof, and that ſuch Offenders may be brought to condign puniſhment, be it enacted by the King and Queens moſt excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, that in Term time no Writ of Certiorari whatſoever, at the proſecution of any party indicted, be hereafter granted, awarded or directed out of the ſaid Court of Kings Bench, to remove any ſuch indictment, or preſentment of treſpaſs or miſdemeanor, before Tryal had from before the ſaid Juſtices in the ſaid Courts of General or Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, unleſs ſuch Certiorari ſhall be granted or awarded upon motion of Council, and by Rule of Court made for the granting thereof, before the Judge or Judges of the ſaid Court of Kings Bench ſitting in open Court, and that all the parties indicted, proſecuting ſuch Certiorari, before the allowance thereof, ſhall find two ſufficient Manucaptors, who ſhall enter into a recognizance before one or more Juſtices of the Peace of the County or Place, in the ſum of twenty pounds, with condition at the return of ſuch Writ, to appear and plead to the ſaid indictment or preſentment in the ſaid Court of Kings Bench, and at his and their own coſts and charges, to cauſe and procure the iſſue that ſhall be joyned upon the ſaid indictment, or preſentment, or any Plea relating thereunto, to be tryed at the next Aſſizes to be held for the County wherein the ſaid indictment or preſentment was found, after ſuch Certiorari ſhall be returnable, if not in the Cities of London, Weſtminſter or County of Middleſex; And if in the ſaid Cities or County, then to cauſe or procure it to be tryed the next Term after wherein ſuch Certiorari ſhall be granted, or at the ſitting after the ſaid Term, if the Court of Kings Bench ſhall not appoint any other time for the tryal thereof; and if any other time ſhall be appointed by the Court, then at ſuch other time, and to give due notice of ſuch tryal to the Proſecutor or his Clerk in Court; and that the ſaid recognizance and recognizances taken, as aforeſaid, ſhall be certified into the ſaid Court of Kings Bench, with the ſaid Certiorari and indictment to be there filed, and the name of the Proſecutor (if he be the party grieved or injured) or ſome publick Officer, to be endorſed on the back of the ſaid indictment, and if the perſon proſecuting ſuch Certiorari, being the Defendant, ſhall not before allowance thereof, procure ſuch Manucaptors to be bound in a recognizance, as aforeſaid, the Juſtices of the Peace, may, and ſhall proceed to tryal of the ſaid indictment at the ſaid Seſſions, notwithſtanding ſuch Writ of Certiorari ſo delivered.

Officers Proſecuting ſhall have Double Coſts.

III. And be it further enacted, that if the Defendant proſecuting ſuch Writ of Certiorari be convicted of the offence for which he was indicted, that then the ſaid Court of Kings Bench ſhall give reaſonable coſts to the Proſecutor, if he be the party grieved or injured, or be a Juſtice of the Peace, Mayor, Bailiff, Conſtable, Headborough, Tythingman, Churchwarden or Overſeer of the Poor, or any other Civil Officer who ſhall proſecute upon the account of any Fact committed or done that concerned him or them, as Officer or Officers to proſecute or preſent, which Coſts ſhall be Taxed according to the Courſe of the ſaid Court, and that the proſecutor for the recovery of ſuch Coſts, ſhall within Ten days after demand made of the Defendant, and refuſal of payment on Oath, have an Attachment granted againſt the Defendant by the ſaid Court for ſuch his contempt; And that the ſaid Recognizance ſhall not be diſcharged till the Coſts ſo Taxed ſhall be paid.

Recovery of Coſts.

IV. Provided always, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in any of the Vacations, Writs of Certiorari may be granted by any of the Juſtices of Their Majeſties Court of Kings-Bench, whoſe Names ſhall be Endorſed on the ſaid Writ, and alſo the name of ſuch perſon at whoſe inſtance the ſame is granted, and that the party or parties Indicted, proſecuting ſuch Certiorari, ſhall, before the Allowance of ſuch Writ or Writs of Certiorari, find ſuch Sureties in ſuch Sum, and with ſuch Conditions as are before mentioned and ſpecified in this preſent Act.

Certiorari how grantable in Vacation.

V. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That upon every Certiorari Granted or Awarded within the Counties Palatine of Cheſter, Lancaſter or Durham, to remove Indictments or Preſentments for any of the Matters aforementioned, all the parties Indicted proſecuting ſuch Certiorari, ſhall find ſuch Sureties to be bound in ſuch Sums, and with ſuch reſpective Conditions, and at his or their own Coſts and Charges, ſhall cauſe and procure the Iſſue joyned upon the ſaid Indictments or Preſentments, to be Tryed at the next Aſſizes or general Goal Delivery to be held for the ſaid reſpective Counties, and ſhall give like notice to the Proſecutor; and if Convicted, ſhall be liable to like Coſts, to be Taxed as is by this Act provided for, in caſes where the ſame are granted or awarded out of the Court of Kings-Bench at Weſtminſter.

Certiorari to Cheſter, &c. how granted.

VI. Provided always, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Indictment or Preſentment be againſt any perſon or perſons, for not repairing of any High-ways, Cawſies, Pavements or Bridges, and the Right or Title to repair the ſame may come in Queſtion, upon ſuch Suggeſtion and Affidavit made of the truth thereof, a Certiorari may be granted to remove the ſame into the Court of Kings Bench; Any Law or Statute to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding. Provided nevertheleſs, That the party or parties proſecuting ſuch Certiorari, ſhall find Two Manucaptors to be bound in a Recognizance with Condition, as aforeſaid.

VII. Provided always, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That this Act ſhall continue, and be in force for three years, and from thence to the end of the next Seſſion of Parliament, and no longer.

Continue three years.

C A P. XII.

An Act to take away the Proceſs for the Capiatur Fine in the ſeveral Courts at Weſtminſter.

Preamble.

Whereas there are divers Suits and Actions of Treſpaſs, Ejectment, Aſſault and Falſe Impriſonment, brought by Party againſt Party in the reſpective Courts of Law at Weſtminſter, and upon Judgment Entred againſt the Defendant or Defendants in ſuch Suits or Actions, the reſpective Courts aforeſaid do (ex officio) Iſſue out Proceſs againſt ſuch Defendant and Defendants, for a Fine to the Crown, for a Breach of the Peace thereby committed, which is not aſcertained, but is uſually Compounded for a ſmall ſum of Money by ſome Officer in each of the ſaid Courts, but never Eſtreated into the Exchequer; which Officers, or ſome of them, do very often Outlaw the Defendants for the ſame to their very great Damage.

II. For Remedy whereof, Be it enacted by the King and Queens moſt excellent Majeſties, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from henceforth no Writ or Writs, commonly called Capias pro Fine, in any of the ſaid Suits or Actions in any of the ſaid Courts, ſhall be ſued out or proſecuted againſt any of the ſaid Defendant or Defendants, or any further Proceſs thereupon; But the ſame Fines, and all former Fines yet unpaid, are and ſhall hereby be Remitted and Diſcharged for ever. Yet nevertheleſs the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in every ſuch Action, ſhall (upon Signing Judgment therein, over and above the uſual Fees for Signing thereof) pay to the proper Officer who Signeth the ſame, the ſum of Six ſhillings and Eight pence, in full Satiſfaction of the ſaid Fine, and all Fees due for or concerning the ſaid Fine, to be diſtributed in ſuch manner as Fines and Fees of this kind, have uſually been, and not otherwiſe; which ſaid Officer and Officers ſhall make an increaſe to the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs of ſo much in their Coſts, to be Taxed againſt the ſaid Defendant and Defendants.

Capias pro Fine taken away.

Fine turned into Coſts.

C A P. XIII.

An Act to Repeal the Statute made in the Tenth Year of King Edward the Third, for finding Sureties, For the Good Abearing, by him or her, that hath a Pardon of Felony.

Cap. 3.

Whereas by one Act made at the Parliament holden in the Tenth year of the Reign of King Edward the Third, It was, amongſt other things, enacted, That in caſe the King ſhould grant any Charters of Pardon, of Manſlaughter, Robbery, Felonies, and other Treſpaſſes againſt the Peace, That within Three Months after the making the ſame, they that ſhould have the ſaid Charters, ſhould come and find (before the Sheriffs and Coroners of the Counties where the Felonies were done) Six good and ſufficient Mainpernors, for whom the ſaid Sheriffs and Coroners would anſwer, That they from thenceforth ſhould bear themſelves well and lawfully; And that the Mainprizes ſhould be Sealed with their Seals, and Returned into Chancery within Three Weeks after the end of the ſaid Three Months; And that if they that ſhould have ſuch Charters, would in time to come, Aid themſelves thereby, and ſhould not find ſuch Mainprizes, or after ſuch Mainprize found, ſhould bear themſelves otherwiſe againſt the Peace then they ought, their Charters ſhould be holden for none; Which Statute hath been found very inconvenient, in relation to divers perſons who have been eſteemed fit Objects of Mercy; And therefore the ſaid Statute hath been ſeldom put in practice, but for the moſt part hath been diſpenced withal in the Charters of Pardons that were granted in former Reigns. And foraſmuch as by one Act made in the Firſt year of their now Majeſties Reign, Entituled, An Act for declaring the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, and Settling the Succeſſion of the Crown, It was Enacted, That from and after that Seſſion of Parliament, no Diſpenſation by Non obſtante of, or to any Statute or any part thereof ſhould be allowed, but that the ſame ſhould be held void and of none effect; Whereby divers of their Majeſties Subjects are rendred leſs capable of their Majeſties Mercy then before, it being very difficult, if not impoſſible, to find Six ſubſtantial perſons, who will adventure to be bound for the good Behaviour of any perſon needing a Pardon during his Life.

10 Ed. 3. Repealed.

II. Be it therefore enacted by the King and Queens moſt excellent Majeſties, by, and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Act made in the Tenth year of King Edward the Third, and every Article and Clauſe therein ſhall be, and are Repealed and Annulled, and are hereby declared to be Repealed and Annulled, to all intents and purpoſes whatſoever. Provided nevertheleſs, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Charter of Pardon be pleaded by any perſon, for any Felony, the Juſtices before whom ſuch Pardon ſhall be pleaded, may, at their Diſcretion, Remand, or Commit ſuch perſon to priſon, there to remain, until he or ſhe ſhall enter into a Recognizance, with Two ſufficient Sureties, for his or her being of the good Behaviour for any time, not exceeding Seven years. Provided, That if any ſuch Charter of Pardon be pleaded by a Feme Covert, or Infant, ſuch Feme Covert, or Infant, may find Two ſufficient Sureties, who ſhall enter into a Recognizance for him or her being of the good Behaviour, as is aforeſaid.

Perſons Pardoned even Feme Coverts and Infants give Security for good Behaviour for Seven years.

CAP. XIV.

An Act for Raiſing Money by a Poll payable Quarterly for One Year, for Carrying on a Vigorous War againſt France.

An Explanation of Clauſe in 5 & 6 W & M. Cap. 7. viz. that thoſe that have Fortunate Lots ſhall have the advantage of Blanks for other Sums.

AND whereas it was the true intent and meaning of an Act of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, Entituled, An Act for Granting to their Majeſties certain Rates and Duties upon Salt, and upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, for ſecuring certain Recompences and Advantages in the ſaid Act mentioned, to ſuch perſons as ſhall voluntarily Advance the Sum of Ten hundred thouſand Pounds towards carrying on the War againſt France, That in caſe any perſon ſhould contribute, or adventure ſeveral intire ſums of Ten pounds, in manner as is therein mentioned, That ſuch perſon ſhould not by any Fortunate Lot, be any ways barred of the yearly ſum of One pound for any other intire ſum of Ten pounds, contributed or adventured by ſuch perſon, as aforeſaid, which may be conceived as a Doubt, by reaſon of ſome obſcure Words in the ſaid Act. For the Explaining whereof, It is hereby declared and enacted, That every perſon which hath or ſhall contribute or adventure ſeveral intire ſums of Ten pounds in manner aforeſaid, every ſuch perſon, his or her Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, ſhall have, receive and enjoy, for and during the term of Sixteen years therein mentioned, the ſeveral yearly ſums of One pound for every ſum of Ten pounds ſo contributed or to be contributed by him or her, as aforeſaid; Excepting only for ſuch ſum of Ten pounds, which ſhall be Intituled to ſuch Fortunate Lot, as aforeſaid. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Moneys which ſhall ariſe by the Rates and Duties of Exciſe upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors by the ſaid Act granted, during the laſt Three years of the term of Sixteen years, for which the ſame are thereby granted, or ſo much of the ſaid Moneys ariſing during the ſaid laſt Three years, as ſhall remain, after all Arrearages (if any ſuch ſhall be) of the annuities or yearly or other payments, to be made for the Moneys which are or ſhall be contributed or adventured, purſuant to the ſaid Act, ſhall be fully ſatisfied, ſhall be reſerved and diſpoſed as ſhall hereafter be directed by Act of Parliament, and not otherwiſe; any thing in the ſaid Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Exciſe for three laſt years of the ſixteen years ſhall be diſpoſed by Parliament.

CAP. XV.

An Act for Continuing the Act for Puniſhing Officers and Soldiers who ſhall Mutiny or Deſert Their Majeſties Service, and for Puniſhing Falſe Muſters, and for the Payment of Quarters for One Year longer.

Preamble.

4 & 5 W & M. Cap. 13. Continued for one year.

This Act Continued a year longer by 6 & 7 W 3. Cap. 8.

WHereas an Act was made in the laſt Seſſion of this preſent Parliament, Entituled, An Act for Puniſhing Officers and Soldiers who ſhall Mutiny or Deſert their Majeſties Service, and for Puniſhing Falſe Muſters, and for Payment of Quarters, to continue and be in Force until the Firſt day of March, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety three and no longer. And whereas the raiſing or keeping a Standing Army within this Kingdom in time of Peace, unleſs it be with Conſent of Parliament, is againſt Law. And whereas it is judged neceſſary by their Majeſties and this preſent Parliament, That during this time of War, ſeveral of the Forces which are now on Foot ſhould be Continued, and others Raiſed for the Safety of this Kingdom, for the Common Defence of the Proteſtant Religion, and for the carrying on the War againſt France.

And whereas no Man may be forejudged of Life or Limb, or ſubject to any kind of puniſhment by Martial Law, or in any other manner then by the judgment of his Peers, and according to the known and eſtabliſhed Laws of this Realm: Yet nevertheleſs it being requiſite for the retaining ſuch Forces as are or ſhall be raiſed during this exigence of Affairs in their Duty, That an exact Diſcipline be obſerved, and that Soldiers who ſhall Mutiny or Stir up Sedition, or ſhall Deſert their Majeſties Service, be brought to a more exemplary and ſpeedy Puniſhment then the uſual forms of the Law will allow. Be it therefore enacted by the King and Queens moſt excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Act, and every Clauſe, Matter and Thing therein contained, ſhall be and continue, and is hereby declared and enacted to be and continue in full force and virtue to all Intents, Conſtructions and Purpoſes, from the firſt day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety three, until the firſt day of March, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety four, and no longer.

Land Soldiers to be liſted before a Juſtice of Peace, &c.

II. And to the end that no Man may be forced into Foreign Service, or compelled without his free conſent to be Liſted in any Troop or Company of their Majeſties Land Forces, Be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That no perſon that ſhall be Liſted for the Land Service at any time after the Firſt day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety three, ſhall be eſteemed a Liſted Soldier, as aforeſaid, or be ſubject to any of the pains and penalties of this Act, or any other penalty for his Behaviour as a Soldier, that ſhall not have been brought before a Juſtice of the Peace, not being an Officer in the Army, or Chief Magiſtrate of ſome City, or Town Corporate, or High Conſtable, or Petty Conſtable in the Hundred or Diviſion where the perſon ſhall be Liſted, and before ſuch Juſtice, Magiſtrate or High Conſtable or Petty Conſtable, declare his free conſent to be Liſted or Muſtred as a Soldier, before he ſhall be Liſted or Muſtred, or inſerted in any Muſter Roll of a Regiment, Troop or Company, as aforeſaid; And every Military Officer that ſhall Offend herein, ſhall incur the like penalty and forfeiture, as is by the ſaid continued Act to be inflicted upon any Officer for making a Falſe and Untrue Muſter, and the Forfeiture ſhall be recovered in the ſame manner as Forfeitures by the ſaid Act.

Liſting by Petty Conſtable made void by 7 W. 3. 8.

Penalty upon Military Officer offending.

Juſtice of Peace to give a Certificate of Liſting to the Military Officer and Duplicate to Clerk of the Peace.

III. Provided always, That the Juſtice of Peace, Magiſtrate or High Conſtable or Petty Conſtable before whom ſuch Soldier ſhall be Liſted, ſhall give the Officer gratis a Certificate thereof under his Hand, which ſhall be by ſuch Officer, under whom he ſhall be Liſted, produced to the Muſter Maſter at the next Muſter to be taken of ſuch Troop or Company, and be by him Regiſtred as part of the Muſter Roll for the ſame; And ſuch Juſtice of Peace, Magiſtrate or High Conſtable, ſhall and is hereby required to deliver a Duplicate of ſuch his Certificate to the Clerk of the Peace at the next Quarter Seſſions of the Peace to be held for the Place, to be there by him Recorded, without any Fee or Reward for ſo doing.

Conviction and puniſhment of Falſe Muſters.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the proof of any perſons being falſly Muſtred, or offering himſelf to be falſly Muſtred contrary to the ſaid Act, may be made by Two Witneſſes before any Juſtice of the Peace of any County, City or Town Corporate where ſuch Offender ſhall be taken, or firſt accuſed for the ſaid Offence, and upon ſuch proof being duly made, or the voluntary Confeſſion of the Party Offending, every ſuch Juſtice ſhall and is hereby required to puniſh any ſuch Offender, according to the Directions of the ſaid Act.

CAP. XVI.

An Act for the Importation of Salt-Petre for One Year.

Preamble.

Foraſmuch as in time of War eſpecially, care ought to be taken, That there may be a ſufficient quantity of Salt-Petre in this Kingdom, for the uſe of their Majeſties Ships of War and Army; and alſo that Merchants may be furniſhed with Gunpowder for the uſe of their Ships at reaſonable Rates: Be it enacted by the King and Queens moſt excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That it ſhall and may be lawful for any of their Majeſties Subjects, to import and bring Salt-Petre into this Kingdom, from any Place or Countrey now in Amity with their Majeſties, for the ſpace of One year, to be computed from and after the Five and twentieth day of March, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety four; any Law or Statute heretofore made to the contrary notwithſtanding. Provided ſuch Salt-Petre be brought in only, in ſuch Ships or Veſſels as are Engliſh built, and no other.

Salt-Petre importable in Engliſh Bottoms.

II. Provided, That no perſon or perſons, importing Salt-Petre by virtue of this Act, nor any Retailer, ſhall ſell any part of the Salt-Petre ſo to be imported, at above the price of Seventy pounds per Tun, not exceeding Eighteen per Centum Refraction, upon the penalty of Fifty pounds per Tun; and ſo for any greater or leſſer quantity, to be recovered by action of debt, bill, plaint or information, in any of their Majeſties Courts at Weſtminſter, wherein no eſſoign, protection, priviledge, or wager of law ſhall be allowed, nor any more then one imparlance; The one Moiety thereof to be for the uſe of their Majeſties, and the other Moiety for the Informer. Provided alſo, That the Salt-Petre, which ſhall be imported by virtue of this Act, ſhall pay to their Majeſties the ſame Duty, as if the ſame were directly imported from the Eaſt-Indies.

Duty as from the Eaſt-Indies.

Barter eſteemed a Sale.

III. And for preventing all Frauds which may be uſed in ſelling any Salt-Petre imported by virtue of this Act, at above the Rate of Seventy pounds per Tun, Be it enacted, That if any perſon or perſons, ſhall mingle any Salt-Petre, imported by virtue of this Act, with any other Salt-Petre, and ſell the ſame ſo mingled, at above the Rate of Seventy pounds per Tun; Or ſhall by way of Barter or Exchange, take, or agree to take any other Commodity, for Salt-Petre imported by virtue of this Act (whether by it ſelf, or mingled with other Salt-Petre) in any manner, ſo as to have, or receive for the ſame, more then the Rate of ſeventy pounds per Tun, accounting the Commodity ſo taken in exchange at the then current Price, that the ſale of ſuch Salt Petre ſo mingled, and alſo ſuch Barter, or Exchange, ſhall each of them be conſtrued, and taken to be a ſale contrary to this Act.

CAP. XVII.

An Act for the Exportation of Iron, Copper and Mundick Metal.

Preamble.

WHereas by ſeveral Statutes, the one made in the Eight and twentieth year of the Reign of Edward the Third, and the other in the Three and thirtieth year of the Reign of King Henry the Eighth, and another in the Second year of the Reign of Edward the Sixth late Kings of England, Iron, Copper, and Bell Metal are prohibited to be exported out of this Realm, under ſeveral Penalties in the ſaid Statutes reſpectively contained:

Iron, &c. to be Exported.

II. For the better encouragement of the working of Copper mines within their Majeſties Dominions, Be it therefore enacted by the King and Queens moſt excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that from and after the Five and twentieth day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety four, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any perſon or perſons whatſoever, Bodies Politick or Corporate, to Ship and Export all, and all manner of Iron, Copper or Mundick Metal out of this Realm of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed; except unto or for the uſe of the French King, or any of his Subjects reſiding within his Dominions, or in, to or for any Port or Place within his ſaid Dominions, during the preſent War between their Majeſties and the French King, paying the Duties and Cuſtoms by Law payable for the ſame; the ſaid recited Statutes, or any other Statute, Law or Uſage to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Pot-metal, &c. excepted.

III. Provided that this Act ſhall not extend to the Exportation of any Pot-metal, Gun-metal or Shruff-metal, or any Old metal or any mixture therewith, or of any Copper or other metal, then what is made of Engliſh Ore only.

CAP. XVIII.

An Act for Enabling their Majeſties to make Grants, Leaſes and Copies of Offices, Lands and Hereditaments, Parcel of their Dutchy of Cornwall, or annexed to the ſame, and for Confirmation of Leaſes and Grants already made.

Preamble.

WHereas many of the Lands belonging to the Dutchy of Cornwall have been Granted by Leaſe to the Tenants, ſome for the term of one, two or three Lives, and ſome for divers years determinable upon one, two or three Lives, and others for thirty one years or under, which Leaſes are deſired to be renewed by many of the ſaid Tenants. And whereas ſeveral years next following after the happy Reſtauration of his late Majeſty King Charles the Second, divers increaſed Rents were reſerved, as well upon the ſaid Leaſe-hold Lands as upon many Copy-hold Eſtates of the ſaid Dutchy for the improvement of that Revenue, whereof the Tenants made complaint to his ſaid late Majeſty, who was graciouſly pleaſed that they might compound for the diſcharging of the ſaid increaſed Rents, and be reſtored to the old Rents formerly paid for their reſpective Tenants and Lands. Now to the end the ſame may be accordingly effected, and the Tenants may be encouraged to renew their Leaſes and Eſtates, and thereby the better enabled to Repair their Houſes, and provide for their Families, and to improve their Lands holden of the ſaid Dutchy.

Grants made by King Charles Second, &c. of any parcel of the Dutchy of Cornwall, good.

II. Be it enacted by the King and Queens moſt excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that all Leaſes and Grants made by his ſaid late Majeſty King Charles the Second, or by the late King James, or by their preſent Majeſties ſince their happy Acceſſion to the Crown, or to be made within Seven years next enſuing, by Letters Patents, or Indentures under the Great Seal of England, or Seal of the Court of Exchequer, or by Copy of Court-Roll according to the cuſtom of the reſpective Manors of the ſaid Dutchy or thereunto annexed, of any Offices, Meſſuages, Parks, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, parcel of the ſaid Dutchy of Cornwall or annexed to the ſame (other then of Honours, Lordſhips or Manors) ſhall be good and effectual in Law, according to the purport and contents of the ſame Copies, Leaſes, and Grants againſt our ſaid Sovereign Lord and Lady the King and Queen, their Heirs and Succeſſors, and againſt all and every other perſon and perſons that ſhall at any time hereafter have, inherit, or enjoy the ſaid Dutchy by force of any Act of Parliament, or by other Limitation whatſoever.

Grants to be for 31. years or determinable upon 3. Lives.

III. Provided always, that every ſuch Leaſe or Grant ſo made or to be made, be not for more then one, two or three Lives, or for thirty one years or under, or for ſome term of years determinable upon one, two or three Lives, and not above: And if ſuch Leaſes or Grants be made in reverſion, or expectancy, that then the ſame, together with the Eſtate in poſſeſſion, do no exceed three Lives, or the term of thirty one years, and not in any wiſe diſpuniſhable of Waſt, and ſo as upon every ſuch Leaſe, the ancient or moſt uſual Rent or more, or ſuch Rent as hath been reſerved, yielded, or paid for the ſame Lands, for the greater part of twenty years next before the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty, hath been, and ſhall be reſerved due and payablo to him or her that ſhall have the Inheritance, or other Eſtate of the ſaid Dutchy; and where no ſuch Rent hath been reſerved or payable, That then upon every ſuch Leaſe there ſhall be reſerved a reaſonable Rent, not being under the twentieth part of the clear yearly value of the Meſſuages, Parks, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments contained in ſuch Leaſe; and all Leaſes and Grants otherwiſe made or to be made, ſhall be null and void.

Not diſpuniſhable of Waſt. Uſual Rent.

If no uſual reaſonable Rent

Covenants, &c. bind Reverſioners.

IV. And be it further ordained and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all Covenants, Conditions, Reſervations, and other Agreements contained in every Leaſe, Grant, or Copy of Court Roll made or to be made, as aforeſaid, ſhall be good and effectual in Law, according to the words and contents of the ſame, as well for and againſt them, to whom the Reverſion of the ſame Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments ſhall come, as for, and againſt them, to whom the intereſt of the ſaid Leaſes, Grants or Copies ſhall come reſpectively, as if our Sovereign Lord and Lady, the King and Queens Majeſties, at the time of making ſuch covenants, conditions and reſervations, and other agreements, were ſeized of an abſolute Eſtate in Fee Simple, in the ſame Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments.

V. Saving always to all and every perſon and perſons, bodies politick and corporate, their heirs and ſucceſſors, executors adminiſtrators and aſſigns (other then our ſaid Sovereign Lord and Lady the King and Queen, and their Heirs, and the Duke and Dukes of Cornwall for the time being, and his and their Heirs, and all and every perſon and perſons, that ſhall hereafter have, inherit, or enjoy the ſaid Dukedom of Cornwall, by force of any Act of Parliament, or other limitation whatſoever) all ſuch Rights, Titles, Eſtates, Cuſtoms, Intereſts, Tenures, Claims and Demands whatſoever, of what nature, kind or quality ſoever, of, in, to, or out of the ſaid Offices, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, or any of them, as they, or any of them had, or ought to have had before the making of this Act, to all intents and purpoſes, and in as large and ample manner and form as if this Act had never been had or made; this Act or any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding. Saving to all their Rights, except King, &c.

VI. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, that in caſe any of the Leaſehold or Copy-hold Tenants of the ſaid Dutchy, ſhall at any time within Seven years next enſuing, compound or agree with the Lord High Treaſurer of England, or Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the time being, or Chancellor and Under Treaſurer of the Exchequer for the time being, or with any other perſon or perſons, that the Lord High Treaſurer, or the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the time being, or Chancellor of the Exchequer, ſhall authorize, nominate and appoint for the taking off and diſcharging of any increaſed Rent reſerved, as aforeſaid, according to ſuch rules and directions, as in that behalf ſhall be given in Writing under the hands of the ſaid Lord Treaſurer, Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the time being, or Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being: Then upon ſuch compoſition ſo made, and the money thereby ariſing duly paid to the Receiver General of the ſaid Dutchy, according to the tenor and contents of ſuch compoſition and agreement, and accordingly inrolled before the Auditor of the premiſſes, from thenceforth ſuch increaſed Rent ſhall ceaſe and become void, and the old Rent only, or ſuch other Rent, as in purſuance of this Act ſhall be directed in or by ſuch compoſition or agreement ſhall be charged on all and every ſuch Tenements, Lands and other Hereditaments, for which ſuch compoſition, agreement, payment and inrolment ſhall be ſo made, and none other, any reſervation, condition, or other matter whatſoever to the contrary notwithſtanding. Tenants compounding for the increaſed Rent, old Rent only to ſtand.

VII. And whereas within the County of Cornwall there are ſeveral Tenements belonging to the ſaid Dutchy of ſmall value, ſo that the charge of paſſing Letters Patents under the Great Seal, or Leaſes under the Seal of the Exchequer, and Grants by Copy of Court Roll, may diſcourage the Tenants from Renewing ſo often as otherwiſe they would do: Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, that the whole Fees, reward and charges to be paid, received or taken, for the preparing, writing, drawing, obtaining, making, paſſing or perfecting of any ſuch leaſe or grant, and for the petition, anſwer, reference, report, particular certificate, contract, warrant, inrolment and entry thereof, and for every other matter and thing relating thereunto, or touching or concerning the obtaining, paſſing and perfecting of any Leaſe or Grant of ſuch ſmall Tenements in the ſaid County of Cornwall (where the Fine or value of ſuch Leaſe or Grant, to be made or renewed, ſhall not exceed the ſum of Eighty pounds) ſhall not exceed the ſum of Ten pounds for every Leaſe, and Four pounds for every Copy (over and beſides the ſaid Fine or Value) the ſaid reſpective ſums, not exceeding Ten pounds, and Four pounds, to be paid, diſtributed and divided unto and amongſt the ſeveral and reſpective Officers and Clerks of the Exchequer, and Stewards of the Honours and Manors of the ſaid Dutchy, concerned and employed in the preparing, paſſing and perfecting of ſuch leaſe or Grant reſpectively, in ſuch proportion as the Fees of Leaſes, or Grants within the ſaid Dutchy formerly and hetherto were and are received. Fees for Grants of ſmall value. And if any of the ſaid Officers, Clerks and Stewards ſhall demand, take and receive any greater or other Fee or Reward, or ſhall do or attempt, or cauſe to be done or attempted any thing contrary hereunto, ſuch Officer, Clerk and Steward, ſhall forfeit and loſe for every ſuch Offence to the party grieved in that behalf, ſo much money as any ſuch Officer, Clerk or Steward ſhall demand, receive and take contrary to this Act; and alſo ſhall loſe and forfeit the ſum of Twenty pounds, whereof the one moiety ſhall be to their Majeſties, and the other moiety to the party grieved in that behalf, to be recovered by Action of Debt or Information, in any of the Courts at Weſtminſter, in which no priviledge, eſſoign, imparlance or protection ſhall be admitted or allowed. Penalty upon Officers offending.

1500000 l. more to the Navy and Ordnance.

Cap. 7.

All other money to the Army, &c.

XLI. And whereas by an Act of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, Entituled, (An Act for Granting to their Majeſties an Aid of Four Shillings in the Pound for one year, for Carrying on a Vigorous War againſt France) The Sum of Ten hundred thouſand pounds, including therein the Sum of Four hundred thouſand pounds, already Borrowed for the uſe of the Navy, is by the ſaid Act appropriated for the Services of the Navy and Ordnance, as part of the Supplies Granted this Seſſion for the payment of Wages, for Services done, and to be done, and for the paying for Victuals Supplied, and to be Supplied for the ſaid Navy; and for and towards the paying for other neceſſary Proviſions and Stores Supplied and to be Supplied, and for the Ordnance for the ſaid Navy Royal, and for the Wages of the yards, and other Services of the Ordinary of the ſaid Navy. Now to the intent the whole ſum granted this preſent Seſſion of Parliament for the uſes aforeſaid, may be thereunto appropriated, It is hereby further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, that out of the money that hath, or ſhall be Levied by Virtue of this Act, or of another Act of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, Entituled, An Act for Granting to their Majeſties, certain Rates and Duties upon Salt and upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, for ſecuring certain Recompences and Advantages in the ſaid Act mentioned, to ſuch perſons as ſhall Voluntarily Advance the Sum of Ten hundred thouſand Pounds, towards carrying on the War againſt France; or of any other Act of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, by which any Aids ſhall be Granted to their Majeſties towards the carrying on the ſaid War, and which ſhall be paid into the Exchequer, as well upon Loans as otherwiſe (except only the money appropriated to pay the Recompences in this and the before Recited Act) the ſum of Fifteen hundred thouſand pounds over and above the ſaid Sum of Ten hundred thouſand pounds in the firſt recited Act appropriated, ſhall be, and is hereby appropriated for the Services of the Navy and Ordnance, performed, and to be performed; And that all other money which ſhall be Levied and Paid by virtue of this or any other Act of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, not appropriated by this or the Firſt recited Act, to the uſe of the ſaid Navy, or to pay the Recompences in this and the other recited Act, into the Receipt of the Exchequer, as well upon Loans as otherwiſe, ſhall be applied and appropriated to and for the payment of their Majeſties Land Forces and Armies, Ordnance, Ammunition and other Charges incident to the War, and not otherwiſe.

Half of this or any other Tax except Land Tax charged with the 1500000 l. 5 & 6 W & M Cap. 5.

XLII. And for the more effectual doing thereof, Be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, that the half of all money that hath or ſhall be Levyed or paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer, by virtue of this Act or any other Act of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament (except the ſaid firſt recited Act, and except what is appropriated by this or the other recited Act, to pay the Recompences of thoſe who have or ſhall Voluntarily advance moneys as aforeſaid; And except alſo one other Act, Entituled, An Act to Supply the Deficiency of the Moneys Raiſed by a former Act, Entituled, An Act for Granting to their Majeſties certain Rates and Duties of Exciſe upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, for ſecuring certain Recompences and Advantages in the ſaid Act mentioned, to ſuch perſons as ſhall Voluntarily Advance the Sum of Ten hundred thouſand Pounds towards the carrying on the War againſt France) ſhall be applied to anſwer the ſaid Sum of Fifteen hundred thouſand pounds, hereby appropriated to the uſe of the ſaid Navy, until the ſame ſhall be paid and ſatisfied.

Particular Sums for Wages, &c.

XLIII. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, that out of the Sum of Fifteen hundred thouſand pounds hereby appropriated; and out of the ſaid Sum of ten hundred thouſand pounds in the before recited Act, appropriated for the uſe of the Navy, the Sum of Eleven hundred fifty ſix thouſand nine hundred ninety four pounds, ſhall be applied to pay the Wages to Officers and Seamen, and other Services belonging, according to the Courſe of the Navy, to the Head of Wages, performed and to be performed: And alſo to pay the Officers and Soldiers of the two Marine Regiments. And that the Sum of twelve hundred fifty ſeven thouſand two hundred ſixty and ſix pounds, be applied for, and towards the paying for Victuals and neceſſary Proviſions and Stores, and other extraordinary Services of the Navy and Ordnance, ſupplied and performed, or to be ſupplied or performed: And that the Sum of Eighty five thouſand ſeven hundred and forty pounds, be applied for, and towards paying the Wages of the yards, and other ordinary Services of the ſaid Navy.

Proviſion for ſpeedy payment out of the Exchequer. Seſſ. 2 Cap. 1.

XLIV. And that the Sums by this Act appropriated may not be diverted or applied to any o-her purpoſe, then is hereby declared and intended, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, at the rules and directions appointed and enacted in one Act made in the firſt year of their Maſties Reign, entituled, An Act for a Grant to their Majeſties of an Aid of Two Shillings in the Pound for one ar, for the ſpeedy payment of money thereby Granted, into the Receipt of the Exchequer, by the ollectors and Receivers; and for diſtribution and application thereof, and keeping diſtinct Ac-mpts of the ſame; and all other Proviſoes, Pains, Penalties and Forfeitures thereby ened in caſe of diverſion of any money thereby appropriated, are hereby revived and enacted to in force, and ſhall be practiſed, Applied, Executed, and put in Ure for, and concerning the tribution and application of the ſaid Sums hereby appropriated, as fully, amply, and effectu-y, as if the ſame were here particularly repeated and re-enacted.

Alamodes, &c. to be marked and ſealed by the Cuſtom-houſe Officers.

XLV. And whereas there is lately ſet up in this Kingdom a very profitable Manufacture of lk Stuffs, called Luſtrings and Alamodes, never before made in this Realm, for the which, at Sums of money of the Nation were heretofore exported into France; and to the intent no diſcouragement may be given to ſo uſeful a Trade, wherein many hundred of their Maes Subjects are employed, by preventing all Frauds and Deceits to the Revenue of their jeſties Cuſtoms, by Fraudulently Importing ſuch Silks without paying legal Duties for ame, Be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, that the Commiſſioners of their Maje-Cuſtoms for the time being, ſhall, and are hereby Authorized and required from time to
, from and after the end of this Seſſion of Parliament, to Mark and Seal, or cauſe to be ked and Sealed, all the ſaid Luſtrings and Alamodes which now are Imported, and in

CAP. II.

An Act for the Frequent Meeting and Calling of Parliaments.

Parliament to be held once in Three Years.

Whereas by the Ancient Laws and Statutes of this Kingdom, Frequent Parliaments ought to be held; And whereas Frequent and New Parliaments tend very much to the Happy Union and Good Agreement of the King and People, we your Majeſties moſt loyal and obedient Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, do moſt humbly beſeech your moſt excellent Majeſties, that it may be declared and enacted in this preſent Parliament; And it is hereby declared and enacted by the King and Queens moſt excellent Majeſties, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That from henceforth a Parliament ſhall be holden once in Three years at the leaſt.

Writs to be iſſued out once in Three years.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That within Three years at the fartheſt, from and after the Diſſolution of this preſent Parliament, and ſo from time to time for ever hereafter, within Three years at the fartheſt, from and after the determination of every other Parliament, Legal Writs under the Great Seal, ſhall be Iſſued by directions of your Majeſties, your Heirs and Succeſſors, for Calling, Aſſembling and Holding another New Parliament.

No Parliament ſhall laſt longer then Three Years.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That from henceforth, no Parliament whatſoever, that ſhall at any time hereafter be Called, Aſſembled, or Held, ſhall have any Continuance longer then for Three years only at the fartheſt, to be accounted from the day, on which by the Writs of Summons the ſaid Parliament ſhall be appointed to Meet.

Preſent Parliament to ceaſe 1 Nov. 1696.

IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That this preſent Parliament ſhall ceaſe and determine on the Firſt day of November, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſix, unleſs their Majeſties ſhall think fit to diſſolve it ſooner.

CAP. III.

An Act for Granting to his Majeſty an Aid of Four Shillings in the Pound, for One Year; And for Applying the yearly ſum of Three hundred thouſand Pounds, for Five years, out of the Duties of Tunnage and Poundage, and other ſums of Money, payable upon Merchandizes exported and imported, for Carrying on the War againſt France with Vigour.

Ships for Cruiſers appointed.

LXXIV. AND for the better ſecuring the Trade of this Kingdom, Be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That over and above the Ships of War for the Line of Battle, and for Convoys to Remote parts, at the leaſt Four Ships of the Third Rate, Sixteen Ships of the Fourth Rate, Thirteen Ships of the Fifth Rate, and Ten Ships of the Sixth Rate, ſhall be from time to time directed and appointed by the Lord High Admiral of England, or Commiſſioners for Executing the ſaid Office for the time being, to ſuch proper Stations as they ſhall deem meet, to Cruiſe for ſecuring the Merchant Ships in their going out and returning home.

Cruiſers may be imployed in Battle.

LXXV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained, ſhall reſtrain or be conſtrued to reſtrain the Lord High Admiral of England, or the Commiſſioners for Executing the Office of the Lord High Admiral of England, for the time being, from directing any of the Ships, appointed by this Act to be Cruiſers, to be imployed in the Line of Battle in caſes of great neceſſity.

LXXVI. And whereas ſeveral perſons who did contribute, advance or pay ſeveral of the ſums of Money which have been contributed, advanced or paid, upon an Act for granting to their Majeſties ſeveral Rates and Duties upon Tunnage of Ships and Veſſels, and upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, for ſecuring certain Recompences and Advantages in the ſaid Act mentioned, to ſuch perſons as ſhall voluntarily advance the ſum of Fifteen hundred thouſand pounds towards carrying on the War againſt France, for Annuities, Shares or Dividends upon the ſeveral yearly Annuities of Ten, Twelve and Fourteen pounds per Centum in the ſaid Act mentioned, did not name to the Auditor of the Receipt, or Clerk of the Pells in the Receipt of the Exchequer, by or within the reſpective times by the ſaid Act appointed, the reſpective Lives during which ſuch Dividends, Shares or Annuities reſpectively were to continue; It is hereby further enacted and provided by the authority aforeſaid, That if ſuch perſons, or any of them, ſhall at any time or times, before the Twentieth day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety four, nominate to the Auditor of the Receipt, or Clerk of the Pells in the ſaid Exchequer, the reſpective Lives (their own or others) during which ſuch Dividends, Shares or Annuities ſhould continue reſpectively; That then, and in every ſuch caſe, his, her or their Nominees ſhall be Entred in the Books kept in the ſaid Receipt for the Nominees; And every ſuch contributor or contributors, his, her and their Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns reſpectively, ſhall have, receive and enjoy ſuch and the like Dividends, Shares or Annuities, for and in reſpect of the Moneys ſo contributed, advanced or paid, as he, ſhe or they might, ſhould or ought to have had, received or enjoyed, in caſe the reſpective Lives for the ſame had been named within the reſpective times by the ſaid Act preſcribed; any thing in this or the ſaid former Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Appropriation of 250000 l. upon Tunnage and Poundage.

LXXVII. And whereas by an Act of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, Entituled, An Act for Granting to their Majeſties a Subſidy of Tunnage and Poundage, and other ſums of Money payable upon Merchandizes exported and imported, the Subſidy of Tunnage and Poundage, and other Duties payable upon Merchandizes exported and imported, are granted to his Majeſty for the term of Five Years, to commence upon the Six and twentieth day of December, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and four: Be it enacted by the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That from and after the Five and twentieth day of December, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and four, the yearly ſum of Three hundred thouſand pounds of lawful Engliſh Money, part of the Moneys ariſing by the ſaid Act, ſhall by the Receiver or Receivers General, now and for the time being, of the Cuſtoms, Subſidies and other Duties upon Goods and Merchandizes imported and exported, or to be imported and exported, be brought and paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer, diſtinctly and ſeparately from all other Moneys whatſoever, that are or ſhall be payable into the ſaid Receipt; and that the payments of the ſaid yearly ſum of Three hundred thouſand pounds ſhall be made into the ſaid Receipt in manner following, that is to ſay, On the Thirteenth day of February, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and four, ſo much as the weekly ſum of Five thouſand ſix hundred pounds, to be computed from the ſaid Five and twentieth day of December, until the ſaid Thirteenth day of February, ſhall amount unto, and afterwards, upon Wedneſday in every Week (if it be not a Holiday, and if it be, then upon the next day in every ſuch Week that is not an Holiday) the weekly ſum of Five thouſand ſix hundred pounds ſhall be paid, as aforeſaid, as one Week ſhall ſucceſſively and immediately follow or ſucceed after another, during the whole term of Five years by the laſt mentioned Act granted; and in caſe in any Week or Weeks, the whole Receipt of the Moneys upon the ſame Act ſhall not be ſufficient to anſwer the weekly payment or payments hereby directed for ſuch particular Week or Weeks, that then, and ſo often the Deficiency and Deficiencies thereof ſhall be ſupplied and made good out of the whole Receipts of Cuſtoms, Subſidies and other Duties upon the Act laſt mentioned, ariſing in the next Week or Weeks, when the Receipt or Receipts will be ſufficient to bear the ſame; And that on every Feaſt day of the Annunciation of the Bleſſed Virgin Mary, the Nativity of Saint John Baptiſt, Saint Michael the Archangel, and the Birth of our Lord Chriſt, during the ſaid term of Five years, or within Fourteen days after every ſuch Feaſt day, ſo much Money ſhall be paid into the ſaid Receipt by the ſaid Receiver or Receivers General, out of the Moneys ariſing by the Act laſt mentioned, as together with the ſaid weekly payments which ſhall have been made, ſhall compleatly make up, ſatisfie, and diſcharge the entire ſum of Seventy five thouſand pounds, for each and every the reſpective Quarter on ſuch Feaſt day ending; And that the ſaid yearly ſum of Three hundred thouſand pounds, and every part thereof, ſhall be applied and diſpoſed, and the ſame is hereby appropriated for and towards the payment and ſatiſfaction of the ſum, not exceeding Twelve hundred and fifty thouſand pounds, hereby authorized to be borrowed thereupon, and the Intereſt thereof as is herein after mentioned; One Moiety of which Twelve hundred and fifty thouſand pounds ſhall be, and is hereby appropriated to the uſe of the Navy and Ordnance for Sea Service, and the other Moiety for the Land Service.

Clauſe of Credit upon Tunnage and Poundage.

LXXVIII. And for the better and more ſpeedy Supplying his Majeſty with Moneys, for the more effectual carrying on of the War againſt the French King, It is hereby further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful, to and for his Majeſty, or the Officers of the Exchequer by his command and appointment, to borrow, receive and take, at the Receipt of the Exchequer, by way of loan, from any perſon or perſons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, that are, or ſhall be willing to lend the ſame, any ſum or ſums of Money, not exceeding the ſaid ſum of Twelve hundred and fifty thouſand pounds, upon Credit of the ſaid yearly Sum of Three hundred thouſand pounds hereby appropriated, and to be ſupplied out of ſuch Cuſtoms, Subſidies or other Duties as are before mentioned; And that Tallies of Loan ſhall be levied for all and every ſum and ſums of Money ſo to be lent; And that Orders, according to the courſe of the Exchequer, ſhall be drawn, ſigned and iſſued for the repayment of the ſame, and for payment of intereſt for the forbearance of every ſuch ſum of Money, which intereſt ſhall not exceed the Rate of Five pounds per Centum per Annum for the firſt Three hundred thouſand pounds; Six pounds per Centum per Annum for the ſecond Three hundred thouſand pounds; Seven pounds per Centum per Annum for the third Three hundred thouſand pounds; And Eight pounds per Centum per Annum for the remaining Three hundred and fifty thouſand pounds; and ſhall be payable every Three Months from the reſpective Dates of the Tallies of Loan, until the ſatiſfaction of the reſpective principal ſums; and in every ſuch Order it ſhall be expreſſed, and mentioned, that the principal ſum contained therein, and the intereſt thereof, ſhall be paid or payable out of the ſaid yearly ſum of Three hundred thouſand pounds, hereby appropriated and appointed to be paid and ſupplied out of the Cuſtoms, Subſidies or other Duties, as aforeſaid; and all and every ſuch Order or Orders, and the Moneys therein to be contained, or any part thereof, ſhall be Aſſignable and Transferrable without power of Revocation, ſo as the Aſſignments thereof be Endorſed upon the reſpective Orders, and Entred or Notified in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt of the Exchequer, in a Book to be there kept for that purpoſe: And that all and every the ſum and ſums of Money ſo to be lent to his Majeſty, upon the Credit of the ſaid yearly ſum of Three hundred thouſand pounds, ſhall be free from all manner of Taxes and Impoſitions, impoſed, or to be impoſed by Parliament, or otherwiſe howſoever.

Regiſter, Talley, Order, &c. upon Tunnage and Poundage.

LXXIX. And to the end that all the Moneys hereby appropriated or appointed, as aforeſaid, towards the ſatiſfaction of the ſaid ſum, not exceeding Twelve hundred and fifty thouſand pounds, hereby authorized to be borrowed, and the intereſt thereof, may be duly applied thereunto, and not diverted to any other uſe, Be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That there ſhall be provided and kept in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt of Exchequer, one Book and Regiſter, in which all the weekly, and other payments which ſhall be made into the Exchequer, for, or upon the ſaid yearly ſum of Three hundred thouſand pounds, payable out of the ſaid Cuſtoms, Subſidies, or other Duties, as aforeſaid, ſhall be Entred and Regiſtred apart, and ſeparate from all other Moneys payable into the ſaid Receipt, and that a diſtinct Regiſter ſhall be there kept for all the Orders of repayment for the ſaid ſum, not exceeding Twelve hundred and fifty thouſand pounds, in which the ſaid Orders ſhall be Regiſtred in Courſe, according to the Date of the Tallies reſpectively, without any other preference of one before another: And that all and every perſon and perſons ſhall be paid in courſe, according as their Orders ſhall ſtand Entred in the ſaid Regiſter Book, ſo as a perſon, Native or Foreigner, his Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, who ſhall have his Order or Orders firſt Entred in the ſaid Book of Regiſter, ſhall be taken and accounted the firſt perſon to be paid upon the Moneys to come in by virtue of this Act, and he or they who ſhall have his or their Order or Orders next Entred, ſhall be taken and accounted to be the Second perſon to be paid, and ſo ſucceſſively, and in courſe; And that the Moneys to come in by the purport or directions of this Act, of, or for the ſaid yearly ſum of Three hundred thouſand pounds, ſhall be in the ſame Order liable to the ſatiſfaction of the reſpective lenders, their Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns ſucceſſively, according to the Dates of their Tallies, without any other preference of one before another, and ſhall not be diverted or divertible to any other uſe, intent or purpoſe whatſoever; And that no Fee, Reward or Gratuity, directly or indirectly, be demanded or taken for providing or making of any Books, Entries, Regiſters, Views or Search, in or for payment of Money lent, upon the ſaid yearly ſum of Three hundred thouſand pounds, or intereſt, as aforeſaid, by any of his Majeſties Officer or Officers, their Clerks or Deputies, on pain of payment of treble Damages to the Party agrieved by the Party Offending, with Coſts of Suit, or if the Officer himſelf take or demand any ſuch Fee or Reward, then to loſe his Place alſo; And if any undue preference of one before another ſhall be made, either in point of Regiſtry or Payment, contrary to the true meaning of this Act, in reference to the ſaid yearly ſum of Three hundred thouſand pounds, or the principal or intereſt to be paid out of the ſame, by any ſuch Officer or Officers, then the Party offending, ſhall be liable by Action of Debt, or on the Caſe, to pay the value of the Debt, Damages or Coſts to the Party agrieved, and ſhall be forejudged from his Place or Office; And if ſuch preference be unduly made by any his Deputy or Clerk, without Direction or Privity of his Maſter, then ſuch Deputy or Clerk only ſhall be liable to ſuch Action, Debt, Damages and Coſts, and ſhall be for ever after uncapable of his Place or Office. And in caſe the Auditor ſhall not direct the Order, or the Clerk of the Pells Record, or the Teller make payment according to each perſons due place and order, as afore directed, in reference to the ſaid yearly ſum of Three hundred thouſand pounds, or the ſaid Principal and Intereſt to be paid out of the ſame, then he or they ſhall be adjudged to forfeit, and their reſpective Deputies and Clerks herein offending, to be liable to ſuch Action, Debt, Damages and Coſts in ſuch manner, as aforeſaid; All which ſaid penalties, forfeitures and damages to be incurred by any of the Officers of the Exchequer, or any their Deputies or Clerks, ſhall and may be recovered, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of his Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoign, Protection, Privilledge, Wager of Law, Injunction or Order of Reſtraint ſhall be in any wiſe granted or allowed.

Preference.

LXXX. Provided always, and be it hereby declared, That if it happen that ſeveral Tallies of Loan, or Orders for repayment of Money lent upon the yearly ſum before mentioned, bear date, or be brought the ſame day to the Auditor of the Receipt to be Regiſtred, then it ſhall be interpreted no undue preference, which of thoſe be Entred firſt, ſo he Enters them all the ſame day.

Preference.

LXXXI. Provided alſo, That it ſhall not be interpreted any undue preference to incur any penalty in point of the payments laſt mentioned, if the Auditor Direct, or the Clerk of the Pells Record, and the Tellers do Pay ſubſequent Orders of perſons that come and demand their Moneys, and bring their Order before other perſons that did not come to demand their Money, and bring their Order in their courſe, ſo as there be ſo much Money reſerved as will ſatisfie precedent Orders, which ſhall not be otherwiſe diſpoſed, but kept for them; Intereſt upon Loan being to ceaſe from the time the Money is ſo reſerved and kept in Bank for them.

Draw-Backs and Salaries ſaved.

LXXXII. Provided always, That any thing in this Act contained concerning the ſaid weekly payments to be made into the Receipt of the Exchequer, or otherwiſe, ſhall not be conſtrued to obſtruct or hinder the payment of Debentures for Goods to be Reſhipt, or the allowances for damaged Goods, or the payment of Salaries, or other Incident Charges neceſary for the Management of the Revenue of Cuſtoms in any manner of wiſe; this Act or any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Account to be given of Bank Bills and Intereſt upon them.

LXXXVIII. And to the end that all perſons that ſhall have the Receipt or Payment of his Majeſties Revenue, may render an Account of the Intereſt that ſhall ariſe by the Bills or Notes, commonly called Bank Bills, while they ſhall remain in their Hands, and of all other profit made by them, of any of his Majeſties Money, Be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that from and after the Twentieth day of February, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and four, the Receiver General of the Cuſtoms, and his Deputies, the Caſhier of the Exciſe and his Deputy, Receivers General of all Aids Granted, or to be Granted to his Majeſty, ſhall Account upon Oath, before the Barons of his Majeſties Court of Exchequer, for all Intereſt that ſhall ariſe by virtue of the Bank Bills they ſhall take in payment for any Cuſtoms, Aids, or other Duties belonging to his Majeſty, or of Bank Bills by them taken for any Moneys by them paid into the Bank of England, which Moneys they received for any ſuch Cuſtoms, Aids or Duties, as aforeſaid, from the time they received the ſame Bank Bills, until payment made of ſuch Moneys into the Receipt of his Majeſties Exchequer; And that the Tellers of his Majeſties Exchequer and their Deputies, ſhall in like manner Account, upon Oath, for all Intereſt that ſhall ariſe by virtue of the Bank Bills they ſhall take in payment upon his Majeſties Account, during the time they ſhall remain in their Hands; And the Pay-Maſter of the Army and his Caſhiers, the Agents to Regiments, Treaſurer of the Navy and his Caſhiers, the Caſhiers to the Victuallers, and Caſhiers to the Ordnance, in like manner, ſhall Account upon Oath for all Intereſt that ſhall ariſe by virtue of the Bank Bills they ſhall take in payment upon his Majeſties Account, or which they ſhall take upon payment into the Bank of any Moneys by them received for his Majeſties Service, from the time they received the ſame, until payment be made by them of the Moneys for which ſuch Bank Bills are given, to the ſeveral perſons to whoſe uſe the ſaid Money was iſſued by the Lords of his Majeſties Treaſury, or their Acceptance of ſuch Bank Bills in ſatisfaction of the Money due to them; And that the ſaid ſeveral perſons beforementioned, ſhall pay into the Exchequer for his Majeſties uſe, all ſuch Intereſt or other Profit as ſhall be found upon ſuch their Accounts to have been received; every ſuch Account to be made at the time they make and give in their Accounts, touching their Receipts of his Majeſties Money; And if any of the ſaid perſons beforementioned, ſhall neglect to Account, as aforeſaid, or to pay into the Exchequer the Moneys found due upon ſuch their Account, they ſhall forfeit Five hundred pounds.

Account to be given of the Cruiſers Stations, &c. to next Parliament.

LXXXIX. And that it may the better appear how the ſervice in this preſent Act appointed or Ships to Cruiſe in proper Stations, to ſecure the Merchant Ships in their going out and returning home is performed, Be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the Lord igh Admiral of England, or Commiſſioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral f England for the time being, ſhall, and are hereby reſpectively required to exhibit to the Commons aſſembled in Parliament, at the next Seſſion of Parliament, which ſhall happen af- er the Firſt day of Auguſt, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and five, a Certificate in writing, nder his or their Hands reſpectively, of the Ships by him or them reſpectively ſet out in urſuance of the Directions of this preſent Act, expreſſing therein the Names and Rates of e Ships ſet out, and the times when by him or them reſpectively Ordered, as alſo the Sta- ons to which they were Directed, and the times how long they were continued at Sea in at Service.

CAP. IV.

An Act for Exempting Apothecaries from ſerving the Offices of Conſtable, Scavenger, and other Pariſh and Ward Offices, and from ſerving upon Juries.

Preamble.

WHereas the Art of the Apothecary is of great and general uſe and benefit, by reaſon of their conſtant and neceſſary aſſiſtance to his Majeſties Subjects, which ſhould oblige them ſolely to attend the duty of their Profeſſions; yet by reaſon that they are compelled to ſerve ſeveral Pariſh, Ward and Leet Offices in the places where they live, and are frequently ſummoned to ſerve on Juries and Enqueſts, which take up great part of their time, they cannot perform the truſts repoſed in them as they ought, nor attend the Sick with ſuch diligence as is required. And whereas King James the Firſt, by his Letters Patents under the Great Seal of England, did Incorporate the Apothecaries exerciſing that Art within London and Seven miles compaſs, by the name of the Maſter, Wardens and Society of the Art and Myſtery of Apothecaries of the City of London.

Apothecaries within London and 7 miles of the City that are Free exempt from Offices.

II. Be it therefore enacted by the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That all and every perſon and perſons, uſing and exerciſing, or that hereafter ſhall uſe and exerciſe the Art of an Apothecary within the ſaid City of London, and Seven miles thereof, being Free of the ſaid Society, and who already have been, or hereafter ſhall be duly examined of his Skill in the ſaid Myſtery, and ſhall be approved of for the ſame, and every of them, for ſo long as he or they ſhall uſe and exerciſe the ſaid Art, and no longer, ſhall and may at all times hereafter, be freed and exempted from the ſeveral Offices of Conſtable, Scavenger, Overſeer of the Poor, and all other Pariſh, Ward and Leet Offices, and of and from the being put into, or ſerving upon any Juries or Enqueſts, and if at any time hereafter any ſuch perſon or perſons uſing the ſaid Art, and being Qualified, as aforeſaid, ſhall be choſen or elected into any of the ſaid Offices, or returned, required or appointed to ſerve in any Jury, Leet or Enqueſt, or be diſquieted or diſturbed by reaſon thereof, that then ſuch perſon or perſons, producing a Teſtimonial under the Common Seal of the ſaid Corporation, of ſuch his examination, approbation and freedom, to the perſon or perſons, by whom he ſhall be ſo elected or appointed, or by or before whom he ſhall be ſummoned, returned or required to ſerve or hold any of the ſaid Offices or Duties, ſhall be abſolutely diſcharged from the ſame, and ſuch nomination, election, return and appointment ſhall be utterly void, and of none effect; any Order, Cuſtom, Law or Statute to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Countrey Apothecaries who have ſerved 7 years, exempted from Offices.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all perſons uſing and exerciſing, or that hereafter ſhall uſe and exerciſe the ſaid Art of an Apothecary within any other parts of this Kingdom, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and who have been brought up and ſerved, or hereafter ſhall be brought up and ſerve in the ſaid Art as an Apprentice, by the ſpace of Seven years, according to the Statute of the Fifth of Queen Elizabeth, ſhall likewiſe from henceforth be freed and exempted from all and ſingular the Offices and Duties aforeſaid, within the ſeveral Counties, Cities and Places where they Live and Inhabit, for ſo long as he or they ſhall uſe and exerciſe the ſaid Art, and no longer; and if any perſon or perſons ſo qualified ſhall be elected or choſen into any of the ſaid Offices, or returned to ſerve in any Jury, Leet or Enqueſt, ſuch nomination, election, return and appointment ſhall be void, unleſs ſuch perſon or perſons ſhall voluntarily conſent and agree to hold ſuch Office, or ſerve upon ſuch Jury, Leet or Enqueſt. Provided always, that nothing herein contained ſhall be conſtrued to Exempt or Excuſe any Apothecary that is or ſhall, before the Commencement of this Act, be elected or appointed to ſerve any of the ſaid Offices, from ſerving in the ſaid Offices for the uſual time for which he was ſo elected and appointed. Provided always, that this Act ſhall continue for the ſpace of Seven years, and from thence to the end of the next Seſſion of Parliament, and no longer.

Apothecaries already choſen not exempted.

Act continue 7 years.

CAP. V.

An Act for Enabling ſuch Perſons as have Eſtates for Life in Annuities, payable by ſeveral former Acts therein mentioned, to Purchaſe and Obtain further or more certain Intereſts in ſuch Annuities; And in Default thereof, for Admitting other Perſons to Purchaſe or Obtain the ſame, for raiſing Moneys for carrying one the War againſt France.

Preamble.

Cap. 3.

WHereas in and by an Act of this preſent Parliament, made in a Seſſion which was held in the Fourth and Fifth years of the Reign of King William and Queen Mary, Entituled, An Act for Granting to their Majeſties, certain Rates and Duties of Exciſe upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, for ſecuring certain Recompences and Advantages in the ſaid Act mentioned, to ſuch Perſons as ſhall voluntarily Advance the ſum of Ten hundred thouſand pounds towards carrying on the War againſt France, certain Rates or Duties of Exciſe upon Beer, Ale, Vinegar, Cyder, Perry, Brandy, and other Liquors or Commodities therein enumerated and mentioned, are granted, charged and made payable, during the ſpace and term of Ninety and nine years, commencing from the Five and twentieth day of January, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and two, which Rates or Duties are thereby appointed to be levyed, collected and paid, during the ſaid term of Ninety and nine years, and to be brought into the Receipt of Exchequer, in ſuch manner and form, and by ſuch rules, ways and means, and under ſuch Penalties and Forfeitures, as in and by the ſaid Act are preſcribed, mentioned or referred unto. And it was thereby enacted, That it ſhould or might be lawful for any Perſons, Natives or Foreigners, to contribute towards the advancing the ſum of Ten hundred thouſand pounds for the purpoſes therein mentioned, by paying into the Receipt of Exchequer, ſuch ſum or ſums of Money, by ſuch time, and upon ſuch terms reſpectively, as in the ſaid Act are particularly mentioned and expreſſed.

Cap. 20.

II. And whereas by another Act of this preſent Parliament, made in a Seſſion held in the Fifth and Sixth years of the Reign of King William and Queen Mary, Entituled, An Act for Granting to their Majeſties ſeveral Rates and Duties upon Tunnage of Ships and Veſſels, and upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, for ſecuring certain Recompences and Advantages in the ſaid Act mentioned, to ſuch perſons as ſhall voluntarily Advance the ſum of Fifteen hundred thouſand pounds towards carrying on the War againſt France, divers Impoſitions, Rates and Duties for, and upon the Tunnage of ſuch Ships and Veſſels as are therein mentioned, are granted and made payable, during the term of Four years, commencing from the Firſt day of June, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety four. And it was thereby further enacted, that from and after the Seventeenth day of May, which ſhould be in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſeven, there ſhould be raiſed, levyed, collected and paid to his Majeſty and the late Queen (of Bleſſed Memory) their Heirs and Succeſſors, for Beer, Ale, Cyder, and other Liquors therein expreſſed, by way of Exciſe, certain Additional Rates and Duties therein particularly expreſſed; and the ſaid Impoſitions, Rates or Duties, ſo to ariſe, by or upon the Tunnage of Ships or Veſſels, granted for the term of Four years, as aforeſaid; and the ſaid Additional Rates or Duties of Exciſe ſo granted and made payable for ever by the Act laſt mentioned, are to be raiſed, levyed and collected, and to be brought into the Receipt of Exchequer, in ſuch manner and form, and by ſuch rules, ways, and means, and under ſuch Penalties and Forfeitures, as by the ſame Act are preſcribed. And it is thereby further enacted, That each Weekly or other payment, ariſing by and out of the Duties and Impoſitions granted by the Act laſt mentioned, ſhould by the Auditor of the Receipt of the Exchequer, from time to time, as the ſame ſhould be paid in, be ſeparated and divided into five ſeventh parts,. and two ſeventh parts. And it was thereby enacted, That it ſhould and might be lawful for any perſons, Natives or Foreigners, to contribute towards the advancing of the ſum of Three hundred thouſand pounds (part of the ſum of Fifteen hundred thouſand pounds therein mentioned) by paying into the Receipt of the Exchequer, ſuch ſum and ſums of Money, within ſuch time, and upon the ſeveral and reſpective terms of having and receiving certain Annuities, for one, two or three Lives, according to the ſeveral rates and proportions as are in the ſame Act, particularly expreſſed, as by the ſaid ſeveral Acts of Parliameut (relation being thereunto had) may more fully appear.

III. And whereas by virtue, or in purſuance of the ſaid Act, which granted certain Duties of Exciſe, to ſecure Recompences and Advantages to the perſons that ſhould advance the ſum of Ten hundred thouſand pounds, as aforeſaid, and another Act of this preſent Parliament for ſupplying the Deficiency of the Money which was to be raiſed by the Act laſt mentioned, and by virtue or in purſuance of the Clauſes relating to the ſaid ſum of Three hundred thouſand pounds in the ſaid Act impoſing a duty of Tunnage upon Ships, and Additional Rates of Exciſe, as aforeſaid, divers perſons, as well Natives as Foreigners, have actually advanced, and contributed, and paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer, ſeveral ſums of Money, amounting in the whole to Thirteen hundred thouſand pounds upon the ſeveral and reſpective terms, in the ſame Acts mentioned, in relation to ſuch contributions; and for part thereof (to wit) for the ſum of Nine hundred eighty one thouſand ſix hundred and nineteen pounds, one ſhilling and nine pence, or there abouts, ſo advanced and contributed, the reſpective Contributors of the ſame are or were Intituled to have, receive and enjoy, for and during ſeveral ſingle Lives only (that is to ſay) during the Life of every ſuch Contributor, or the Nominee of ſuch Contributors reſpectively, an Annuity, yearly Rent or payment, after the rate of Fourteen pounds of lawful English Money for every hundred pounds ſo advanced or contributed, payable at the four moſt uſual Feaſts in the year by equal portions.

Cap. 5.

IV. And whereas the perſons who are or may be Intituled to ſuch Eſtates for ſingle Lives in the ſaid Annuities, or ſome of them, are or may be willing and deſirous (for a reaſonable price or conſideration) to have ſuch their reſpective Eſtates for ſingle Lives changed or converted into a certain term or terms for ninety ſix years, to be computed from the Five and twentieth day of January, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety five, of, and in ſuch or the like Annuities as they have for ſingle Lives, as aforeſaid, or that they or ſuch as they ſhall nominate, his, her or their Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns reſpectively (for the like price or conſideration) ſhall or may be Intituled to have, receive and enjoy the like Annuity, from and after the determination of his, her or their Eſtate for a ſingle Life, as aforeſaid, for and during the reſidue which ſhall be then to come and unexpired of the ſaid term of Ninety ſix years, and in caſes where the preſent Owner of an Annuity for a ſingle Life, as aforeſaid, is or may be unwilling (if any ſuch be) to urchaſe a further or more certain Eſtate or Intereſt therein, it is likely that ſome other perſon or perſons is or may be deſirous to be admitted (though at a rate or conſideration ſomehing higher) to purchaſe a future Eſtate or Intereſt in ſuch or the like Annuity or Annuities, o take effect from and after the determination of the term for the ſingle Life in being, and o continue for and during the reſidue and remainder of the ſaid term of Ninety ſix years, hich ſhall be then to come and unexpired.

V. Now for the encouragement of ſuch perſons as ſhall voluntarily contribute or advance the reſpective rates herein after mentioned, any Moneys into the Receipt of his Majeſties rchequer for ſuch further or more certain Eſtates or Intereſts, as aforeſaid, and for the tter ſupplying of Moneys (with as much eaſe, and at as little charge as may be) for e carrying on the War againſt the French King, Be it enacted by the Kings moſt excellent ajeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the ommons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that it ll and may be lawful to and for any perſon or perſons, Natives or Foreigners, being (as iginal Contributors, or by Meſne Aſſignments, or by other lawful ways and means) Inled to any Eſtate for one Life (his own, or the Life of any other perſon) of, or in any Anty purchaſed or obtained upon the Acts aforeſaid, or any of them, at the ſaid rate of One dred pounds for every Fourteen pounds per Annum, at any time before the Four and twenh day of July, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety five, to advance and pay into the Receipt of his Majeſties Exchequer, ſo much Money as every or any ſuch Annuity, being computed for Four years and an half, doth, or ſhall amount to (that is to ſay) every ſuch perſon ſhall or may pay to his Majeſties uſe, for every hundred pounds that was paid for the ſingle Life in an Annuity of Fourteen pounds per Annum, the ſum of Sixty three pounds more, for changing or converting the ſame into a certain term for the ſaid Ninety ſix years, or for a further Intereſt, to take effect after the Eſtate for Live, as aforeſaid, and in the ſame proportion for higher or larger Annuities; and every ſuch perſon, on ſuch payment made, ſhall immediately have one or more Talley or Tallies, importing the Receipt of the conſideration Money ſo paid, and upon every ſuch Talley there ſhall be written proper words purporting (at the election of the Contributor, or of the perſon by him authorized to pay in his Money) that ſuch payment is made either in conſideration of changing and converting ſuch his Annuity for Life into a certain and abſolute Eſtate or term for the ſaid Ninety ſix years, or elſe in conſideration of a like Annuity, to be payable to him or them, or ſuch as he or they ſhall nominate, his, her or their Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, from the determination of ſuch Eſtate for Life, during the then reſidue of the ſaid Ninety ſix years, and that by or upon the making every ſuch payment, as aforeſaid, in every caſe where the Talley ſhall import the changing or converting the Eſtate for Life into a term of Ninety ſix years, the perſon or perſons ſo contributing the ſaid conſideration Money, or the perſon or perſons to be nominated, as aforeſaid, his, her or their Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, ſhall be Intituled to have, receive and enjoy, and ſhall have, receive and enjoy, and ſhall have a good, ſure, and abſolute Eſtate and Intereſt of, and in an Annuity,. yearly rent or payment (equal by the year to the Annuity which he, ſhe or they had before for one Life) for and during the ſaid whole term of Ninety ſix years, to be paid and payable out of ſome of the Fonds in the ſaid Acts mentioned (that is to ſay,) out of ſuch of them reſpectively, as the Annuity for Life was by the ſaid Act charged upon, and to be paid at the Four moſt uſual Feaſts in the year, by equal portions, as the Annuities by the ſaid former Acts are payable; and in all ſuch caſes the ſaid preſent Eſtates for Life, ſhall be underſtood, to be merged or extinguiſhed in the ſaid term of years; and that in every caſe, where the ſaid Tallies ſhall import the conſideration Money, to be paid for a future intereſt, to take effect either in the perſon that contributes the ſame, or in any others, to be nominated, as aforeſaid, the perſon or perſons ſo contributing the ſaid conſideration Money, or ſo to be nominated, his, her or their Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, ſhall preſently have a good, ſure, and abſolute Eſtate veſted in him, her or them, by this Act, and which ſhall take effect (as a future Intereſt) after the Determination of the Eſtate for Life, and continue and endure, during ſo long time as ſhall be then to come and unexpired, of and in the ſaid term of Ninety ſix years; and in the caſes laſt mentioned, it is to be underſtood, that the preſent Eſtate for Life is continued.

Any perſon having 14 l. per Cent. for Life upon the former Acts may turn it into an Eſtate of 96. years for 63 l.

Perſon having an Eſtate for Life not taking advantage before July, any other paying 70 l. ſhall have a term of 96 years charged with the former Eſtate.

VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if any perſon or perſons, being Intituled to any Eſtate for one Life in being, in any ſuch preſent Annuity or Annuities, as aforeſaid, ſhall not, before the ſaid Four and twentieth day of July, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety five, advance and pay into the Receipt of the Exchequer, ſuch rate or conſideration Money, as is before mentioned, for changing ſuch his, her or their Eſtate for Life, into a term certain, or for a future Intereſt, as aforeſaid, that then and in every ſuch caſe, it ſhall and may be lawful to, and for any perſon or perſons whatſoever, Natives or Foreigners (having or not having any Property or Intereſt in ſuch Eſtate for Life) at any time or times, after the ſaid Four and twentieth day of July, and on or before the Twelfth day of November, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety five, to contribute, advance and pay into the ſaid Receipt of the Exchequer, ſo much Money, as any ſuch Annuity, being computed for Five years, doth or ſhall amount to (that is to ſay) For every hundred pounds that was paid for the ſingle Life, in an Annuity of Fourteen pounds a year, there ſhall be paid in all the caſes laſt mentioned, the ſum of Seventy pounds for the ſaid term of Ninety ſix years (to commence, and be reckoned, as aforeſaid, and to be charged with and ſubject to the preſent Eſtate for Life) of and in the ſame or the like Annuity, and there ſhall be paid a rate or conſideration, in the ſame proportion for Annuities exceeding Fourteen pounds a year; and every ſuch perſon on ſuch payment made, ſhall immediately have a Talley or Tallies importing the Receipt of the conſideration Money ſo paid; and upon every ſuch Talley, proper words ſhall be written, ſignifying that ſuch payment is made, in conſideration that ſuch Contributor or Contributors, or ſuch perſon or perſons as ſhall be named by him, her or them, or by ſuch as he, ſhe or they ſhall authorize to pay in the Money, his, her or their Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, are to have and enjoy the ſaid terms of Ninety ſix years in ſuch Annuity, charged with, and ſubject neverthelefs to the ſaid particular Eſtate for Life then in being; and that by or upon the making of every ſuch payment, after the rate of Seventy pounds per Centum, the perſon or perſons ſo contributing or advancing the conſideration Money, or the perſon or perſons to be nominated, as aforeſaid, his, her or their Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, ſhall have a good Eſtate or Intereſt in every or any ſuch Annuity ſo to be purchaſed or paid for, during the ſaid term of Ninety ſix years (ſubject neverthelefs to the ſaid particular Eſtate for Life in being) and after the determination of ſuch particular Eſtate for Life, ſhall have, receive and enjoy, and be Intituled to have, receive and enjoy ſuch Annuity or yearly rent or payment, ſo purchaſed or paid for, during all the reſt and reſidue which ſhall be then to come and unexpired, of and in the ſaid term of Ninety ſix years, to be paid and payable out of ſuch of the ſaid Fonds as the Annuity for Life was firſt charged upon, or payable out of, and to be paid at the Four moſt uſual Feaſts in the year, by equal portions, as aforeſaid.

Order in the Exchequer and Appropriation of the Duties given in the former Acts to payment of this new advance.

VII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that immediately after the levying and ſtriking of the ſeveral and reſpective Tallies before mentioned, Orders (according to the Form and Courſe of the Exchequer, in Parchment or Velom) ſhall be drawn and ſigned for making the payments which by this Act are to be made, and according as by this Act they are appointed to be made, upon the ſeveral and reſpective Annuities ſo to be purchaſed or obtained in purſuance hereof; which orders ſhall not be determinable, revocable or countermandable; and the Monies payable by ſuch orders, or any of them, or any part thereof, ſhall be Aſſignable and Transferrable, in ſuch and the ſame manner and form as are enacted, preſcribed or appointed in and by the aboveſaid Act, which granted Duties of Exciſe to ſecure Recompences and Advantages to ſuch as ſhould advance the ſum of Ten hundred thouſand pounds, for or concerning the orders which were to be given to the Contributors upon that Act; and ſo much of the ſeveral Rates and Duties of Exciſe, and of the ſaid impoſition ariſing by the Tunnage of Ships and Veſſels granted by the ſeveral Acts above mentioned, as is and ſhall be ſufficient to pay and ſatisfie the ſeveral ſums of Money which ſhall from time to time grow due, and be payable upon the ſaid ſeveral Annuities to be purchaſed and obtained in purſuance of this Act, and which ſhall reſpectively be charged upon the Rates, Duties or Impoſition aforeſaid, is and ſhall be appropriated and applied, and the ſame is hereby appropriated to and for the payment of the ſaid ſeveral Annuities to be purchaſed and obtained in purſuance of this Act, according as the ſame ſhall become due by the purport and true meaning thereof; and ſhall not be diverted or divertible to any other uſe, intent or purpoſe whatſoever, under the like Penalties, Forfeitures and Diſabilities, in reſpect to all and every the Officers and other perſons that are or ought to be concerned in the payments thereof, as are appointed and enacted (in caſe of diverting or miſapplying or not paying) in and by the ſaid Act, which granted Duties of Exciſe to ſecure Recompences and Advantages to ſuch as ſhould advance the ſum of Ten hundred thouſand pounds; and every article, rule and clauſe in the ſaid laſt mentioned Act contained, as for and concerning any Penalties, Forfeitures or Diſabilities upon any Officers or others for miſapplying or diverting any of the duties or ſums of Money thereby granted, ſhall be of full force and effect to all intents and purpoſes during the continuance of the ſaid term of Ninety ſix years; and the ſaid Penalties and Forfeitures ſhall be ſued for, proſecuted, recovered and paid in ſuch manner and form as the Penalties in the Act laſt mentioned, are appointed to be ſued for, proſecuted, recovered or paid; in which Suit no Protection, Priviledge of Parliament, or other Priviledge, Wager of Law, or any more than one Imparlance ſhall be allowed. And the ſaid Officers are hereby required to keep Books and Regiſters, and to make Entries of the Names of all perſons who ſhall advance Moneys on this Act, and of perſons to be nominated, as aforeſaid, and of the ſeveral ſums ſo advanced, and the times of paying in the ſame reſpectively, and of the nature of each payment to be made in purſuance of this Act, to which all perſons concerned ſhall have acceſs; all which the ſaid Officers, for the time being, ſhall do or perform, without fee or reward, under the like Penalties, Forfeitures and Diſabilities, as in the like caſes are appointed to be inflicted by the Act laſt mentioned.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That any Moneys payable to any perſon or perſons, upon or by virtue of this Act for Annuities, to be purchaſed or obtained, as aforeſaid, ſhall not be charged or chargeable to, or with any Taxes or publick Rates, Duties or Impoſitions whatſoever.

Moneys by this Act advanced Tax-free.

IX. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for any Guardian or Truſtee, having the diſpoſal of the Money of any Infant under the Age of Twenty one years, for the uſe and benefit of ſuch Infant, to advance and pay any ſum, not exceeding Seventy pounds of the Moneys of ſuch Infant, upon any the terms in this Act mentioned; and ſuch Infant, upon the payment of the ſame, ſhall become a Contributor within the meaning of this Act, and be Intituled to the Annuity, for which ſuch ſum ſhall be ſo paid; and the ſaid Guardian or Truſtee, as to the ſum ſo advanced, is hereby diſcharged.

Guardian may advance for Infants.

X. And be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon or perſons ſhall fraudulently contribute any ſum or ſums of Money upon this Act, under colour or pretence of having an Eſtate for a ſingle Life, changed or converted into a term certain, as aforeſaid, or under colour or pretence of purchaſing or obtaining an intereſt to take effect (in point of payment) after a ſingle Life ſuppoſed to be in being, when in truth and reality, the particular Eſtate for ſuch ſingle Life (at the time of the paying the conſideration Money ſo to be contributed or advanced) ſhall be actually determined by the death of the Nominee, or perſon during whoſe Life ſuch particular Eſtate was to continue, that then, and in every ſuch caſe, the Conſideration Money, or ſum ſo to be advanced or contributed, ſhall be forfeited and loſt to his Majeſty; and no Eſtate, intereſt or term, for or in reſpect of the ſame, ſhall by this Act ariſe, or be veſted either in ſuch Contributor, or in any perſon to be nominated for him, her, or them, as aforeſaid, or in his, her, or their Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns; and ſuch Contributor, for every ſuch offence, ſhall forfeit the ſum of One hundred pounds, one moiety thereof to his Majeſty, and the other moiety to him or them that ſhall diſcover ſuch offence, and ſue for the ſaid ſum, by Action of Debt, Bill, Suit or Information, as aforeſaid, any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Puniſhment upon perſon that ſhall fraudulently advance Money, his Nominee being dead.

XI. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, that when as any the ſaid particular Eſtates for ſingle Lives ſhall be changed into certain terms of years, and be thereby merged or extinguiſhed, according to the true meaning of this Act, as aforeſaid, the orders which were made and ſigned purſuant to the ſaid former Acts for the Annuities payable during ſuch ſingle Lives, ſhall be brought into the Receipt of the Exchequer, and there remain as Vouchers for the payments already made, without making any further iſſues or payments thereupon, for any time beyond the Feaſt of the Nativity of our Lord, which ſhall be in the year, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety five, from which Feaſt day the iſſues or payments of the reſpective Annuities hereby appointed to be paid, ſhall be made upon the ſaid Orders which are to be drawn and ſigned in purſuance of this Act; and in all caſes where the ſaid Annuities, or any of them, are by this Act to be paid to the Contributor, or ſuch as he ſhall nominate, his Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns for a Term of years, without depending upon a Life, it ſhall not be neceſſary or requiſite for him or them, in order to obtain his or their payments thereof, to produce a Certificate ſigned by any Miniſter or Churchwardens, or to make any other proof of a Nominees being Alive; any thing in this or the ſaid former Acts or any of them to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Appropriation of Money Advanc'd.

XII. And it is hereby further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That out of the Money that ſhall be levyed or paid by virtue of this Act into the Receipt of the Exchequer, as well upon Loans, as otherwiſe, one Moiety thereof ſhall be, and it hereby appropriated for the ſervices of the Navy and Ordnance for Sea-Service performed and to be performed; and that all other Money which ſhall be levyed and paid by virtue of this Act into the Receipt of the Exchequer, as well upon Loans, as otherwiſe, ſhall be applied and appropriated, and is hereby appropriated to and for the payment of his Majeſties Land-forces and Armies, and the paying for Arms, Ammunition, and other Charges incident to the War, and not otherwiſe.

LV. And for the better preſerving the Genealogies, Deſcents and Alliances of the Nobility and Gentry, Be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That upon the Burial of every perſon or perſons, of any the Degrees, Ranks, Titles or Qualities aforementioned, for which a duty of Twenty ſhillings or upwards is charged by this Act (except ſuch perſons as are charged only for, or in reſpect of their having Fifty pounds per Annum, or ſix hundred pounds Perſonal Eſtate) the party lyable to pay the ſaid duty, ſhall deliver, or cauſe to be delivered to the Collector or Collectors appointed by this Act, a Certificate in writing, under his or her Hand and Seal, Engroſſed in Parchment, or otherwiſe, expreſſing the Name, Sirname, Title, Quality, Office and Employment (if any) of ſuch deceaſed perſon, with the Age, Time of Death, Place of Burial, Marriages and Iſſue, and the Ages of ſuch Iſſue, together with the Names, Sirnames, Titles and Qualities of the Parents of ſuch deceaſed perſons; which Certificates ſhall be Tranſmitted to the Receiver General, his Deputy or Deputies, who ſhall deliver them to the Kings Heralds and Purſuivants of Arms; and the ſaid Officers of Arms ſhall thereupon forthwith number, ſchedule, and digeſt the ſame in Alphabetical order, in Books to be provided for that purpoſe, and ſhall File up the Originals, in the Colledge of Arms for publick uſe, and ſhall be anſwerable for the keeping thereof, without any Fee or Reward for ſo doing.

Clauſe of Credit for 650000 l. at 8 l. per Cent.

LVI. And be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful, to and for any perſon or perſons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, to advance and Lend to his Majeſty, into the Receipt of his Exchequer, upon the credit of this Act, any ſum or ſums of money, not exceeding the ſum of Six hundred and fifty thouſand pounds in the whole, and to have and receive for the forbearance of all ſuch moneys as ſhall be Lent, Intereſt not exceeding the rate of Eight pounds per Centum per Annum.

Officers to keep a diſtinct Account.

LVII. And be it further enacted and ordained by the authority aforeſaid, That all and every the Officer and Officers, who ſhall be concerned in the levying, collecting and receiving the duties ariſing by this Act, do keep a ſeparate and diſtinct Account thereof, and the ſame ſhall, from time to time, be brought and paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer.

Order, Tally, Payment in courſe and Preference.

LVIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That there ſhall be provided and kept in his Majeſties Exchequer (that is to ſay) in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipts, one Book in which all moneys that ſhall be paid into the Exchequer, by virtue of this Act, ſhall be Entred and Regiſtred apart and diſtinct from all other Moneys paid or payable to his Majeſty upon any account whatſoever; and that all and every perſon and perſons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, who ſhall Lend any Money to his Majeſty upon the credit of this Act, and pay the ſame into the Receipt of the Exchequer, ſhall immediately have a Talley of Loon ſtruck for the ſame, and an Order for his or their Repayment, bearing the ſame date with the Tally: In which Order ſhall be alſo contained a Warrant for payment of Intereſt for Forbearance, not exceeding the Rates aforeſaid, for his or their conſideration, to be paid every Three months, until the repayment of his or their Principal; and that all Orders for repayment of Money ſhall be Regiſtred in courſe, according to the date of the Tally reſpectively, without preference of one before another; and that all and every perſon and perſons ſhall be paid in courſe, according as their Orders ſhall ſtand Regiſtred in the ſaid Book, ſo as that the perſon, Native or Foreigner, his or their Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, who ſhall have his, her or their Order or Orders firſt entred in the ſaid Book, ſhall be taken and accounted as the firſt perſon to be paid upon the Moneys to come in by virtue of this Act; and he or they, who ſhall have his or their Order or Orders next entred, ſhall be taken and accounted to be the Second perſon to be paid, and ſo ſucceſſively and in courſe; and that the moneys to come in by this Act, ſhall be, in the ſame Order, lyable to the ſatisfaction of the ſaid reſpective Parties, their Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns ſucceſſively, without preference of one before another, and not otherwiſe, and not to be divertible to any other uſe, intent or purpoſe whatſoever; and that no Fee, Reward or Gratuity directly or indirectly, be demanded or taken of any of his Majeſties Subjects, for providing, or making of any ſuch Books, Regiſters, Entries, View or Search, as aforeſaid, or in, or for the payment of money Lent, or the Intereſt, as aforeſaid, by any of his Majeſties Officer or Officers, their Clerks or Deputies, on pain of payment of treble damages to the party grieved, by the party offending, with coſts of Suit; or if the Officer himſelf take or demand any ſuch Fee or Reward, then to loſe his Place alſo; and if any undue preference of one before another ſhall be made, either in point of Regiſtry or Payment, contrary to the true meaning of this Act, by any ſuch Officer or Officers, then the party offending ſhall be liable by Action of debt, or on the caſe, to pay the value of the debt, damages and coſts to the party grieved, and ſhall be forejudged from his Place or Office; and if ſuch preference be unduly made by any his Deputy or Clerk, without direction or privity of his Maſter, then ſuch Deputy or Clerk only ſhall be liable to ſuch action, debt, damages and coſts, and ſhall be for ever after uncapable of his Place or Office; and in caſe the Auditor ſhall not direct, or the Clerk of the Pells Record, or the Teller make payment according to each perſons due, place and order, as afore directed, then he or they ſhall be judged to forfeit, and their reſpective Deputies and Clerks herein offending, to be liable to ſuch action, debt, damages and coſts, in ſuch manner, as aforeſaid; all which ſaid Penalties, Forfeitures, Damages and Coſts, to be incurred by any of the Officers aforeſaid, any their Deputies or Clerks, ſhall and may be recovered by action of debt, bill, plaint or information, in any of his Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoign, Protection, Priviledge, Wager of Law, Injunction or Order of Reſtraint, ſhall be in any wiſe granted or allowed.

LIX. Provided always, and be it hereby Declared, That if it ſhall happen that ſeveral Tallies of Loan, or Orders for Payment, as aforeſaid, bear Date or be brought the ſame day to the Auditor of the Receipt, to be Regiſtred, Then it ſhall be Interpreted no undue preference, which of thoſe he Enters firſt, ſo he Enters them all the ſame day.

LX. Provided alſo, that it ſhall not be interpreted any undue preference to incur any Penalty in point of payment, if the Auditor Direct, and the Clerk of the Pells Record, and the Teller pay ſubſequent Orders of the perſons that come and demand their Money, and bring their Orders in their courſe, ſo as there may be ſo much Money reſerved as will ſatisfie precedent Orders, which ſhall not be otherwiſe diſpoſed, but kept for them (Intereſt upon Loan being to ceaſe from the time the Money is ſo reſerved and kept in Bank for them.)

Order transferrable.

LXI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That every perſon or perſons, to whom any Moneys ſhall be due by virtue of this Act, after Order entred in the Book or Regiſter aforeſaid for payment thereof, his Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, by Endorſement of his Order, may Aſſign and Transfer his Right, Title, Intereſt and Benefit of ſuch Order, or any part thereof to any other; which being notified in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt aforeſaid, and an Entry or Memorial thereof alſo made in the Book of Regiſter aforeſaid, for Orders, (which the Officers ſhall, upon requeſt, without Fee or Charge accordingly make) ſhall entitle ſuch Aſſignee, his Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, to the benefit thereof, and payment thereon; and ſuch Aſſignee may in like manner Aſſign again, and ſo toties quoties; and afterwards it ſhall not be in the power of ſuch perſon or perſons, who have or hath made ſuch Aſſignments, to make void, releaſe or diſcharge the ſame.

Proviſion for Salaries.

LXII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, out of the Duties ariſing by this Act, to cauſe ſuch ſum and ſums of Money to be expended, and paid from time to time for Salaries and other incident charges, as ſhall be neceſſary in and for the receiving, collecting, levying or managing of the ſame Duties, during the ſaid term therein by this Act granted; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Quakers, Papiſts and Jews cohabiting, to pay, but not to make their Marriages good in Law.

LXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all perſons commonly called Quakers, or reputed ſuch, and all Papiſts or reputed Papiſts, whether they are Popiſh Recuſants Convict, or not, and all Jews, or any other perſons, who ſhall cohabit and live together as Man and Wife, ſhall and are hereby made lyable to pay the ſeveral and reſpective Duties and ſums of money payable upon Marriages, according to their reſpective Degrees, Titles, Orders and Qualifications, as they ought to have paid by virtue of this Act, if they had been Married according to the Law of England; which Duties and ſums of Money ſhall be collected, levyed and paid in ſuch manner, and ſubject to ſuch rules and directions, and under ſuch Penalties and Forfeitures, as are in this Act ſpecified and contained, for and concerning payment of the ſeveral and reſpective duties payable upon Marriages, any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding; and upon every pretended Marriage which ſhall be made by any ſuch perſon, within the ſaid term of Five years, according to the Method and Forms uſed amongſt them, the Man ſo entring into ſuch pretended ſtate of Matrimony, ſhall within Five days after, give Notice thereof to the Collectors, or one of them, of the Pariſh or Place where he Lives; and in default of giving ſuch Notice, he ſhall forfeit the ſum of Five pounds, one Moiety thereof to the Kings Majeſty, the other Moiety to the Informer.

LXIV. Provided always, That nothing herein contained ſhall be conſtrued to make good or effectual in Law any ſuch Marriage or pretended Marriage, but that they ſhall be of the ſame force and virtue, and no other, as they would have been if this Act had never been made.

C A P. VII.

An Act for Granting to his Majeſty ſeveral Additional Duties upon Coffee, Tea, Chocolate and Spices, towards Satisfaction of the Debts due for Tranſport Service for the Reduction of Ireland.

Preamble. 330769l. 10s. 7d. due to the tranſport Ships.

(4) For every pound of Chocolate ready made, Imported, as aforeſaid, One ſhilling. (5) For every pound of Cocoa Paſt, Imported, as aforeſaid, Two ſhillings. (6) For every pound of Tea regularly Imported, as aforeſaid, from whence the ſame might have been lawfully Imported before the making of this Act, One ſhilling. (7) For every pound of Tea Imported, as aforeſaid, from Holland or any other Country, not the Place of its Growth, or uſual Shipping, Two ſhillings and ſix pence per pound weight, and ſo proportionably for any greater or leſſer quantity of any of the Commodities Imported, as aforeſaid, reſpectively. (8) For all Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves and Mace Imported, as aforeſaid, Five pounds for every hundred pounds value thereof, according to the ſeveral values charged on them reſpectively in the Book of Rates, and ſo in proportion for any greater or leſſer quantity thereof, over and above all Duties now payable for the ſame. (9) For all Pictures Imported within the time aforeſaid, whether for private uſe or Sale, which are herby permitted to be Imported, during the continuance of this Act, any Law or Uſe to the contrary notwithſtanding, Twenty pounds of Lawful Engliſh Money per Centum of the value, to be affirmed by the Oath of the Importer, and ſo in proportion for any greater or leſſer quantity thereof.

Navigating Nutmegs, &c.

III. Provided, and be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that it ſhall and may be Lawful for any perſon or perſons to Import into the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, during the continuance of this Act, Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Mace and Tea, ſubject to the ſeveral Duties payable for the ſame, from any parts beyond the Seas, in Engliſh Ships, whereof the Maſter, and at leaſt Two thirds of the Mariners are Engliſh men, ſo as notice be firſt given to the Commiſſioners or Farmers of his Majeſties Cuſtoms of the Quality and Quantity of the ſaid Spices ſo intended to be Imported, with the Name of the Ship, and Maſter or Commander on which they are to be Loaden, and the Place into which they intend to Import the ſame, and taking a Licence under the hands of the Commiſſioners or Farmers of the Cuſtoms for the time being, or any three of them, for the Lading and Importing thereof, as aforeſaid; which Licence they are hereby authorized and required to grant, without any Fee or Reward, or any other charge to the perſon demanding the ſame; Any Law, Cuſtom or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Goods Forfeited if Landed before Duties paid.

IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any of the Commodities aforeſaid, whereof the Duties are or ſhall be due, ſhall be Unſhipped or laid on Land, the Duties due, or to be due for the ſame, not paid, or lawfully tendred to the Collector thereof or his Deputy, with the conſent and agreement of the Comptroller and Surveyer there, nor agreed with for the ſame in the Cuſtom-houſe, according to the true meaning of this Act, that then from the ſaid Firſt day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety five, all the ſaid Goods and Merchandizes ſhall be Forfeited, the one Moiety of the ſaid Goods ſo Forfeited ſhall be to his Majeſties uſe, and the other Moiety to him or them that will Seize or Sue for the ſame, without any Compoſition whatſoever.

Draw back of two thirds upon Exportation.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted and declared by the authority aforeſaid, that every Merchant or other Importer, having paid the ſaid Duties and Impoſitions in and by this Act appointed to be paid for any of the ſaid Goods or Merchandizes herein mentioned, which might by Law have been Imported before the making of this Act, who being a Native, ſhall within Twelve months, or an Alien, ſhall within Nine months next after ſuch his Importation thereof, again Ship off and carry out of this Kingdom or any part thereof, the ſaid Goods or Merchandizes, or any part thereof, to any part beyond the Seas, that ſuch Merchant or other Importer, on ſuch his Exportation thereof, ſhall be repaid two thirds of the Duties ſo by him paid by virtue of this Act, of ſo much of the ſaid Goods and Merchandizes which he ſhall ſo Export or Ship off; the ſaid Merchant or Exporter making Oath on his Debenture in hæc verba, that all the Goods Entred and Shipped as there certified, are really and truly Exported for parts beyond the Seas on his own account, if he acts for himſelf, or if he acts by Commiſſion, then on the account of ſuch perſon or perſons for whom the Deponent acts in the direction of the Voyage, and that none of the ſaid Goods have been ſince Landed, or are intended to be Relanded in England, Wales or Berwick.

Collectors to keep a diſtinct account and pay weekly into the Exchequer.

VI. And be it further enacted and ordained by the authority aforeſaid, that all and every the Officer and Officers who ſhall be concerned in the levying, collecting, and receiving the Duties granted by this Act, do keep a ſeparate and diſtinct account thereof, and pay the ſame, in ſpecie, into the Receipt of his Majeſties Exchequer Weekly, on Wedneſday in every Week, unleſs it be an Holiday, and if it be, then on the next day that is not an Holiday; and upon neglect or refuſal of the ſame, ſhall incur the penalties, forfeitures, damages and coſts, as other the Officers of the Exchequer herein after mentioned ſhall be liable to; which Money ſo paid in, ſhall be applied to the uſes hereafter mentioned in this Act, and no otherwiſe.

Account diſtinct in Exchequer and Duties to be a Fond.

VII. Provided, and it is further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That there ſhall be provided and kept in his Majeſties Exchequer (that is to ſay) in the Office of the Auditor of Receipts, one Book or Regiſter, in which all Moneys that ſhall be paid into the Exchequer by virtue of this Act, ſhall be Entred, Regiſtred and kept apart and diſtinct from all other Moneys paid or payable to his Majeſty upon any other Branch of his Majeſties Revenue, or upon any other account whatſoever; and that all Moneys that ſhall be paid into the Exchequer by virtue of this Act, ſhall be the yearly Fond for the ſeveral and reſpective purpoſes herein after mentioned and expreſſed, and ſhall not be applied to any other purpoſe whatſoever.

VIII. Provided and it is further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the Commiſſioners for Tranſportation do within Three months after the Paſſing this Act, make out authentick Debentures for each ſum of Money due, to or for every reſpective Ship, as the ſame was adjuſted by the Commiſſioners for Taking and Stating the Publick Accounts of the Kingdom; and that ſuch Debenture, when made out, be delivered either to the Owner of, or to the Agent appearing for every ſuch reſpective Ship; and ſhall be made payable to ſuch perſon or his Aſſigns, as ſuch reſpective Owner or his Agent ſhall nominate, for the uſe of the Owners of the reſpective Ships; and that ſuch Owner or Agent ſhall upon the Receipt of ſuch Debenture, give a Receipt to the ſaid Commiſſioners for Tranſportation, for every ſuch Debenture, which ſaid Receipt ſhall be entred in a Book kept for that purpoſe in the Office of Tranſportation; and that ſuch Debenture or Debentures be numbred in courſe, beginning with the firſt Ship that was hired with the figure of One, and ſo ſucceſſively according to the day the ſaid Ships were Hired, whether by his Majeſties Commiſſioners for the Navy, the Officers for Victualling, the Officers of the Ordnance, or the Commiſſioners for Tranſportation, to the end that no undue preference may be made; and if it ſo fall out, that more than one Ship was Hired in one day, the reſpective Owner or Agent ſhall have his or their Debentures numbred, as their reſpective Ships ſtand Regiſtred in the reſpective Offices where they were taken up, or Hired.

Debentures to the ſeveral Ships to be made, entred, numbred and have due preference.

Debentures to be entred in the Exchequer, and the Moneys to be paid upon them with Intereſt at 5 l. per Cent.

IX. Provided, and it is further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all the ſaid Debentures ſhall be produced and ſhewn in the ſaid Office of the Auditor of the Receipt in the Exchequer, and a Note or Memorandum thereof ſhall be entred, and taken in a Book to be kept for the ſaid purpoſe, in the ſame Office; and that all the Moneys that ſhall be paid into the Exchequer by virtue of this Act, ſhall be applyed to the payment of the ſeveral perſons named in the ſaid ſeveral Debentures, and their ſeveral and reſpective Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns for the uſes aforeſaid, intereſt for their ſeveral and reſpective principal ſums of Money mentioned and expreſſed in ſuch Debentures, from the Five and twentieth day of December, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety five, for the ſpace of Three years, from thence next and immediately enſuing after the rate of Five pounds per Centum for one whole year, by two equal payments; the firſt payment to be made upon the ſaid Five and twentieth day of December.

If Moneys fall ſhort to be an Average.

X. Provided, and it is further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if all the Moneys that ſhall be paid into the Exchequer by virtue of this Act, ſhall not be ſufficient to ſatisfie and pay Intereſt for all the ſaid ſum of Three hundred thirty thouſand ſeven hundred ſixty nine pounds ten ſhillings and ſeven pence principal Money for the ſaid ſpace of Three years, at the ſaid rate of Five pounds per Centum for one whole year; then there ſhall be no preference of any of the ſaid perſons named in the ſaid Debentures, but ſuch deficiency ſhall fall upon the ſaid perſons named in the ſaid Debentures, their ſeveral and reſpective Executors, Adminiſtators and Aſſigns ratably and proportionably, according to the Quantity of their reſpective Debts mentioned in the ſaid Debentures.

Puniſhment of Officer miſapplying.

XI. Provided, and it is further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if any Officer in the Exchequer ſhall divert or miſapply any of the Moneys that ſhall be paid into the Exchequer, by virtue of this Act, to any other uſes or purpoſes then are hereby directed, then ſuch Officer ſo offending, ſhall forfeit his Office in the Exchequer, and be incapable of any Office or place of Truſt, and ſhall be lyable to pay the double value of any ſum or ſums ſo diverted or miſapplyed to any of the ſaid perſons named in the ſaid Debentures, their reſpective Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns who will Sue for the ſame, by any Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information in any of his Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoign, Protection, Wager of Law, Priviledge of Parliament, or other Priviledge, or more then one Imparlance ſhall be granted or allowed; and all Orders and Warrants for iſſuing, paying or diſpoſing any of the Money to be raiſed by virtue of this Act, contrary to the true intent and meaning thereof, ſhall be utterly void.

Debt upon the Tranſport Ships already Aſſigned redeemable within 12 Months.

XII. Provided, and it is further enacted and ordained by the authority aforeſaid, that all ſuch of the ſaid Debts due to any Owners of ſuch Tranſport Ships, and all parts of ſuch Debts as have been at any time aſſigned or granted, or covenanted and agreed to be aſſigned or granted, or for which any authority hath heretofore been given or granted by any of the ſaid Owners, their reſpective Executors or Adminiſtrators, to any perſon or perſons to receive the ſame, or any part thereof, to the uſe of ſuch perſon ſo authorized, or any other perſon, beſides ſuch Owner, his or her Executors or Adminiſtrators, ſhall and may be redeemed, and are hereby declared to be redeemable by the ſaid Owners, their reſpective Executors or Adminiſtators, on payment of the principal ſum of Money paid in conſideration of making the ſaid aſſignment, grant, covenant or authority, together with the charges and intereſt for the ſame, from the time of the payment thereof, after the rate of Six pounds per Centum, for one whole year, diſcounting for what hath been received, for or in reſpect of the ſaid Debt, by any ſuch perſon to whom ſuch aſſignment or authority was made or given; and upon payment or tender of the ſaid principal Money, intereſt and charges, ſuch grant, aſſignment or authority, and all covenants and agreements concerning the ſame ſhall be void. Provided nevertheleſs that ſuch redemption, as aforeſaid, be made within the ſpace of Twelve months, from and after the end of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament.

No Fee for making Debentures, &c.

XIII. Provided, and be it further enacted, that no Fee, Reward or Gratuity, directly or indirectly, ſhall be demanded or taken of any of the ſaid Owners or Agents, their reſpective Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, for the making any the ſaid Debentures, or the payment of any of the ſaid Moneys, or for providing or making of any Books, Regiſters or Entries, or permitting any Views or Searches relating to this Act, by any of his Majeſties Officers in the Exchequer, upon pain of forfeiting their Offices and Places, and of becoming incapable of any Office of Truſt, and upon pain of payment of treble the value of any ſuch Fee, Reward or Gratuity to the party grieved, with coſts of Suit; the ſame treble value to be recovered by action of debt, bill, plaint or information, in any of his Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no eſſoign, protection, priviledge, wager of Law, injunction, or order, or reſtraint ſhall be in any wiſe granted or allowed.

XIV. And

Officer attending when not bound may take Fee.

XIV. And whereas it may be a reaſonable accommodation for Trade, That the Officers of the Cuſtoms be permitted on ſundry urgent occaſions, to work at times and places not required by Law, for which extraordinary attendances the Merchant or other perſon concerned, is willing to make a moderate allowance, if the Officer might be juſtified in receiving the ſame: Be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for any Officer duly employed in the Execution of his Office, on any extraordinary ſervice not required by Law, to take and receive ſuch Recompence from the Merchant or other perſon deſiring his attendance, as the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms in the Port of London, and the Collector, Cuſtomer and Comptroller in the Out Ports, or any two of them reſpectively (by whom the Sufferance is thought requiſite to be granted) ſhall determine.

CAP. VIII.

An Act for continuing two former Acts, for puniſhing Officers and Soldiers, who ſhall Mutiny or Deſert his Majeſties Service, and for puniſhing falſe Muſters, and for payment of Quarters, for one year longer.

Preamble.
4 & 5 W & M. Cap. 13.
5 & 6 W & M. Cap. 15.

Whereas an Act was made in the Fourth and Fifth years of the Reign of King William and Queen Mary, Entituled, An Act for puniſhing Officers and Soldiers, who ſhall Mutiny or Deſert their Majeſties Service, and for puniſhing falſe Muſters, and for payment of Quarters, to continue and be in force until the Firſt day of March, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety three, and no longer; Which Act, by an Act made in the laſt Seſſion of this preſent Parliament, Entituled, An Act for continuing the Act for puniſhing Officers and Soldiers who ſhall Mutiny or Deſert their Majeſties Service, and for puniſhing Falſe Muſters, and for the Payment of Quarters, for one year longer, was declared and enacted to be and continue in full force and virtue, from the ſaid Firſt day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety three, until the Firſt day of March, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety four, and no longer. And whereas the raiſing or keeping a Standing Army within this Kingdom in time of Peace (unleſs it be with Conſent of Parliament) is againſt Law. And whereas it is judged neceſſary by his Majeſty, and this preſent Parliament, That during this time of War, ſeveral of the Forces which are now on Foot, ſhould be continued, and others raiſed for the ſafety of this Kingdom, for the common Defence of the Proteſtant Religion, and for the carrying on the War againſt France. And whereas no man may be forejudged of Life or Limb, or ſubject to any kind of puniſhment by Martial Law, or in any other manner then by the Judgment of his Peers, and according to the known and eſtabliſhed Laws of this Realm: Yet nevertheleſs it being requiſite for the retaining ſuch Forces as are or ſhall be Raiſed during this exigence of Affairs, in their Duty, That an exact Diſcipline be obſerved, and that Soldiers who ſhall Mutiny or ſtir up Sedition, or ſhall Deſert his Majeſties Service, be brought to a more exemplary and ſpeedy puniſhment, then the uſual forms of Law will allow.

4 & 5 W & M. Cap. 13. continued for a year.

II. Be it therefore enacted by the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Act made in the Fourth and Fifth years of the Reign of King William and Queen Mary, Entituled, An Act for puniſhing Officers and Soldiers who ſhall Mutiny or Deſert their Majeſties Service, and for puniſhing falſe Muſters, and for payment of Quarters, and every Clauſe, Matter and Thing therein contained, ſhall be and continue, and is hereby declared and enacted to be and continue in full force and virtue, to all Intents, Conſtructions, and Purpoſes, from the Tenth day of April, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety five, until the Tenth day of April, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſix, and no longer; And that in all and every the Clauſes in the ſaid firſt recited Act, wherein there is any Commencement of time expreſſed to be from the Tenth day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety two, the ſame ſhall be Conſtrued by virtue of this Act, to be accounted from the Tenth day of April, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety five; And in any Clauſe wherein the like time ſhall be expreſſed to be between the ſaid Tenth day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety two, and the Firſt day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety three, the ſame ſhall be, by virtue of this Act, intended to be between the Tenth day of April, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety five, and the Tenth day of April then next enſuing; Any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

5 & 6 W & M. Cap. 15. continued for a year.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all and every the Clauſes, Articles, Matters and Things contained in the ſaid recited Act, made in the laſt Seſſion of this preſent Parliament, Entituled, An Act for continuing the Act for puniſhing Officers and Soldiers who ſhall Mutiny or Deſert their Majeſties Service, and for puniſhing falſe Muſters, and for the Payment of Quarters for one year longer, ſhall be and continue, and are hereby declared and enacted to be and continue in full force and virtue, to all Intents, Conſtructions and Purpoſes, from the ſaid Tenth day of April, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety five, until the ſaid Tenth day of April, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſix, and no longer.

CAP. X.

An Act for the better Admeaſurement of Keels and Keel-Boats in the Port of Newcaſtle, and the Members thereunto belonging.

Preamble.
Cap. 10.
Cap. 8.

Whereas by Two ſeveral Statutes heretofore made, the one in the Ninth year of the Reign of King Henry the Fifth, Entituled, Keels that carry Coals at Newcaſtle, ſhall be Meaſured and Marked; And the other in the Thirtieth year of our late Sovereign Lord King Charles the Second, Entituled, An Act for the Admeaſurement of Keels and Boats carrying Coals; For the remedy of deceits therein complained off, (amongſt other things) It was thereby enacted, That Commiſſioners ſhould from time to time be appointed by his ſaid late Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, for the Admeaſuring and Marking all and every the Keels and other Boats, and Wains and Carts uſed, or in any time thereafter to be uſed for the carriage of Coals in the Port of Newcaſtle upon Tyne, Sunderland upon the River Weare, Culler-Coates, Seaton-Sluce, Blyth-Nooke, and all and every of the Members, Havens, Creeks and Places whatſoever, to the ſaid Port of Newcaſtle belonging, upon the Forfeiture that every Keel, Boat, Wain or Cart, which ſhould thereafter carry Coals in any of the aforeſaid places, before they ſhall be Admeaſured and Marked, as aforeſaid, ſhould be forfeited, together with the Coals laden upon them: Notwithſtanding which, divers new Frauds, Deceits and Abuſes have of late ariſen, and are daily practiſed to the diminution of his Majeſties Cuſtoms, and the great prejudice and damage of the Buyers and Sellers of Coals.

Commiſſioners to be appointed by the King for Admeaſurement of Keels in Newcaſtle, &c.

II. For remedy whereof, be it enacted by the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That Commiſſioners ſhall from time to time be appointed by his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, for the Admeaſuring and Marking all and every the Keels, Pan-Keels and Pan-Boats, and other Boats, and Wains and Carts uſed, or in any time hereafter to be uſed for the carriage of Coals in the Port of Newcaſtle upon Tyne, Sunderland upon the River Weare, Culler-coates, Seaton-Sluce, Blyth-Nooke, and all other places within the Counties of Northumberland and Durham, and all and every the Members, Havens, Rivers, Creeks and Places whatſoever, to the ſaid Port of Newcaſtle and Counties aforeſaid belonging; Which ſaid Admeaſurement ſhall be by a Dead Weight of Lead or Iron, or otherwiſe, as ſhall ſeem meet to the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any Three of them, allowing Three and fifty hundred Weight to every Chaldron of Coals; Which ſaid Keels, Boats, Wains or Carts ſhall be Admeaſured and Marked at the times and places, and in manner hereafter mentioned; Any thing in the ſaid former Acts to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The Content of a Cart-load, &c.

III. Provided always, That the Weight or Contents of Coals loden or carried by every ſuch Wain, ſhall be of the Weight or Content of Seventeen hundred Weight and an half, and the Weight or Contents of Coals loden or carried by every ſuch Cart, ſhall be of the Weight or Content of Eight hundred and three Quarters; And that Three ſuch Wains, or Six ſuch Carts, ſhall be reckoned and allowed for one Chaldron and no more; And that no other Wains or Carts are hereby intended to be Admeaſured or Marked, but only ſuch Wains and Carts as now are, or hereafter ſhall be imployed in carrying Coals to the Staiths, to be directly put from the Staiths into the Ships, and no others.

Carts and Keels to be admeaſured and marked by Commiſſioners

IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any Three or more of them, ſhall cauſe all and every of the ſaid Keels, Boats, Wains and Carts, to be admeaſured accordingly; And ſhall give Three days Notice of the time and place of ſuch admeaſurement to the Owner or Owners thereof, and cauſe the ſaid Keels and Boats ſo admeaſured, to be marked and nailed on each ſide the Stem and Sterne, and Midſhip thereof, or otherwiſe, as they the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any Three of them in their diſcretion ſhall direct; And the ſaid Wains and Carts to be marked and nailed on the Head and Sides of the ſaid Wains, Carts, or otherwiſe, as the ſaid Commiſſioners or any Three of them ſhall direct, or by ſuch perſons as ſhall be by them thereunto appointed; Which perſons ſo appointed ſhall take an Oath before the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any Three of them, for the true and impartial performance and diſcharging the ſame; Which Oath the ſaid Commiſſioners are hereby impowered to adminiſter: And if the Owner or Owners of ſuch Keels or Boats, Wains or Carts, ſhall, after ſuch Notice, neglect or refuſe to have their ſaid Keels, Boats, Wains or Carts ſo admeaſured, they and every of them ſhall incurr the penalty hereafter mentioned.

Content of a Keel, and time and place of admeaſurement.

V. Provided, That no ſuch Keel or Boat be admeaſured, marked or nailed, but between the Five and twentieth day of March, and the Nine and twentieth day of September, in any year, nor ſhall be admeaſured, marked or nailed to carry more then Ten ſuch Chaldrons of Coals at any one time; And that all ſuch Keels and Boats belonging to the Port of Newcaſtle ſhall be admeaſured, marked and nailed at the New Key of the ſaid Port, and that the Keels and Boats belonging to the River Weare, ſhall be admeaſured, marked and nailed at Lambton Staiths, upon the ſaid River, and not elſewhere. And that all the Keels and Boats belonging to Culler-coates, Seaton-ſluce, Blyth-nooke, and all other places within the ſaid Counties of Northumberland and Durham, as alſo all Wains and Carts, to be admeaſured and marked by virtue of this Act, ſhall be admeaſured and marked at ſuch times and places as the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any Three of them ſhall direct.

Keel, &c. not marked forfeited.

VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That every Keel, Boat, Wain, or Cart, which from and after the Four and twentieth day of July, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord God, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and five, ſhall carry any Coals in any of the places aforeſaid, before they ſhall be admeaſured, marked and nailed, as aforeſaid, by Three Commiſſioners or more of them, ſhall be, and are hereby declared to be forfeited, together with the Coals that ſhall be laden upon them (unleſs the ſame ſhall happen by default of the ſaid Commiſſioners) One Moiety of all which forementioned forfeitures ſhall be to the Kings Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, the other Moiety to him or them that ſhall diſcover and ſue for the ſame in any of his Majeſties Courts of Record, by Bill, Plaint, or Information, wherein no Eſſoign, Protection, Imparlance or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed; Any Statute, Law or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Puniſhment of perſon removing or altering the mark.

VII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That in caſe, after the admeaſuring, marking and nailing of any Keel, Boat, Wain or Cart, the Mark ſhall be removed or altered, whereby to fruſtrate the intent and meaning of this Act, That every perſon and perſons, that ſhall have a hand in, or be privy to the doing thereof, and ſhall upon proof thereof, by one or more credible Witneſſes, before any one or more Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace of the Counties where the ſaid Offence ſhall happen to be Committed, and Convicted thereof, ſuch perſon or perſons ſo, as aforeſaid, Convicted, ſhall forfeit the ſum of Ten pounds, to be levied upon his or their Goods and Chattels, by Diſtreſs and Sale thereof, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices, rendring the Overplus (if any) to the Party or Parties Diſtrained upon; And for want of ſufficient Diſtreſs, the Parties ſo Offending ſhall, by like Warrant, be committed to the Common Goal of the ſaid County where the Offence ſhall be committed, there to remain for the ſpace of Three Months without Bail or Mainprize, one half part of the ſaid forfeiture to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other half part thereof to ſuch perſon or perſons as ſhall make ſuch Diſcovery; And alſo that after any ſuch Offence, as aforeſaid, committed, by altering or removing any of the Marks or Nails that ſhall be ſet upon any ſuch Keels, Boats, Wains or Carts by virtue of this Act, That from thenceforth, and ſo often as any ſuch Offence ſhall be committed, as aforeſaid, the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any Three of them, or ſuch perſon or perſons as ſhall be by them appointed, ſhall have authority, and are hereby authorized and impowered to Admeaſure, Mark and Nail the ſaid Keels, Boats, Wains and Carts anew, according to the directions hereby before given.

CAP. XI.

An Act for the more effectual ſuppreſſing Prophane Curſing and Swearing.

Preamble; Cap. 20.

The forfeitures of ſeveral Degrees of perſons for ſwearing.

Whereas it is found by experience, That an Act of Parliament made in the One and twentieth year of the Reign of King James the Firſt, Entituled, An Act to prevent and reform Prophane Swearing and Curſing, hath proved ineffectual to the ſuppreſſing of thoſe deteſtable ſins, by reaſon of ſome deficiencies in the ſaid Act, Be it therefore enacted by the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That if any perſon or perſons ſhall (after the Four and twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety five) prophanely ſwear or curſe in the preſence or hearing of any Juſtice of Peace of the County, Riding or Diviſion, or of the Mayor or other Head Officer or Juſtice of Peace for any City or Town Corporate, where ſuch offence is or ſhall be committed, or that ſhall be thereof convicted by Oath of one Witneſs, or by the confeſſion of the party offending before any Juſtice of Peace of the County, or Mayor, or Bayliff, or other Chief Officer or Juſtice of the Peace of ſuch City or Town Corporate, where the ſaid Offence ſhall be committed, That then, for every ſuch offence, the party ſo offending, ſhall forfeit and pay to the uſe of the poor of the pariſh, where ſuch offence or offences ſhall be committed, the reſpective ſums herein after mentioned (that is to ſay;) Every ſervant, day labourer, common ſoldier and common ſeaman, One ſhilling, and every other perſon, Two ſhillings; And in caſe any of the perſons aforeſaid, ſhall, after conviction, offend a Second time, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit and pay double; And if a Third time, treble the ſum reſpectively by him or her to be paid for the firſt offence.

Forfeitures to be levied by Diſtreſs.

II. And it is hereby further enacted, That upon neglect or refuſal of payment of the ſaid forfeiture, any Juſtice of Peace of the County, Riding or Diviſion, or Mayor, or other Head Officer or Juſtice of Peace of any City, or Town Corporate, where the ſaid offences ſhall be committed, ſhall, and are hereby authorized and required to direct and ſend his Warrant to the Conſtable, Tythingman, Churchwarden or Overſeer of the poor of the pariſh where the offence ſhall be committed, or where the Offender ſhall inhabit, thereby commanding them, or ſome one or more of them, to levy by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods of the Offender, the ſum ſo forfeited for the uſe of the poor of the pariſh, as aforeſaid; And in caſe no ſuch Diſtreſs can be had, then every ſuch Offender, being above the Age of Sixteen Years, ſhall, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of the ſaid Juſtice of Peace or other Officer, as aforeſaid, be publickly ſet in the Stocks for the ſpace of One Hour for every ſingle offence, and for any number of offences, whereof he ſhall be convicted at one and the ſame time, then Two hours; And if the party offending be under the Age of Sixteen Years, and ſhall not forthwith pay the ſaid forfeitures, then he or ſhe ſhall by Warrant, as aforeſaid, be Whipped by the Conſtable, or by the Parent, Guardian or Maſter of ſuch Offender in the preſence of the Conſtable.

If no Diſtreſs, Offender to be put in the Stocks.

Five pounds penalty upon Juſtice of Peace not executing the Act.

III. And be it further enacted, That if any Juſtice of the Peace, or Chief Magiſtrate, ſhall wilfully and wittingly omit the performance of his Duty in the Execution of this Act, he ſhall forfeit the ſum of Five pounds, the one Moiety to the uſe of the Informer, to be recovered by Action, Suit, Bill or Plaint, in any of his Majeſties Courts at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoign, Protection or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed, nor any more then one Imparlance.

Officer ſued for executing plead General Iſſue, &c.

IV. And it is hereby further enacted, That if any Action or Suit ſhall be commenced or brought againſt any Juſtice of Peace, Conſtable or other Officer, or perſon whatſoever, for doing or cauſing to be done any thing in purſuance of this Act, concerning the ſaid Offences, the Defendant, in ſuch Action, may plead the General Iſſue, and give the Special Matter in Evidence; And if upon ſuch Action, Verdict be given for the Defendant, or the Plaintiff become Nonſuit, or diſcontinue his Action, then the Defendant ſhall have treble Coſts.

Time for Proſecuting upon this Act.

V. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That no perſon ſhall be proſecuted or troubled for any offence againſt this Statute, unleſs the ſame be proved or proſecuted within Ten days next after the offence committed.

VI. And it is further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That this Act ſhall be publickly Read Four ſeveral times in the Year in all Pariſh Churches, and all publick Chappels, by the Parſon, Vicar or Curate of the reſpective Pariſhes or Chappels, immediately after Morning Prayer, on Four ſeveral Sundays (that is to ſay) the Sunday next after the Four and twentieth day of June, the Nine and twentieth day of September, the Five and twentieth day of December, and the Five and twentieth day of March, under the pain of Twenty Shillings for every ſuch omiſſion or neglect.

VII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the Juſtice of Peace, Mayor or other Head Officer ſhall Regiſter in a Book, to be kept for that purpoſe, all the Convictions made before him upon this Act, and the time of making thereof, and for what offence, and ſhall certifie the ſame to the next General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace for the ſaid County or Place, where the offences are committed, to be there kept upon Record by the reſpective Clerks of the Peace, to be ſeen without Fee or Reward.

CAP. XII.

An Act for Explaining and Regulating ſeveral Doubts, Duties and Penalties in the late Act for Granting ſeveral Duties upon Velum, Parchment and Paper; And for Aſcertaining the admeaſurement of the Tunnage of Ships.

Preamble.

5 & 6 W. & M. Cap. 21.

Whereas ſeveral Doubts and Difficulties are ariſen upon the Interpretation of ſeveral Clauſes in an Act of Parliament made in the Fifth and Sixth years of the Reign of their Majeſties King William and Queen Mary, Entituled, An Act for Granting to their Majeſties ſeveral Duties upon Velum, Parchment and Paper for Four years, towards carrying on the War againſt France.

II. For the explaining and remedying the ſaid doubts and difficulties, Be it declared and enacted by the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Act, nor any Clauſe therein contained, ſhall be conſtrued to charge with any Duty ſpecified in the ſaid Act, any Warrant made by, or Recognizance taken before any Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, or any Surrender of any Copyhold Eſtate, or Copies for ſuch Eſtate, or any Certificate of Marriage of any Widow of any Seaman, or any proceedings of any Court Marſhal, which relate to any Tryal of any common Soldier, or any Orders, Decrees, or Proceedings before any Commiſſioners of Sewers, or in the Court of Stannaries, But the ſaid Warrants, Recognizances, Surrenders, Copies, Certificates, Orders, Decrees and Proceedings, ſhall, and are hereby declared to be exempted from the payment of any the Duties mentioned in the ſaid Act.

Degree in the Univerſity exempted.

III. And be it further enacted and declared by the authority aforeſaid, That the Clauſe in the ſaid Act, whereby the Duty of Fourty ſhillings is laid upon the Regiſter or Entry of any Degree in any of the Two Univerſities, ſhall not extend to charge with the ſaid Duty of Fourty ſhillings, the Regiſter or Entry of any Batchelor of Arts, who is hereby exempted from the payment thereof.

Commiſſions of Rebellion exempted.

IV. And be it further enacted and declared by the authority aforeſaid, That the Clauſe in the ſaid Act, whereby the Duty of Fourty ſhillings is laid upon Letters Patents, ſhall not extend to Commiſſions of Rebellion in Proceſs, But that the Commiſſions of Rebellion ſhall be, and are hereby exempted from the ſaid Duty of Fourty ſhillings.

Officers in Inferiour Courts, &c. exempted.

V. And be it further enacted and declared by the authority aforeſaid, That the Clauſe in the ſaid Act, whereby the Duty of Fourty ſhillings is laid upon admittances of Officers in any Court whatſoever, ſhall not be extended to charge any annual Officer in any Corporation or inferiour Court, whoſe Office is under the value of Ten pounds per Annum, in Salaries, Fees or other Perquiſites, But the ſaid annual Officer is hereby exempted and diſcharged from the ſaid Duty.

Sea Officers to pay as Land Officers.

VI. And be it further enacted and declared by the authority aforeſaid, That the Officers at Sea ſhall pay the ſame Duty that the Officers of the Army at Land pay, and no more; any thing in the ſaid Act to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

500 l. Penalty charged into 5 l.

VII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the Penalty of Five hundred pounds mentioned in the ſaid Act, ſhall no longer ſtand and be in force, but is hereby altered and changed into the penalty of Five pounds only; And that for the future, in all Caſes where by the ſaid Act the Offender was to forfeit Five hundred pounds, he ſhall forfeit no more then Five pounds, to be recovered with Coſts of Suit; any thing in the ſaid Act to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

VIII. And

Perſons who have incurred 500 l. Penalty pardon'd.

VIII. And be it further Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That all perſons that have already incurred the ſaid Penalty of Five hundred pounds, upon any Clauſe in the ſaid Act, ſhall be, and are hereby Pardoned, Indemnified and Diſcharged from the ſaid Forfeiture of Five hundred pounds, and every part thereof, and of and from any Proſecution thereupon; any thing in the ſaid Act to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Prices to be annually ſet and ſtamped upon the Parchment.

6 per Cent. allowance for ready Money.

IX. And for the better Diſtribution of the ſaid Velum, Parchment and Paper, and that the Subjects may have the ſame with more Conveniency, and at an eaſier Rate then formerly, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Lord High Treaſurer of England, or Commiſſioners of his Majeſties Treaſury for the time being, ſhall once in the Year at leaſt, ſet the prices of all ſorts of ſtampt velum, parchment and paper, that it ſhall be ſold at; And that the Commiſſioners appointed for putting the ſaid Act in Execution, ſhall ſtamp the ſaid Price ſo ſet, upon every ſkin or piece of velum or parchment, or ſheet or piece of paper ſo by them to be ſold; And that the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall likewiſe allow and pay to every perſon that ſhall bring velum, parchment or paper to be ſtampt (the Duty whereof ſhall amount to the ſum of Ten pounds or upwards) after the Rate of Six pounds in the Hundred pounds per Annum for Three Months, upon preſent payment of the ſaid Duty upon the ſaid velum, parchment and paper ſo by them bought; And that any perſons that ſhall buy of the ſaid Commiſſioners, or their Agents, velum, parchment or paper, the Duty whereof amounts to the like ſum of Ten pounds or upwards, ſhall have the ſame allowance of Six pounds in the Hundred pounds.

Another way of meaſuring Ships then was appointed by 5 & 6 W & M. cap. 20.

X. And whereas great Inconveniencies and Diſcouragements to Trade and Navigation, are found by admeaſuring of Ships and Veſſels according to the Act made in the Fifth and Sixth Year of the Reign of King William and Queen Mary, Intituled, An Act for Granting to Their Majeſties ſeveral Rates and Duties upon Tunnage of Ships and Veſſels, and upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, for ſecuring certain Recompences and Advantages in the ſaid Act mentioned, to ſuch perſons as ſhall voluntarily advance the ſum of Fifteen hundred thouſand Pounds, towards the Carrying on the War againſt France: Be it Enacted, That from and after the Firſt Day of June, in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety five, all Ships and Veſſels ſhall be meaſured, in order to the paying the Duty Impoſed by the ſaid Act, by taking the Length of the Keel of every Ship or Veſſel ſo much as ſhe treads on the Ground, and the Breadth to be taken within Board by the Midſhip Beam from Plank to Plank, and half that Breadth ſhall be accounted for the Depth of every Ship or Veſſel, then Multiply the Length by the Breadth, and the Product thereof by the Depth, and Divide the whole by Ninety four, and the Quotient ſhall give the true Contents of the Tunnage which ſuch Ship ſhall pay for; Any thing in the ſaid recited Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Tunnage ſhall be paid only for Goods actually laden.

XI. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Firſt Day of June, there ſhall not be Raiſed, Levied, Collected or Paid for the Uſe of his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors for the Tunnage of any Ship or Veſſel within the time in the ſaid Act mentioned, Trading Coaſtwiſe, any other or greater Sum or Rate then for ſo many Tuns of Goods as are or ſhall be actually Laden on Board ſuch Ship or Veſſel; Any thing in the ſaid Act contained to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

CAP. XIII.

An Act for Raiſing the Militia of this Kingdom, for the Year One thouſand ſix hundred ninety five; And for Repealing the Statute of the Second and Third Year of King Edward the Sixth, Intituled, An Act againſt Shooting in Hail-Shot.

Preamble. Cap. 3.

Whereas by an Act of Parliament, made in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of the Reign of his late Majeſty King Charles the Second, Intituled, An Act for Ordering the Forces in the ſeveral Counties of this Kingdom, It was (amongſt other things) Enacted, That in caſe of Invaſions, Inſurrections or Rebellions, whereby occaſion ſhould be to draw out the Soldiers mentioned and appointed in and by the ſaid Act into Actual Service, the perſons charged by the ſaid Act, with Horſes, Horſemen and Arms, ſhould provide each their Soldier reſpectively with pay in hand, not exceeding One Months pay, as ſhould be in that behalf directed by the reſpective Lieutenants of the ſeveral Counties, and in their Abſence, or otherwiſe, by their Direction, by their Deputies, or any Two or more of them: For Repayment of which ſaid Moneys, and for Satisfaction of the Officers for their pay, during ſuch time, not exceeding One Month, as aforeſaid, as they ſhould be with their Soldiers in ſuch Actual Service, It was thereby declared that proviſion ſhould be made for the ſame by his ſaid Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, out of his or their Publick Treaſury or Revenue: Nevertheleſs it was thereby further Provided and Enacted, That in Caſe a Months pay, ſhould be provided and advanced, as aforeſaid, that no perſon who ſhould have advanced his proportion thereof, ſhould be charged with any other like Months payment, until he or they ſhould have been Reimburſed the ſaid Months pay, and ſo from time to time, the ſaid Months pay by him or them laſt before provided and advanced, as aforeſaid. And whereas upon the Invaſion of the Coaſts of this Kingdom by the French, it was found neceſſary for the publick defence and ſafety, to Draw out the ſaid Soldiers into Actual Service, and to charge the ſaid perſons to provide each their Soldier reſpectively with pay in hand, although the Months pay by ſeveral of them, before that time Provided and Advanced, was not, nor could be reimburſed.

Power given to raiſe the Militia notwithſtanding the Months pay formerly advanc'd be not repaid.

II. And whereas the like occaſion may poſſibly happen during the preſent War, Be it therefore Enacted by the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament Aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That if at any time before the Five and twentieth Day of April, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and ſix, it ſhall be found by his Majeſty to be neceſſary for the defence and ſafety of this Kingdon, to Draw out the ſaid Soldiers into Actual Service, and the ſame ſhall be declared or ſignified to the reſpective Lieutenants or Deputy Lieutenants, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque-Ports, Two Ancient Towns and their Members, or in his abſence his Lieutenant or Lieutenants by his Majeſty, It ſhall be Lawful for the ſaid Lieutenants, or their Deputies, or any Three or more of them, as aforeſaid, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque-Ports, Two Ancient Towns, and their Members, or in his abſence his Lieutenant or Lieutenants, in purſuance of ſuch Orders from his Majeſty, notwithſtanding that One or more Months pay, before that time Advanced, be not Reimburſed, to Raiſe and Draw out the ſaid Soldiers into Actual Service, and to cauſe the perſons charged, as aforeſaid, to provide each their Soldier with pay in hand, not exceeding One Months pay, in ſuch manner as if all the pay before that time advanced and provided had been fully reimburſed and paid.

Cap. 14.

III. And whereas by an Act made in the Second and Third Years of the Reign of Edward the Sixth, late King of England, Intituled, An Act againſt the Shooting of Hail-ſhot, whereby amongſt other things it is Enacted, That no perſon under the Degree of a Lord of the Parliament ſhould Shoot in any place any Hail-ſhot, or any more Pellets then One at any one time, upon pain to Forfeit for every time that he or they ſhould ſo Offend, Ten pounds, and Impriſonment of his Body during Three Months; Which ſaid Act however uſeful in thoſe Days, hath not for many Years laſt paſt been put in Execution, but became uſeleſs and unneceſſary: Yet nevertheleſs ſeveral malicious perſons have of late Proſecuted ſeveral Gentlemen, qualified to keep and uſe Guns, upon the ſaid Act. For Remedy whereof, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Act and every Article, Clauſe and Thing therein contained, ſhall be and is hereby Repealed and made Void to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever.

C A P. XIV.

An Act for Continuing ſeveral Laws therein mentioned.

Preamble. 3 W & M 9. made perpetual.

Cap. 24.

Sect. 13.

Whereas divers Temporary Laws, which by Experience have been found Beneficial and Uſeful, are near expiring: Therefore for continuing the ſame, Be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament Aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the Act made in the Third Year of the Reign of King William and Queen Mary, Intituled, An Act to take away Clergy from ſome Offenders, and to bring others to Puniſhment, which by another Act made in the Fourth and Fifth Years of the ſaid King and Queen, Intituled, An Act for Reviving, Continuing and Explaining ſeveral Laws therein mentioned, which are expired and near expiring, was Explained, and was to Continue and be in Force for Three Years, from the Thirteenth day of February, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety two, and from thence to the end of the next Seſſion of Parliament, and no longer, together with the Explanation thereof in the ſaid Act made in the ſaid Fourth and Fifth Years, ſhall be, and the ſame is and are hereby Continued, and ſhall be in Force, and be made Perpetual.

3 & 4 W & M. Cap. 14. made perpetual.

II. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That an Act made in the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of the ſaid King and Queen, Intituled, An Act for Relief of Creditors againſt Fraudulent Deviſes, which was to Continue and be in Force for Three Years, and to the end of the next Seſſion of Parliament, after the expiration of the ſaid Three Years, and no longer, ſhall be, and is hereby Continued, and ſhall be in Force, and be made Perpetual.

4 & 5 W & M. Cap. 20 continued for a year.

III. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That an Act made in the Fourth and Fifth Years of the ſaid King and Queen, Intituled, An Act for the better Diſcovery of Judgments in the Courts of Kings Bench, Common Pleas, and Exchequer at Weſtminſter, which was to Continue and be in Force for One Year, from the Five and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and three, and from thence to the end of the next Seſſion of Parliament, and no longer, ſhall be, and is hereby Continued, and ſhall be in Force for the ſpace of One Year more, and from thence to the end of the next Seſſion of Parliament, and no longer.

C A P. XV.

An Act to Indemnifie Sir Thomas Cooke from Actions which he might be Liable to, by Reaſon of his diſcovering to whom he paid and diſtributed ſeveral ſums of Money therein mentioned, to be Received out of the Treaſure of the Eaſt India Company, or for any Proſecution for ſuch Diſtribution.

C A P. XVI.

An Act to prevent Exactions of the Occupiers of Locks and Wears upon the River of Thames Weſtward, and for Aſcertaining the Rates of Water-carriage upon the ſaid River.

Preamble.

Whereas the Rivers of Thames and Iſis have, time out of mind, been Navigable from the City of London to the Village of Bercott in the County of Oxford, and for divers years laſt paſt from the ſaid Village of Bercott Weſtward, ſomewhat farther then Letchlade in the County of Glouceſter. And whereas, for the benefit and convenience of the Navigation, there have been, and are divers Locks, Wears, Bucks, Winches, Turnpikes, Dams, Floodgates, and other Engines in, upon, or near adjoyning to the ſaid Rivers, the Tenants or Occupiers whereof anciently took, and ſtill ought to take a moderate and reaſonable price from the Owners of all Barges, Boats, or other Veſſels, having occaſion to make uſe of the ſame, or of their Aſſiſtance for, or in their paſſage, but have of late years Raiſed their Prices ſo high, that the price of the Water-carriage on thoſe Rivers, by reaſon thereof, has been alſo very much raiſed. And whereas divers Abuſes have heretofore been committed by the Bargemen in their Navigation upon the ſaid Rivers.

II. For

Juſtices of Peace of Wilts, Glouceſter, &c. have power to ſet the Rates for paſſing the Wears, &c. upon Thames and Iſis, and make Orders about them,

II. For Remedy whereof, Be it therefore Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament Aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the Firſt day of May, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety five, the Juſtices of the Peace, for the time being, of the ſeveral Counties of Wilts, Glouceſter, Oxford, Berks and Bucks, within their reſpective Counties for ever hereafter ſhall be, and are hereby declared to be Commiſſioners for the putting in Execution the Powers and Authorities herein after mentioned, (that is to ſay) The ſaid Commiſſioners, or any Five of them, ſhall have full power and authority from time to time, at their reſpective General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, upon due Examination of the Matter in Controverſie, upon Oath, to make Orders and Conſtitutions for Settling and Aſcertaining reaſonable Rates and Prices to be taken from the Owners of all Barges, Boats or Veſſels, by the Tenants or Occupiers of all ſuch Locks, Wears, Bucks, Winches, Turnpikes, Dams, Floodgates, or other Engines within their ſaid reſpective Counties, for the help and aſſiſtance which ſuch Barges, Boats or Veſſels may or ſhall receive thereby, or by means thereof, in their paſſage upon the ſaid Rivers, regard being had, as well to the Ancient Rates which have been taken, as the neceſſary Charges of Repairing ſuch Locks, Wears, Bucks, Winches, Turnpikes, Floodgates, and other Engines; And alſo to Conſtitute and Appoint all ſuch other neceſſary Rules and Orders concerning the ſaid Navigation, and alſo concerning ſuch Locks, Wears, Bucks, Winches, Turnpikes, Dams, Floodgates, or other Engines, within their ſaid reſpective Counties, and the Shutting, Penning, Opening, Drawing, Uſe or Management thereof for the benefit and ſafety of the ſaid Navigation, and concerning all Barges, Boats or Veſſels paſſing by, through or with the help of the ſame, and the behaviour of all Bargemen, Boatmen, and Watermen belonging to, or working in ſuch Barges, Boats or Veſſels, ſo as to prevent ſuch Abuſes which have been frequently heretofore committed by them in the Navigation, as to the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any Five of them, ſhall ſeem meet.

Juſtices of Peace have power to ſettle the Rates of Water Carriage upon Thames, &c.

III. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Firſt day of May, the ſaid Juſtices of the Peace, or any Five of them, in their reſpective General Quarter Seſſions next after Eaſter-Day yearly, ſhall have Power and Authority, and they are hereby enjoyned and required to Aſſeſs and Rate the Prices of the Carriage of all ſorts of Goods whatſoever, from any place in their ſaid reſpective Counties, to any other place or places upon the ſaid Rivers, in ſuch Boats, Barges or Veſſels, and ſhall give Publick Notice in Writing to the Mayor or other Head Officer in every Market-Town within their ſaid reſpective Counties, of the Rates and Prices ſo Set and Aſſeſſed, and of all other Rates and Prices, which ſhall be Rated and Aſſeſſed by virtue of this Act; And if any Owner or Proprietor of any ſuch Barge, Boat, or Veſſel, ſhall at any time after ſuch Notice, take for the Water-carriage of any Goods or Merchandizes, above the Rates and Prices ſo Set, as aforeſaid, or if any perſon or perſons whatſoever ſhall break or act contrary to any Rules, Orders or Conſtitutions, which ſhall be made in purſuance of this Act, every ſuch perſon ſo Offending, ſhall for every Offence forfeit the ſum of Five pounds, to be recovered by the party grieved, with double Coſts of Suit, in any Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, to be Commenced or Proſecuted in any of his Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoign, Protection, or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed.

5 l. Penalty for taking more then Rate aſſeſſed.

IV. Provided nevertheleſs, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon or perſons whatſoever ſhall be agrieved by reaſon of any ſuch Rules, Orders, Conſtitutions or Aſſeſſments, ſo as aforeſaid, to be made by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any Five of them, it ſhall and may be Lawful to and for the Juſtices of Aſſize of the ſaid County of Oxford for the time being, upon complaint made by ſuch perſon or perſons grieved, within the ſpace of One Year next after the making of ſuch Rules, Orders, Conſtitutions or Aſſeſſments, to confirm, vacate, or Alter the ſame, in ſuch manner as ſhall be thought moſt convenient.

Juſtices of Aſſize for Oxford may vacate their Orders.

V. Provided alſo, and be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all ſuch Rules, Orders, Conſtitutions and Aſſeſſments, other then of the Rates for Carriage, which ſhall be made by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any Five of them, in purſuance of this Act, ſhall be Written in Parchment, and Signed by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any Five of them, and be kept amongſt the Records of the Seſſion of the Peace of that County within which the ſame ſhall be made; And the ſaid Rules, Orders, Conſtitutions and Aſſeſſments, other then of the Rates for Carriage ſo Signed by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or confirmed, or altered on ſuch Appeal, as aforeſaid, ſhall continue in force from the making the ſame by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or the confirmation or alteration thereof by the ſaid Juſtices of Aſſize for Seven Years, and from thence until ſome new Order, Rule, Conſtitution or Aſſeſſment, ſhall be made in the ſame caſe, by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any Five of them, every which new Order, Rule, Conſtitution or Aſſeſſment, ſhall be ſubject to the like Appeal, as aforeſaid.

Orders by Juſtices of Peace to be Regiſtred in Seſſions, and ſhall continue for 7 years.

VI. Provided always, That if at any time after the ſaid Firſt day of May, any doubt ſhall e made amongſt the ſaid Commiſſioners, in what County any ſuch Locks, Wears, Bucks, Winches, or other Engines are, or ſhall be, Then, and in every ſuch Caſe, for preventing f all ſuch diſputes, every ſuch Lock, Wear, Buck, Winch, or other Engine, ſhall be adudged and taken to be in that County, and ſubject to the Juriſdiction of the Commiſſioners of that County, within which the ſame are Taxed or Rated to the Church or Poor.

Locks, &c. to be in County where they pay the Poor.

VII. Provided alſo, That nothing herein contained ſhall be conſtrued to give any manner f Juriſdiction to any of the ſaid Commiſſioners, to put in Execution any of the Powers or uthorities hereby Granted or Directed, between the ſaid Village of Bercott and the City of xford, nor to Repeal or Impeach the Powers or Authorities Granted to the Commiſſioners in and by an Act made in the One and twentieth year of the Reign of King James the irſt, Intituled, An Act for making the River of Thames Navigable for Barges, Boats and Lighters, from Village of Bercott in the County of Oxford, unto the Vniverſity and City of Oxford; But that the Commiſſioners made by 21 Jac. 1. ſtill to have the ſame power betwixt Bercott and Oxford.

ſaid Commiſſioners, or the more part of them by virtue thereof, and of this Act, ſhall have Power and Authority from time to time, with ſuch conſent as in the ſaid Firſt recited Act is required, to ordain and make Orders and Conſtitutions for the good and orderly uſage of the paſſage by Water on the River of Thames, betwixt the City of Oxford and the Village of Bercott, and for all Locks, Wears or Turnpikes thereof made, or to be made and maintained at the charge of the Univerſity and City of Oxford, or otherwiſe, and for the Reparation and Amendments thereof; And for all Boats, Boatmen, Paſſengers, Wharfs, Carriages, and Rates for Carriages by or through the ſaid Paſſage; And to ſet, lay, do, and execute all things concerning the ſame, as in the ſaid firſt recited Act are ordained and directed, ſubject nevertheleſs to ſuch an Appeal as is therein mentioned; And alſo, That upon the death or removal of any of the preſent Commiſſioners for executing the ſaid recited Act, the ſurviving Commiſſioners for the Univerſity and City of Oxford reſpectively, may at any time hereafter, by virtue hereof, Nominate and Elect any perſon they think fit to be a Commiſſioner, and with them to Execute all and every the Powers in the ſaid recited Act, according to the true intent and meaning thereof, and of this preſent Act.

This Act not to impeach the Power of London.

VIII. Provided alſo, That nothing herein contained ſhall be conſtrued to Impeach or Leſſen any Juriſdiction, Power or Authority of the Mayor, Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, or of any other Body Politick or Corporate, or other perſon or perſons whatſoever.

Bargeman chargeable for any miſchief done to Locks, &c. and to pay full Coſts.

IX. And for the better preventing the damages and miſchiefs frequently done and committed by the rude and diſorderly perſons Rowing and Managing the ſaid Barges, and that the Owners of ſuch Barges may be more careful to prevent the ſame, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Barge-maſter and Owner of any Barge or Boat, ſhall be, and is hereby made anſwerable and reſponſible for any damage or miſchief that ſhall be done by his Barge or Boat, or the whole, or any of the Crew of his Bargemen, to any of the Wears, Locks, Bucks, Winches, Turnpikes, Dams, Floodgates, and other Engines in and upon the ſaid River; And the ſaid Barge-maſters, or Barge-owners ſhall and may be Sued and Proſecuted for the ſame, and if found Guilty, the Plaintiff ſhall not only recover his damages thereby ſuſtained, but his full coſts of Suit; Any former Law or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Act continues Nine years.

X. Provided always, That this Act ſhall continue and be in force for the Term of Nine Years, and from thence to the end of the next Seſſion of Parliament, and no longer.

C A P. XVII.

An Act to Prevent Counterfeiting and Clipping the Coin of this Kingdom.

Preamble.

Whereas it is manifeſt that of late years the Currant Coin of this Kingdom hath been greatly diminiſhed by Clipping, Rounding, Filing and Melting the ſame, and likewiſe many falſe and counterfeit Coins have been Clipped for the better diſguiſing thereof: And for as much as it is apparent that theſe practices of diminiſhing the currant Coin is very much occaſioned by thoſe who drive a Trade of Exchanging Broad money for Clipped money, and by other Arts and Devices:

Penalty upon perſon ſelling or paying Silver Money for more then it is Coyn'd.

II. Be it therefore Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in Parliament Aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the Firſt Day of May, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety five, if any perſon or perſons whatſoever, ſhall at any one time or payment, exchange, lend, ſell, borrow or buy, receive or pay any broad Silver money, or Silver money unclipt, of the Coin of this Kingdom, for more in tale, benefit, profit or advantage then the ſame was Coined for, and ought by Law to go for, be lent, ſold for, borrowed or bought, received or paid, ſhall forfeit the ſum of Ten pounds for every Twenty ſhillings that ſhall be ſo exchanged, lent, ſold, borrowed or bought, received or paid, and ſo in proportion for any greater or leſſer ſum, one moiety thereof to his Majeſty, and the other moiety to the perſon who ſhall Sue or Inform for the ſame, to be recovered (with coſts of Suit) by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, wherein no Priviledge, Protection or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed, nor any more then one Imparlance.

Penalty for Caſting Bars of Silver, or Stamping like Spaniſh Money.

III. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no perſon do or ſhall preſume to Caſt Ingots or Bars of Silver, in Imitation of Spaniſh Bars or Ingots of Silver, nor do ſtamp any mark or impreſſion upon any Ingot or Bar in likeneſs of the Spaniſh marks or impreſſions, upon pain that the perſon herein offending, ſhall for every ſuch offence forfeit the Silver ſo Caſt, and alſo the ſum of Five hundred pounds, one moiety to his Majeſty, and the other to the Informer, to be recovered, as aforeſaid.

Puniſhment for buying or ſelling Clippings, &c.

IV. And for the better preventing the clipping, diminiſhing or impairing the currant Coin of this Kingdom, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon whatſoever ſhall buy or ſell, and knowingly have in his cuſtody or poſſeſſion, any Clippings or Filings of the currant Coin of this Kingdom, he ſhall for every ſuch Offence Forfeit the ſaid Clippings or Filings, and alſo the Sum of Five hundred pounds, One moiety to his Majeſty, and the other to the Informer, to be recovered, as aforeſaid, and ſhall be alſo Branded in the Right Cheek with a Hot Iron with the Letter R, and until payment of the ſaid Five hundred pounds ſhall ſuffer Impriſonment.

No perſon ſhall Tranſport Bullion, except it be ſtamped at Goldſmiths-hall.

V. And be it further Enacted, That no Goldſmith or other perſon whatſoever, ſhall, from and after the ſaid Firſt day of May, Tranſport or cauſe to be Tranſported out of this Kingdom of England into any parts beyond the Seas, any Molten Silver whatſoever, but ſuch only as ſhall be marked or ſtamped at Goldſmiths-Hall by the Wardens, ſome or one of them belonging to the ſaid Company of Goldſmiths, which mark or ſtamp the ſaid Wardens are hereby required to provide, and therewith to mark or ſtamp all ſuch Silver as ſhall be proved before them, or one of them, in ſuch manner as is hereafter mentioned, to be lawful Silver, nor unleſs a Certificate be firſt had and obtained under the Hand of one or more of the ſaid Wardens, of Oath having been made before him or them by the Owner or Owners of ſuch Molten Silver, and likewiſe by one credible Witneſs, that the ſame is lawful Silver, and that no part thereof was (before the ſame was Molten) the currant Coin of this Realm, nor Clippings thereof, nor Plate wrought within this Kingdom; Which Oath the ſaid Wardens, or any one of them, are and is hereby required and authorized to Adminiſter, and likewiſe to make and grant a Certificate thereof without Fee or Reward, an Entry of which Certificate ſhall be duly made by the ſaid Wardens, in a Book to be kept for that purpoſe; And in caſe any perſon whatſoever who ſhall offer any Molten Silver to be marked, as is aforeſaid, ſhall not prove by his or her Oath, and likewiſe by the Oath of one credible Witneſs, that the Silver offered to be marked is lawful Silver, and that the ſame was not before the Melting thereof the Currant Coin of this Kingdom, nor Clippings thereof, nor Plate wrought within the ſame, then and in every ſuch Caſe it ſhall be lawful, to, and for the ſaid Wardens, or any one of them, to ſeize and detain ſuch Molten Silver ſo offered to be marked, until ſuch time as ſuch Oath and Proof ſhall be made, as is aforeſaid.

VI. And be it further Enacted, That if any perſon whatſoever ſhall Ship, or cauſe to be Shipt or put on Board any Veſſel any Molten Silver, not ſtamped or marked by the ſaid Wardens, or one of them, and without Certificate firſt obtained, of Oath having been made before the ſaid Wardens, or one of them, of the Lawfulneſs of ſuch Silver in manner, as is aforeſaid, (which Certificate ſhall be ſhewn to ſome one of the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms for the time being, before any Cocket be granted for the Exporting ſuch Molten Silver) in ſuch caſe it ſhall and may be lawful, to and for any Officer or any Officers of his Majeſties Cuſtoms to ſeize ſuch Silver ſo Shipped and put on Board, one moiety whereof ſhall be to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other moiety to the Officer and Officers ſo ſeizing the ſame.

Bullion not ſtamped may be ſeized by Cuſtom-houſe Officers.

VII. And be it further Enacted, That if any Broger, or Broker, not being a Trading Goldſmith or Refiner of Silver, ſhall buy or ſell any Bullion or Molten Silver, every ſuch perſon ſhall ſuffer, for every ſuch Offence, Impriſonment for Six Months without Bail or Mainprize.

Goldſmith only to buy or ſell Bullion.

VIII. And for the better diſcovery of Offenders in the premiſſes, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be Lawful, to and for one or more of the Wardens of the ſaid Company of Goldſmiths, with any Two or more of the Court of Aſſiſtants of the ſaid Company, within the compaſs of the Weekly Bills of Mortality, and to and for any Two Juſtices of the Peace within any County, City or Town Corporate out of the compaſs of the Weekly Bills of Mortality, to enter into the Houſe, Room or Workſhop of any perſon, who ſhall be ſuſpected to be guilty of buying or ſelling unlawful Bullion, and to ſearch for the ſame; and in caſe the Occupier or Occupiers of ſuch Houſe, Room, or Workſhop, ſhall refuſe to permit the ſaid Warden and Aſſiſtants or Juſtices to make ſuch ſearch, as aforeſaid, it ſhall and may be lawful to ſuch Warden and Aſſiſtants and Juſtices, with the aſſiſtance of a Conſtable, to break open any Door, Box, Trunk, Cheſt, Cupboard or Cabinet, in order to ſearch for, and diſcover ſuch Bullion, as is aforeſaid; and in caſe the perſons ſo ſearching ſhall at any time find any ſuch unlawful Bullion, the perſons ſo finding the ſame, are hereby required to ſeize, as well ſuch Bullion as the Perſon and Perſons in whoſe poſſeſſion the ſame ſhall be found; And the ſaid Wardens, Aſſiſtants and Conſtables ſhall bring him and her before the next Juſtice of the Peace, who ſhall, upon Oath made of ſuch finding, which Juſtice within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, and the ſaid Two Juſtices without the ſaid Bills of Mortality, ſhall and may Examine the perſon ſo brought before him, or found by them reſpectively, upon Oath, whether the Bullion ſo found be lawful Silver, and whether the ſame was not (before the Melting thereof) the currant Coin of this Realm, or Clippings thereof; And in caſe the ſaid perſon ſo Examined ſhall not prove by his or her Oath, or by the Oath of one credible Witneſs before the ſaid Juſtice and Juſtices reſpectively, that the Bullion ſo found is lawful Silver, and that the ſame was not, before the melting thereof the currant Coin of this Realm, nor Clippings thereof, then and in ſuch caſe the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices reſpectively, ſhall commit the perſon ſo examined to Priſon, and ſhall ſecure the Bullion ſo found, and ſhall likewiſe oblige the perſons that can give any Evidence concerning the ſame, to enter into a Recognizance, to Proſecute the ſaid Offender and Offenders; And in caſe ſuch Offender and Offenders, in whoſe poſſeſſion ſuch unlawful Bullion ſhall be found, ſhall not, upon his, her or their Tryals on an Indictment for Melting the Currant Silver Coin of this Realm, prove by the Oath of one credible Witneſs at the leaſt, the Bullion ſo found to be Lawful Silver, and that the ſame was not the Currant Coin of this Realm, nor Clippings thereof, then, and for want of ſuch proof, ſuch Offender ſhall be found Guilty of the Offence contained in ſuch Indictment, and ſhall ſuffer Impriſonment for the ſpace of Six Months, without Bail or Mainprize.

What perſons may break open Houſes and ſearch for Bullion.

The King or four Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms may appoint Weighers who ſhall Certifie the Weight of the Coals.

XVI. And to the end that the ſaid Impoſitions and Duties may be duly anſwered and paid, without Fraud or Covin, and for the better Levying and Collecting thereof, and for the diſcovery of the juſt quantities of all ſorts of Coals and Culm, to be Water-born, Imported or Unladen, as aforeſaid: Be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, that it ſhall and may be lawful to and for his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, or to or for any Four or more of the ſaid Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms for the time being, by writing under their Hands and Seals, from time to time, to aſſign and appoint, within each Port or Place within the ſaid Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, ſuch and ſo many Meters, Weighers and Meaſurers of the ſaid Coals and Culm, as ſhall, within the term aforeſaid, be Imported, Brought or Landed in ſuch Port or Place, wherein, or for which ſuch Meters, Weighers or Meaſurers ſhall be aſſigned or appointed, as aforeſaid; Who ſhall, from time to time, Meaſure and Weigh all ſuch Coals and Culm ſo Imported or Brought, and when and as ſoon as any ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall be unladen, ſhall forthwith deliver a true Certificate in writing, under his or their Hand or Hands, unto the perſon or perſons appointed to Receive the ſaid Impoſitions or Duties within ſuch Port or Place, of the ſorts, quantities and numbers of Chaldrons or Tuns of Coals or Culm reſpectively, which ſhall be Meaſured or Weighed, and Delivered from on Board any ſuch Ship or Veſſel, under the penalty of One hundred pounds; And in caſe it ſhall appear by ſuch Certificate or otherwiſe, that there was on Board any ſuch Ship or Veſſel, a greater number of Chaldrons or Tuns of Coals or Culm, then for which the ſaid Impoſitions or Duties hereby Impoſed, ſhall have been anſwered and paid, as aforeſaid, that then in every ſuch caſe there ſhall be paid unto his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, by the Maſter or Owners of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, for every Chaldron or Tun of Coals or Culm ſo concealed, over and above the Impoſitions and Duties aforeſaid, the ſum of Ten ſhillings; For which in caſe of refuſal to pay the ſame, ſuch Ship or Veſſel, with the Tackle, Furniture and apparel thereof, or any part thereof, ſhall and may be attached and detained by the Officer or Officers for the time being, in ſuch Port or Place, appointed to receive the ſaid Impoſitions, or Duties, or to meaſure or weigh the ſaid Coals or Culm, until payment thereof, and to ſell the ſaid Ship or Veſſel, Tackle, Furniture and Apparel, or any part thereof, in caſe all the ſaid Impoſitions, Duties or Payments before mentioned, for the ſaid concealed Coals or Culm, ſhall not be paid and ſatisfied, with reaſonable Coſts and Charges for ſuch attaching, detaining and ſelling, rendring the overplus; Which ſale ſhall be good and effectual in the Law.

10 s. per Chaldron forfeited for paying leſs then certified.

Forfeiture ſaved by Poſt-entry and payment within ſix days.

XVII. Provided nevertheleſs, that if the Importer upon ſuch Certificate delivered in by the meaſurer or weigher, ſhall within the ſpace of ſix days after the delivery of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, give in his Poſt-entry, and ſatisfie and pay the whole Duty for the Surpluſage of the ſaid Coals or Culm, appearing upon the unlading of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, then upon ſuch payment the penalty aforeſaid ſhall be diſcharged.

Officers to keep a Book of Accounts and to return the money to the Receivers of the Cuſtoms who are to return it into the Exchequer.

XVIII. And for the manifeſtation of the Truth and Certainty in the premiſſes, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, that the Officers to be appointed in each Port and Place for the receiving of the ſaid Impoſitions or Duties, and for the Weighing and Meaſuring of the ſaid Coals and Culm, ſhall reſpectively keep one or more Book or Books for every ſuch Port or Place, wherein they ſhall reſpectively enter down a true Account of all ſuch ſums of money, which ſhall be paid or received for or upon Account of the ſaid Impoſitions or Duties, and of all the payments and diſburſements of the ſame; And alſo a true Account of the numbers of Chaldrons and Tuns of Coals and Culm ſo Imported and unladen in any ſuch Port or Place, and of the reſpective ſorts thereof; And the moneys ariſing by the Impoſitions and Duties aforeſaid, are to be paid unto the Receiver or Receivers General of the Cuſtoms for the time being, and by them to be paid and returned into the Receipt of his Majeſties Exchequer, for his Majeſties uſe, where the ſame ſhall be kept and entred in Books diſtinct and a part from any other branch of his Majeſties Revenue.

Allowance of Seamen to Coal-Ships, and penalty upon Officer impreſſing them.

XIX. And for the encouraging of all ſuch Ships or Veſſels, as ſhall be Imployed in bringing Coals, for ſupplying the City of London and other Ports of this Kingdom, at more reaſonable rates then during this War, they have hitherto been, Be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, that from and after the ſaid Nine and twentieth day of September, there ſhall be allowed yearly, from the Fifteenth day of April, until the Firſt day of January, free from Impreſſing to every Maſter of any Ship, or Veſſel Imployed in the Coal Trade, two able Seamen (ſuch as the Maſter ſhall nominate) for every Ship or Veſſel under One hundred Tun, and one for every Fifty Tun, for every Ship or Veſſel of One hundred Tun and upwards burthen, according to the meaſurement which ſuch a Ship or Veſſel ſhall appear to be of, by a Certificate which ſhall be produced from the Cuſtom Houſe, of what number of Tuns ſuch a Ship or Veſſel hath paid for, by an Act for laying a Duty on Tunnage of Shipping; And if any Captain, Lieutenant or other Officer, ſhall, by any Authority whatſoever, preſume to impreſs or take any of the men allowed by this Act, ſuch Captain, Lieutenant or other Officer, ſhall forfeit to the Maſter or Owner of ſuch Ship or Veſſel Ten pounds for every man he ſhall ſo impreſs or take, to be recovered with Coſts of ſuit, by action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information in any of his Majeſties Courts of Record, wherein no Eſſoign, Protection, Priviledge, Wager of Law, Injunction or Order of reſtraint ſhall be in any wiſe granted or allowed, and ſhall alſo be made incapable of holding any Place, Office or Imployment in any of his Majeſties Ships of War.

XX. And whereas the Impoſition upon Coals exported to foreign parts is ſo great, that it is almoſt a prohibition, to the great diminution of his Majeſties Cuſtoms, the leſſening of the Engliſh Navigation, and the exportation of Coals beyond the Seas: For remedy whereof, Be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, that all Coals exported beyond the Seas in Foreign Bottoms, ſhall, during the continuance of this Act, only pay Ten ſhillings lings the Chaldron, and in Engliſh Bottoms, only three ſhillings the Chaldron; Any Law to the contrary notwithſtanding.

XXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, that from and after the tenth day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety five, it ſhall and may be Lawful, to and for his Majeſty or his Officers in the receipt of his Exchequer, by his Command and Appointment, to borrow and take into the ſaid Receipt, at Intereſt, for his Majeſties Uſe, by way of Loan, any ſum or ſums of money, which, together with the whole Value or Amount of all the ſums of money which ſhall be Collected, Levied and Paid, by virtue of this Act, ſhall not exceed in the whole the ſum of Five hundred ſixty four thouſand ſeven hundred pounds; Which ſum or ſums of money ſo to be taken up or borrowed, ſhall and may be Charged upon the Credit of his Majeſties Exchequer in General, and Tallies of Loan, and Orders for Repayment of the ſame, ſhall be Levied accordingly; Which Orders ſhall be Aſſignable and Transferrable from One perſon to another.

A Clauſe of Loan for 564700 l. upon this Act at 7 l. per Cent.

XXII. And it is hereby Enacted and Declared, That all and every ſum and ſums of money ſo to be Borrowed, not exceeding, as aforeſaid, together with the Intereſt for the ſame, not exceeding the Rate of Seven pounds per Centum per Annum, to be paid every Three Months, until ſatisfaction of the Principal, ſhall be payable, and be paid or ſatisfied unto the reſpective Lender or Lenders of the ſame, his, her or their Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, out of the moneys ariſing by this Act, ſo far as the ſame ſhall extend; And ſo much as the ſaid Act ſhall fall ſhort, or be deficient for paying the ſame, ſhall be payable, and be paid or ſatisfied unto the reſpective Lender or Lenders of the ſame, his, her or their Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, out of any the next Aids or Supplies to be Granted to his Majeſty in Parliament; And ſhall be Transferred and Transferrable thereunto, as ſoon as any ſuch Aid or Supply ſhall be Granted; And in Caſe no ſuch Aid or Supply ſhall be Granted to his Majeſty, before the Second day of February, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety five, then the ſaid Sum and Sums of Money ſo to be Borrowed not exceeding, as aforeſaid, and the Intereſt thereof ſhall be payable, and be paid and ſatisfied to the ſaid Lender or Lenders, his, her or their Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns reſpectively, by and out of any of his Majeſties Treaſure, which from thenceforth ſhall come into, be or remain in the Receipt of his Majeſties Exchequer, not being already Appropriated to any particular Uſes, by any Act or Acts of Parliament before this time made.

If this Supply fails the next Aid given charged. If no Aid given before Feb. 2. Exchequer charged.

XXIII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That Nine of the Ships of War, part of the Fourty three, which by an Act of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, were appointed to Cruiſe in ſeveral Stations to Guard the Coaſts and Trade of this Kingdom, are hereby appointed to Cruiſe or Convoy (that is to ſay) Six on the Northern Coaſt, and Three on the Weſtern Coaſt, in ſuch Stations as ſhall be directed by the Lord High Admiral of England, or Commiſſioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of England for the time being, for the better Protecting and Preſerving ſuch Ships and Veſſels, as ſhall be imployed in the Coal Trade.

9 Ships to Guard the Coal Trade.

XXIV. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That there ſhall be allowed to every Maſter or Owner of any Ship or Veſſel, Three Months time, for the payment of the Duty impoſed by this Act, good and ſufficient Security, being given for the ſame, ſuch as the Collector or other Chief Officer of the Port or Place where ſuch Goods ſhall be Imported or Brought ſhall approve of, or if ſuch Maſter or Owner ſhall pay preſent Money, there ſhall be allowed him after the Rate of Ten pounds per Centum per Annum for ſuch prompt payment; And if any of the Coals, for which the Duty hereby Granted, paid or ſecured at the Importation thereof, be again Exported to any other place of this Kingdom, or to any parts beyond the Seas, Then the aforeſaid Duty ſhall be wholly repaid, or the ſecurity vacated, upon due proof thereof in uſual form.

3 Months time for paying the Duties, and the Duties repaid upon Exportation.

XXV. And it is hereby further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That out of the Money that ſhall be Levied or Paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer, as well upon Loans as otherwiſe, by virtue of this Act, and alſo by one other Act of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, Intituled, An Act for Granting to His Majeſty certain Rates and Duties upon Marriages, Births and Burials, and upon Batchelors and Widowers, for the Term of Five Years, for Carrying on the War againſt France, the Sum of Four hundred fourty eight thouſand ſeven hundred and twelve pounds, ſhall be, and is hereby appropriated for the Services of the Navy and Ordnance for Sea Service, performed and to be performed, and for pay of the Officers and Soldiers of the Two Marine Regiments (that is to ſay,) out of this preſent Act, Two hundred thouſand pounds, and out of the laſt Recited Act, the Sum of Two hundred fourty eight thouſand ſeven hundred and twelve pounds: And that all other Moneys which ſhall be Levied and Paid by virtue of this and the aforeſaid Act, into the Receipt of the Exchequer, as well upon Loans as otherwiſe, ſhall be applied and appropriated, and is hereby appropriated to and for the payment of his Majeſties Land Forces and Armies, and the paying for Arms, Ammunition, and other Charges incident to the War, and not otherwiſe.

Appropriation of the Moneys ariſing by this and the Marriage Act.

XXVI. And for the more effectual doing thereof, and that the Sums by this Act appropriated may not be diverted or applied to any other purpoſe then is hereby declared and intended, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the rules and directions appointed and enacted, in One Act made in the Firſt Year of his Majeſties Reign, Intituled, An Act for a Grant to their Majeſties of an Aid of Two Shillings in the Pound for One Year, for the ſpeedy payment of Money, thereby Granted, into the Receipt of the Exchequer, by the Collectors and Receivers, and for diſtribution and application thereof, and keeping diſtinct Accounts of the ſame, and all other proviſions, pains, penalties and forfeitures thereby Enacted in caſe of diverſion of any Money thereby appropriated, are hereby Revived and Enacted to be in force; And ſhall be practiſed, applied, executed and put in ure, for, and concerning the diſtribution and application plication of the ſaid Sums hereby appropriated, as fully, amply and effectually, as if the ſame were here particularly repeated and re-enacted.

Rule in the Act of 1 W. & M. for 2 s. in the Pound to be obſerved. Seſſ. 2. Cap. 1.

Coal Meters already Sworn ſtill to continue.

XXVII. Provided always, and be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Weight, Metage and Admeaſurement of all Coal or Culm, brought to, or landed in the Port of London, or in any other Port or Place, where there are Sworn Coal Meters, ſhall be taken by ſuch Coal Meters for the time being, as now it is, and they to give an Account thereof upon Oath in manner aforeſaid; Any thing in this Act contained to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Penalty for Trading in Alamodes, &c. not having the Cuſtom-houſe Mark.

XXVIII. And whereas, notwithſtanding the ſeals and marks, that are appointed and uſed by the Commiſſioners of his Majeſties Cuſtoms upon foreign black Alamodes and Luſtrings, in order to prevent Frauds, and the ſeal and ſeals alſo uſed by the Luſtring Company, ill men do daily Import fraudulently great quantities of French Alamodes and Luſtrings in this Realm, and do utter and ſell the ſame, by which means alſo they have opportunities to export Wool and Money out of England, to the great prejudice of this Nation. For remedy whereof, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons ſhall preſume to deal or ſell, buy or ſell again, or ſend beyond Sea, any black Alamodes or Luſtrings, unleſs they have the ſeal or ſeals, mark or marks, which are already uſed for foreign goods, at the Cuſtom Houſe, or the ſeal and mark alſo uſed by the Luſtring Company, for the Goods manufactured by them in England, under the forfeiture of all ſuch unqualified Goods, and alſo ſhall forfeit the ſum of One hundred pounds for every Offence, One half to the uſe of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other half to the uſe of ſuch perſon or perſons who ſhall ſue for the ſame, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, or otherwiſe, in any of his Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoign, Protection, Priviledge or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed, and no more then one Imparlance.

Buyer diſcovering the Seller diſcharged, &c.

XXIX. And be it alſo enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if the Buyer of ſuch Goods not Sealed according to Law, ſhall, within Twelve months after ſuch offence committed, diſcover the perſon or perſons of whom he ſhall buy the ſame, he ſhall not only be diſcharged of the Penalty to which he is hereby liable, but ſhall alſo have and receive to his own uſe, one moiety of the ſum hereby impoſed upon the party or parties that ſhall Sell or Diſpoſe of any ſuch Alamodes and Luſtrings, without the Seal or Marks aforeſaid.

100 l. for Counterfeiting the Mark.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That if any perſon or perſons ſhall alter, Counterfeit or Miſapply any of the Seals or Marks now uſed, and hereby required to be uſed, for the purpoſes aforeſaid, ſuch Offender ſhall Forfeit the ſum of One hundred pounds, to ſuch perſon or perſons, who ſhall Sue for the ſame, to be Recovered in like manner, as is herein before mentioned.

Cap. 22. Commiſſioners for the Hackney Coaches have no power to grant Licences for longer time then June 95.

XXXI. And whereas upon the Act made the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, Entituled, An Act for Licenſing and Regulating Hackney Coaches and Stage Coaches, the Commiſſioners being thereby enabled to Licenſe Stage Coaches: and it being Enacted, That no Licence continue longer then for one year from the Date thereof: And it being alſo Enacted by the ſaid Act, That no perſon ſhall preſume to Drive or Let to Hire any Stage Coach or Coach Horſes, without having ſuch Leave or Licence, as the ſaid Act directs, it hath been doubted whether the ſaid Commiſſioners might make new Licences for Stage Coaches, after the determination of the Firſt, and ſo to continue for the term of One and twenty years, and what was intended by the general prohibition of Stage Coaches (not having ſuch Licences) without having any reſtraint or limitation of time: For explaining of which Doubts, be it enacted, and it is hereby further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that nothing in the ſaid Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued any way to Impower any Commiſſioners, that are or ſhall be appointed by virtue of the ſaid Act, to make or grant any Licence to any perſon or perſons whatſoever, to Drive or Let to Hire any Stage Coach or Coach Horſes, to continue or be in force after the Four and twentieth day of June, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety five. And it is hereby declared and enacted, that all Leaſes or Licences heretofore made, and which are to Continue after the ſaid Four and twentieth day of June, as for all the time after the ſaid Four and twentieth day of June, ſhall be and are hereby declared Null and Void to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever. And it is hereby further enacted and declared, That nothing in the ſaid Act contained, ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to be any prohibition, whereby any perſon ſhall be reſtrained from driving or letting to hire, any Stage Coach or Coach Horſes, from and after the ſaid Four and twentieth day of June. And if the ſaid Commiſſioners or any of them, by reaſon of the Obſcurity of the ſaid Act, have made any Miſtake, by Granting or Giving Licence, to drive or let to hire Stage Coaches or Coach-Horſes, to Continue longer or after the ſaid Four and twentieth day of June, for ſo doing they and every of them are hereby Indemnified.

CAP. XX.

An Act for the Kings moſt Gracious, General, and Free Pardon.

WILLIAM* R.

Preamble.

The Kings moſt excellent Majeſty obſerving that his Royal Inclination to mercy (which hath appeared, as well by a moſt General and Free Pardon, as by many particular Inſtances of Grace, extended to ſuch as had rendred themſelves obnoxious to the Laws) hath not had ſo good an effect as might juſtly be expected, but on the contrary divers obſtinate and incorrigible perſons have been thereby rather encouraged and emboldened to enter into Treaſonable and Seditious deſigns and practices, hath therefore upon mature deliberation, found it neceſſary, in order to the peace and quiet of his Kingdoms, and the happy eſtate of his good Subjects, and hath accordingly reſolved and determined for the future, that ſuch wicked and ill diſpoſed perſons who are not to be reclaimed by mercy, ſhould be deterred from offending, and retained in their duty by a ſtrict and impartial execution of his Laws: yet nevertheleſs, his Majeſty being ſtill deſirous to purſue his Princely diſpoſition to forgive, and reſolving that his clemency ſhall precede his Juſtice, thereby to leave utterly without excuſe, all ſuch of his Subjects, who after ſo publick a warning, and ſo full a Declaration of his Royal purpoſe, attended with this repeated Act of Grace, ſhall hereafter preſume to violate their Duty and Allegiance, and break the Laws, and hath accordingly thought fit to grant his General and Free Pardon in a more large and bountiful manner then hath been heretofore done.

A Pardon of all Crimes to all Subjects.

II. And therefore his Majeſty is well pleaſed and contented, That it be enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, and be it enacted by the authority of the ſame, in manner and form following, that is to ſay, That all and every his Majeſties Subjects, as well Spiritual as Temporal, of this his Majeſties Realm of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, their Heirs, Succeſſors, Executors and Adminiſtrators, and every of them, and all and ſingular Bodies in any manner of wiſe Corporated, Cities, Burroughs, Shires, Ridings, Hundreds, Lathes, Rapes, Wapentakes, Towns, Villages, Hamlets and Tythings, and every of them, and the Succeſſor and Succeſſors of every of them, ſhall be, by Authority of this preſent Parliament, Acquitted, Pardoned, Releaſed and Diſcharged againſt his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and every of them, of and from all manner of Treaſons, Felonies, Miſpriſions of Treaſon, Treaſonable or Seditious Words or Libels, Miſpriſions of Felony, Seditious and Unlawful Meetings and Conventicles, and all Offences whereby any perſon may be charged with the penalty and danger of Præmunire; And alſo of and from all Riots, Routs, Offences, Contempts, Treſpaſſes, Entries, Wrongs, Deceits, Miſdemeanors, Forfeitures, Penalties and Sums of Money, Pains of Death, Pains Corporal and Pains Pecuniary, and generally of and from all other Things, Cauſes, Quarrels, Suits, Judgments and Executions, in this preſent Act not hereafter excepted or foreprized, which may be or can be by his Majeſty in any wiſe, or by any means pardoned, had, done, committed, omitted, perpetrated, incurred or forfeited, before and unto the Twenty ninth day of April, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety five.

This Pardon as good as if all Offences were ſpecially named.

III. And alſo the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty is contented, that it be enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, and be it enacted by the authority of the ſame, That this his Free Pardon ſhall be as good and effectual in Law to every of his ſaid Subjects, Bodies Corporate and others before rehearſed in, for, and againſt all things, which be not hereafter in this preſent Act excepted and foreprized, as the ſame Pardon ſhould have been, if all Offences, Contempts, Forfeitures, Cauſes, Matters, Suits, Quarrels, Judgments, Executions, Penalties, and all other things, not hereafter in this preſent Act excepted and foreprized, had been particularly, ſingularly, ſpecially and plainly named, rehearſed and ſpecified, and alſo pardoned by proper and expreſs Words and Names in their kinds, natures and qualities, by Words and Terms thereunto requiſite, to have been put in and expreſſed in this preſent Act of Free Pardon; And that his ſaid Subjects, or any of them, the Heirs, Executors or Adminiſtrators of any of them, or the ſaid Bodies Corporate, and others before named and rehearſed, or any of them, be not nor ſhall be ſued, vexed or unquieted, in their Bodies, Goods, Chattels, Lands or Tenements, for any matter, cauſe, contempt, miſdemeanor, forfeiture, treſpaſs, Offence, or any other thing, ſuffered, done or committed or omitted, before the ſaid Twenty ninth day of April, againſt his Majeſty, his Crown, Dignity, Prerogative, or the Laws or Statutes of this Realm, but only for ſuch Matters, Cauſes and Offences as be rehearſed, mentioned, or in ſome ways touched in the Exceptions of this preſent Act, to be foreprized and excepted, and for none other; Any Statute or Statutes, Laws, Cuſtoms or Uſages heretofore, had, made or uſed to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Fines, Iſſues, &c. pardoned.

IV. And his Majeſty of his Bounteous Liberality and by the authority of this preſent Parliament, Doth Grant and freely Give to every of his Subjects, every of the ſaid Bodies Corporate, and others before rehearſed, and every of them, all Goods, Chattels, Debts, Fines, Iſſues, Profits, Amerciaments, Forfeitures and Sums of Money by any of them forfeited, which to his Majeſty do or ſhall belong or appertain by reaſon of any Offence, Contempt, Treſpaſs, Entry, Miſdemeanor, Matter, Cauſe or Quarrel, ſuffered, done or committed by them, or any of them, before the ſaid Twenty ninth day of April, which be not hereafter in this preſent Act foreprized and excepted.

Grants made by perſons which have forfeited, good.

V. And be it enacted nevertheleſs, That all Grants thereof, or of any part thereof, made y any ſuch as have ſo forfeited the ſame, and are hereby reſtored, as aforeſaid, and all Ex- cutions thereof, or of any part thereof, had againſt any ſuch, after ſuch forfeiture hereof committed or made, ſhall be of ſuch Force and Effect, as if no ſuch forfeiture had een had or made, and of no other; The ſame forfeiture, or any thing before in this Act to e contrary notwithſtanding.

Any perſon may plead this Act.

VI. And be it further enacted, That all and every his Majeſties Subjects and all and ſingu- r Bodies Corporate, and others before rehearſed, may by him or themſelves, or by his or eir Deputy or Deputies, or by his or their Attorney or Attorneys, according to the Law of this ealm, Plead and Miniſter this preſent Act of Free Pardon, for his or their Diſcharge, of, for any thing that is by virtue of this preſent Act pardoned, diſcharged, given or grant- , without any Fee or other thing paying to any perſon or perſons, for Writing or Entry the Judgments, or other Cauſe, concerning ſuch Plea, Writing or Entry, but only Sixteen pence to be paid to the Officer or Clerk, that ſhall Enter ſuch Plea or Matter for Judgment, or the Parties Diſcharge in that behalf; Any Law, Cuſtom or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Pardon to be taken moſt beneficially for the Subject.

VII. And furthermore his Majeſty is contented and pleaſed that it be enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That this his Free Pardon, by the General Words, Clauſes, and Sentences before rehearſed, ſhall be reputed, deemed, adjudged, expounded, allowed and taken, in all manner of Courts of his Majeſty, and elſewhere, moſt beneficial and available, to all and ſingular the ſaid Subjects, Bodies Corporate and others before rehearſed, and to every of them in all things, not in this preſent Act excepted and foreprized, without any ambiguity, queſtion or other delay whatſoever, to be made, pleaded, objected or alledged by the Kings Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, or by his or any of their General Attorney or Attorneys, or by any perſon or perſons for his Majeſty, or any of his Heirs or Succeſſors.

Puniſhment of Officer making out Proceſs againſt or receiving Money of perſon pardoned.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any Officer or Clerk of any of his Majeſties Courts, commonly called the Chancery, Kings Bench, Common Pleas or Exchequer, or any other Officer or Clerk of any other his Majeſties Courts, within this Realm, at any time after the Laſt day of Trinity Term, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety five, make out or write out any Writs, Proceſs, Summons, or other Precept, whereby any of the ſaid Subjects, or of the Bodies Corporate, or others before Rehearſed, or any of them, ſhall be in any wiſe Arreſted, Attached, Diſtrained, Summoned, or otherwiſe vexed, inquieted or grieved in his or their Bodies, Lands, Tenements, Good or Chattels, or any of them, for, or becauſe of any manner of thing Pardoned or Diſcharged by virtue of this Act; or if any Sheriff or Eſcheator, or any their Deputy or Deputies, or any Bayliff or other Officer whatſoever, by colour of his or their Office or otherwiſe, after the ſaid Laſt day of Trinity Term, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety five, do levy, receive, take or withhold, of, or from any perſon or perſons, any thing pardoned or diſcharged by this Act, that then every ſuch perſon, ſo offending, and thereof lawfully Convicted or Condemned by any ſufficient Teſtimony, Witneſs or Proof, ſhall yield and pay, for recompence thereof, to the party ſo grieved or offended thereby, his or their treble damages, beſides all coſts of the Suit, and ſhall alſo Forfeit and Loſe to the Kings Majeſty for every ſuch offence Ten pounds: And nevertheleſs all and ſingular ſuch Writs, Proceſs, and Precepts ſo to be made, for, or upon any manner of thing pardoned or diſcharged by this preſent Act of Free Pardon, ſhall be utterly void and of none effect.
